SUDDEN DEATH IN SUSSEX.

Mrs. Harry Seeley, of Markhamville, died suddenly yesterday in a Sussex hotel. She had come to town, accompanied by her mother, to consult a physician.

He found that she had some serious trouble with her teeth, and that a dental operation would be necessary. Her heart and lungs were examined, and it was decided that she was fully able to withstand an anaesthetic.

A dentist was called in, an anaesthetic was administered, and the operation was carried through. Then it was found that the patent was not rallying properly, and she soon began to sink rapidly. In spite of every possible effort she passed away. The doctors are at a loss to account for her unexpected collapse, as her condition before the operation gave no indication of danger..

Mrs. Seeley was a daughter of John Scott, of Markhamville and is survived by her husband and several children.

CHIEF KERR'S REPORT ON FIRE DEPARTMENT

The report of John Kerr, chief engineer of the St. John fire department, was presented to the city commissioners this morning by Commissioner McLellan. He reports that the permanent force is composed of thirty-six men with a call force of 113 when at full strength. During the year the men's wages amounted to $14,996.87. There were 210 alarms, including still alarms, 172 on the east side and 38 on the west side. Several false alarms have been sent in. The chief recommends that box No. 8 be removed to a more exposed situation.

The total amount of insurance at stake in fires during the year was $1,037,100, and on this losses of $78,670 were paid. Uninsured losses were about $28,291, making a total fire loss of $108,374.

The chief reports favorably on the introduction of motor fire apparatus, submitting figures showing the saving that would be effected.

He recommends a new boiler for No. 1 engine and repairs to wheels; extra set of wheels and shafts for hose wagons in north and south ends; three Morse monitor nozzles, one for the north end department and one for each ferry boat; a proper ladder truck for use in Carleton; repairs to different stations and apparatus; new fire hydrants where desirable; purchase of several new horses; the consideration of reducing the present call force and introduction of a small permanent force and the purchase of auto apparatus.

LIFE BOATS ON THE BIG LINERS

London, Jan. 11—The carrying of extra life boats sufficient for the accommodation of all the passengers and crew of ocean liners, is recommended in the interim report of the departmental commission on boats and davits, appointed after the Titanic disaster, to advise the British Board of Trade.

The report, which was issued today, is of a highly technical character. The general trend of its recommendations is that the extra boats should be stowed under those boats attached to the davits, with satisfactory arrangements for launching each of them in turn from the same set of davits. In foreign going vessels in which the boat accommodation would be so large that all could not be stowed in this way, the commission recommends that the carrying of properly equipped reversible pontoon rafts should be allowed. These should be capable of accommodating not more than 25 per cent of the persons the vessel is certified to carry. The rafts should be of such size that they could be thrown from the deck if necessary.

UNIONISTS' MEMORIAL TO BONAR LAW

Montreal, Jan. 11—A London cable to the Witness says:

Bonar Law has been presented privately a memorial signed by 219 Unionists in the House of Commons against making the food taxes an issue in the next election.

He said at once that he would consult Lord Lansdowne and give an answer as quickly as possible.

The terms of the memorial are secret, although several versions are given, one being that if the Unionists are returned to power they shall summon an imperial conference to discuss by what means imperial preference can be decided.

STEAMER IN TROUBLE

New York, Jan. 11—Agents for the North German Lloyd received a wireless message today from the S. S. Grosser Kurfurst via Cape Race, saying that she had broken her port crank shaft yesterday while about 560 miles east of Cape Race. Because of the accident the vessel is proceeding at half speed and will not reach here probably until next Friday.

The Grosser Kurfurst left Bremen January 4. She was to have sailed from New York for Panama Jany. 16 on a cruise, for which nearly 400 passengers has been booked. This cruise has now been abandoned, as it will take at least ten days to make necessary repairs to the ship.

A Russian Move

St. Petersburg, Jan. 11—Russia is urging Mongolia to negotiate a commercial treaty with Japan so as to interest Japan in the maintenance of the new condition of things and to counterbalance the efforts of China, which offers to open Mongolia to foreign trade if its sovereignty is restored, according to newspaper advices received here from Urga, Mongolia.

A parliamentary paper states that for the quarter ending in June 122,000 aliens entered the United Kingdom from ports in Europe and the Mediterranean Sea, and that the total for six months was 202,358 as against 198,985 for last year.

The total sum raised by the Dickens Centenary Fund is £12,000, which, after the deduction of expenses, has been invested for the benefit of the novelist's five granddaughters. This will yield to each a present annual income of more than £110.
