Live Stock Market

With receipts of approximately 2500 cattle on the Union Stock Yards yesterday, and the outlook for the balance of the week very unsettled the market yesterday took on a decidedly firmer tone, tho it was not reflected so much in the prices. The market was 25c higher, due to the big storm, and unsettled conditions, with the prospects of few, if any, more cattle for the balance of the week.

Medium and common cows were lower, probably 25 cents, but there was a good demand for breedy stocker steers all the way from $8.75 to $10.25.

The best butchers sold from $11.25 up to $12 per cwt., with some odd extra choice lots selling at better prices. There was little change to note in the price of milkers and springers, and last week's prices would probably be applicable to them. Altogether a good market, with the drovers and commission men not worrying over any left overs in view of the probable short run and increased prices.

Just what position many of the shippers are in was very hard last night to determine, but it is not thought likely that this storm, with its coming heralded two or three days ahead and the disinclination of the railways to lift stock, will find very many cars of stock en route to the Union Stock Yards. The loss in shrinkage and suffering experienced by the animals is the cause of a lot of anxiety among the shippers.

The market for sheep and lambs was steady to strong. Lambs sold at 18c to 18¾c lb.; light sheep, 12½c to 14c, and heavy, fat sheep and lambs at 11½c to 13c lb.

Calves.

Choice veal calves brought from 16c to 16¾c lb.; medium, 12c to 14c; grassers and common calves, 6½c to 10c, and heavy, fat calves, 10½c to 13½c lb.

Hogs.

The market for hogs is again very unsettled, the packers having failed to realize their aim of taking another 50c off, as against last week. Just what the price will be remains to be seen, but the figure yesterday for fed and watered hogs was 18½c lb., with a little better in fed odd lots.

Market Notes.

There were some pretty good prices paid yesterday for extra choice lots of butcher steers and heifers. Just a few taken from among the lot will tend to show this.

Joe Wilson of the H. P. Kennedy Co., Ltd., sold one load, averaging 1200 lbs., at $12.30, and another load, of 1000 lbs., at $12.85.

Sparkhall & Armstrong and Fred Dunn sold 18 steers and heifers, weighing 21,900 lbs., at $12.75, and 11 more, 13,370 lbs., at $12.75.

The Corbett, Hall, Coughlin Co. sold a load of 20 averaging around 1125 lbs., at $12, and George Rowntree, for the Harris Abattoir, as shown in the report, paid $13 50 per cwt.

While not indicating any runaway market, the prices show that quality counts as much as ever it did.
