of the company shall be doing the Superintendent may perform any of the duties and functions that the persons referred to in subsection (1) were performing prior to the taking of control and may exercise any power, right or privilege that any such person or persons had have exercised prior to the taking of control.

Powers of Superintendent

(4.1) Where the Superintendent takes control of a company pursuant to section 10 of 1.2 the Superintendent may appoint one or more persons to assist in the management of the company.

Appointment of assistant

(2) During any period during which the Superintendent has control of a company pursuant to section 91.2 the Minister may withdraw the company's certificate of registration and request the Attorney General of Canada to apply to a superior court for an order winding up the company under 20 the "Winding up Act".

(3) Subsections 91.3(1) and (3) of the said Act is repealed.

(4) Subsections 91.3(4) and (5) of the said Act are repealed and the following substituted 25 ed therefor:

Winding up order

"(4) Where any time that the Minister believes that a company of which the Superintendent has control pursuant to section 91.2 fails to meet all the requirements of this 30 Act and is otherwise improper for the company to remain under control of the conduct of its business, the Minister may direct the Superintendent to relinquish control of the company."

(5) Subsections 91.3(6) to (8) of the said Act are repealed and the following substituted therefor:

Control to adjust Superintendent

"(6) The Superintendent may appoint from the persons required under section 35 113 to assist in the expenses incurred by the Superintendent in the control of a company pursuant to section 91.2 a committee of not more than six members to advise the Superintendent in respect of 45 assets, management and all other matters pertinent to the duties and responsibilities of the Superintendent in exercising such control."

Committee to advise Superintendent

Appointment of assistant

Appointment of assistant

Appointment of assistant