How to Save Money.

Many people have very hazy ideas regarding the great benefits to be derived from having garments cleaned or dyed. Some say: "I had an article dyed some years ago, and it was not satisfactory" (left, no doubt, at some back street establishment), and are afraid to indulge again. First-class houses keep abreast of the times, and as the science of dyeing has gone ahead by leaps and bounds during the past few years, the patrons of a first-class dyeing and cleaning establishment find that the amount saved during one year is greater than in almost any other line where economy is practised. Stockwell, Henderson & Co. are an up-to-date house. They do their work well and do not keep people waiting a month for it. Cleaning is ready same day (if wanted), and next day if to be dyed (if required). What can beat this? Leave your order at any of their three stores or 'phone them, and they will send for your goods. 103 King west, 259 Yonge street and 772 Yonge street.

HAVE NO USE FOR THE BILL

NORTH ONTARIO PEOPLE ARE IN OPPOSITION TO IT.

Mr. John A. McGillivray Requested to Oppose all Attempts at Remedial Legislation in Any Form—How Religions Should be Viewed so Far as the State is Concerned.

Bracebridge, March 14.—A joint meeting of the Loyal Orange and True Blue Associations from the surrounding country was held in the Town Hall here yesterday which tested the capacity of the building. Mr. J. C. Davidson occupied the chair. It was moved by James Boyer, district master, Bracebridge District L.O.A., seconded by William Johnston, past master L.O.L. 218, and by standing vote unanimously resolved, "That, believing the reimposition of Separate Schools on Manitoba is against the best interests of that province and of the Dominion at large, tending, as it would, to perpetuate race and creed disturbances and secure to the Roman hierarchy unlimited powers in the administration of the affairs of State, being desirous of seeing Canadians moulded together into one homogeneous people, which cannot be the outcome of hostile camps in educational matters; therefore, this open meeting, held under the auspices of the Orange and Loyal True Blue Associations, at the Town Hall, Bracebridge, requests John A. McGillivray, M.P. for North Ontario, to oppose all attempts at Remedial Legislation (so-called), as now before the Canadian House of Commons, to vote for the six months' hoist resolution, or any amendments thereto being against the Remedial Legislation (so-called), or against Remedial Legislation in whatever form it may hereafter be brought up."

Chairman Davidson's Remarks.

Mr. J. C. Davidson, as chairman, in putting the motion to the meeting, stated that the time had come when, as free men, Canadians must rise and unite, in order that they may better be enabled to cope with the continued aggressions of the hierarchy of Rome, that Protestant and Catholic alike should be free from ecclesiastical tyranny. He drew attention to the reading of the despatch in Parliament, of the acceptance of the Remedial Bill from Archbishop Langevin, pointing out to what extent our Parliaments are prostituted in the interests of racial prejudice.

Certain Orangemen Scored.

Mr. W. H. Spencer, police magistrate, was next introduced. He stated that he came before them as an Orangeman, and denounced in strong language those members of the order who placed party before principle, and drew a contrast between Messrs. Birmingham, J. L. Hughes and Bowell, and the patriotic actions of N. C. Wallace. He referred to the constitution and obligation of an Orangeman, claiming that there is nothing contained therein to induce hatred or strife, and which this Remedial Bill is creating. He then read an extract from the speech of the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, and at some length paid a glowing tribute to the honorable stand taken by that gentleman, pointing out the sacrifices he had made for Canada. The speaker then stated he did not desire to occupy more time, as, like the rest, he came to hear the visitor from a distance. He would, therefore, support the motion and take his seat.

Grand Organizer Newman.

Mr. Robert Newman of Toronto, grand organizer of the Loyal True Blues, the visitor above referred to, was the next speaker, who held forth for over an hour, first going into the aims and objects of the order, especially that part regarding the orphanage. He next took up the political situation, strongly contending that if it is desirable to see the spirit of nationalism established in Canada, all loyalists, irrespective of party, must at last unite, unless we would countenance this awful race and creed trouble that has so long taken up the time of our Legislature at Ottawa. He believed that, so far as the State is concerned, there is no such thing as a Roman Catholic in Canada; that, so far as the State is concerned, there is no such thing as a Protestant in Canada; and, all things being equal, as citizens we could unite in the protection of our shores from foreign invasion. He was pleased to sit and hear such a resolution, and considered it the duty of every constituency to call meetings of this kind and demand of their representative that he vote for the six months' hoist.

Will Cast a Corporate Vote.

He was pleased to be able to say that he firmly believed that the Loyal True Blue Associations would at the general elections cast a corporate vote, and the member who refuses to oppose Remedial Legislation, be he Grit or Tory, will find an impossible task to make his peace with the Loyal True Blues at the polls.

"A great deal has been said about this six months' hoist; that to vote for it you kill the Government and put a worse party in power," he continued. "This I consider the yelping of a dying coward. If a man is a laborer, hired by a person to perform a certain duty and proves incompetent or is abusing the trust, he is without ceremony discharged. These men at Ottawa were sent there to represent you and me, and we find them misrepresenting us. If we are men, we will say, Your sins are found out, and the consequence be upon your own head.

Why Not?

Why do not some of these men move an amendment to the six months' hoist? Simply because they want the bill to carry, and are crying most piteously that if the six months' hoist carries the party is killed. Well it is time it was buried, for its legislation in this particular is of a very obnoxious order." He next read from the speech of the Hon. Mr. Dickey, laying stress on the sentence, "There is no obligation on Parliament to take action." He then went into the bill, showing the injustice of the measure, specially referring to sections 29 and 30.

After eulogizing the noble stand of N. C. Wallace, D'Alton McCarthy and Dr. Sproule, the speaker retired, amid great applause.

It Separates Our Youth.

Rev. H. Moore of Bracebridge stated that he had listened attentively to the previous speakers, and as the hour was growing late for another speaker to follow, he would not take up the time of the meeting. He had often thought that it might be possible to bring all classes together in one grand and glorious party, and he was more convinced than ever that such ought to be accomplished, that all creeds be brought into one camp nationally, speaking for the glory of God and the good of our country. He did not like the Remedial bill, because it separated the youth of the land. The reverend gentleman dwelt some time on "Man's duty to God and his fellow-man," delivering a very instructive and interesting address.

Mr. Langford, M.L.A., Against It.

G. E. Langford, M.L.A., went into the burning question, and with no uncertain sound pronounced himself as opposed to remedial legislation and its promoters. The time had come, he said, when every man in search of Parliamentary honors should be forced to pledge himself to oppose on all future occasions any such legislation; that if they did not now stand up for their rights as citizens, a return to the dark ages stares us in the face. He opposed no man because of his religious beliefs, and he was more than satisfied that the lay people of the Roman Catholic faith did not want this obnoxious Remedial bill that emanates from the clergy. Father Lacombe had stated in his letter to the leader of the Opposition that he wanted no commission, no investigation. He (the speaker) knew the reasons for that were that they dare not submit to an investigation. The expositions that must follow such an investigation would be most appalling, and prove conclusively the truthfulness of the statements made by Mr. Joseph Martin, M.P. for Winnipeg, wherein he stated that a law was introduced in Manitoba in effect that all candidates for municipal honors must be able to read and write; that in opposing the measure it was shown that if such became law they would be unable to find men qualified for office in Separate school districts. He urged upon his hearers to stand for right and justice casting party aside in their determination to pledge all candidates in the next elections, and demand from our present representatives to oppose this Remedial bill. Like the other speakers, Mr. Langford paid a glowing tribute to N. C. Wallace, D'Alton McCarthy and others.

The meeting lasted until midnight, and was very enthusiastic throughout. A copy of the resolution has been forwarded to Mr. McGillivray.

GLUE FACTORY ON FIRE.

Portion of Harris' Buildings Destroyed on Saturday Night.

Shortly before 7 o'clock on Saturday night the glue factory of Messrs. W. Harris & Co., Danforth road, was discovered to be on fire.

The factory is in two divisions, one part brick, the other frame. It was the frame part that was on fire. The neighbors turned out willingly and formed a bucket brigade, and by hard work the fire was confined to the building in which it started. This was a frame structure, about 70 x 40, and was filled with glue and fertilizers. It was destroyed, the loss being about $2500. All the glue was destroyed; what shape the fertilizers are in Mr. Harris was unable to say last night, and, therefore, he could not estimate the loss on the contents. Neither was Mr. Harris able to say how much insurance there was on the particular building destroyed. He has about 20 buildings covered by one policy, in which eight or nine companies are interested.

None Thrown Out of Work.

None of the employes will be thrown out of work, as it is the intention to commence this morning to make preparations for the erection of a new brick building. This will be a solid, fire-proof structure, and will be fitted with the very latest machinery. The company will not have to disappoint any of its customers, except, perhaps, in the matter of glue, and, as to that, only for a short time. Large stocks of fertilizers kept in separate storehouses will enable them to fill all orders without delay.

The fire is supposed to have started in some baled straw in a piggery adjoining the factory.

TO STIMULATE GENEROSITY.

Italians Will Aid in Relieving Soldiers' Widows and Orphans.

A special meeting of the Fratellanza Christoforo Colombo, the Italian Society, was held in St. George's Hall last night. Mr. Michael Basso, president of the society, occupied the chair, and stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of subscribing money to aid the widows and orphans of soldiers, who was killed at the battle of Adua, on March 1. All the Italian societies have taken the matter up, and the money is being sent to Cavalier Carlo Barsotti, editor of The Progresso Italo-Americano, at New York, who forwards it to Italy.

The society voted $50 and a private subscription list was started, which will probably amount to $100. The money will be sent immediately to Cavalier Barsotti.

Ald. Sheppard and Dr. Elliott were present, and expressed themselves as being in sympathy with the object of the meeting.

Thousands of dollars have already been subscribed throughout this continent.

Death of Mrs. McFarlane, Poplar House.

The grim destroyer has been particularly busy in the East End during the last week. Within a distance of a quarter of a mile death has removed four of the oldest and among the best known residents over the Don in the persons of Mr. Joseph Redford, sr., Mrs. Mary Smith (widow of John Smith), Mrs. Mary Hourigan, and now Mrs. Elizabeth Jane McFarlane (formerly Mrs. Booth) who died on Friday evening. The deceased lady had been connected with the Poplar House at the corner of Queen and Saulter-streets, for the last 14 years, and the house had acquired the reputation of being one of the best conducted hotels in the city. The deceased left two children by her former husband, who was a brother of Mr. W. C. Booth of Morse-street, and St. Lawrence Market, and of Mr. R. J. Booth of Poulton's Hall. She was married to Mr. James McFarlane a few years ago, who, with the family and a wide circle of friends, has the sympathy of the neighborhood. Mrs. McFarlane underwent an operation for tumor five weeks ago, from which she never rallied. The funeral will take place this afternoon from 769 Queenstreet east, to Norway Church.

Ald. Burgoyne of St. Catharines had an interest in a civic contract, and has been unseated. A new election has been ordered.

W. E. Burnett, formerly of Kingston and Havelock, has located at Lethbridge, N.W.T., where he is in the employ of the Alberta Railway and Coal Company. He writes that the output of coal just now is about 600 tons daily, only one of three shafts being in operation.

An important message often comes by telegraph, but the most important message that ever was delivered to mankind has been given to them through the newspapers. It is given again in this article.

It is the information that 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption can be completely and permanently cured. There is no doubt about it. The statement is not made recklessly, but after the experience of thousands has made it an indisputable fact. Consumption is not a disease of the lungs. It is a disease of the blood, which in weak lunged people manifests itself by the formation of tubercles in the lungs and the wasting away of lung tissue. The cure for consumption is simple. It consists in the administration of a medicine that will assist the lungs in throwing off tuberculous matter, and that will cleanse the system so that this refuse matter will be replaced by strong, healthy tissues. That sounds like a very simple operation, and yet consumption baffled the combined medical skill of the whole world for hundreds of years. Consumption was considered incurable until the advent of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This great remedy is the most wonderful blood purifier and strengthener that the world has ever known. It is the result of years of study and experiment, by a scientific physician and has been tested in every way by him for over 30 years. It has an unbroken record of success. It cures a great variety of diseases, because almost all diseases have their origin and support in impurity and weakness of the blood. As long as a man's blood is rich and pure, he is in no danger from diseases. The blood is the medium through which food is carried from the digestive system to all of the tissues of the body. If it carries impure things, or an insufficient quantity of good things, trouble will ensue. There is nothing about that so very hard to understand. It is perfectly plain and natural and rational. The "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the digestive system in perfect order, purifies and enriches the blood and so puts the whole body into perfect tune.

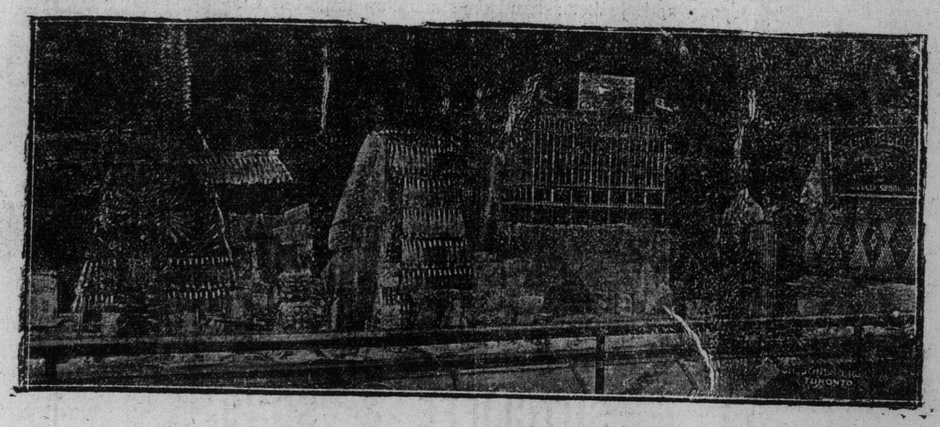
has attracted the attention of thousands of the population of Ontario who are consumers of this well-known and popular brand of Spool Silks.

The exemplification of the reeling of Raw Silk from Cocoons was the first that has ever been given in this country.



The CORTICELLI SILK industry was established in the United States in 1838, and in 1888 a factory was started in this country at St. Johns, P.Q.

The industry has now grown to such proportions that they are one of the largest consumers of Raw Silk in the world. This is remarkable when you consider the fact that they confine their product to goods that they can confidently assert to be the "Best in the World."
