LOCAL NEWS.

At. St. John.—Rev. Dr. McLeod addressed a large temperance gathering at St. John on Sunday evening.

Truckman.—James Higgins, of Regent street, has purchased a rig and has entered the ranks of city truckman.

Nomination.—Wednesday was nomination day in Carleton county. Dr. Colter and Major Vince were again nominated.

Fire.—The alarm on the 30th was caused by a spark alighting on the roof of the ell of the Russell house, up Queen. The damage was slight.

Divorce.—On Saturday last, Judge Fraser, in the divorce court, granted a decree in the case of Saunders vs. Saunders, after which the court adjourned.

A Doctor's Pride.—Dr. B. N. Keith, Harvey Station, has in his office window a magnificent specimen of the calla lily. It is five feet high and has several fine blossoms.

C. of E.—The C. of E. Temperance society held an anniversary meeting at the church hall on Tuesday night, when an amusing and instructive program was presented.

No Better.—William Murphy, ex-councillor Manners Sutton, is not improving. He underwent an operation for a diseased bone in his left shoulder, but the relief was only temporary.

In Miniature.—Albert Miller, of Parrsboro, N. S., has constructed seventy-four minature vessels with a pocket knife and an awl, one of which may be seen in the house of assembly here.

Bridge Contract.—Chas. Higgs, of Waasis, has been awarded the contract for building the bridge at Tracy Station. Mr. Higgs is well qualified for the work, and the structure will be a good one.

University Senate.—The annual meeting of the senate of the University was held in the legislature building Thursday afternoon. The general routine work was done, and accounts of the year submitted.

Boom Work.—Fredericton Boom company have men at work at the end of the highway bridge repairing booms, and at the Mitchell boom building piers. Everything is expected to be in readiness by the middle of April.

Changes.—Hon. H. R. Emmerson is to succeed hon. Mr. Harrison as member of the New Brunswick executive, the latter having been chosen as president of the legislative council, succeeding the late hon. Mr. Ryan.

Thimble and Scissors.—Mr. Ashford, cutter at Jas. R. Howie's, is going to Stanley to work at the tailoring business in connection with the grange. Mr. Ashford will likely do well among the people of that populous parish.

Mr. Turner's Condition.—Dr's Currie, Lewis and Travis performed an operation on G. S. Turner, M. P. P., at the Waverly on Friday night. The patient was suffering a little this morning, but was apparently better. It is now thought he will speedily recover.

Visitors.—Among those present during the week were: C. W. Weldon, G. H. Troop, Dr. White, and Messrs. Balcom, Quinton and McLellan, of St. John; John Stewart, Woodstock; A. A. McCluskey, of St. Stephen; Dr. Day, of Sheffield, and Miss Maggie Staples, of Chatham.

Disappointed.—On Friday afternoon an alarm of fire from Whelpley's new building brought out all the firemen and hose carts. The boys appeared to be disappointed when the carpenters on the building climbed up to the roof and with a pail of water ended the fire. No damage.

Baptism.—The Woodstock Sentinel says that the Rev. Mr. Thompson has so far recovered from la grippe that he was able to administer the ordinance of baptism to nine converts at Boundary Line on Sunday, the 27th inst. The services were witnessed by a large crowd of people.

Collision.—Rev. Mr. Parsons and wife were driving to Marysville from Gibson on Thursday evening, when a horse driven by three young men came up behind them, struck their sleigh and upset it, throwing the occupants out. They were pretty severely shaken up but not badly injured.

Appointed.—An Ottawa despatch announces that hon. L. J. Tweedie, of Chatham, hon. Robert Ritchie, police magistrate of St. John, and Charles Peck, esq., of Albert Co., have been made Queen's counsel. The honor is one to which Mr. Tweedie is well entitled as the leader of the North Shore bar.

Immigrants.—185 English immigrants passed through the province by the C. P. R. trains Tuesday en route to different parts of the Northwest. They were the best looking and best clothed lot of immigrants that have arrived this spring. Several hundred more are to pass through by the C. P. R. trains in a few days.

Want to Earn Their Wages.—There are evidently too many clerks in the St. John post office. A letter received at the Gazette office one morning had been stamped thirteen times before the clerk thought it sufficiently marked. Twelve of the stamps bear the date of March 27 and the other of March 28. Gazette.

York County Bride.—At Baillie, Charlotte county, on the 14th March, the Rev. F. C. Wright performed the marriage ceremony between Geo. W. Mosley, of Eastport, Maine, and Miss Mary E. McLaughlin, of Prince William, York. The bride was a general favorite in her native parish and has the best wishes of all in her new life.

The Roads.—In the city, wheels alone are used, in the country the roads are quite good for sleighing but have gone very fast during the week. The first rain will end the season as far as sleighs are concerned. There was only a period of about two months when the roads were covered with snow, the shortest winter ever known in this province.

Horse Drowned.—A fine young colt belonging to Parker Glasier was drowned on Friday afternoon just below the railway bridge. Mr. Glasier was driving a load down and had three horses when all went through, the colt in its struggles getting its head below its mate's shoulder and so drowning. Two other teams went down but got out all right.

On the River.—There was much traffic on the river during the week, especially from Sunbury. The ice was fine in the mornings, and wood, bark, potatoes and hay came in in large quantities. The teams stayed here all night in many cases so as to have the benefit of the frost going home. One of Gerow's horses went though the ice near Oromocto, but the water was shallow. A number of teams take the bridge now as the shores are getting very bad.

Held by the Enemy.—The Josie Mills company now starring at the city hall is the best that has visited this city in many years. The Silver King last night was a grand presentation, every act being received with applause. To-night Held by the Enemy will be put on, and those who attend will receive a rich treat. The company is an all round good one, the costumes are superb and the repertoire very fine. Give the company a bumper house to-night.

TOWN TOPICS.

What the Citizens Are Talking About.

Much regret is expressed at the sudden death of the Hon. Jas. Ryan and the continued illness of G. S. Turner. It is hoped that the latter may soon be able to resume work.

Hon. D. L. Hanington's elevation to the bench is an appointment that appears to be pleasing to all, unless it may be his followers in the opposition. Entering a fight under a leader like Mr. Hanington is an altogether different matter from what it will be under Dr. Stockton, the new commander. Lieutenant Phinney also is thought to be rather a weak man for the position. Many in the city and county would like to see Mr. Powell at the head of this side of the house but the members have thought otherwise.

Matters in Scott Act circles are lying very low, waiting for the next step to be taken by the city council, then there will be a rush.

A sign of prosperity is apparent if the newly painted barber poles seen on every street are to be believed. There is shaving and shaving.

It appears to be the opinion in country districts that the Sunbury horses are able to down those of York on the ice. This should not be.

The farmers are beginning to feel that their turn has come and now that the agricultural interests are to be advanced by the government particularly, they believe that it is the dawn of a more prosperous era in farming. The construction of the Kingsclear creamery and its success will mean a great deal to this county, as should this venture turn out well there will be other creameries erected at once.

Death of Hon. Jas. Ryan.

Hon. Mr. Ryan, president of the legislative council, died at the Waverly hotel, Regent street, at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The announcement was made in the legislature upon Mr. Hanington concluding his valedictory, and the house immediately adjourned out of respect to deceased's memory.

Service was conducted at the hotel, Thursday morning by Rev. Mr. Weddall, assisted by Rev. Messrs. McLeod and Payson. The body was followed to the depot by the officers and members of the legislative council and assembly, the members of the council displaying badges of mourning on their sleeves. The deceased's widow, daughter and one of his sons were with him at the time of his death, and accompanied his remains. The pall-bearers were hon. Messrs. Young, Jones, Flewelling, McManus, White and Harrison.

Hon. Jas. Ryan was a native of Kings county, but had been resident at Coverdale, Albert county, for some years. His father was Matthew Ryan, a Waterloo vetran, who reached almost 100 years of age. The deceased was elected to represent Albert Co. in 1870 and in 1874. He has been a representative since.

Railway Strike.

The men who left this city and vicinity, with few exceptions, have returned, the strike being ended. Although quite reticent themselves as to the state of affairs while the strike was in progress, yet their friends are not so inclined. Wild stories of daring deeds and bloody adventures are being told that would terrify the stoutest hearts.

One man was shot in the arm, but jumping to the platform with a derringer in each hand he drove the strikers before him like so many cattle. A youth from this city was coupling cars when a stranger asked him for his lantern. He handed it over when the stranger immediately smashed it across his head. Several were kicked and compliments in the shape of car pins and links were continually passing. A trick that appeared to be general, was to withdraw the pins as fast as put in place by the brakeman, so that the cars could not be pulled out of the yard.

The men that have come home will take their old places. There is talk of one however going to Montreal to take an important position.

Assessment.

At the special meeting of the city council it was decided to fix the assessment for the year at $42,000, $1,500 less than last year. The following are the amounts ordered, compared with last year.

Mighty is The Press.

A few days since we took occasion to state that the mail arrangements from the city to Sunbury county were far from complete, that they were in fact as bad as could be possible. Letters and papers were from three to four days late getting ten miles. Now, however, there is a change. Instead of going to St. John and then back to Sunbury county letters and papers are assorted here and sent direct, either reaching the subscribers on the day of issue or the succeeding day at the farthest. Fredericton newspapers will not do all the rejoicing, it will be equally to the benefit of all. Merchants will find quite a change for the better. Their advertisements will now do some good, whereas before they were in many cases too old before reaching readers.

Council Changes.

In the legislative council, Friday afternoon, Mr. Emmerson announced the resignation of hon. Mr. Harrison as a member of the executive council and of the lunatic asylum commission, and that his honor the lieutenant governor had called him (hon. Mr. Emmerson) to the vacant positions. The announcement was received with applause, and Mr. Emmerson immediately took charge of the government business, his first act being to commit a bill amending the joint companies act. Mr. Harrison was a member of the executive for more than nine years, having been sworn in when the government was formed in March, 1883.

The Whole Family.

Stockford Lewis, a young man with only one arm, residing a few miles out of Salisbury had a rather thrilling adventure one day last week. He started alone on a hunting expedition out near Canaan river armed with a repeating rifle; arriving on the hunting grounds he soon ran across the bear's den. He routed out the inmates which consisted of the old she bear and her family of three, supposed to be yearlings. The old bear promptly advanced in a hostile manner on Mr. Lewis and was in the act of knocking the rifle out of his hand when he fired on her killing her instantly; he then shot the three young ones.—St. John Gazette.

Best Industry.

R. A. Estey has completed his shipment of lumber by the C. P. R., to this city from Burnside. The last carloads he has taken to the river at the railway bridge where they will be rafted and brought to the mill as soon as navigation opens. He was compelled to do this as the hauling got so bad. He has had several teams hauling from the train to the mill the past two months. The lumber is both hard and soft wood. The west end mill is one of the city's best industries.

CRANK JOURNALS.

What the Opposition are too Manly to Say They Advance for Them.

Some of our crank journals, speaking perhaps for the opposition, complain that the official reporters at the house do not pay enough attention to the speeches made by their friends. In this case, as in all others, only speeches that contained something of importance were considered worthy of a place in an official report. Had the opposition advanced anything for the benefit of the province or even a county or parish, it would have been reported, but the manœuvres and blusterings of the opposition are really not worth the lead that would be wasted in writing them. What great efforts for the common welfare have been lost through the laziness of the official reporters? It may be as well, however, to lose them all together as to get them as they appear in these crank journals after a certain amount of cooking by the editors themselves. We have seen several speeches that have never been delivered at the house appear as the address of Mr. so and so on such a question. This is too bad. It is making light of the member named, it is holding him up to ridicule, it is putting into his mouth words that he never uttered nor had any intention of uttering. If the opposition do any thing beneficial it will receive full credit.

BLIND CONCERT.

A Pleasant Gathering to Help the Unfortunates.

The concert given in the interest of the Halifax school for the blind, at city hall, on the 30th, was the largest gathering ever met in that building. Sir John C. Allen presided. All the members of the local government and many prominent citizens occupied seats on the platform. Among the exercises gone through by the pupils were geography, arithmetic and reading, their aptness in these studies pleased and astonished all. The musical selections met with much applause. A very fine address was made by Mr. Fraser, superintendent of the institution, appealing strongly to the government for a large grant, so that a wider sphere of usefulness might be given the institution. He asked the citizens to contribute $400 towards the liquidation of the debt on the school. Attorney general Blair was called on and in his address hoped that the citizens would respond heartily, giving a larger sum than that asked for by Mr. Fraser. The affair was a success and the Halifax school and its pupils will always have a warm place in the affections of the people of this city.

At City Hall.

Monday evening's concert at the city hall was a very successful one. The house was crowded and the program met with much praise. Mrs. Harrison, with the galaxy of local stars made the concert all that could be desired and it was without doubt, the best held here for years. Prof. Bristowe's work was pleasing and the F. O. M. W. orchestra came in for a large share of praise. Miss B. Tibbit's mandolin solo was well received. Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. H. S. Bridges and Mrs. Harrison. Mrs. Mary K. Hunt addressed a large gathering at the hall on Sunday evening after the churches had closed. She had addressed the Methodist Sunday school in the afternoon.

Nothing In It.—The investigation of matters connected with the Balcom draft came to an end on Tuesday. The opposition were very sorry that they ever brought the matter up. There was nothing in the least in connection that could form a charge of wrong doing against the government or anyone else. The straight forward statements made by Messrs Balcom, McLellan and Quinton showed that all the transactions were legal and right and that the draft had no connection whatever with election purposes. Perhaps the opposition could be better employed than in wasting time and money in needless investigations.

A Good One.—The government stallion, Aurora, will be sold at auction at Phœnix square, this city, on Wednesday, the 20th April, at 12 o'clock noon. Aurora is by Daniel Lambert, 102; dam, Fanny Jackson, by Stonewall Jackson, son of Williamson's Black Hawk, and is considered one of the best Morgan stallions in existance. He has shown his ability to trot and trot fast. Some of his colts have brought handsome prices here, one bred at Canterbury and now in Manitoba is held at $1,000. Those seeking a good horse should not miss this chance to buy.

Presentation.—A large number of the residents of Stanley, met at the residence of D. L. Kelley, on the 25th ult. Dr. Moore was appointed chairman and in a neat speech presented a purse containing $40 to Rev. L. Wasson, resident pastor of the Methodist church, as a token of respect and esteem. Capt. Howe was called on in a similar way and presented Miss Victoria Evans, organist, with a very handsome bible and hymn book. The recipients in turn thanked the donors and friends. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed to the utmost

The Governorship.—Every one in the city and the province at large would be pleased should Sir John Allen be appointed governor. He is one of the men who has no enemies. He has lived an honored and honorable life and it is only fitting that this honor should also devolve upon him. The hon. Peter Mitchell is also spoken of in connection with the position. This would also be a pleasing appointment to many, but the citizens of Fredericton and York would naturally prefer to see one of their own chosen. We will welcome either.

Centreville Railway.—On Tuesday last, John Stewart, of the Tobique Valley rail way, passed through this city en route to Ottawa. He was to meet some members of the dominion legislature to press upon them the need of at once building the Centreville railway. Mr. Stewart says the road will be twenty-two miles long and will run through the best part of Carleton county, about six miles from the river and parallel with it. He has great faith in the paying capacities of the road and it is therefore hoped that it may be built.

Deer Killing.—It appears from reports sent in by our correspondents that despite the most stringent measures taken by the wardens, deer are being killed. This is especially so near the American border, hunters from the other side violating their own laws as well as these of the province. There does not seem to be a great amount of harm in shooting a deer, it is the killing of many that is reprehensible, especially as the bodies are left to rot in the woods, only the skins and legs being taken.

Winter has Gone.—The season for wagoning has come and all will wish to get new carriages, or their old ones repaired. The old established firm of John Edgecombe & Sons have a large number of new carriages of every description on hand for sale cheap. Having the best facilities in central New Brunswick, they can put out the finest articles at the lowest prices. The factory is now running at full blast and is ready for all orders for new goods or repairing. See their advertisement to-day.

Good Business.—The Canada Eastern railway, has, under manager Snowball's supervision, made the best showing the past three months of any of its history. There has been a great amount of traffic on both ends of the road, especially in lumber of different kinds. It has been quite a help to the traffic over the Fredericton branch, which has also had a successful winter.

Medical.—The list of McGill graduates in medicine has been made public. There are fifty-six in all. Joseph Hayes, of Nelson, wins first honors. Other graduates are R. F. Glendenning, of Nova Scotia, D. Jack, H. H. McNally, and J. N. Peak, of Fredericton.

GONE HOME.

Residents Passed Away During the Week.

Frederick Alexander, the infant son of S. H. and Emery Gill of Nashwaaksis died on the 25th after a short illness, aged eight months.

William Cook died at Coldstream, Carleton Co., during the week. He was eighty-two years of age and was a native of the Nashwaak, and had been resident at Carleton county for forty years past. Some on the Nashwaak remember him.

A Gagetown despatch, of the 28th ult., contains the sad news of the death at that place on the 25th ult., of Mrs. G. DeVeber, sr., sister of Rev. Canon DeVeber, of St. Paul's church. Deceased leaves three sons. Her funeral took place on the 28th ult.

Margaret, relict of the late John Waymes, died at St. Marys, on Tuesday, the 29th March, after a short illness. She had reached the age of seventy-three. The funeral took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. P. Hennebry, on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. Deceased was very highly esteemed and her many friends will miss her greatly.

At Acton, March 27th, Alexander Lyons, aged ninety-three years and four months, a native of county Denegal, Ireland, passed away. The deceased came to this province in the year 1835. He has resided at Acton for the past forty-five years and leaves a wife, five children, thirty-five grand children, eighteen great grand children and many friends to mour the loss of a very highly esteemed friend and father.

Gibson and St. Marys.

Edgar Hanson has rented his residence here and intends removing to the city.

Mrs. Sher. Yerxa was quite ill on Wednesday but is much improved.

A lad named Johnson, had a gash about an inch long cut in his head yesterday with an axe which another boy was using.

The Rev. Mr. Parsons will administer the ordinance of baptism to four candidates at the river to-morrow at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Gibson has suffered considerably by numbers of her residents removing this spring. It is to be hoped that others will come to supply their places.

Rev. Mr. Parsons held services on each evening during the week at Garden's hall. On Sunday evening last it was so crowded that several had to go out on account of the excessive heat. Much interest is being evinced.

There was a large attendance to hear Dr. Wilson, editor of the Methodist, on Tuesday night. The "model young woman" was pictured in the Dr.'s well known style, and nearly every young lady in the audience thought she was the one referred to.

Marysville Notes.

There was a leap year skate at the rink on the 21st. Quite a number attended.

James Taylor, who has been at Lepreau all winter, came home on Thursday.

The piers torn away by the late ice shove have been repaired and several new booms are being built.

The Reformed Baptists held a meeting in the hall on Monday evening. There was a good attendance.

Geo. Gifford, one of the factory bosses, had one finger so badly crushed in the mill on Monday that it had to be amputated.

The boys appear to get unruly sometimes, so the town marshal says. The boys in turn says that the town marshal gets unruly.

Willard Ridout, who has been in Maine for the past seven years, is visiting his old home and friends here. He finds many changes in Marysville, both in the people and surroundings.

On Thursday evening there was a large gathering of Orangemen at the hall, where addresses were made by Major Armstrong, of St. John, H. A. McKeown, M. P. P., T. H. Colter, M. P. P., and county master Pitts.

Medical Society.—The York county medical association held its first regular monthly meeting in the W. C. T. U. parlor on the evening of the 25th ult. There was a good attendance of medical men. Dr. F. G. Seery read a paper on Suppurative Pleuritis. It brought on a pleasant discussion, taken part in by nearly all present. Medical men whose practice brings them into York from adjoining districts were given an opportunity of joining the association at the close of the meeting.

CORK STATION.

Cork Station, March 31.—La grippe has been putting in its deadly work again in Acton—there has been three deaths in ten days. The first was Timothy Sullivan who died on the 18th inst. Deceased had been a British soldier, having served in Malta and the East Indies and was in receipt of a pension. He leaves a wife and family and was well known in Fredericton where he resided a number of years.

We also regret to record the death of Alexander Lyons one of the oldest inhabitants of the parish. He was ninety-three years of age and was hearty up to a few days of his death. He was highly respected by his neighbors and died on the 27th inst.

Mrs. Holland, another old resident, passed away on the 27th. She was the widow of the late Francis Holland, and leaves a large family, all doing well, a number of whom are in the United States. Among her sons are Daniel Holland of Harvey Station, and John Holland of Fredericton Junction.

PRINCE WILLIAM.

Prince William, March 28.—James Kirk, who has been laid up with a broken leg, is getting around nicely.

Mrs. James Scott, of Dumfries, is visiting at her father's, W. Graham's.

It is said we are to have a wedding in the near future. Success to you George and may it be the last time.

A number of young people enjoyed themselves very much last evening at the residence of Thos. Jones.

D. C. Joslin has started his saw mill. There is more lumber in the mill yard this spring than there ever was before and the teams are still hauling.

Coles Jones, who has been employed in Billerica, Mass., is visiting friends here.

Frank Saunders is busily engaged in selling churns.

The boys are all anxiously enquiring of each other if it is possible to fix an ordinary sleigh, so you can recline when the sun gets warm. If there is any more comfort in it they mean to have it.

Mrs. J. Scott is still in very poor health.

A man and dog chasing a deer were seen on the river the other day.

Rev. Calvin Currie will not hold any more services here for some time on account of the illness of his wife.

CENTRAL BLISSVILLE.

Central Blissville, March 28th.—La grippe has not slighted this locality, though no very serious cases have so far occurred. Typhoid fever visited the village late in the autumn carrying off Frederick Hoyt.

Business has progressed finely. There have been and still are several lumber parties carrying on extensive work in the vicinity. Among others are Edward Smith of Geary, Geo. Smith of Blissville, the Messrs. Trues of Lincoln, Messrs. Luke and Daniel DeWitt, and last but not least James Stennack of French Lake, who, having visited the west and learned how work is carried on there, has, no doubt, introduced much improvement. He has in his employ Omer Ward of Oromocto.

Fat Cattle.—On Monday, Thomas Gray, of Kingsclear, shipped fifteen head of very fine fat cattle to the St. John market. One peculiar feature, commented on by many was that the cattle were shod. Mr. Gray has stall fed fifty head this winter, and all have been shod, thus enabling him to turn them out when the fields were covered with ice, which he could not do were they bare footed.

Engaged.—The engagement is announced of Rev. Harlan Creelman, formerly of Fredericton, but now of Washington, Mass., to Miss Rice, daughter of the late Col. William Rice, for many years a prominent and active citizen of Albany, N. Y. Mr. Creelman is now in charge of the congregational church at Worthington, where the bride and her mother are residing since the death of Col. Rice.

The Fredericton Market.

The market was well supplied during the week with everything excepting butter and eggs. The former was held at a stronger price than last week. Hay is plentiful.
