Americans Appear to Have Struck a Snag at Guantanamo.

NO REST FOR THE MARINES NIGHT OR DAY

Spaniards Keep Popping Away From Ambush, But Will Not Reveal Themselves—They Come Up to Within Thirty Yards of the American Camp, Take a Shot and Then Retire—Cubans Got All Mixed Up and Fired at Americans Instead of Spaniards.

ADDITIONAL WAR NEWS ON PAGES 2 AND 8.

WAR NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

The latest from Guantanamo is to the effect that, while the American marines have had the best of the fighting, the situation is grave, as the Spaniards are harassing the Americans day and night, giving them no rest or sleep.

Reports say there is fighting every night around Manila, and that the insurgents are endeavoring to capture the town.

Spanish newspapers are more cheerful because of a belief that Germany will interfere to check the Americans, in return for concessions granted to Germany by Spain in Oceania, and in commercial relations with Morocco.

London papers publish accounts of the bombardment of Santiago which take some of the glamor from the American accounts and show that the damage was not all on one side. The Spanish shooting is stated to have been better than the American, and shots struck the Massachusetts and Suwanee. The sunken collier Merrimac does not block the channel entrance. One correspondent says the Spaniards may fairly claim a victory, as their colors are still floating.

Reports from Spanish sources show that Manila has not yet fallen.

Admiral Sampson's report of the skirmishing at Guantanamo confirms newspaper accounts, and says the bodies of the dead Americans were barbarously mutilated.

The London Times correspondent at Madrid says Santiago is defended by 25,000 Spaniards, and that a land attack by the Americans will prove an undertaking of serious hardship.

The British steamer Ravensdale tried to run the blockade and get to Guantanamo, but shots from the Oregon and Marblehead brought her to, and she was ordered off.

The torpedo destroyer Terror was at San Juan, Porto Rico, on June 6, fully stored with coal and supplies and with steam up.

Santa Clara and two sand batteries at Havana opened fire on one of the American auxiliary cruisers Monday afternoon. No damage was done, but some of the shots were too close for comfort. The gunboat did not reply, but hurried out of range.

Three thousand soldiers embarked yesterday at San Francisco for the Philippines.

It is said Spain has asked the United States to occupy Manila and not let the insurgents have the town.

Lieut. Blue has relieved everybody's anxiety by having discovered certainly that Cervera's fleet is at Santiago. He has seen for himself and counted the ships.

Gen. Shafter's expedition is expected to arrive at Santiago about Friday. A second expedition, destined for Porto Rico, is now engaging the attention of the Washington authorities.

ST. PAUL OFF PORT ROYAL

British Cruiser Talbot Brings Word About the Movements of the Auxiliary Cruiser.

New York, June 14.—(Special to The Toronto World.)—A Kingston, Jamaica, special to The World says: The British cruiser Talbot, which left Havana on June 8, reports that the United States auxiliary cruiser St. Paul was sighted cruising outside Port Royal, evidently waiting to pick up the Spanish steamer Purissima Concepcion, with a cargo of provisions. The Concepcion loaded here and intended to sail for Manzanilla, hoping to run the blockade into that port, but has not yet ventured to leave.

The President is Determined.

A Washington special says: The President has intimated clearly to some Republican Senators, who have opposed the annexation of Hawaii, that, if Congress should fail to act, he would not hesitate to seize the islands as a war measure, and the knowledge was sure to come, has had a demoralizing effect on its opponents. According to the present outlook, Congress may be ready to adjourn by July 1, with all work done which the Administration desires for the successful prosecution of the war.

Three Armies Afloat.

Washington special to The Journal: Three armies of invasion are now on the sea, and Secretary Alger has issued hurry orders to put a fourth one in motion for Porto Rico, and to begin the assembling of the main army, destined eventually to capture Havana.

SUSPICIOUS OF GERMANY.

Officials at Washington Are Uneasy About the Situation in the Philippines.

New York, June 14.—(Special to The Toronto World.)—A Washington special to The World says: It can be positively stated that the Administration fears serious complications in the Philippines, notwithstanding the denials of the State Department officials concerning the movements of German warships in the direction of Manila. The first expedition to Manila is under orders to hasten there without delay. There is danger, however, that Germany will have a large fleet there before our troops arrive.

Fight Expected Sunday.

Washington special to The World: Lieut.-General Linares, who commands the Spanish garrison at Santiago, has been reinforced by detachments from the divisions of Gens. Luque, Aldare and Maach, in Holguin, Manzanilla, and Puerto Principe. According to the best information obtainable by the War Department, the three divisions named comprise 33 battalions of infantry, 12 squadrons of cavalry, 4 mountain batteries, 6 companies of engineers, 4 companies of fortress artillery and 4 transport corps. Cervera, though in no position to fight his ships, may throw the crews of the warships and the coast guard vessels, numbering together 2575 men, into the fight. It is believed here that Shafter's army of invasion, 773 officers and 11,514 enlisted men, will have a collision with the Spanish on Sunday. Shafter will have the aid of the 2000 to 5000 insurgents in the hills about Santiago.

The Mutilated Dead.

A Mole St. Nicholas special to The World says: The auxiliary cruiser St. Louis has arrived with despatches from Admiral Sampson. The report that the Spaniards after the Guantanamo fight mutilated the American dead is verified. The officer who saw the bodies of the dead men says the character of he mutilation is too horrible for description.

THE SITUATION IS GRAVE.

U. S. Marines at Guantanamo Can Get No Rest Because of Attacks Day and Night.

Camp of the United States Marines, Outer Harbor of Guantanamo, Monday, June 13, Noon, by the Associated Press Despatch Boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 14.—(7 a.m.)—After two nights of hard fighting the American flag still floats on Cuban soil over the encampment of the Marine battalion.

Thus far, the Marines have had the best of the fighting, but the situation is grave and they are exhausted with repelling almost incessant attacks. They have little chance to rest or sleep, and the time of the arrival of the relieving troops is uncertain. Were it not for the protecting guns of the fleet the little band would be annihilated by the Spanish troops, in overwhelming numbers, from Santiago de Cuba. As it is they probably can hold their position; but, they cannot move forward until reinforced by troops.

It is Now Grim Reality.

What first, with the white tents on a bold eminence against the tropic background, looked like a holiday camp, is now grim reality. The tents have been struck and rolled into breastworks, supplemented by trenches around the crest of the hill. The spot is lamentably exposed, on bare ground, while surrounding it on all sides is heavy brush. The least movement in the camp is the signal for instant target practice upon the part of the Spanish sharpshooters, whose rifles carry much further than those of the marines, though their owners very rarely hit anything they aim at. It is impossible to accurately estimate the Spanish attacking forces, but it is numerous enough.

About two-thirds of this force surrounds the camp nightly with a deadly ring, and the spatting of the Mausers makes things quite lively, for the Spaniards are daring enough to crawl up and take a pot shot at the marines from the bushes, about 30 yards from the camp. Every yard of chaparel is an ambuscade, and picket duty is flipping coins with death.

He Was Not Disappointed.

After the first attack on Saturday night, Col. Huntington decided that another attempt would be made on Sunday night, and

SIR ADOLPHE CHAPLEAU'S ESTATE.

Ten Thousand Dollars to the Church—Library to Laval University—Principal Grant Opposed Prohibition in the Assembly.

Montreal, June 14.—(Special.)—The remains of Sir Adolphe Chapleau clothed in his knightly robes lay in state in the large hall of Laval University. The newspaper comments on the career of Sir Adolphe are most varied. The Gazette says his conduct on the Riel matter makes up for the faults which crept into the latter portion of his political life. The Witness keeps silent, while The Star applauds his great abilities as an orator and a leader of men. Hon. Mr. Tarte's letter in La Patrie is disappointing. There is simply nothing in it, but the Minister of Public Works promises he will write more as soon as Sir Adolphe goes down to the tomb.

Rumor has it that Sir Adolphe's estate will reach a little over $100,000. Of this sum $80,000 will go to his unmarried sister, to revert at her death to Sir Adolphe's nephews and nieces.

His library, consisting of about $10,000 worth of books, will go to Laval University, while $4000 is willed to the testator's faithful friend, Mr. Arthur Dansereau, postmaster of Montreal, and $10,000 to the Catholic Church.

The pall-bearers will be Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. F. G. Marchand, Sir A. A. Lacoste, Judge Loranger, Judge Wurtele, Hon. G. A. Nantel, Hon. L. R. Masson, ex-Lieut.-Governor, and Sir William Hingston.

Vice-Royalty at the Assembly.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen visited the Presbyterian Assembly this afternoon, and His Excellency delivered an eloquent address.

At to-night's meeting of the General Assembly the report of the Committee on Church Work was submitted. It strongly declared for prohibition, and an interesting discussion took place on the question. Rev. Principal Grant of Kingston created a sensation by strongly opposing the clause referring to prohibition, and moving that it be referred back to the committee. He declared that he had opposed the Scott Act, which he claimed had increased drunkenness, and a prohibition act would be equally inoperative. He thought the church should not act as a partisan in a question which was becoming the football of political parties, and that each man should have the right to vote as he pleased. The report was strongly supported by Hon. G. W. Ross of Ontario and others, and was finally adopted by a large majority.

A Globe-Trotter in Montreal.

Prince Victor Emmanuel, Count of Turin, who wounded Prince Henry of Orleans in a desperately fought duel in France last year over the latter's alleged strictures upon the bravery of the Italian army in Abyssinia, is a guest at the Windsor Hotel. He arrived here from Niagara Falls. He was welcomed by Signor Girolamo Internoscio, Italian Vice-Consul. The Prince since his arrival has run the Rapids and visited all the points of interest in Montreal, with which he is delighted. He will probably leave to-morrow night for Quebec, and will afterwards visit Lake St. John, to enjoy a week's fishing. Subsequently this scion of the House of Savoy will spend the summer season at Newport; later, he purposes hunting grizzly bears in the Rockies, before sailing for the Orient, from San Francisco, in September next. He will visit Japan, China, India, Afghanistan, Persia, Turkey and Egypt before returning to Italy in August, 1899.

Sir William's Return.

A Star special cable says: Sir William Van Horne sails for Rome on Wednesday. Associated with his visit is the issue today of a prospectus, inviting subscriptions for £151,200 5 per cent. perpetual first mortgage debentures of the Cobourg and Northumberland Pacific Railway Company at 102. This road is under lease to the Canadian Pacific Railway.

EDMUND PRESTON ARRESTED

Startling Development in the Alleged Coal Fraud Cases.

Young Preston, Who Was Followed to Michigan, Refused to Return With Detective Cuddy, so Was Released and His Father Arrested—Charged With Stealing Books Containing Important Evidence.

Edmund L. Preston, the ex-bookkeeper of the Standard Fuel Co., was arrested late last night, and locked up in a cell at No. 6 Police Station. He is charged with having, in June, 1894, stolen from the Standard Fuel Company several books which he admits having had but professes to be unable to produce in court in connection with the alleged coal frauds which the Crown and E. A. Macdonald are trying to prove that Noel Marshall and the prisoner perpetrated upon the Toronto Railway Company, Grand Trunk Railway Company and the Ontario Government.

At 10 o'clock last night Sergeant Reburn of the Detective Department, Inspector Armstrong and Detective Verney went out to arrest Preston. Sergeant Reburn rang the bell at Preston's house, 144 Crawford-street, and a nurse answered. She explained to the officer that Mr. Preston was not in and that Mrs. Preston was dangerously ill. The Sergeant accepted her statement, and decided if possible not to make the arrest in the house out of consideration for the sick woman. A watch was accordingly set outside the residence and shortly before 11 o' clock Preston came home, and was arrested near his door. The prisoner asked permission to go in and see his sick wife, and Sergeant Reburn complied with his wish, but went inside with him. Preston then accompanied the officers to the Parkdale station. He will appear in the Police Court to-day.

Why Preston Was Arrested.

The information on which Preston was arrested was sworn to by Sergeant Reburn in accordance with Preston's admissions in the witness box. This step was taken by the Crown authorities after much deliberation. Easton Preston, a son of the prisoner, was followed to the woods of Michigan by Detective Cuddy and arrested near Newberry on Saturday on a charge of receiving the stolen books. He decided on Monday to fight extradition, taking this step, it is claimed, on the advice of his friends here, who had read the announcement of his arrest in Monday's World. In view of this the Crown practically decided that the arrest of Preston, sr., would answer their purpose equally well, as they think he knows just as much as his son regarding the whereabouts of the books. The authorities have not thought it worth while to extradite young Preston, and Detective Cuddy is expected back to-day.

BRYAN ON THE WAR.

Omaha, Neb., June 14.—W. J. Bryan first expressed himself upon the Spanish-American war in a speech delivered at the dedication of the Nebraska building at the Exposition here to-day. Although approving the war and the manner in which it was carried on, Mr. Bryan disclaimed any intention on the part of Americans to make territorial acquisition. The Philippines and Cuba could not be taken possession of by force, and could only become a part of the American Republic at the will of the people of those countries. If the present Government at Washington was actuated to make war by greed and not by a consideration for suffering humanity the people of Nebraska would, if he mistook not, make their disapproval known to Congress.

"INVITED" TO LEAVE CANADA.

Madrid Officially Announces That Du Bose and Carranza Have Notice to Depart.

Madrid, June 14.—It was officially announced to-day that Senor Du Bose, the former Spanish Charge d'Affaires at Washington, and Lieut. Carranza, the former Spanish Naval Attache at Washington, have been "invited" to leave Canada, owing to the Canadian authorities having intercepted a letter which Lieut. Carranza addressed to the Minister of Marine, giving an account of the condition of American ports fortifications.

The Gentlemen Deny It.

Montreal, June 14.—(Special.)—The Spanish Consul told your correspondent this afternoon that although the Island of Cuba may be, it is alleged, cut off from the rest of mankind, yet he finds the cable works admirably, and that he is in daily communication with Havana.

Senors du Bose and Carranza state that there is not one word of truth in the despatch from Madrid saying that they have been requested by the Ottawa Government to leave Canada.

TWO YOUNG BOYS DROWNED.

Returning From School, They Went Into a Pond to Bathe—Were Unable to Swim.

Tilbury, Ont., June 14.—Two bright boys, Roy Jackson, aged 11, son of Thomas Jackson, and George Watson, stepson of F. Shoultz, aged 9, of Tilbury North, while returning from school to-day, went into a pond on the farm of A. Vinters, to bathe, and, being unable to swim, were drowned.

More Changes on King-St. West.

The owners of the stores, 115, 115½ and 117 King-street west, have let a contract for the construction of a large piano warehouse, to occupy these premises. No. 115 was recently vacated by W. Goldstein & Co., and the other is Quinn's noted necktie house. The latter has to vacate before July 1, and is, therefore, compelled to sacrifice his stock of furnishing goods. The public knows that these goods are dependable goods. As a sale starter, all our French cambric-fronted shirts will be sold to-day at forty-five cents each. This is less than one-third of their value.

Suicide's Identity Established.

San Francisco, June 14.—The mystery surrounding the identity of Hugh W. Williams, who was shot during a quarrel at the home of Mrs. Abbie Gregory in Alameda, is partly cleared away by documents found in the room of the dead man, which showed that he received letters from England addressed "Sir Hugh W. Williams, Bart., F. G. S., M. I. C. E."

At one time Williams was a member of the great machinery firm of J. E. H. Andrew & Co. He left England and came to this city in order to try to make a fortune in gas machine patents that he owned.

Straw Hat Differences at Dineens'.

It would take a column on this page to describe the differences in the styles of the Straw Hats designed by all the fashionable makers, shown in the great Straw Hat display at Dineens' new store, 140 Yonge-street, cor. Temperance. Each has an elegant peculiarity of style—all its own—which distinguishes each hat from all the others. The Dunlap Straw Hats are noticeably different from the English Tress Straws. The Christy, Youman and Knox shapes are all distinct shapes, each having a style peculiarly its own, not easily described, but readily noticed, which makes one shape look better on some men and other shapes better on others. And there is the further difference in different kinds of Straws at Dineens', Manilla, Mackinaw, Panama, Yeddo, Reed, Rush, Rice and Bamboo straws, in different shapes, with different ribbon effects, at differernt prices. And it's just this astounding variety of hat styles which marks the difference between Dineens' and any other hat store in Toronto.

THE MONEY TO PAY UP VOTED

Uncle Sam Will Settle the Account of the Canadian Sealers.

Senate and House Agreed to the Important Resolution Which Will Carry Out the Decision of the Arbitrators — London Times Makes Flattering Comments on the Subject.

Washington, D. C., June 14.—In the Senate this afternoon a House joint resolution, appropriating $474,151 to pay the Behring Sea award, was adopted. The appropriation is carried in the sundry civil appropriation bill, but that measure is still in conference, and the award has to be paid on the 16th inst. The resolution passed the House yesterday, and is now, therefore, law.

Another Gratifying Instance.

London, June 15.—The Times this morning, in an editorial which pretty fairly represents the feeling expressed by the other morning papers, says: "The resolution to pay the Behring Sea award is another gratifying instance of the growth of the spirit of friendship and justice toward England in a quarter where, until recently, such feelings were rarely exhibited.

"It is a proof of the good feelings which we cordially recognize and reciprocate, as well as a good omen for the establishment of closer and more cordial relations between the two countries, toward which the best minds on both sides of the Atlantic have been steadily moving."

JOE LEITER'S TUMBLE.

"Up Like a Rocket and Down Like a Stick," About Fits Him.

FOR OVER A YEAR HE WAS THE WHEAT KING

Three Weeks Ago He Had a Profit on Paper of Four and a Half Millions—To-day His Accounts Show a Total Loss of Nine and a Half Millions—The Only Man Living Who Ever Made a Profit of a Dollar a Bushel on Wheat—His Father Promises That No One Will Lose a Dollar.

Joseph Leiter, who for a little over a year has been known as the wheat king of the world, is dethroned. In twenty-one days he is shown to have lost $9,500,000. For fourteen months he had the bears in front of his prod, and on Monday they turned on him with their claws. Young Leiter "bucked" the world and got more than his match. He was magnanimous when in power, and it cost him millions of dollars. In December and May, when he could have squeezed the "shorts," he did not do it. Now, those who were indebted to him then put on the screws. Probably the only living man that ever made $1 a bushel on wheat, he now has the reverse experience of seeing a loss of $1 per bushel. Some wheat which he bought at 64 3-4 he saw advance to $1.85. Some wheat bought at $1.75 sold on Monday at 70c. Apart from straightaway speculation Leiter made money by "turns" in the market, and was clever enough to not only get his wheat carried for nothing, but make additional profits.

THE TAIL WAGGING THE DOG.

That is What Joseph Leiter Said Yesterday in Regard to His Great Collapse.

Chicago, June 14.—Joseph Leiter, speaking of the collapse of his wheat deal, says: "It is a case where the tail has begun to wag the dog. This statement has its illustration in the fact that futures began breaking faster than cash wheat declined. Logically, the condition should have been exactly the reverse. For several days, in fact I may say for some weeks—cash wheat has been slow sale, particularly in the Northwest and around milling centres generally. To a certain extent this has been offset by a fair degree of activity at the seaboard in response to an enquiry from the other side, but the local markets have been decidedly inclined to drag. There has been a steady marketing of cash wheat, but I cannot say as to the quantities in which it has gone to home consumption, or abroad for foreign use.

"I see no objection to stating that all my holdings of futures have been disposed of. A good deal of gossip has come to me on the general subject of alleged treacherous conduct on the part of Northwestern grain interests, which I have always heretofore considered friendly to me in a personal and a business way, but I have nothing to say on this subject. I have no complaints or charges to prefer against those with whom I have been doing business. It is a source of considerable satisfaction to me that my affairs, for the moment more or less tangled, are in a fair way of settlement without the intervention of a trustee, and without invoking the machinery of the court, as would be necessary in the case of an assignment.

"The Chicago trade will all be taken care of; in fact, I may say it has been already protected, for I am even on the market so far as September contracts are concerned. The cash wheat business will be transacted through Alexander Geddes for the benefit of the banks, which have an interest in it, and which will act in concert. The June wheat, representing the cash wheat in this market, will be carried by Armour & Co.

A Good Word for Armour.

"The treatment I have received at the hands of Mr. Armour is in the highest degree considerate, courteous and complimentary. Nothing could have exceeded Mr. Armour's generosity in his offers of financial help, which were to an extent covering any possible requirement on my part. It is particularly gratifying to be the recipient of this kind of treatment at this particular time, establishing, as it does, the fact that the business and personal relations between Mr. Armour and myself are not as strained as they have been represented to be."

Mr. P. D. Armour, himself one of the central figures in the Leiter deal which has been going on for many months, did not take a particularly gloomy view of the situation. He said: "Most of the wheat with the banks is margined at 80c a bushel. I confidently believe the market will react, possibly before the end of the week. Wheat has got down to a point where it is worth the money, regardless of speculation. The arrangement which I understand has been perfected provides for the protection of all parties in interest. Mr. Leiter's cash wheat in all positions between the Northwest and Europe ought to be so handled that the banks will not have to take a loss.

"In one sense there is not much local end to the story. The local stock of wheat is small, and in relieving Mr. Leiter of his June and local cash wheat we took only 240,000 bushels.

"I do not believe any of the local people who have acted for Mr. Leiter will be hurt, and the feeling in the trade seems to be most kindly toward him. When we arranged to carry his June wheat we offered to help him in any way we could. I regret that the deal has turned out as it has, but I believe that the worst of it is known, and that the market will probably react."

The Feeling in London.

London, June 14.—The collapse of the Leiter wheat corner has caused a panic in the Liverpool market, the heaviest movement recorded in wheat since the excitement began occurring this morning.

In London the news of the collapse was received with equanimity. The consensus of opinion of a number of operators on Mark Lane is that the English markets will gain steadiness now that "the plunger operating without regard to market precedence is shaken out."

It is asserted on Mark Lane that the collapse was due to Messrs. Armour and Pillsbury.

The newspapers generally rejoice at the break down of the Leiter plans and point to it as a moral.

The Star says: "If the prime mover in this war against mankind is beggared by his greed the retribution is well merited; but nothing can atone for the awful suffering Leiter and his accomplices have caused."

Attachment Against Leiter.

New York, June 14.—Justice Daly of the Supreme Court has issued an attachment against the property of Joseph Leiter, the wheat speculator of Chicago, for $793,925 in favor of Otto E. Lohrke, William P. Callaghan and William Knight, grain dealers, for money advanced.

Mr. Aarons of the law firm of Parker and Aarons, counsel for the plaintiffs, said that O. E. Lohrke, one of the complainants, was the shipping agent in this city for Leiter, and had handled for him many millions of bushels of wheat. Lohrke's claim represents payments of shipping charges to Liverpool. Mr. Aarons said his clients were not antagonistic to Leiter, and secured the attachment because of the number of interests they have to protect. The attachment, he said, would probably be satisfied before the close of the day.

Attachment Counts for Nothing.

Chicago, June 14.—It was stated by friends of Mr. Joseph Leiter that the attachment issued against him in New York will not affect the situation—that it will not force an assignment. The appeal to the court in New York was evidently anticipated as a representative of a creditor was here, and told Mr. Leiter that he was going to do something. Mr. Leiter told him to go ahead and do it.

Armour Bought It All.

Chicago, June 14.—P. D. Armour to-day bought all of Joseph Leiter's cash wheat in the Northwest, amounting to four or five million bushels. Semi-authoritative infor-
