INSANE PRISONER DIED IN THE JAIL

Jury Finds Death Occurred From Natural Causes.

Wm. Hodson, an infirm and insane inmate of the jail, died at 7:15 this morning. The old man fell last week against a door, breaking a rib. Coroner Ferguson conducted an inquest. Dr. MacArthur testified that he believed the death to be due to natural causes, hastened slightly by the injury last week. The jury returned a verdict that death was due to natural causes. The body was taken in charge by relatives. This is the first death of a prisoner since that of Hugh Kay, in 1900.

The coroner's jury was composed as follows: Robert Ketle, Thomas Oliver, Sam Turner (foreman), John H. Barons, Andrew Callaghan, Hy. Kerr, Robert Northgraves, John Mills, Geo. Dear, John Worall, John Quail, Albert T. Corp, Wm. D. Buckle.

THE OTTAWA FIRE

How Charles Lamb Barely Escaped With His Life—Dr. Brownlee's Experience.

Ottawa, Jan. 25.—At the burning of the Cecil Hotel this morning, Charles Lamb, a traveler from Hamilton, escaped without a stitch of clothing. His nightshirt caught fire, and he tore it off, and then his undershirt was burned, and he had to tear that off also. When he got out into the wintry air he was in nature's garb.

Dr. and Mrs. Brownlee, of Ottawa, were in the sixth story when the fire began. The doctor ran to the elevator, but escape was cut off, and then he went to a window, where the fire escape was. Breaking the inner and outer windows, the doctor lifted his wife out and held her on his arm while he slid down the fire escape to the first story, where they landed on a shed, both in their night attire. All the domestics and others in the house lost everything they had.

The insurance is said to have been only about $10,000, while the loss is about $60,000.

Luxuriant Hair.

Next time you brush your hair just look at it critically. Is it dull or excessively dry? Is it harsh or filled with dandruff? Is it thinner than it was five years ago? If you are dissatisfied with it you can be pretty sure that others will notice the defect.

For all hair troubles use Oriental Rum and Quinine Hair Tonic.

It cleans the scalp and stimulates the growth of the hair. It will stop falling of hair. It will help to make the hair glossy without making it greasy. Strong claims? Well, a good many customers have found them to be true.

Only 50 cents bottle.

LIEUT.-COL. SMITH WILL SOON RETIRE.

Popular Commanding Officer of the Seventh Regiment Desires to Step Out.

Lieut.-Col. Smith today acknowledged the truth of a rumor that he intended to retire from the position of officer commanding the Seventh Regiment. To The Advertiser he said that his three years' term expires at the end of this month, and he hoped that he would then be placed on the retired list, retaining his rank.

"The regiment is now in good shape," the colonel said, "and I think, anyway, it is time for me to drop out. Let the honors go around."

Col. Smith's retirement will be sincerely regretted by the citizens of London, and particularly by those connected with the Seventh. It has been due largely to his abilities as a leader and his personal popularity that the Seventh regained its prestige after falling into decline a few years ago. Col. Smith's whole military experience has been with the Seventh, he having joined it as a subaltern when 18 years of age. Major Little is next in line for promotion.
