LAWYERS WRITING TO DR. CRIPPEN

Women, Too, Send Him Messages, But Jailer Stops Them.

Quebec, Que., Aug. 8.—Letters and telegrams addressed to Dr. H. H. Crippen are accumulating at the provincial jail, but he is allowed to receive or adopt only the cable messages from Arthur Newton, his London attorney, relating to the preparation of his defence at his approaching trial for homicide.

Fully a dozen letters and as many messages have never reached the prisoner, because Jailer Morin has adjudged them improper to deliver to a man in Crippen's situation. All are from the United States or Canada, and most of them from attorneys, but at least one or two are inclosed in dainty square envelopes and addressed in distinctly feminine handwriting.

Inspector Dew returned to Quebec today after a sightseeing trip in Central Canada. He visited the jail to carry Crippen a cable message, but did not see the prisoner. Like others, the message did not pass the censorship of the jailer, and its contents have not been revealed.

During his absence the Scotland Yard inspector was not so successful as he had hoped in preserving his incognito, and his opinion of American newspapers does not improve. He expressed it freely when he found the reporters still on the watch here, but otherwise he was as uncommunicative as ever.

For the first time since her arrest Miss Leneve asked today for something to read. The jailer sent her some magazines. A fresh batch of magazines was also sent to Crippen.

NEW INSPECTORS FOR FISHERIES

Forty of Them To Be Appointed For Province of Ontario.

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—Forty fishery inspectors for Ontario will shortly be appointed by the Federal Government in accordance with the recently-announced policy of reverting to Dominion inspection. At the department of marine and fisheries, it is stated that the provincial supervision, while good so far as it goes, has not been sufficient, and the fisheries have been declining. Nearly every county will now have its federal officer, who will be paid only a nominal salary, but sufficient to enable him devoting his whole time to the work. There are already just a few applicants for the prospective jobs.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT ALVINSTON

Alvinston, Aug. 9.—Fire broke out in one of A. J. Trolley's livery barns yesterday morning, and completely destroyed the building. Everything was removed except three cutters and some smaller articles, which were also destroyed. The loss is about $1,000, partly covered by insurance in the Merchants Insurance Company. The cause of the fire is unknown.

STRIKEBREAKERS WERE DEPORTED

Sarnia, Aug. 9.—The case against the Grand Trunk Railway for infraction of the immigration laws was disposed of yesterday by Magistrate Gorman, who imposed a fine of $50 in each of the thirteen cases. The men were brought in under cover by supplying them temporarily with the necessary money qualification. The fines amounted to nearly $700. The money in the hands of Mr. Herbert, the immigrant inspector, was returned to the men, and the magistrate allowed them to go under suspended sentence on condition of their deportation, which was seen to by the immigration officers.

THE MAYORS HELPED TO SETTLE STRIKE

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Mayor Geary received a letter this morning from Hon. Mackenzie King, thanking him for sending out the telegrams to the various municipalities, asking their co-operation in appealing for a settlement of the strike. Mr. King, in his letter, says the response to this action was of real assistance in bringing about the termination of the strike.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

An event of unusual interest took place at Burwell Road on Tuesday, when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whiting, of Mount Brydges, celebrated their golden wedding.

The gathering was at the home of a son-in-law, Mr. John Stuart, where a tea was served, after which the family, consisting of Mrs. D. P. Clapp (Radisson, Sask.), Mrs. F. J. Barfoot (Janesville, Wis.), Mrs. John Stuart (Burwell Road), Mrs. W. J. Reilly (Burwell Road), and Mr. W. C. J. Whiting (Burwell Road), presented the father with a gold-headed cane and the mother with a gold-headed umbrella.

Mr. Whiting, in thanking them for the presents, touched upon the changes which has taken place since he had taken up his abode upon the Burwell Road, with his young bride, 50 years before. Few of their old friends and neighbors were left, and the country has undergone a transformation.
