Presented With a Purse.

Rev. Father Chatillion was presented by the members of St. Dunstan's church on the occasion of his departure for Buctouche with a well filled purse.

A Slight Fire.

A slight fire at the residence of Mr. Robert McGeehan, Charlotte street, called out the firemen on Thursday morning about 8 o'clock. The fire was extinguished, however without their assistance.

Stars and Stripes.

The stars and stripes floated from the Barker House on Saturday in honor of Governor Russell, of Massachusetts, who was guest there, and the Queen and Barker both adorned their flag staff with the Yankee flag on Tuesday in honor of the Raymond excursionists.

Ring Out.

Mr. Frank McGoldrick, senior member of the firm of F. & O. McGoldrick, and Miss Kate Flynn, were married by Rev. J. C. McDevitt in St. Dunstan's church on Monday morning. After the ceremony they took the C. P. R. for a brief visit to Grand Falls.

Bitten by a Horse.

Early on Sunday morning last Luke Craig, fifteen years of age, was terribly bitten and arm mangled by a stallion in a field near Clearwater station on the C. E. R. The poor lad was brought to Victoria Hospital where Drs. Crocket, Coburn, and T. C. Brown, amputated the arm above the elbow.

Very Quiet.

With the Normal School, city schools and university closed, things in general are pretty quiet just now in the celestial city. In addition to this haying has commenced and the farmers are "hard at it," consequently trade is very dull all along the line.

A Bad Job.

That macadamizing job on Queen street, between Carleton and Regent, does not do Roadmaster McKay any credit. It is about the most disgraceful city job that has been done for many years. The idea of throwing a lot of broken stone along our principal street and there leaving them uncovered for weeks, not fit for horses or carriages to travel over. What is the chairman of our roads and streets thinking about?

Officers Installed.

The following officers of Fredericton Lodge, No. 6, K. of P., were installed Wednesday evening by Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Fowler, assisted by grand lodge officers: A. J. Fowlie, C. C.; Geo. W. Adams, V. C.; Jas. Waterman, P.; Walter Fisher, K. of R. and S.; C. H. Thomas, M. of E.; Bedford Philips, M. of F.; Albert Massie, M. at A.; Arthur Shute, I. G.; John Palmer, P. C. O. G.

Big Hearts.

This is the way the council divided on the vote for relief to the St. John's sufferers. Those voting yea opened their big hearts to the tune of five hundred dollars, those voting nay desired to give a less amount. The generosity of the present city council in wishing to relieve suffering humanity should be put on record. Yeas—The Mayor, Aldermen Farrell, Randolph, McNutt, Moore and Walker. Nays—Aldermen McPherson, Gilman, Duffie, Vandine and Everitt.

That Bad Boy.

According to the "Herald", Marysville's Bad Boy who contributed a spicey article from that town to this paper, is in great danger of being annihilated. The Herald's informants may be on the right track and they may not. It would not do to be too sure; in fact the GLOBE is strongly of opinion that their suspicions are far astray. The article, however, was rather cleverly put together and humorous, and no tramp that the GLOBE ever met with has shown such great amount of brain power that could contribute anything so amusing.

Those English Girls.

Turner's English girls who performed in the Mechanic's Institute, St. John, Thursday evening, created quite a furore previous to their appearance in that city, and the papers have contained letter after letter condemning the show. People write and talk about things they know nothing about, and as Turner's English Girls give a good clean performance with no objectionable features at all, these people find themselves in a rather absurd light. The W. C. T. U. and other organizations should not be too ready to condemn an attraction which they know nothing about, and have never seen. One writer signing herself W. C. T. U. says: "A Fredericton paper describes the performance as "disgraceful." No such notice of their performance ever appeared either in a Fredericton paper or in any Fredericton despatch that this paper is aware of. The following letter from H. B. Clarke, Mgr. Academy of Music, Halifax, appeared in the St. John Sun on Thursday:

"Dear Sir—George H. Turner, manager of Turner's English Girls' Co., asks me to write you endorsing his company. I do so with pleasure, and can assure you there is nothing objectionable to the most fastidious; on the contrary a clean and very attractive burlesque and vaudeville show."

James Knight, a Halifax saloon man, is out of town. He separated from his wife some time ago and has had another woman living with him since. On Monday Mrs. Knight No. 1, accompanied by her grown daughter and provided with a clothes line and an axe, entered Knight's shop with the avowed intention of hanging Mrs. Knight No. 2. After a quarter of an hour's tusselling, during which a crowd collected around the door, the noose was got around the neck of the hostess and her infuriated assailants dragged her out on the street and were in the act of putting the end of the rope over a sign when the police put in an appearance.

"Progress," St. John, is booming business in great shape and its premium list includes pianos, bicycles, silver tea services, croquet sets and other valuable gifts. With such attractive inducements its subscription list ought to increase very rapidly.

St. John will contribute about ten thousand dollars to the St. John's sufferers.

Lemont & Sons want a clerk 15 to 17 years of age to learn the business.

Adults take two teaspoonfuls of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, in water for cramps and chills.

That Cow Pasture.

That picket fence which encloses Colonel Maunsell's cow pasture, adjoining the post office, should be painted. Situated on our most public thoroughfare and in the most conspicuous place in the city a cow pasture is not a very grand institution at any rate. Were it somewhere on the Springhill road it would not be so bad, but right on front street it looks very disgraceful, more especially to strangers. If Col. Maunsell would have a nice cedar hedge put inside that picket fence then his cows could graze there, and no one would know anything about it. Act upon this Colonel and send some of the men out for a lot of cedars.

Generous Gift.

The town of Springhill, N. S. has contributed $1,500 for the relief of the St. Johns' sufferers.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

What the Gossips have to Remark about

The Trend of Matters Political Parliamentary or Otherwise.

Some Touch-and-Go notices of all Mentionable Manner of Things.

The band stand on Parliament square is idle this summer, Why is it? Last year the I. S. C. Band very generously gave weekly concerts there and the city band did the same. This year neither band has played a note for our citizens. Won't Bandmasters Hayes and Williamson consider this matter and come out and let the people hear them?

* * * *

The City Council from the Mayor down did not cover themselves with glory at their special meeting Monday evening, in voting the paltry amount of five hundred dollars for the relief of the St. Johns' sufferers. There are some men at our council board who would be far better employed washing the dishes at home and carrying in the coal and wood, than looking after the city's interests. Two or three of them, at least, are genuine old women. Two of them reside on York street.

* * * *

An excursion party of about one hundred left this city by steamer Florenceville on Tuesday morning to be present at the celebration of a reunion of decendants of the Loyalists at Gagetown. The old historic town was in holiday attire. Flags were flying from all the public buildings and from many private ones. These were followed by the St. John contingent and also a party from Rothesay in the "Dream." Thus about five hundred strangers were in the place. In the morning a special service was held in the church, when an excellent and appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Parkinson, of St. Mary's. The service was read by Rev. Mr. Hansen, rector of the Gagetown church. In the afternoon short addresses were made from a platform erected on the glebe land. The speakers were Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir John Allen, Mr. James Garden, Dr. A. A. Stockton, Rev. Mr. Parkinson and Mr. I. Allen Jack. The addresses were all appropriate to the occasion. A short historical paper on the early history of Gagetown was read by the Rev. W. O. Raymond. He gave much valuable and interesting information regarding the early settlers. Many of the excursionists spent the four hours at their disposal visiting friends or roaming about seeing the sights. Most of the excursionists took baskets, but the ladies of the Gagetown church served refreshments in the public hall and their tables were well patronized. The occasion was much enlivened by the Artillery band, which played many choice selections on the steamer at Gagetown.

In the evening a concert and conversazione was held, at which a very fine musical programme was carried out. Those who took part were: Mrs. J. R. Armstsong, Mrs. Gilbert, Misses Blanche Tibbits and Mabel Peters, Miss Hoben, Rev. N. C. Hansen, Mr. C. Ludlow Robinson and Mr. W. J. Starr. Mr. Starr was in the place in company with Messrs. De Veber and W. M. Maclaughlan on the yacht "Gladys." Another yaching party from St. John, in Messrs. Temple's steam launch were also present.

Death of Thomas Cook.

Thomas Cook, the head of the well-known firm of excursion managers, died on July 19 of paralysis. He was the originator of the tourist business and founder of the world-wide firm of Thomas Cook & Son, of London which managed cheap excursions to all parts of the world. He was 84 years of age and for the past seven or eight years he had been almost totally blind, though his affliction did not greatly impair his usefulness or prevent him from travelling for amusement. He practically retired from business some 18 years ago, leaving the active conduct of affairs to his son, J. M. Cook.

At Pine Park.

The firemen's festival at Pine Park on Tuesday evening, although not as largely attended as the previous one, drew a very good crowd. The firemen paraded from the central station by way of York, Queen, St. John, Brunswick and Regent streets to the Park at 7.30 headed by the Band of the Canadian Regiment of Infantry. Good sports were furnished on the grounds and lots of refreshments were for sale, all of which were liberally patronized. Mr. D. J. Stockford took charge of the dancing. The prizes were won by the following;

Miss Stella McCatherin, ticket No. 546, lady's gold watch.

Mr. A. D. Macpherson, ticket No. 576, barrel of flour.

Mr. Chas. Stevenson, ticket No. 542, 10 lbs. of tea.

Ticket No. 83, silver pickle stand.

Mrs. Malcolm Ross, lady's work box at bagatelle.

Mr. W. F. Grace, necktie. at ring tossing, making 9 out of a possible 10 points.

Mr. Bert Lint, gent's slippers, Floburt Rifle.

Mr. Joseph Hayes guessed No. 446 as the number nearest to winning the gold watch and got $2.50 in cash.

The Oxford-Cambridge Match.

The Oxford and Cambridge Cricket match this year was one of the most remarkable on record. Cambridge went in first, and made 150 runs. Oxford replied to this with 365 runs. Cambridge in the second innings played a wonderful up-hill game, making 388 runs. Oxford then had 184 runs to get to win, and accomplished this task with the loss of five wickets. Visits the Celestial.

Among recent visitors to Fredericton last week was Capt. Pepon of H. M. S. Magicienne, then anchored in the St. John harbor. Accompanied by His Worship the Mayor and Mr. Temple, M. P., the Captain was shown the chief points of interest on Saturday morning and was hurried back to his vessel by a telegram requiring him to sail to St. Johns, Nfld., without delay. While here he visited St. Ann's church to see the statute erected to the memory of his uncle, who was captain in the Royal Engineers, and who was drowned in the Restigouche river while on active service in 1846.

What's Up Now?

The month of July is getting well along but the steamer "David Weston" has not yet made her appearance, although her owners stated positively that she would be on the route by the middle of July. The summer tourist travel has now fairly commenced and very bad impressions must be given those who visit this city, of the accommodation on the St. John river, of which so much has been heard. Are the owners of the "Weston" still humbugging the public? If so it is full time the people knew it and steps were taken to show them that the public will not be trifled with.

Good Canoeing.

Messrs. A. J. Machum and Charles Hogg left Fredericton at 5 o'clock last Sunday and paddled to Gagetown, a distance of 30 miles, in 7½ hours.

The Weather.

For the past ten days Fredericton has been having as fine summer weather as one could wish for, the days being bright, but not too warm, and the evenings delightfully cool.

Gift Opera Tickets.

The long postponed gift opera drawing came off Wednesday evening at the opera house, St. John, and as a number of Fredericton people are interested in the drawings we publish the list of the lucky numbers from five dollars up. A fair representation of the ticket holders was present. The following committee were nominated and appointed to manage the drawing: Messrs. E. W. Paul, H. S. Smith, John F. Ashe, C. F. Sanford, J. M. Humphrey and James McKinney.

Mr. Humphrey then explained the method which would be adopted in the drawing, two churns were on the stage, and in the larger of the tickets bearing the numbers corresponding to those sold were placed. Two boys were blindfolded, and one drew from the big churn.

A HANDSOME PRIZE OF VALUE will be given to EVERY PERSON who sends in one hundred words or over in this our last Prize Word Competition.

RULES:—1. Lists are to contain English and Anglicised words ONLY of not less than four letters each. 2. No letter can be used in the construction of any word more times than it appears in LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY. 3. Words having more than one meaning, but spelled the same, can be used but once. 4. Names of places and persons are barred. 5. Words will be allowed in either singular or plural, but not in both numbers, and in one tense only. 6. Prefixes and suffixes are not allowed by themselves, but can be used in the construction of a complete word. 7. The main part ONLY of Worcester's or Webster's Dictionaries may be used as the governing authority. Each list must contain name of person sending same, with full postoffice address and number of words contained therein, and be accompanied by fifty cents for a two months' trial subscription to THE LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY, Canada's high-class illustrated newspaper for ladies. The subscription price of fifty cents must accompany list of words. Do not send in separate enclosure. If two or more tie on the largest list, the one bearing the earliest postmark will receive the first prize, and the other the second prize. The complete number of words intended for the competition must be forwarded at one time. No alterations or additions to the list can be made after it has been sent to us. On account of the extra work involved in these competitions it is impossible for the publishers to enter into personal correspondence concerning the competition or rules thereof. All lists must be mailed on or before September 1st, 1892. The object of offering these liberal prizes is to introduce our popular and finely illustrated Journal into new homes, and every prize-winner must subscribe for a year before their prize is forwarded. There will be no charge made for boxing and packing prizes. Present subscribers can enter this competition only by enclosing fifty cents for a two months' trial subscription, which will be sent to any address desired. Prizes awarded in the United States will be forwarded free of customs duty. The publishers desire to announce to the public that this will positively be their last word competition. Prizes will be awarded September 10, 1892, and names and addresses of winners will be published in our publication. Address. LADIES' PICTORIAL COMPANY, TORONTO, CANADA.
