CLAIM MONEY OFFERED TO INJURE PLAYERS

Sensation in Western Hockey—Berlin Team Practices—Notes and Gossip.

A Saskatoon, Sask., despatch says: While the southern part of this province is having its political sensation the northern is having its share of ugly hockey questions. It is reported that one of the Saskatoon executive tried to bribe one of the North Battleford hockey players to put three star players of the Prince Albert team out of business, so that Saskatoon would have an easy time winning an important game. It is said that $125 was placed in the bank to the credit of this player.

Ex-President Haydon of the S.A.H.A. was seen and stated that he would get into communication with President Van Valkenburg at once and he would see that the matter was sifted to the bottom.

Berlin seniors, who meet Riversides in the first game of the senior O.H.A. finals tomorrow night, practiced at the Arena yesterday afternoon. They showed a lot of speed on the big ice and are going to be a hard team to beat. Riversides are ready and waiting.

In the Northern League senior series it has been decided that the winner of the London Overseas-Woodstock series will meet Hamilton R.C. on Wednesday and Friday nights of this week, the same dates to apply between Seaforth and the winner of the Mildmay-Wiarton series.

The Sarnia team will play the first of the intermediate O.H.A. finals at Belleville tonight. The return will be played at Belleville Friday.

Capt. J. T. Sutherland, president of the C.A.H.A., is in receipt of letters from Detroit, Winnipeg, and Boston Arenas stating that the "Nothing doing" sign has been hung out of those rinks for the touring "outlaw" hockey managers who want to pay them a visit. Any of the hockey teams desiring to play can arrange a game with the "outlawed" rinks Cleveland or Pittsburg, where professionals are played only.
