SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS

Costello played a good third base for the Saints of St. Thomas against Conneaut on Wednesday last. He handled all his chances in the field perfectly, and got a hit in each game. He also stole a base. The Saints lost the first 3 to 1, and won the second 3 to 0.

Purslane, one of Seagram's Watercress colts, ran second at Saratoga yesterday at 25 to 1. He finished ahead of the $25,000 beauty, Horace E., the top-heavy favorite.

That athletic park begins to look more certain every day. The Canadian Club is sure doing something.

Mooney Gibson had ten putouts and three assists in a recent game without a skip.

The river is still in a very bad condition for motor boats and rowing, and the city authorities still persist in refusing to do just a few days' work to accommodate a large number of citizens. London has a beautiful river, but it is hardly any better than a duck pond at present. It is up to the voters among the oarsmen to get busy next January.

George Finlayson has been arrested for that assault on Charlie Querrie in the Montreal-Tecumseh lacrosse match not long ago. Fine business. What is the use of fining a player in a case like that. If Querrie and Lambe and Finlayson and all of that ilk had been barred out of the game for life some good would be accomplished. This way of dealing with it is mere foolishness. Put them out of the game for good.

Mr. Peter Campbell, the oldest member of the visiting British bowlers, carries his 83 years as lightly as hundreds who are in good health, though still under the half-century mark. "He is the youngest old man I ever saw" is the way an enthusiastic Canadian acquaintance put it yesterday. Mr. Campbell is head of the old-established firm of Messrs. P. & P. Campbell, of Perth Dye Works. He was born in the Scotch city in 1824 and was educated at Perth Academy. In British politics Mr. Campbell is a lifelong Liberal, and his memory carries him back to 1831, when, as a 7-year-old lad, he was present at a mass meeting of weavers held on his father's green. The object of the meeing was to assist in hastening on the change brought about by the reform bill passed by Earl Grey's Government in 1832, and which put an end to the fantastic method of electing a member to Parliament. One rule Mr. Campbell has observed religiously—to live well within his income. He was in youth and is still a total abstainer. In 1853 Mr. Campbell left Perth on a wor[illegible] during which he traveled 52,081 miles.—Globe.

CANADIAN HANDICAP GOES TO THOMSON

Second Day's Shoot of Dominion Trap Shooters' Association Very Successful.

Hamilton, Aug. 10.—The second day of the Dominion Trap Shooters' Association gun tournament was an improvement on the opening day. There was more method in the shooting arrangements, and the squads got through much more quickly. There was an east wind blowing, but it was light, and did not interfere with the gunners at all. The air seemed to be damp, the grounds being so close to the water. Two special events were shot off, during the day, in addition to the second stage of each of the ten ordinary events. The Grand Canadian Handicap, of 50 targets, was won by Walter P. Thompson, the popular secretary of the association, with a score of 49 out of 50. Mr. Thompson was the only amateur making the score, three of the five professionals equaling it. They were J. R. Taylor, who had the high professional average of the opening day; W. Stevens and E. G. White. Mr. Thompson made a clean score on the first round, and missed one in the second. There were several others with scores [illegible]. W. J. Johnstone, of Ottawa, who [illegible] the Dominion championship to D. [illegible]ackon by one target on the open[illegible]ay, lost two targets, and the [illegible] with scores of 48 were G. M. Visitors Easily Get Away With Local and Niagara Falls Players.

St. Catharines, Aug. 10.—The British bowlers today defeated eight rinks on the Welland House lawn, the locals being chosen from the St. Catharines and Niagara Clubs.

Returning to the city they were welcomed by Mayor Riddell and Ald. Hodgins, who extended to them all necessary privileges and freedom.

A sumptuous luncheon was then served at the Welland and shortly after the picked teams got down to business. The results of the play follows.
