THEIR CALL TO DUTY.

British Army Officers Ordered to Rejoin Their Regiments.

FORT ALI-MUSJID, IN THE KHYBER PASS,

Was Evacuated After Eleven of the Native Soldiers Had Deserted.

Senate Reading Room

No Confirmation of the Report That 300 Sepoys Were Massacred by Afridis—Ali-Musjid Was Burned—Insurgents Said to Be Short of Food and Ammunition—Powers in a Tangle Over the Græco-Turkish Situation—Cruelties Perpetrated by Turks on Armenians—Important Speech by President Kruger—The Boers Will Not Accept British Suzerainty—Other News by Cable.

Simla, Aug. 25.—All the British army officers on leave of absence have been ordered to rejoin their regiments immediately.

It is officially announced to-day that Fort Ali-Musjid, in the Khyber Pass, was evacuated, after eleven of the garrison, composed of Khyber Rifles (native levies) had deserted. No news has been received of the remainder of the garrison, and there is no confirmation of the report that the Afridis have massacred three hundred of the force. Ali-Musjid was afterwards burned by the enemy.

Fort Jehangera, which has been occupied by the Afridis, is only a tower and not of much importance.

A force of 4000 Afridis has advanced to Lukarai, twelve miles from Fort Bara, which is southeast of Jamrud. General Elles will attempt to cut off the retreat of the enemy.

The insurgents are reported to be short of food and ammunition.

Ameer Swears Friendship.

Simla, Aug. 25.—The British agent at Cabul reports that the Ameer held a convention of chiefs on the 17th inst. and read the protest of Lord Elgin, the Indian Viceroy, against the complicity of Afghan subjects in the outbreaks of the Indian tribes on the frontier, and then read his own reply to it, following this with a solemn declaration, attested by an oath, that he would always maintain friendly relations with the British Government.

A GRAVE CRISIS

With Which the Government of India Will Have to Grapple.

Bombay, Aug. 25, 11 p.m.—The latest despeatches received from the front indicate that the situation on the frontier is getting worse. It is evident that the Indian Government must face a grave crisis, involving heavy expenditures, and probably great loss of life.

The Government is confronted with the following state of affairs: Khyber Pass has fallen into the hands of the Afridis; the posts in Kurram Valley are threatened by the powerful tribe of the Orakzais; the Mohmand tribesmen are meditating a renewal of hostilities around Fort Shabkadr, while thousands of troops are engaged in crushing the revolt in the valley, and two large brigades are bobbing the Tochi Valley.

Mahud Maziris are again restless. The authorities are convinced that Fort Ali-Musjid could only have fallen after desperate fighting, as the native garrison of Khyber Rifles, grand fighters, was made up of men who rendered valuable assistance in the Black Mountain expedition of 1888.

A Very Serious Blow.

The fall of the fort is a very serious blow, for it isolates Fort Lundi-Kotal, which is at the extreme end of Khyber Pass, garrisoned by 300 rifles, and necessitates the prompt re-conquest of the pass. This is certain to prove a most formidable task, of which the British troops had o foretaste on Monday, when a boyd of artillery, cavalry and infantry left Fort Bara, south of Peshawur, in order to repel the Afridis, who were them advancing down the Bazi Valley. The troops returned early in the morning and reported that many of teh men had dropped out from want of water, none being provided along the route, while the Afridis, although shelled by the British, maintained their position on the heights, threatening the loyal village of Kadam and the British position at Fort Jamrud, at the mouth of the pass.

Excitement Among Hindoos.

The wildest excitement prevails among the Hndoo traders at Bana, on the Kurram River. It is rumored that 7000 Waziris intend to swoop down there to-night, sack the town and massacre the inhaitants. The Mullah and his emissaries, especially those from the Afghan Governor of Khost, are actively stirring up the Waziris, who are also affected by the disloyal attitude of the Kurram tribes, and emboldened by the knowledge that the garrison at Bana is very weak.

There is one ground for satisfaction in the fact that, except in a few instances, the Afridis' levies remain loyal in the face of temptation to join their kinsmen, as was so conspicuously the case at Fort Maude.

Somewhat more hopeful intelligence comes from the Swat Valley, where the Bonerwals have opened up peace negotiations. The authorities expect that this will have a widespread influence, especially if it is followed up by submission.

FAURE AND RUSSIA.

A March Past of Troops and a Luncheon and Love Feast.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—The Czar, Czarina and President Faure and their respective suites witnessed a marchpast of 50,000 troops at the Krasno Selo camp to-day. The spectacle was most imposing. As the Imperial Guard passed the grand stand, the Czar cried: "Thank you, my men."

At the luncheon which followed President Faure toasted the Czar and Czarina and the Russian army, to which, he added, he brought the greetings of its French comrades.

The Czar replied by toasting "Our Comrades of the Valiant French Army."

Both toasts were honored standing and the Marseillaise and the Russian Hymn were played.

France and the Price of Wheat.

Paris, Aug. 25.—Premier Meline, addressing the delegates to the Council-General of the Department of the Seine, and the municipality of Paris, to-day, on the rise in the price of wheat, declared he would submit the question to the Cabinet, adding that he would not hesitate to reduce the tariff if the rise was genuine and not speculative.

POWERS IN A TANGLE.

Germany Opposes Salisbury's Proposal and is Supported by Austria.

Constantinople, Aug. 25.—The question of the peace settlement between Greece and Turkey has become the subject of negotiations direct between the European Cabinets. Germany objects to the Marquis of Salisbury's proposal that Greece should be asked to state precisely what means she possesses for paying the indemnity, and insists upon the signing of the peace preliminaries as already framed. Austria partly shares Germany's views and Italy will adhere to Germany's policy if the powers agree upon it. Russia and France are inclined to support the Marquis of Salisbury.

HORRIBLE CRUELTIES.

An Armenian Whipped Unmercifully and Nuns Outraged and Maimed.

Paris, Aug. 25.—The Petite Republique despatch from Constantinople says:

The prisons are crowded with Armenians and Turkish Liberals, who have been arrested on suspicion. On Sunday last eighty of these prisoners were placed in the subterranean dungeons of Galata.

The Armenian who exploded a bomb in the Turkish Government offices has been tortured and whipped until he was covered with blood, and the soles of his feet have been burned. Yet he refused to confess.

The situation in the provinces is horrible. Six soldiers at Toschkschla outraged some nuns and cut off the hands and feet of two of them. They tied the others to trees and abandoned them.

DEARNESS OF BREAD

Thornhill.

Is a Matter That is at Present Causing Uneasiness in England.

London, Aug. 25.—Prospective dearness in the price of bread is causing uneasiness here. Already some of the London bakers have put on an extra half-penny a loaf, and it is expected the rest will quickly follow their example. Mark Lane has advanced in sympathy with New York, and millers will advance prices with Mark Lane, and the local bakers with the millers. The only Londoner who will suffer is the bread consumer, and that, of course, means everybody in London.

On Exchange yesterday wheat was from 5d to 6d dearer than a week ago, and the probabilities pointed to no immediate fall. Flour was 4d dearer on the week. The official report, which is not given to extravagant flights of fancy, describes the market as "excited." Such a phrase from such a source is significant.

The corn market at Liverpool Tuesday was marked by great excitement, values rapidly moving upward. Eight shillings per 100 pounds was passed during the session. American cablegrams of a disappointing character caused a slight reaction towards the close, but the final rates showed a very substantial rise on the day for spot parcels; for moderate quantities changing hands a further advance of from 3d to 4d per cental was established. Up to Saturday the stocks in warehouse at Liverpool showed a decrease of 7000 tons.

KRUGER'S OMINOUS SPEECH.

The Boers Will Not Acknowledge the Suzerainty of Great Britain.

Pretoria, South African Republic, Aug. 25.—At a meeting of the Volksraad to-day President Kruger delivered a speech which is likely to cause the greatest excitement in Great Britain. During the course of his remarks the President said that the relations between Great Britain and the South African Republic were regulated at the convention of 1884. He added that in the convention of November, 1881, a reference to the suzerainty of Great Britain did not appear, but that in the next convention, that of 1884, not a single word appeared bearing precisely upon that point, and since then the suzerainty had ceased to exist.

This did not do away with the fact that the South African Republic and the whole nation recognized the convention, and would endeavor to maintain it entirely, but they could not recognize the suzerainty of Great Britain, because it was entirely opposed to that convention. They wished to maintain friendly relations with the whole world, and in this way race hatred would gradually disappear. Wherever love dwelt, said the President in conclusion, the blessing of God would follow.

President Kruger's remarks were greeted with loud applause.

THE GRAND ARMY PARADE.

Forty-Five Thousand Men Marched in Procession for Nearly Six Hours—An Inspiring Sight.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Forty-five thousand men, members of the Grand Army of the Republic, marched to-day through streets swathed in flags and bunting, receiving the ovations of a half-million people, whose gratitude and admiration was evinced in every way that human devotion can find public expression.

The President of the Union they fought to save, the chosen representative of a re-united people, himself their comrade, was at their head.

When the line of the great procession moved at 10.30 o'clock this morning the sun was shining and the sky had not a cloud. The threatening conditions of the early morning had all passed, and the rainstorm of the night left as its legacy a clear, bracing air, that was like a tonic to the marching men.

Marched Nearly Six Hours.

Through streets packed with one of the most loyal American crowds that ever assembled to do honor to the nation's heroes, the procession moved for five hours and forty-two minutes.

Under a gigantic arch of welcome, fashioned as a monogram G. A. R.; under a massive triumphal arch, resembling polished granite, and under an arch radiant with bunting, erected by the colored people, the soldiers marched to the living shield, composed of 2000 children from the schools of Buffalo, who sang national anthems as the procession wheeled before it, and moved on to the reviewing stand. Along the route of march one hundred girls, dressed in the colors of the flag, scattered flowers in the path of the soldiers.

At the Reviewing Stand.

President McKinley rode in a carriage at the head of the procession and waved his hat to the cheering, applauding crowd. At the reviewing stand he took his position, with Commander-in-Chief Clarkson and Governor Black, and the headquarters staff passed in review.

Of all the throng reviewing the procession no one person was more enthusiastic, more generous in treatment, or more affected by the sights than President McKinley. For six long hours, with his hand on his hat, continually uncovering to the national colors or the salute of the veterans, the President watched the army of proud veterans march by. It was certainly a column to inspire admiration. Such men as Secretary of War Alger, General Lew Wallace and General John Palmer the murderer away from Canada and the decrepid pensioner, whom they had to assist. When the review was over the President, tired though he was, expressed no regret but only pleasure.

What He Thought of It.

Speaking of the parade, President McKinley said: "Even to a veteran the sight was a most surprising, as well as inspiring, one. It is too bad that every child in the country could not see it, for it would surely inspire patriotism and inculcate all the good qualities that go to make up the American citizen. I had never supposed until to-day that so many brave survivors of the war were capable of following martial music through city streets. Such a display of patriotic courage cannot fail to be of benefit to the entire country."

ROYALTY WILL VISIT CANADA.

Duke and Duchess of York Will Come and See Us Next Year, it is Said.

London, Aug. 25.—The Echo asserts that the Duke and Duchess of York have accepted the invitation of the Premier of Canada, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, to visit Canada during the spring of 1898, while on their way to Australia.

Thornhill.

One of the oldest residents of the village, in the person of Mrs. Leeds Richardson, passed away early yesterday morning. Deceased had been a resident of this locality for more than half a century, and had reached the mature age of 87 years. Mr. C. M. Richardson, Toronto; Mr. Leeds Richardson, London bakers; Mrs. Graham, London; Mrs. Bligh, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Murray, Grand Valley, comprise the children left by deceased. The concert under the auspices of the Army and Navy Band at the skating rink promises a big success. Besides the band of 30 instruments, Mr. T. Baker, Henry Brown and William Draper will provide vocal and instrumental selections. The Metropolitan will provide a good service from the C.P.R. crossing at excursion rates.

Regular Lady Catchers.

Every day gives more zest and spirit to the big Fair idea. Merchants are vieing with each other which shall be first in the multitude's affections, and no one firm is doing more to make a trip to Toronto during Exhibition time one of pleasure and profit than W. & D. Dineen, hatters and furriers. What with their new and handsome premises in course of erection, and which will be occupied on or about Oct. 1, and the added attractions in the fur showrooms —81 Yonge—where all the newest styles in modest-priced and most costly fur garments are being and will be displayed —and add again the attraction of a nice lot of newly imported New York and Parisian walking hats—as choice and chic as the nattiest millinery—that are now on sale—temporary premises at 81 Yonge—will in very deed be a regular lady catcher.

Talk of the Release of Murderer Valentine Shortiss.

PRESSURE IN HIGH PLACES

With the Object of Securing Freedom for the Valleyfield Assassin.

It is Said That Lady Aberdeen Promised the Convict's Mother That Her Son Would Be Released When Laurier Came to Power—Petitions to Sir Oliver Mowat—Reason Why Sir Donald Smith is Not Baron Glencoe—Montreal Exhibition Not a Success—Other Notes from the Metropolis.

Montreal, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—There is a growing impression here that a grave scandal is about to be perpetrated by the Department of Justice, and that Sir Oliver Mowat will liberate Valentine Shortis, the double-dyed murderer of Valleyfield, who is under a life sentence at St. Vincent de Paul. Shortis was found guilty of a cruel double murder and should have been hung, this flagrant failure of justice having contributed more than a little to the discredit of the late Government in the province. He was sent to the penitentiary, and those who pretend to know whereof they speak declare that Lady Aberdeen promised the murderer's mother that when Laurier came to power the assassin would be liberated. People who followed the trial pitied the mother of the heartless wretch, but they did not forget the widows and orphans created by this bloodthirsty scoundrel, who, in attempting to rob the cotton mill, killed two men who stood in his way. Mrs. Shortis comes out twice a year to see her son, and there are well-authenticated rumors afloat to the effect that the Countess of Aberdeen has set her mind on getting the murderer away from Canada and back to Ireland. Petitions to Sir Oliver have been signed right and left, and the strongest pressure from high places is being exercised upon the Minister of Justice. Should the department continue its policy of general jail delivery a crime will have been perpetrated and a discount set upon foul murder. It looks, however, as if the act was to be consummated, as Mrs. Shortis assured friends to-day that she expected soon to see her son at liberty. She visits him daily at St. Vincent de Paul.

Sir Donald Smith's Title.

Great satisfaction is felt here over the title selected by the High Commissioner, yet a little bird has whispered across the ocean the reason why Baron Strathcona is not Baron Glencoe. It is said that the poor yet proud Macdonalds of Glencoe protested so strongly and brought so much pressure to work that the Glencoe title had to be abandoned. Strathcona is the name of a river that flows through the Vale of Glencoe. It is quite likely that some sort of a demonstration will follow Lord Strathcona's arrival.

Did Not Advertise Enough.

The Montreal Exhibition has not been a success. No one expected it would, as the promoters appeared to be afraid to spend a ten-cent piece in printers' ink and there are a very few people in the province who know that the show is really on. The farmers have done pretty well, but the manufacturers have held completely aloof. The statement is heard on all sides that the promoters of the Montreal fiasco should take a few lessons from the men who run the Toronto Fair so very successfully.

An Alleged Episcopal Letter.

Yesterday La Patrie published what was alleged to be a copy of a collective episcopal letter to the Vatican after Mgr. Merry del Val had arrived in Canada. To-day Hon. G. A. CHAPMAN, JR., DROWNED

He Was a Well-Known Young Man of Toronto.

BATHING IN LAKE SIMCOE.

Took Cramps and Was Dead Before He Could Be Reached.

Mr. M. B. Jackson, Jr., Also of Toronto, Was With Him and Almost Lost His Life in Trying to Save His Friend—Indians Rescued Jackson, but Could Not Find the Body of Young Chapman—Parents in Toronto Notified.

Sutton, Ont., Aug. 25.—A sad accident occurred to-day at the Sand Islands, off the southeast corner of Georgina Island, Lake Simcoe. Messrs. George A. Chapman, jr., and M. B. Jackson, jr., of Toronto, who have been visiting at Jackson's Point since Saturday, were bathing off a sailboat. Mr. Chapman exclaimed that he was seized with cramps. Mr. Jackson endeavored to swim to him, but the heavy sea running proved too strong for him, and he then turned and, reaching the boat, tried to hoist the sail and reach his friend. Unfortunately, the boat capsized, throwing Mr. Jackson into the water.

Some Indians, whose attention in some way had been called, then came out and righted the boat and picked up Mr. Jackson, but by this time all trace of Mr. Chapman had disappeared.

The body has not at the time of writing been recovered. Young Mr. Jackson, who was completely exhausted, was taken back by the Indians to his boarding house on the mainland.

The Families Notified.

The young man mentioned in the above despatch as being drowned is an only son of Mr. George A. Chapman, formerly manager of the Belle Ewart Ice Company, who resides at 46 Maple-avenue, Rosedale. He and Mr. Jackson, who also lives in Rosedale, left last Saturday for Jackson's Point, intending to return on Tuesday, but the drowned young man telegraphed his father that he did not feel well and would remain at Jackson's Point until Thursday. His father was apprised of the sad accident about 10 o'clock last night, and at once made arrangements to leave this morning for the scene of the accident with Constable Williams to search for the body. The young man was 22 years of age and was employed with his father in the grain business. He was in delicate health, his heart being weak, and it is thought by his parents that this had something to do with the accident, as he was a good swimmer.

Torontonians Posing as Scientists.

"The members of the British Association who come from the Old Land are men of brains, but can such a statement be made with truth about some of the persons who have been walking about Toronto during the past three months posing as scientists?" asked a well-known citizen of a World young man yesterday. The citizen laughed when the names of certain members of the local committee were mentioned.

"Why," said he, "what has science to do with the bank mechanic who does office work simply?"

As an employe of a King-street bank passed by, the citizen tipped the reporter a knowing wink, and he added: "The clerks are expected to take their hats off to that man, and he isn't a general manager, either."

OVERLAND TO THE YUKON.

Controller Fred White is Anxious to Get His Police Party Away.

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—Mr. Fred White, Controller of the Northwest Mounted Police, is making every effort to secure the immediate leaving of a party of police, who are to make the overland trip to the Yukon from Edmonton, and it is probable that they will be on the trail by this day week.

The party will consist of five men and an officer, but it is doubted both here and at Regina if they will be able to get through before winter.

The route as far as St. John, or Fort Nelson, will be comparatively easy, but after that the difficulties will arise. From Toad River to Black River Rapids the route is said to be immensely difficult, canyons, rapids and a six hundred-foot deep valley combining to form what Dr. Dawson has stigmatized as the worst piece of river he ever saw.

Advices from Edmonton state that numbers of people have gone through in that direction.

When you ask for Adams' Tutti Frutti see that you get it. Some dealers to obtain a big profit try to palm off imitations.
