A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION,

A Romance of the Needle.

BY ROCKAFELLOW.

I.

In a snug little cot, not a thousand miles off,
Lived a lonely, contented old "bach,"
Who cooked his own grub and dined by himself,
And had no one to sew on a patch.

II.

With his cat, and his dog, and his little pet mouse,
Our hero, 'twas said, wanted nothing;
But needles were sharp, and would frequently stick,
So he oft went with holes in his clothing.

III

There no doubt were misses and maids quite near
Who would fly to relieve his distresses,
But he oft had declared he could never abide
The appearance of hoopskirts and dresses.

IV.

Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend,
Or read in his morning journal,
Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines,
And considered the matter nocturnal.

V.

Having fully determined to get a machine,
He spent a whole day in inspection,
For an hour or so would never suffice
To select from so large a collection,

VI.

For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best,
And others the "Wilcox & Gibbs,"
While others affirmed that the agents of both
Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

VII.

And a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight,
While most liked the "New Family Singer;"
Another one swore the "Osborne" was best,
The last one, I think, was a shaker.

VIII.

So first to the "Wheeler & Wilson" he went,
Where he found them making a shirt,
At the end of each seam they used needle and thread,
And by experience he knew they would hurt.

IX.

Then down to the agent of "Florence" he went,
And told him the part that was slack,
So the "Florence" a certain advantage had gained
By the feed that could make it sew back.

X.

But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still,
For the "Florence" so complicate seemed,
He feared the minutia might "get out of fix,"
And could never be wholly redeemed.

XI.

Then they told him another advantage they had
Over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could make,
And from four he might sure get the best.

XII.

Our hero replied, "What's the use of the our!
If one of the stitches is best,
Why that is the right one to use all the time,
And what will you do with the rest?"

XII.

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,
The "Domestic" and "Osborne" as well,
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson" too light,
And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

XIV.

The "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried,
The "Zinn," "Bles," "Leavitt" and "Weed,"
Till worried and vexed with his fruitless research,
He scarce hoped in the end to succeed.

XV.

After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family" was kept,
And they quickly relieved his distress.

XVI.

For here half a dozen machines were engaged
In stitching of different sorts,
Which they did so complete, and with so little noise
He acknowledged the truth of reports.

XVII.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong,
Sure none but the "New Family Singer" would vie,
Though he'd searched through the infinite throng.

XVIII.

Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so strong
That he vainly endeavored to break it,
And so many advantages in it combined
That he quickly decided to take it.

J. D. LAWLOR,
Manufacturer of the New Singer Family,

From Yesterday's Second Edition

A Remarkable Physical Endurance—A Week in Mud and Water Without Nourishment.

Rome (N. Y.) cor. Utica Herald.

Early in the morning of Saturday, the 21st ult., Mrs. Fred. Haak mysteriously disappeared from home. Search was unavailingly made for her in every direction, until the conclusion that she had made way with herself, forced itself upon the minds of Mr. Haak and his friends. Last Saturday afternoon a man started across lots for the county-house from the farm of Mr. Samuel Bielby, (about two miles from Rome in a southerly direction.) He was a traveler, and had a boy companion. At Mr. Bielby's he obtained some food, and inquired the nearest and direct road to the county-house. When, perhaps, a third of the way over, he came upon the prostrate form of a woman, on swampy land, to the north of the New York Central railroad. At first he could scarcely tell whether the woman was dead or asleep; but he hastily emptied some tobacco out of a box, and rinsing the box, filled it with water from a neighboring stream, and holding it to the woman's lips, she opened her eyes and drank. He then sent the boy back to Mr. Bielby's for help, and started a fire by which, when the help arrived, he was endeavoring to dry the woman's clothing. It was soon ascertained that the woman could not speak English, and a German living not far away was sent for, and learned from her that her husband worked for Armstrong, in Rome. After thus revealing her identity, she swooned and did not recover consciousness till the following morning. Mr. Haak was at once sent for, and, taking a carriage, went after his wife and with the assistance of friends carried her about a quarter of a mile to the carriage. After reaching the city, Dr. M. C. West was summoned, who found Mrs. Haak in a most deplorable condition physically. Her body and limbs were badly swollen, and the latter greatly inflamed. After recovering consciousness, she was powerless to move her limbs, from which life had apparently permanently departed. She recognized her husband, and on being asked why she left home as she did, said that all she knew was that she went up the New York Central track the morning of her disappearance and in some way got her clothing wet—how, she does not know—and awaking suddenly to a knowledge of her condition, she was so ashamed that she went into the woods to the right of the track, intending to stay there until night, when she could return home unseen. She sat down near where she was found and went to sleep. On awaking Sabbath morning she found herself unable to move. All she remembers since then is hearing the church bells on Sunday morning and evening. From Saturday forenoon, the 21st, until Saturday afternoon the 28th, this unfortunate woman reposed on a piece of marsh land without sustenance of any kind whatsoever, and exposed to the alternating storms and frosts of seven days and nights. Had she not been a person of remarkable constitution it is plain that she could not have existed so long under such circumstances without even the protection of dense evergreen foliage, which may be found not far from the scene of her sufferings. Yesterday she seemed somewhat improved and life had apparently reanimated her limbs as far down as her knees. She commenced taking her first nourishment yesterday—a raw egg, beaten, once in six hours—and her attendant physician hopes, should she be able to retain this nourishment, to see her restored to perfect health. All in all, it is certainly one of the most remarkable cases on record. For several months, as mentioned heretofore in Rome matters, she had at times shown symptoms of insanity, and her troubles last week, as narrated by herself, show that while temporarily insane she wandered from home.

A Rabbi's Response.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

Rabbi Frudenthal of Williamsport, Pa., having received a letter from the women's temperance organization of that place urging him to appoint a committee of Hebrew ladies to co-operate with it in a crusade, the rabbi replies very sharply that it is impossible to fanaticise the Israelite. He says the latter cannot appreciate those crusades, because he drinks and is no drunkard, plays, and is no gambler, and lives well and is no glutton. The second point made by the rabbi is that the Jew is no hypocrite. "If he drinks wine or strong drink or plays a game of cards his wife and children are not excluded from the same pleasure. Whatever is not prohibited loses much of its charm. The young people who drink a glass of wine or beer at their parent's table become no drunkards and no temperance fanatics." Third, the rabbi decides that "any Jewish lady would consider it a sacrilege and blasphemy to abuse prayer and benediction for purposes of public demonstrations in which the wives are laid and drawn by politicians on one hand and by men who make money out of the affair on the other," and that there were "no whiskey Amazons in the tents of Israel." It is needless to add that the answer of the rabbi was not comforting to the crusaders, and that they incontinently dropped the Jews from their plans.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

EUREKA

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases
