THE DAYSPRING ADVANCING.

Night wraps the realm when Jesus woke,
No guiding star the Magi see,
And heavy hangs oppression's yoke
Where first the Gospel said "Be free."

And where the harps of angels bore
High message of the shepherd throng,
"Good will and peace" are heard no more
To murmur Bethlem's vale along.

Swayth India with her idol train,
Bend low by Ganges worshipped tide,
Or drowns the suttee's shriek of pain,
With thundering gong of Pagan pride.

On Persia's hill the Sophi grope;
Dark Burmah greets salvation's ray;
Even jealous China's door of hope
Unbars to give the Gospel way.

Old Ocean, with his isles, awakes,
Cold Greenland feels unwonted flame,
And humble Afric wondering takes
On her sad lips a Saviours name.

Their steps the forest children stay,
Round to Oblivion's voiceless shore,
And lift their red brows to the day
Which from the opening sky doth pour.

Then aid with PRAYER that holy light
Which from eternal death can save,
And bid Christ's heralds speed their flight,
Ere millions find a hopeless grave.

CONSOLATION.—AN EPIGRAM.

A prim city girl,
With a frown, and a curl
Of her lip that proclaimed her a scoffer,
As spike in a panic
That John—a mechanic—
Had affronted her pride with an "offer."
"'Tis exceedingly queer,"
I acknowledge, my dear,"
Retorted a sorrowing brother—
"But you may depend,
To your very life's end,
You'll never be pained with another!"

VARIETY.

"Bob Collier."—Of the Reverend William Collier, B. D., (universally called "Bob Collier,") I have previously spoken, as having taken an emigrant countess under his protection. He had been Tutor of the College, and was for nearly twenty years Professor of Hebrew; he was an admirable classic, and particularly well versed in modern languages at that time a very rare accomplishment in the University. Collier led a most dissolute life; he was also a notorious gourmand. An anecdote I had from his own mouth will prove his title to the latter character. "When I was last in town," said he, "I was going to dine with a friend, and passed through a small court, just as a lad was hanging up a board on which was this tempting inscription,—

"A roast pig this instant set upon the table!"

The invitation was irresistable—ordered a quarter; it was very delicate and very delicious. I despatched a second, and a third portion; but was constrained to leave one quarter behind, as my dinner hour was approaching, and my friend was remarkably punctual." His appearance was precisely that of a friar as caricatured on the English stage. I remember being present at Stourbridge Theatre when the Spanish Friar was performed. On the entrance of the Friar, all eyes were turned from the stage to the side box where the Professor was sitting; for so perfect was the resemblance that many persons expected to find his seat vacant.

A DWARF RACE OF MEN IN SOUTH AMERICA.—The Newport Mercury gives an interesting account of a singular race of dwarfs in Upper Peru (Bolivia) known as "Chiquitos," or 'little men.' Everything connected with them seems to indicate that they are indigenous, though their general appearance gives the impression of people reduced in stature by poverty and hardship. The tallest are not more than four feet and a half in height, while many will not measure more than three and a half. Their legs, apparently are devoid of muscles, their eyes black and elongated, nose aquiline, cheeks drawn in, with high cheek bones, forehead low and retreating, hair black and wiry, and mouth tending to muzzle. They travel south, on foot, and are often absent from home two or three years, returning with small hoards of silver gained in traffic; travelling about five or six miles a day. From long habit they can do without food for an extraordinary length of time, supporting nature by sucking coco-leaf, gathered from a shrub analagous to the betel nut of the East Indies. It is equivalent to tobacco, laudanum, or a strong infusion of tea; and it is only when their animal, die of disease that they have a plentiful supply of food. Their covering is a coarse kind of cloth which they prepare themselves. Their abodes are rude huts, and when travelling, they sleep on the ground, huddled together to keep warm on the dry cold desert where they are principally found.

WESTERN ETIQUETTE.—Our Yankee traveller who saw the live hoosier, has again written to his mother:

"Western people go their death on etiquette. You can't tell a man here that he lies, as you can down east, without fighting. A few days ago, a man was telling two of his neighbours, in my hearing, a pretty large story. Says I—'Stranger; that's a whopper!' Says he, 'Lay there, stranger!' And in the twinkling of an eye I found myself lying in the ditch a perfect quadruped, the worse for wear and tear.

Upon another occasion, says I to a man I never saw before, as a woman passed, 'that isn't a specimen of your Western women, is it?' Says he 'you are afraid of the fever and ague, stranger, ain't you?' 'Very much,' says I. 'Well,' replied he, 'that lady is my wife, and if you don't apologise in two minutes, by the honor of a gentleman, I swear that these two pistols (which he held in his hand) shall cure you of that disorder entirely—so dont fear stranger!' So I knelt down and politely apologised. I admire the Western country much; but curse me if I can stand so much etiquette; it always takes me unawares!"

The Ohio State Journal tells a story of an Irishman of the better class, who thought he must conform to the fashionable mania in paying a visit to the Falls of Niagara. "Gentleman" Paddy arrived at the Falls, and taking a look at the surrounding wonders, addressed himself to another gentleman:—"And is that the Niagara Falls?" 'Yes,' was the reply. "And what's there to make such a bother about?" "Why," said the gentleman, "do you see the mighty river, the deep abyss, the great sheet of water pouring down?" Pat, looking at the water, replied hesitatingly, "And sure, what's to hinder it?"

THE NEW SHAKESPEARIAN PLAY.—A new play has been performed in Yankeeland, dictated by Shakspeare to a "medium!" His admirers will regret to hear that he has sadly degenerated since he has left the earth. Here is a description of a star that was afflicted with temporary insanity:—

Through the swift-parting spheres
A star ran madly, paused, and scram'd,
Then, over-night, with wicked whirl,
Pitched itself into space!

WHAT MAKES IT DARK?—We find the following beautiful anecdote in the editors table of the January number of Graham: "We know a beautiful little blue eyed girl, of some three years old, who was nestled in her mothers arms at twilight, looking out at the stars. 'Mother,' said she, 'it is getting dark.' 'And, what makes it dark, Caroline?' said her mother. 'Because God shuts his eyes,' replied the little poet."—American Paper.

The far-famed Medicine!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONSTIPATED ASTHMA, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following Testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

Sir,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored to me a vigour to the chest and digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

Jan'y. 1st, 1853. (Signed) H. MIDDLETON.

PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir.—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs, her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

Nov. 23, 1852. (Signed.) J. GAMIS.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square Winchester.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed since, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged servant,

Oct. 8th, 1852. (Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 15th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. Captain Jackson, at this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions, he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,

(Signed) G. BRIGGS.

John Westmorland, Esq.

The Subscriber having been appointed Agent to the above Company for New-Brunswick, begs to announce that he is prepared to receive Proposals for FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE. The large Capital of the Company, and the number and influence of its Proprietors, enable it to rank with the most eligible Offices, either in America or Europe, with respect to the advantages offered to the Public.

FIRE BRANCH.

Persons assured by this Company are not subject to any covenants or calls to make good losses which may happen to themselves or other, nor do they depend upon an uncertain fund or contribution, the Capital stock of this Company being an unquestionable security to the Assured in case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

LIFE BRANCH.

In addition to the more customary methods of Insurance, the Company likewise Assures Live on any of the following contingencies:—

For the term of One Year, Seven Years, or any other definite period.

For the whole continuance of Life.—The Premiums to cease, after a limited number of Annual Payments.

For Two Joint Lives.—The sum assured to be paid on the death of either.

On the longest of Two or Three Lives.—The sum assured to be payable at the death of the last survivor; or.

The Survivorships.—To secure the payment of the sum assured, if a life A die before another Life B.

For a sum to be payable at age 60, or at death.

Premiums on Credit.—A portion of the Premiums may remain on Credit. Assurances may be effected in various ways, not enumerated, to meet the convenience of parties.

The important advantages afforded by the Company in the Life Branch will include the following viz:—

The Guarantee of an ample Capital, and Exemption of the Assured from liability of Partnership.

Moderate Premiums.

Large Participation of Profits by the Assured amounting to Two-thirds of its net amount, which may be applied at the option of the party effecting the Assurance:—1st. By the immediate payment of the sum so apportioned.—2nd. By an equivalent reduction of future Premiums.—Or, 3rd. By an equivalent increase of the sum assured.

Small Charge for Management.—The expenses of the Office being borne in due proportion by the two Branches.

Prompt Settlement of Claims.

Policies issued by non-payment of the Premium may be renewed within three months, by paying the Premium, with a fine of 10s. per cent., on the production of evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the good state of health of the life assured.

The Company will always be prepared to Purchase the Policies of this Office at their equitable value or will grant a New Policy in lieu thereof without any further payment of Premium, for a sum to be agreed on.

Extra Premiums, suitable to special circumstances, will be accepted to enable a party possessing a Policy on the life of another to guard against the possibility of its being vitiated by the Life departing beyond limits, or by any other cause.

Thirty Days are allowed for the Payment of Premiums after the day on which they respectively Additional Advantages offered to Lives Assured with this Company at St. John, N. B.

I.—RESIDENCE.—Persons assured for the whole term of life will have permission, without the payment of extra Premium, to reside in any part of Europe, or in any place in North America to the north of 38 degrees of North Latitude, but not to the westward of the Mississippi River.

II.—VOYAGES.—They will also, if not seafaring by profession, be allowed, without any extra charge—

To cross and re-cross the Atlantic Ocean, in steamers or first-class sailing-vessels;

To pass from any part of Europe to any other, or from any part of North America to another, within the limits above specified; also,

To pass to and from, but not to reside in any place which shall not be further south than 35 degrees of North Latitude, but not to the westward of Mississippi River.

REMOVAL.

JAMES EUTSON,

Tailor and Draper,

BEGS to inform his friends and customers that he has removed his business to the premises in Germain Street, recently occupied by Br. Miller, where he has opened an assortment of the best West of England CLOTHS, Doeskins and Single Mill Cassimeres, Oxford Mixed Cheviots Scotch TWEEDS, WAISTCOATINGS, and other materials in his line of business, all of the finest quality, and newest style, which he will be happy to make up in a substantial English manner, after the newest fashion, and on reasonable terms.

In returning thanks to his numerous friends and customers for the liberal encouragement received since his commencement in business, he begs to assure them that no exertions on his part shall be spared to merit a continuance of their favors.

To the Officers of H. M. Army.

J. E. would beg to state that having been for years employed in the Cutting Department of HARTT'S Military Tailors, 26 Pall Mall, he is prepared to execute in a superior style all orders with which he may be entrusted.
