The business man of to-day has very little time to spend reading his morning paper and therefore wants to get all the news in short, readable form. About Country Roads.

The Globe expresses surprise that, though the cities are straining every nerve to provide better streets, in country parts there is very little improvement in roadways. Now, if The Globe will only encourage its friends in the Legislative Assembly to vote as their consciences must dictate, against the continued absurdity of statute labor and toll-bars, we shall have good roads throughout the province in five years. Left to himself the farmer is unprogressive, and delights to stay in the rut of his boyhood. Once he were given the joy of good roads to market and between farms, he would appreciate the boon and not grudge the tax. He knows better than anybody the howling farce of statute labor, a duty often discharged under the superintendence of a man who knows as much of roadmaking as he does of Greek grammar. The fact is the farmers think they are cheating each other in putting in half time, and less than half a day's work, and forget that each is the victim of the other's malpractices. As to tolls, a farmer who will stop to think of their effect must be aware that the cost of collection if laid out on the next parallel road would keep that road also in as good condition as the so-called turnpike, and he would have two for one.

Ned Clarke's New Year's box—a fourth term and a walkover.

President Harrison and Behring Sea.

The message from President Harrison at the opening of the fifty-first Congress on Monday is a pattern of dulness.

There are only two points in it which anyone on this side the line will bestow a moment's thought upon, and even these are notable chiefly for having no light thrown upon them.

There is the Behring Sea question, with respect to which the President merely says that it is not yet adjusted. Nor is it likely to be so as long as the President continues to talk, as he does in his message, of a property right of the United States derived from Russia. This is just the point which Great Britain is not prepared to admit without investigation. To do so would be practically to give up her case. If the Government persist in regarding this as a sealed question an international agreement covering the preservation of the fur seal is as far off as ever.

The Globe says that Sir John Macdonald passed the McKinley Bill—that is, the Old Man is to blame because the Canadian farmer has lost the American market for his eggs. Of course, the United States Congress had nothing whatever to do with passing the measure.

The Globe is at its old work of attempting to wreck the county. It is being attacked with a terrible nightmare—a fear that the Canadian farmer might find a market in Great Britain for his eggs.

What's the use of our Canadian farmers kicking about a market for eggs? There seems to be a pretty good market right here in Toronto at present. What's the matter with 28 cents per dozen?

Melinda Dyed, But Lived!

Dick Fordham drew up his dashing horse at his best girl's gate, and jumped down from his buggy, and opening the gate walked towards the front door, where he met Melinda's young brother, Tommy, who was eating a banana.

"Well, Tommy, how are you and all the others to-day?"

"Oh, we are very well, but sister Melinda dyed this afternoon in the back kitchen."

"What! died Tommy?"

"Yes, Mr. Fordham, and mother is with her now, watching her."

Dick Fordham, pale and trembling, dashed unceremoniously toward the back kitchen at the rear of the house, and entered breathless.

"Oh, Dick!" Melinda exclaimed, "are you ill? What has happened to you? Mother, he is fainting!"

Dick took the seat nearest him, and after recovering his breath endeavored to explain matters, after which Melinda's mother went off to look for her son Tommy, who fortunately for himself had retired to a hiding place in the barn.

Dick never before felt so happy, and at the same time so proud of Melinda, as he did while viewing the finishing of the dyeing operation with Diamond Dyes. He said he often had heard of Diamond Dyes, but had never known much about their usefulness. Melinda gently hinted that if he ever commenced to keep house he should always remember that Diamond Dyes were necessary for the comfort of a wife.

Dick and Melinda are now married, and young Tommy, who regularly visits them, is often thanked by his brother-in-law for having frightened him by saying "Melinda Dyed."

Diamond Dyes are still the favorites in Mrs. Fordham's house, and she has proved to be a very jewel as a good and economical wife.

At the Police Court.

Constable Allen being now pronounced by the Hospital doctors out of danger the Magistrate yesterday accepted bail for George O'Connell, his alleged assailant, in two sureties of $50 each. A mere lad named William Heatherly of Elm-street was fined $10 and costs or 30 days for drunkenness. Patrick Kelly was committed for four months for theft of boots from the Toronto Shoe Company; Mozart Turner one month, theft of a clock; Fred Curran one month, theft of boots. For breaches of the liquor law Malcolm McFarlane and William Cook were each fined $20 and costs or 30 days. For an aggravated assault on Charles Pearce Alexander Williamson was sent to jail for 10 days. Patrick Norton was committed for trial for refusing to support his wife. John Brien, for feloniously wounding Patrick O'Malley, was remanded till Monday. The charges against Assessor John L. Playter of making unjust and fraudulent assessments of property in York township were adjourned till to-day, except the Davies case, which will not be heard until Robert Davies' return from New York.

Crematory Sites.

Editor World: What better site for the erection of a crematory can be obtained than the shore of Ashbridge's Bay? To a destructor erected in this place the garbage and night soil from a very large portion of the city could be conveyed on flat cars on the street railway, the conveyance being facilitated to a certain extent by a down grade nearly the whole of the way. In this way a considerable portion of the marsh might be reclaimed and the unseemly sight of filth carted through our streets in daytime obviated. If thought advisable one might be erected near Catfish pond, the refuse in that case being utilized to fill in its marshy surroundings, and the malarial tendency claimed by some for the place counteracted.

Toothache cured instantly by using Mc Gibbon's Toothache Gum.

DELAY AND GRAVITATION.

Supt. Hamilton Says the Latter Should Be Given a Complete Rest.

Superintendent Hamilton has made this deliverance on gravitation as a basis of a water supply system:

In reference to the question of supplying the city by gravitation I do sincerely hope the citizens will let that question rest for the present. Give the department pumping plant sufficient for the water that will pass through the new conduit, namely, about 42,000,000. We have now at the utmost 22,000,000 and require two 10,000,000 pumps. When, as I have said before, the citizens will have plenty of time to thoroughly investigate this question, and if the council will place sufficient money in the estimates for next year a complete survey of the position could be made, with borings and all other information properly taken, when a correct estimate of the work could be properly given and a thorough examination of the purity of the water and the source of supply to the lake could be made, but in the meantime the new pumping engines are absolutely necessary.

It will take five or six years to bring water from Lake Simcoe by gravitation even if the scheme were completed and adopted at once, and in the meantime extra pumping plant is required at the main station and must be had to keep the city supplied with water.

Enough, I think, has been written on this subject to prove to the satisfaction of any person that the first thing we require is extra pumping plant, when there will be plenty of time to consider any other scheme.

The Livingston Building.

Business men who look with admiration on the new Board of Trade building at the foot of Yonge-street, would do well to turn their attention to a building opposite, formerly occupied by Messrs. Bryce, McMurrich & Co., wholesale dry-goods merchants. During the occupancy of the above firm this building compared well with its comp ers in Yonge; but now that it has been entirely remodelled from floor to ceiling, those who knew it before would find it difficult of recognition.

The Livingston building may be recommended to men of business in search of offices as in every respect one of the most commodious in the city. Its situation, opposite the Board of Trade building and on the principal street of the city, is itself a great desideratum. Then in its remodelling it has been fitted up with every requirement of modern times. The building is throughout particularly light, airy and spacious. It is fitted up with the electric light, good sanitary arrangements, and a steam heating apparatus that diffuses an equable warmth. There are three floors, with the use of an elevator. The lavatory, etc., make a finely finished piece of work. There are good vaults from the cellar right up.

The present class of tenants sufficiently shows that these offices are to be popular. Offices can be had singly or in suites, and the rent of both is extremely moderate.

A $750 Cottage

Special cash prizes given away almost every day during competition, which closes on Feb. 1, 1891.

About Dry Goods Bargains.

Nearly every reader of ordinary advertisements is made tired with the frequent repetitions of the word bargain, a word more abused than any we know of. Some stores have the good sense not to advertise goods which they cannot produce. One of the most successful advertising stores is McKendry's, 273 Yonge-street. Why? Because the dry goods they advertise are always on hand, and those who go come again. 36

Mrs. W. J. Lang, Bethany, Ont., writes: "I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to worms, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. As a last resort, I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, &c., in fact it is our family medicine.

Help Yourself.

If everybody carried an adequate life insurance policy we would no longer be called upon to "pass around the hat," and the friends of our departed relatives would cease to be sources of expense to us. The life rates in the Manufacturers' of Toronto are to be preferred to those of any other insurance company in Canada. The security is absolute and the payment of claims prompt. tf

Cod Liver Oil.

A Horrible Murder.

A horrible murder involving the loss of one life attracts greater attention than the thousands of deaths occurring annually from scrofula and bad blood. We want to attract attention to Burdock Blood Bitters, the proved and popular remedy for these forms of diseases. It cures even old chronic obstinate cases which have defied all other treatment.

Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N.Y., writes: 'I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most-to-be-dreaded disease, Dyspepsia, and at times worn out with pain and want of sleep, and after trying almost everything recommended, I tried one box of Parmelee's Valuable Pills, and now nearly well, and believe they will cure me. I would not be without them for any money."

For tone and touch, combined with the highest artistic and mechanical excellence, the "Sohmer" New York pianos are undoubtedly unrivalled. Messrs. Suckling & Sons, corner Yonge and Adelaide-streets, are the sole representatives. 136

The Bermuda Cable.

The Bermuda cable now complete, could carry no truer tidings than that Burdock Blood Bitters excels all other remedies in curing diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Known everywhere as the perfect blood purifier, curing even the worst cases when all else fails.

In The Far West.

Away West in British Columbia, Hagyard's Yellow Oil is known and valued highly, as at home in Toronto. Miss Eleanor Pope of Port Haney, B.C., says: "For sore throat, coughs, croup, bruises, etc., Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best thing I have ever used."

Messrs. Stott & Jary, chemists, Bowmanville, write: "We would direct attention to Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, which is giving perfect satisfaction to our numerous customers. All the preparations manufactured by this well-known house are among the most reliable in the market.

Watson's Cough Drops are the best in the world for the throat and chest, for the voice unequalled. Try them.

Since Childhood's Days.

Sirs: I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured my daughter of a cough she had been troubled with since childhood. She is now twelve years old.

Mrs. M. FAIRCHILD, Scotland, Ont.

Good Advice.

If you do not want to injure your liver and kidneys, don't buy baking powder in bulk. Buy the Princina or Borwicke, both are absolutely pure and as cheap as the bad powders. Purity of the Princina and Borwicke proven by the Dominion Government and equally sworn declaration with each package.

Here and There.

Here and there and everywhere may be found persons who have used and now honestly praise Burdock Blood Bitters for its wonderful blood-purifying, cleansing and tonic effects in all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

Now Free From Pain.

Mr. Frank Palmer of Winona, Ont., says: "I have been troubled with lame back for about six months, then thought I would try Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which cured me. Am now free from all pains, and recommend Yellow Oil very highly.

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

Curling Stones.

Messrs. Keith & Fitzsimons of King-street west have received a large consignment of curling stones of the very best quality. As they were bought by that keen old curler, Mr. D. S. Keith, purchasers may rely on their being good value.

WILLIAM GOODERHAM'S WEALTH

A Couple of Bequests Paid Into Court Pending an Ownership—Crisp Legal Gossip From the Hall.

Before the master-in-chambers yesterday the executors of the late William Gooderham moved for leave to pay money into court under the Trustees Relief Act. The executors have in their hands two bequests, one for $100, which was to be paid to the Woman's Christian Boarding House, Duke-street, and one for $3000 to be paid to the Young Woman's Christian Association of Toronto. The lodging house has ceased to exist, and the Young Woman's Guild claim the $3000. An order was made allowing the applicants to pay the money into court, and the question as to who is entitled will have to be settled before the money will be paid out.

Before the Queen's Bench Divisional Court the action of Gilbraison against the Ancient Order of United Workmen was heard. The defendants appeal from the judgment of Chief Justice Armour awarding the plaintiffs $200 and costs. Some time ago Martin Gilbraison of Georgetown, a member of the defendant society, was killed on the N. & N. W. Railway and a claim made on the society. The amount due was $200, but the solicitor of the society represented to the widow of the deceased that as there was suspicion as to the cause of the death of her husband and the society never paid claims on death by suicide she had better compromise the claim. This she did, accepting half the sum and signing a release. Shortly after this the coroner's verdict was given, after careful enquiry into the cause of death, stating that the deceased was killed by a train. The widow then sued the defendants for $450, the amount of the claim not paid, setting up fraud and misrepresentation. At the trial a verdict was given in her favor and it is from this that the defendants now appeal. Judgment was reserved.

Before the Common Pleas Divisional Court in Reg. v. Knell a motion was made for a rule nisi as a step towards setting aside a conviction for selling liquor without a license. The defendant was convicted at Brantford on the evidence of a blind man, the defendant being made to speak in order to let the witness identify him. The rule was granted.

The case of Reg v. Hunt came up before the same court to quash the conviction of the defendant made at Stratford for making an unusual noise on the streets. The defendant was a member of the Salvation Army. The case will be continued on Friday.

In the matter of the arbitration between Kielly and the city of Toronto, Mr. Justice Osler made an order extending the time for making the award till Jan. 7 next.

In the matter of the Hamilton election petition Mr. Justice Maclennan made an order to transmit the ballots and returns to the deputy registrar at Hamilton for use at the trial.

Before Mr. Justice Meredith the action of Mutton v Hoover was concluded and judgment given in favor of the defendants with costs. The action of Lennox v. Guy, to compel the specific performance of an agreement for the exchange of properties, was commenced.

The Chancery Divisional Court commences tomorrow. There are 35 cases set down for hearing by this court.

The motion for issue of the mandamus to the York County Council, in the matter of Chester village, was argued before Chief Justice Galt and judgment reserved.

A writ was yesterday issued by Alfred Gordon and John Beatty of Vaughan township, against Sheriff Widdifield and Constable Rumble, claiming $2000 for false arrest.

Mrs. Martha Fleck issued a writ against her husband, Charles Fleck, of 195 Chestnut-street, for alimony.

Real Estate Active.

Editor World: Dear Sir,—There is an old adage that says, "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country," and the saying is generally accepted as containing much truth. Indeed it is expanded into the generally accepted belief that true merit, whether it be that of an individual, or that of some medicinary preparation is much more likely to meet with popular approval at a distance than at home. Nasal Balm, acknowledged as being the greatest remedy for cold in the head and catarrh, ever offered the people of Canada, affords a striking instance of the fact that popular opinion, for once, at least, is wrong. From the outset its popularity in the home of its manufacture has been unbounded and constantly increasing. In evidence of this we offer testimonials from two Brockville gentlemen who are known throughout the Dominion.

D. Derbyshire, Esq., Mayor of Brockville and for the past two years President of the Ontario Creamery Association, says: "Your Nasal Balm is truly a wonderful remedy. I may say that I was afflicted with a distressing case of catarrh, accompanied by a number of its disagreeable symptoms. I had tried other remedies, but without avail, and had almost despaired of a cure, when I was induced to give Nasal Balm a trial. Its effects were wonderful, and the results arising from its use surprising. Briefly stated, it stops the droppings into the throat, sweetens the breath, relieves the headaches that follow catarrh, and in fact makes one feel altogether like a new man. No one who is suffering from catarrh in any of its stages should lose a moment in giving this remedy a trial."

James Smart, Esq., Brockville, Sheriff of the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, says: "It would be impossible to speak too extravagantly of the wonderful curative properties of Nasal Balm. I suffered for upwards of a month from a severe cold in the head, which, despite the use of other remedies, was becoming worse and developing into catarrh. I procured a bottle of Nasal Balm and was relieved from the first application and thoroughly cured within twenty-four hours. I cheerfully add my testimony to the value of Nasal Balm."

These are but two illustrations out of the hundreds of testimonials the proprietors of Nasal Balm have had from all parts of the Dominion, but they ought to convince the most skeptical. If your dealer does not keep Nasal Balm it will be sent on receipt of price—50 cents small size and $1 large size bottle—by addressing Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont. 36

It Will be a Walking Surgical Force.

There was a meeting yesterday afternoon of the Police Commissioners, all three members being present. Two constables for the rough handling of citizens were fined. It was decided to establish classes for ambulance studies, at which all the policemen are expected to attend. Certain afternoons to be set for lectures on the proper methods of treating people who happen to fall sick on the streets or sustain injury, where immediate medical aid is difficult to obtain. It was also decided to bill the special committee of the Toronto Street Railway for the wear and tear of the clothing of the policemen placed on the corners of streets as enumerators. A number of recruits were approved of and ordered to parade for examination.

Put Me in My Little Bed.

I am dizzy, dizzy, dizzy,
And I want to go to bed;
I've no appetite to eat,
And headache racks my head.

In other words, I am suffering from a bilious attack, but Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will bring me around all right by to-morrow. They often cure headache in an hour. I have found them the best cathartic pill in existence. They produce no nausea or griping, but do their work thoroughly. They are convenient to carry in the vest-pocket and pleasant to take. In vials, 25 cents.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.
