BOSTON, Aug. 11.—Sergt. Archie Todd who was found by reporters here yesterday on the state rifle range, says that he saw Lieut. Sutton shot and that he will return to Annapolis to testify. He declares that Sutton dropped after four shots had been fired in the dark from the direction in which he had heard Adams and Osterman's voices calling to Sutton to stop running.

Evelyn Thaw Penniless

NEW YORK, August 11. — Evelyn Nesbit Thaw declared tday that there was no truth in the report that she would bring suit for $100,000 against her husband, Harry K. Thaw, or against any member of the Thaw family. She said, however, that her usual monthly remittance of $480 from her husband had not been received this month, that she was practically penniless, and did not know where her next dollar was coming from. "I don't really know what I can or will do in my present plight," said Mrs. Thaw.

Was Not Drowned

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 11.—Basing his statements on measurements taken yesterday, Deputy Prosecutor Ralph Woods says he is convinced Margaret Curveau could not have been drowned near the place indicated by John Flynn in his testimony concerning the drowning tragedy of July 25. Further, he said that the father of the girl, Louis Curveau, has reached the same opinion after this last investigation.

No Strike at Sydney.

SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 11.—There will be no strike this week at the collieries of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal company, although it was generally expected that a meting of the U. M. W. of America members would be held this afternoon for the purpose of voting on the question. Before a strike is declared a vote of the local lodges will be taken, and this, according to David Neilson, a local board member, will not be done this week. Mr. Neilson further states that so far as he knew, the U. M. W. at Sydney mines had no intention of striking.

To Check Student Rowdyism

TORONTO, August 11.—In order to check rowdyism at the opening of the session of McMaster University, the authorities today issued the following notice: "McMaster university discountenances all proceedings commonly known as 'hazing' and expects the faculty and students to do their utmost to promote a healthy tone of feeling against such conduct. It is considered a gross misdemeanor for a student to interfere in any way with the personal liberty of another, and students who participate in such proceedings render themselves liable to immediate expulsion from the university."

Montreal Jail Den of Vice

MONTREAL, August 11.—That Montreal jail was nothing better than a school of vice, where prisoners were corrupted instead of corrected, was one of a series of several statements against the Montreal women's jail by Judge Choquet, when dealing with the case of two young girls known to be of questionable virtue, whom he finally sentenced to two years in penitentiary as the only means of insuring their future good conduct. He characterized the jail as a recruiting ground for infamous purposes, where the women banded together and formed plans for a life of vice when they were finally released.

Bitter Fight Over Budget

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The struggle over the budget is being fought on both sides, inside and outside of parliament, with unabated zeal. The United States government has been compelled to make reluctant admissions that its financial proposals are less unpopular in that country than had been supposed, and this admission has encouraged David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, to stand fast by the main lines of his budget, although he has made numerous minor concessions in it. The last of these, announced today, is the abandonment of the tax on minerals not yet mined in favor of some scheme for mineral royalties.

Storm in New Brunswick

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 11.—One of the wildest storms in the history of the province has passed over tonight. In a short time after the first squall struck at 5 p. m. the waves in river and harbor were lashed to unusual heights, and many accidents occurred. Outside in the bay the seas were running mountains high. All the shipping is tied up here. At Middedgeville several large yachts of the Kennebecasis Yacht club were driven ashore and wrecked, and many yachts and motor boats were wrecked at Rothesay and other places on the river. In the city trees were blown down and signs demolished. Water flowed down the streets in torrents. It is feared considerable damage was done to vessels.

King at Calais

CALAIS, Aug. 11.—King Edward arrived here and proceeded immediately by special train for Marienbad.

C. P. R. Earnings

MONTREAL, Aug. 11.—Canadian Pacific railway earnings for the week ending August 7 were $1,627,000, an increase of $157,000.

Heavy Fire Loss

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 11.—The large Morocco manufacturing plant of A. B. Hoffman & Son was burned tonight at a loss of nearly $250,000.

A High Flyer

MILAN, Aug. 11.—The balloon Albatross, piloted by Liet Mina, ascended to a height of 11,000 metres, or over seven miles, which is believed to be a world's record.

Killed by Fall

TORONTO, Aug. 11.—Morris Jackson died in the hospital today from injuries received by falling down an elevator at the Stewart, Howe and Meek building, King street and Spadina avenue yesterday.

Plugged at Last

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Ralph Gascone, proprietor of a Mulberry street cafe, who served thirty-two months in Sing Sing after his conviction for murder, was shot down and mortally wounded in front of his cafe tonight, by a man whose brother he killed four years ago.

Accused of Theft.

BROCKVILLE, Aug. 11.—In the police court here Miss Grace Henderson, late cashier for the Thousand Islands railway of Ganaque, was committed for trial on a charge of converting to her own use a cheque for $500, issued by the Ganaque Spring and Axle Works to the railway for freight charges.

Two Nuns Drowned

MONTREAL, Aug. 11.—Miss Isabelle Parent, 28 years old, of Bordeaux, and Miss Merest, 58 years old, of St. Cyprien, two nuns, were struck by a train while crossing the railroad bridge at Bordeaux and thrown into the waters below. Both sisters disappeared instantly, and were not seen again alive. The body of one of the victims was recovered some hours afterwards. Parties are at work searching for the other victim.

Balloon Crosses Alps.

CHAMOUNIX, France, Aug. 11.—The balloon Sirius has succeeded in flying over the Alps. The Sirius left here last Sunday under the pilotage of M. Spelterine, who had with him three passengers. Fears were entertained for the safety of the voyagers, but they have been dispelled by the receipt of a report that they have landed safely at a point near Locarno, at an altitude of 6,400 feet. The four men, however, still have a dangerous path to cover on foot from the place where they landed into Locarno.

Duke Climbs High.

ALLAHBAD, India, Aug. 11.—The Duke of the Abruzzi has established another record in mountain climbing. He ascended Mount Goodwin-Austen to a height of 26,600 feet. Perfect weather was encountered during the ascent, and the members of the party have arrived at Bandipur in excellent health. Goodwin-Austen is the name given in 1888 by the Royal Geographical society to the Himalayan peak, K. 2, in 35 degrees 53 minutes north, 76 degrees, 34 minutes east, in honor of the first explorer of the mountains of this region. It is the highest known summit in the world except Everest, altitude 28,265.

NEARLY PERISH

Miss Brydone-Jack and Girl Friend Have Dangerous Adventure in New Brunswick

St. John, N. B., Aug. 11.—Miss Gladys Brydone-Jack, of Vancouver, daughter of Dr. E. Brydone-Jack, prominent in British Columbia society, and Marion Milledge, a well-known society girl of this city, had a terrible experience on the Kennebecasis river near here while yachting during heavy squalls yesterday afternoon. Dr. Brydone-Jack and family are summering on the Kennebecasis, and the girls started in a small yacht to sail around the island. When in the middle of the river a squall struck the boat, overturning it. The girls were thrown into the water, but being good swimmers climbed on the boat and for two hours they clung to the boat, while people on shore watched. Finally they were rescued after great difficulty and in an exhausted condition.

PROVINCIAL NEWS TOLD IN FEW WORDS

Hon. Mr. Templeman was banqueted at Prince Rupert on Monday last.

Construction of a new Roman Catholic church has begun at Prince Rupert.

Slocan City—which is one of the deceased metropoli of the Kootenay—is likely to revert to the government in the near future.

Rossland gave a big smoker in honor of John Oliver a few evenings ago and presented the belligerent member for Delta with a handsome pipe.

Harcourt Poole, a young man well known in the Revelstoke district, has been drowned at Wigwam, overtaken by heart failure while bathing.

An expert from Ottawa declares that salmon will soon be extinct on the Coast unless fish-traps are prohibited and larger hatcheries established.

Rev. Mr. Rushbrook lat week performed the marriage ceremony at Essington for Mr. Frederick Lewis, of Kitkatlo, and Miss Lizzie Nelson.

Port Essington has dedicated with impressive ceremonies its new Anglican church, built to replace the one destroyed by fire and dynamite in January last.

The case against Henry Waites, arrested at Vancouver for the theft of $70 from a logger at Ladysmith, has been abandoned, the evidence being very slight.

Mr. Linwood L. Boomer and Miss E. M. Gill have been united in marriage, and after seeing the Seattle exposition will take up their residence at Greenwood.

Professor Prince is quoted as authority for the statement that for color and flavor the humpback salmon is a daintier dish than either the spring or sockeye. Millions of these humpbacks are wasted every season.

Miss Florence Davis, of Rossland, had bought a ticket and was on the point of departure for Sydney, Australia, where she was to be married, when she received a cablegram informing her of the very serious illness of her fiance.

Mr. W. Fleet Robertson, provincial mineralogist, is making a trip up to the head of Elk river, across to the Palliser and White river, down the White, across the divide to Sheep creek and out to civilization by way of Fort Steele.

Alexander Smith, better known as "Scotty" Smith, was found dead in an old barn at Port Guichon last Saturday. Just what was the cause of death is not known, although it is suspected that it was the result of opium poisoning. The viscera has been sent to Vancouver for a thorough analysis, when the jury will complete its work.

The party of eleven timber cruisers under Mr. J. Burke, which has been estimating the amount of timber on the limits of the P. D. Hills company, have completed their work and came down on the Amur. Some excellent timber, about half of which is hemlock of the finest quality, was found. There is also a great extent of spruce and yellow cedar. The party had a hard trip.

In the course of operations at the property of the Fife Mines, Ltd., at Fife, at a point known as the "Glory Hole," a remarkable showing has just been uncovered. For a distance of some twenty-five feet across, clean gold-copper ore is sown up, with a body of copper carbonates lying midway, which has yielded results on assay of from $24 to $33 per ton. The clean ore assays from $14 to $18. Several carloads of this ore have now been mined and are all ready for shipment, the road to the railway from the dumps being now complete.

The Passing of Knoxville

Knoxville, the neighbor of Prince Rupert, is passing away. Last week saw several important changes. The Cariboo hotel has been sold piecemeal. The lumber has been purchased by W. C. Carpenter who will use it in the construction of a hotel at Prince Rupert. The contents have been sold elsewhere. McKinnon's bakery has already been moved. The Red Front picked up his sign and walked, leaving a "for sale" sign on his door. The Dominion theatre will show in Port Essington during the transitory stage. The Dominion hotel likewise has the flitting notion. Mrs. LaTrace will move to First avenue.

Promoting Good Roads

Earl Grey and party are expected to spend a couple of weeks camping in the Windermere district in northeast Kootenay, and will then take the Kootenay river trail to Banff, coming in by way of the Simpson Pass. The British Columbia government are spending a considerable sum in repairing the trail to the summit, and Commissioner Douglas will send a gang to fix up the trail from the Simpson Pass to Banff. The guides of the park would be pleased to have Earl Grey make yearly trips in the park if the authorities would continue the policy of making "the rough places smooth" for his excellency.

Generous With Promises

Hon. Mr. Templeman, who is visiting the Atlin district, his constituency, has been given a very cordial reception at Prince Rupert, where the many necessities of the section were duly presented by the board of trade. Responding to these representations the minister promised: $10,000 subsidy for mail and passenger boat from Prince Rupert to Queen Charlotte Islands and Portland Canal; handsome public buildings for post office and customs; reduced telegraphic rate to Vancouver and cut rates at night; quarantine station from Hon. Sydney Fisher; wireless telegraph from Marine Department; supplies for government work in the district to be purchased at Prince Rupert; one lighthouse boat stationed there.

Rich Mineral Strikes

"Forty feet wide and plastered with yellow." Such was the message recently brought out by a pack train from the Kildare Mining company's placer workings, in the Ingenika country. Mr. Devoine, of the Omineca Herald, who is "outside" on business, is most enthusiastic about the mining prospects in and around Hazelton. There are about 40 men working around the Ingenika and Findlay rivers. Reports sent out by the Condit Brothers, state that they have struck it richer than ever on Lost Creek. The Nine Mile Mountain, Salmon Creek and Twenty Mile Creek districts, are proving very extensive. Silver and lead quartz found over this whole area is proving very valuable indeed. Values run about 20 ounces of silver to each percentage of lead, or about $100 a ton. Gold in places shows as high as $15.
