One million three hundred thousand dollars will be required to fit up and put into proper shape the public schools of Philadelphia under the reform regime, including one hundred thousand dollars for renewing heating plants alone. If new furniture and fittings badly needed were also supplied, it would take another hundred thousand dollars.

—A correspondent writing from Digby, N. S., says that a Mr. Bluett who is lecturing in his own interest in that part of the country represents himself as a Baptist minister. We find that the name of William Bluett, who is presumable the person alluded to, has not appeared in the Baptist Year Book since 1902. We also find in the minutes of the Southern N. B Baptist Association for 1903, (see Year Book 1903, page 176) the following item: "Committee on Standing of Ministers recommended that the name of William Bluett be dropped from the list of ordained ministers, and that the clerk so inform Mr. Bluett and the 3rd Springfield church."
