Local News

Wins the Prize.
Mr. E. Cutmore of the Brantford Cold Storage Company has been successful in the recent birthday contest of the Dominion Tire Company of Berlin, being the winner of an automobile tire.

Games in February
At a meeting of the executive of the city hockey league held last evening, it was decided to play the games of the schedule in February, as the rink cannot be secured this month. The games will probably start the first week of February.

Woodmen of the World.
Brantfrod Camp No. 12, W.O.W., will hold a joint meeting in their lodge rooms with Grand Valley Camp on Friday night, when the latter will affiliate with them. A supper will be sreved, and it is requested that all members of these camps be present.

Nothing New in Ward 2.
Mr. Joseph Minshall, aldermanic candidate in Ward 2 whom Mr. Woolams defeated at the polls by two votes, has not returned from Springfield, Ill. It could not, therefore, be learned whether or not Mr. Minshall will ask for a recount. Mr. Minshall is expected home Friday evening.

It Was Slippery.
The fine fall of rain and the coldness of the atmosphere was responsible for the slippery streets this morning. Pedestrians going to work this morning had a very hard time of it. The city came to the rescue and had saw dust sprinkled over the walks.

At Colborne Street.
At the meeting of the Colborne St. Church Debating Society last evening the Government introduced a bill calling for the exclusion of all Asiatics from Canada until such time as labor conditions right themselves. There was a deadlock, the bill going through by the spectators voting for the government.

A Nasty Accident
When Rev. Gordon and Mrs Berry of Rose Bay, Sydney, Australia, who have been staying with their son and daughter, Mr and Mrs F. Webster, 80 Erie avenue, were leaving the house to take the train for Detroit this morning, Mrs Gerry slipped on the icy steps and broke her ankle. Medical aid was summoned and the unfortunate lady was attended to.

Grace Church A. Y. P. A.
Grace Church A. Y. P. A. met in the Sunday school on Monday evening. The meeting was in the form of a copper social, which proved a decided success, and a goodly sum was realized. During the evening games and music were in order, after which refreshments were served. It has been decided to hold the annual sleigh ride to Paris next Monday, weather permitting. The sleighs will leave the church at 7.30.

An Exhibition.
Hugh Cameron and Co., agents of the Waterous and Seagrave companies are this week delivering a fine motor truck to the City of Toronto. It is being shipped through Brantford to-morrow and will be unloaded here for the purpose of giving an exhibition. To-morrow afternoon the city council will watch its effectiveness under winter conditions. The truck will be run to Terrace Hill and will be tried out. Brantford's fire and light committee have been figuring on a purchase of a motor truck for some time and this year the purchase may be made.

TWENTY THOUSAND MORE IMMIGRANTS

Came to Ontario From Great Britain 1913 Than in 1912.

British immigration to Ontario for the year 1913 shows a total of 62,573, as compared with 44,435 for 1912, an increase of 18,000 and from the number of letters and enquiries now pouring in from the old land, it appears assured that the present year will see an even greater increase.

Since the beginning of the year, about a hundred new arrivals have come in, but all of these, with the exception of some domestics, were placed outside the city with farmers. Although domestics will be kept here all other British immigrants coming in for the next two months will be placed on farms. A wage of $10 a month with board and lodging is now being paid by the farmers, and it is contended by the officials that this is much better than allowing immigrants to come to the city to perhaps swell the ranks of the unemployed.

It is not expected that the rush from the old country will commence until March 1, when the sum of $50 now required to be possessed by those coming in will be reduced to $25. After April 1, farm hands and domestics will be admitted without possession of a stated amount of money.

WARDENSHIP OF THE COUNTY

Milmine and Cooke Are Candidates—Jennings Will Not Contend.

From what can be learned from the township council representatives who will, by virtue of their office, make up Brant's County Council this year, the fight for the Wardenship is between William Milmine of Burford and Geo. Cooke of Oakland, both reeves, respectively, of their townships. The chances, it is said, favor Milmine, because Burford has been without the Wardenship for some time, and it is believed it is Burford's turn. On the other hand, Reeve Cooke has rendered good service in council and has a strong following. Reeve Jennings of Brantford said he was out of the contest entirely for the warden's chair.

The members of Brant County Council this year are as follows:

Brantford—Reeve, Hudson Jennings; first deputy reeve, A. J. McCann; second deputy reeve, R. Greenwood.

Oakland—Reeve, Geo. A. Cook.

South Dumfries—Reeve, O. A. Wait.

Burford—Reeve, W. Milmine; deputy reeve, Marshall Burgis.

Onondaga—Reeve, James E. Walker.

Paris—Reeve, Stroud; deputy reeve,

FOREIGNERS ARE IN A QUANDARY

Local Man Who Had Their Money Said to be Missing.

M. Shafron, who is the proprietor of a little establishment in King street, is reported to be missing. He obtained a ticket for Winnipeg, and cannot be located, and as he has been the practical treasurer for the foreign population in Brantford, he is said to have several thousand dollars belonging to the people with whom he deals. He has been trusted by them with large sums of money, which he is asked to send to the native homes of the foreigners, and his disappearance is causing considerable anxiety among his clients.

Against Capital Punishment
Last evening at the meeting of the Farringdon Debating Society the abolition of capital punishment was discussed in parliamentary debate, and it was decided that life imprisonment should take its place.

Completing Wall
The large centre wall and abutment along the line of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, on the south side of Lorne bridge, will likely be completed to-morrow night by P. H. Secord and Sons, the contractors for same, who will then start on making the abutment on the other side of the canal.

Carving Up Terrace
The Parks Board having left the locating of the Hydro poles along Jubilee Terrace with City Engineer Jones, the work is now proceeding. This is a portion of the line from the Brant station to the Greenwich St. station in this city. The main transformers for the local station have arrived and are being unloaded. Service transformers are being put up on the poles in the city.

FINED FOR THEFT FROM COAL YARD

Two Foreigners Had to Pay $25 Each in Police Court.

Mr. D. McDonald, a coal importer, missed quite a large quantity of coal of a special quality. He consequently complained and Detective Chapman rooted out three people who were thought to have some knowledge of the missing coal.

They were Bruno Galkowski, Tom Glakowski and Simon Campura, the last named being absent but represented by his wife. In the court they denied the charges and submitted that any coal that was found in the house had been bought honestly in various quantities and stored.

Detective Chapman gave the story of his search. He went to the houses of defendants at 10, 176 and 174 Pearl street. Upon arrival at one of the houses he asked if there was any coal in the house and was told that there was not and that the entrance to to the cellar was from the outside. A search was made and eventually the trap door to the cellar was found inside the house. In the cellar was found a quantity of coal, estimated at about one and one-half to two tons. The detective said he had never seen coal so nicely packed as was the coal in the cellar. Coal, said to be of the particularly kind missing, was found in each of the other houses.

For the defendants it was stated that they had receipts for coal which had been purchased in November from Mr. McDonald. But the magistrate did not se how these men could have saved such a quantity of coal, when they only bought half a ton at a time. Mr. McDonald's coal yard is opposite the doors of the defendants.

The magistrate decided that they were guilty and fined them $25 each or two months.

Campura, whose wife represented him was not fined and the case against him was adjourned until Friday when he in person might be present.

An Arabian's Case.
An Arabian whose knowledge of English fluctuated to his convenience, proved a merry yet earnest character in the court to-day. He peddles the usual class of goods customary to the sons of Arabia, and it was through the thought that he was going to lose a little of his property, without receiving the cash, that caused the rumpus.

Last night on Market street someone had apparently played a joke on him, and he thereupon rushed into a local hotel and got after an innocent man who he thought was having one over him. This man said he thought it was a madman who was after him, so furious was the Arabian, who caught defendant in an awkward predicament. Listening to the evidence, he interrupted with a fluent "Yes," but when questioned as to a purchase price he deemed it wise to misunderstand. His story, as far as it was comprehendable, was that a man purchased an article from him on the street and tried to do him on the deal. He rushed into the hotel after the man, and was on his track when the police arrived and took him into custody.

The magistrate thought it was a case of mistaken identity and that the defendant was, if anything, a little too earnest. He advised the smiling Arabian to be more careful and let him go.

AT THE COLONIAL.

The bill of fare as served up at the Colonial Theatre for the beginning of this week is excellent. The artists are of the refined drawing room type and the pictures top-notchers. As a trapeze act, the performance of the Flying Werntz Duo was thrilling and their feats in mid-air were warmly applauded by a large audience. A novelty musical act by Blonidgen introducing Xylophones and Saxophones and other uncommon instruments was well taken, whilst a funny pair, Beverly and Mackey supplied the evening comedy. "Hidden Fires" is an unusual class of picture and its unexpectedness is peculiarly exciting. Another fine film "A Bride from the Sea," is a tale at once pathetic and stirring. The Colonial is well worth a visit this week.
