LONG AND SHORT.

BY A. CRISP PEN.

Bob Short, he was a whole-souled man.
A shoemaker by trade,
He fell in love with Mary Long—
She was a dairy maid.

Their names were most mal apropos;
Such are Dame Nature's tricks
That Short, he measured six feet four,
While Long was four feet six.

Her Short, she said, would soon get Long
When he his Mary caught.
And he declared his little Long
Was not at all too short.

He told her he would bind his heart
To hers beyond recall,
And then they would be double-souled
Each other's all in all.

He said no jeweller so proud
Of gems, as he of Mary,
When she sat in her deary's lap
He was her lapidary.

One night, he swore he'd deck her out
In dresses rich, a score—
She said, as it was getting late,
She'd but reply "bon sucre."

Her friends strove to break off the match
And many reasons found—
They said he understanding lacked,
His uppers were unsound.

She was a very fool to wish
To be his better-half,
For if she married she'd be bound
To him, but in half-calf.

But she replied she was the one
To judge of her own ts,
And till death severed their life's thread
She'd stick to him like wax.

And so in spite of evil tongues
They married as they ought,
Had children and were happy, and
That is the Long and Short.

☞ Quebec was in a lively state on Sunday last a canard having got abroad to the effect that another Fenian raid had taken place on the frontier.

The time for holding the general election in Prince Edward's Island has not been appointed. The Hon J. C. Pope, leader of the Government, has left for England, and the elections will not take place until his return.

The recent rains throughout the greater part of New Brunswick have sadly interfered with harvesting operations, so that much of it remains uncarried. Other crops are in a very flourishing state.

Great preparations are being made in Chicago for the Douglas Monument ceremonies that are to take place on the 10th proximo. Rooms have been engaged for President Johnson at the Sherman House.

Two well dressed shoemakers being in the company of some gentlemen, were asked their profession; says one of them, 'I practice the heel-ing art.' 'And I,' says the other, 'labor for the good of men's soles.'

A runaway thief having applied for work to a blacksmith, the latter showed him some handcuffs, and desired to know if he ever made anything of them. 'Why, yes, sir,' said the other, scratching his head, 'I've had a hand in them.'

In a tavern in a small town sat a farmer, who was plagued and bantered by a number of guests who were present. 'Well,' said the farmer at last, 'I've got the best of all of you.' 'How so?' asked all. 'In me you have only got one fool, while in you I've got c er a dozen.'

An Irish preacher once broke off the thread of his discourse, and said to his hearers, 'My dear friends, let me tell you that I am half through with my sermon, but seeing your impatience, I will say that the remaining half is not more than quarter as long as you have heard.'

A domestic newly engaged presented his master with a pair of boots, the leg of one of which was much longer than the other. 'How comes it that these boots are not of the same length?' 'I really don't know, sir; but what bothers me most is that the pair down stairs are in the same fix.'

☞ A new and Scientific way to light cigars and pipes consists of pouring phosphorus on the tobacco in the bowl of the latter, which, by quietly breathing gently upon it, becomes incandescent, and is in a condition to light.

A miser having threatened to give a poor laborer some blows with a stick. "I don't believe you," said the other, "for you never gave anything."

☞ A donkey carrying a load of books is as respectable an animal as the person whose head is so crammed with learning that he does not understand.

"Don't put too much confidence in a lover's vows and sighs," said Mrs. Partington to her niece. "Let him tell you that you have lips like strawberries and cream, cheeks like a carnation, and an eye like an asterisk; but such things oftener come from a tender head than a tender heart."

An elderly gentleman travelling in a stage coach, was amused by the constant fire of words kept up by two ladies. One of them at last kindly inquired if their conversation did not make his head ache, when he answered with a great deal of naiveté. "No, madam, I have been married twenty-eight years."

Sheridan (who was noted for not paying his bills) made his appearance in a pair of new boots; these attracting the notice of some of his friends, "Now guess," said he, "how I came by these boots?" Many probable guesses then took place. "No," said Sheridan, "no, you've not hit it yet, nor ever will—I bought them, and paid for them."

☞ The District of Bedford Times says of the crops: The weather for the last week has been extremely unfavorable for hay-making. A great quantity had been cut just before the rain set in and the most of it had to lay out for a week, undergoing considerable deterioration. The other crops are all looking well, but it is feared if this rainy weather continues much longer potatoes will suffer. Even now in some places they are looking rusty.

SINGULAR DETAILS OF A CASE OF CHOLERA.—W. J. Decker, formerly a rebel soldier, just from Alabama, was attacked with cholera in St., Louis, Mo., last Thursday, and was taken to the Health office. He begged for something to quench his thirst, and was given a spoonful of brandy. He still pleaded for something more to drink, anything that was moist. An attendant then gave him a drink of ice water, and he immediately turned over and breathed his last.

J. MACDONALD, Sheriff, H. & B.

Sheriff's Office, Goderich, 20th July, 1866.

Valuable Piece of Land FOR SALE,

ON favorable terms of payment. The following property, viz: North half of lot number 30, on the 12th con. of Goderich township, containing by admeasurement 46 acres, more or less, upon which there are fifteen acres cleared. This land is in a favorable situation, being within five miles of the town of Clinton. Also, a valuable property in the village of Kinburn, one half acre of land, a good farm house, shop, and stable on the premises. This would be a good situation for a tailor or saddle and harness maker as there is none in the vicinity. Leather or store goods at wholesale prices will be taken for either of the above places.

NEWS TO THE CANADIAN PUBLIC.

READ THE FOLLOWING VALUABLE FACTS.

HAGYARD'S ROYAL PAIN REMEDY.

THE REAL VEGETABLE REMEDY FOR PAIN. Both as an internal and external application, its efficacy is infallible. A volume might be written to explain its peculiar chemical and medicinal properties, but it needs no 'puffing;' a single trial will not fail to prove its valuable curative powers. Try it and be convinced. ☞ Any person purchasing a Bottle and not satisfied with it after a fair trial will on returning it receive their money back. ☞ Price 25c. Full Directions for using accompany each bottle. Sold by all Drug and country stores throughout Canada.

ABERNETHY'S VERMIFUGE CANDY.

THE most effectual Worm Destroyer known, pleasant to the taste, and as they contain no mineral they may be administered to the most delicate constitution.

Dr. Abernethy, notwithstanding his abrupt and eccentric manners, was considered one of the most skilful physicians that ever adorned the noble profession of medicine. His experience, derived from the most extensive practice in London, England together with his very superior natural talents, placed him at the head of the Faculty. It has always been difficult to form a combination with which to expel worms from the human system. Abernethy overcame this difficulty when he discovered the formula from which the Vermifuge Candy is prepared. Whether worms exist or not, the Candy will at all times be found beneficial when a purgative medicine is required.

Price 25c each or 5 Boxes for one Dollar. Sold by F. Jordon, Parker & Cattle, and Mr. Gibbons, Goderich, James H. Combe, Clinton, B. Jamieson, and E. Hickson & Co., Seaforth, and at all Drug and Country Stores in Canada
