Local and Provincial.

Rev. A. Cohoon occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday morning, and Dr. Keirstead in the evening.

Ladies' misses and child's Wool Soles at Borden's.

We have received a very pretty calendar for 1898 from the Provincial Chemical Fertiliser Co. of St. John.

Rev. Avery A. Shaw, M. A., of Windsor, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.

Woonsocket Rubber Boots with Leather Insoles, at Borden's.

Kentville narrowly escaped another big fire a few days ago. Prompt action on the part of the department alone saved the town.

A genuine misses' grain, hand nailed School Boot at Borden's, only $1.50.

Mr R. W. Storrs is making some considerable improvement on his residence on Main St., which we understand is to be occupied by Mr Calhoun.

Look at the child's, misses' and women's extra high Overgaiters at Borden's.

The Foresters of this town are making arrangements to hold an open meeting early in the year, on the occasion of the installation of the new officers.

An immense assortment of Men's and Boys' Kid Lined and Wool Gloves at Borden's.

An auction sale of household furniture, horses, carriages, harnesses, etc., is to be held at the American House on Tuesday next. See posters for particulars.

Remember all goods are guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded, at Borden's.

Miss Edith Henniger, of Canning, now a teacher in the public schools of Dartmouth, was one of the winners of gold watches in the Sunlight soap competition for November.

We want your trade, we will give you value. We buy nothing but the best values on the market. C. H. Borden.

Mr John S. Hodgson, C. E., of Boston, Mass., spent a few days in town last week visiting Dr. DeWitt. Mr Hodgson has recently been in Annapolis making a survey of that town for a system of sewerage.

Borden carrys a complete line of everything you can mention in Canadian Rubber Co. and Granby Rubber Co's. Goods.

Mr H. N. Bentley, of Five Islands, who was reported by the ACADIAN last week as coming to Wolfville to reside, moved here this week. He has purchased the fine property on Acadia street formerly owned by C. B. Munro. Mr Bentley is largely interested in lumbering interests, and like many others considers Wolfville a good place of abode.

Conceeded by all buyers to be the best value are our $4.00 and $5.00 Reefers and $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 Ulsters at Borden's.

Miss Carrie Louise O'Key, daughter of Mr and Mrs William O'Key, of Port Williams, is to be married at St. James' church, Kentville, on the 31st inst., to Dr. Percy C. Woodworth. It will be the social event of the year in Kings county. There are to be eleven bridesmaids, all attired alike, and the guests will come from all parts of the province.

You can find the following well known Shoes at Borden's only: Geo. T. Slater & Sons, J. D. King Co., J. & T. Bell, Ames Holden Co., Amherst Boot and Shoe Co., and all the best makes.

Mr Wilbur Vaughn returned home from the West on Tuesday.

In another column the town clerk is advertising for tenders for horses and driver for the snow-plow.

A big discount on all of Caldwell's stock for cash only.

The weather has been remarkably mild for the past fortnight and from present indications it would look as though a "green Christmas" was in store.

Do you want anything in the line of Sox? If so Borden can supply you. Extra value in a Boys' line at 30c.

Our readers will be glad to learn that one of the successful candidates this year at the provincial examination for "Grade A" certificates was Mr Clement Vaughn, of Grand Pre. Mr Vaughn is now in the Senior year at Acadia College.

Lumbermen's Sox, 50c., 60c. and 75c. Lumbermen's Rabbers $1.50 and $1.75, at Borden's.

Our merchants appear to be vieing with each other this year in the originality and beauty of their window decorations. As a result our stores present a prettier appearance than ever before. A good trade is anticipated for next week.

Take your hides to the Willow Vale Tannery, Upper Wolfville, and get your cold cash and lots of it.

From a copy of the Morning News, of New Haven, Conn., we learn that in the recent town election held there Mr Chas. S. Hamilton was elected a selectman with a majority of 1891 votes. Mr Hamilton's many friends here will be glad to learn of his success.

FOR SALE.—Ten thousand feet of Dry Clear Pine, plained on one side.
WOLFVILLE COAL CO.

An attempt is being made to again resuscitate the band. A number of the former players have consented to again take hold. We trust that they may soon have the organization in a thriving condition. Our citizens may be counted on to assist them in any way possible.

For the Christmas Dressing use our fresh sweet Herbs, Sage, Savory, Thyme, Marjeram. Drug Store.

The Christmas tree and turkey supper held by the ladies of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening although not so largely attended as it would have been had the weather been better, was a most enjoyable affair. It was repeated last evening. A feature of the entertainment was the phonograph which Mr E. W. Abbott brought up from Halifax for the occasion.

Our flavoring Essences and Extracts are guaranteed pure and strong and true to their name in every respect. Once used always used. ☞ Try them in the Christmas Cake. For sale only at the Drug Store.

To The Public:

—oOo—

Read above advertisement offering full line of Groceries at low prices (in some cases as low as I have been selling for over a year). I carry a full line of family supplies. In fact have everything that is above advertised at the same prices on some conditions. Have been in business in this town since May, 1887, new nearly eleven years, and to-day can supply your families with first class Groceries at as low prices (on same terms) as any business house in Kings county. My Stock is now complete, and I will not be undersold by anybody, and don't you forget it.

Received this week a splendid stock of Confectionery, Nuts and Fruits.

Yours respectfully,
Fred. J. Porter.

The People's Forum.

To the Editor of the Acadian.

EDITOR ACADIAN,—Would it not be well to advocate in your paper the establishment of a "Board of Trade" for our town. I believe that such an organization could do a great deal for the advancement of the interests of Wolfville.
