SKEPTICAL AND FOLLOW ON ONLY FAVORITES MONDAY

Attilla Beat Widow's Mite—Elksino, Land's End and Highland Fling Other Winners.

It was a glorious day Monday at the Hamilton race track, but that did not make the favorites win. They tried hard to fall back into last week's rut, and almost succeeded. Follow On, in the steeplechase, was the only distinct first choice to win, tho Skeptical, winner of the first event, was split favorite with the Marquis De Carabas, that ran second. It was a nice nice finish between the two. Kamerun, that showed the early way, stopped to show.

Elksino beat Kamsack by the shortest of heads in the second race right at the wire. Tom Gilroy, another short one, third. Jerry Sharp was favorite, but it was not his day.

Five of them were bunched at the last jump in the steeplechase, but they spread out coming up the stretch. The first and third horses and Hueston's mount carried the coin.

The odds-on choice ran outside the money in the gentlemen's race, Mr. Thompson failing to keep Virtuoso going. Land's End won easily, Queen's Lady second and Sugar King third.

The fifth looked easy for Widow's Mite till the last few strides. Fisher looked once too often over his shoulder, and at that did not see Attila on the outside till too late. Nonsense was third. These three were backed, also Arab and Winchester.

The closing event had a field of ten, with Monte Carlo, Azelina and Alsono most backed, the first named being real ripe and starting favorite. Little Mike and Sneer started out in front, with Monte Carlo chasing them for three furlongs. Azelina passedthe three rounding theturn and looked the goods till Highland Fling raced home a winner. Little Mike stayed for the show.

This is ladies' day, and the dear creatures will surely have better weather than on Friday. Six races are on the card, including a handicap and steeplechase.

that you might have a great deal more filing space in the same size of cabinet you are using? Perhaps you never figured it could be got. It's a fact, nevertheless, that "Macey" fourdrawer, upright, Vertical Filing Cabinets have 14% more available filing accommodation than any other make—a feature that makes them cheaper, based on the same prices as others—but they don't cost as much, and, taking capacity and cost into consideration, you save 50% by buying a "Macey."
