Governor Lord
Harris to Earl Grey,
15 October 1846.

My Lord,

Trinidad, 15 October 1846.

I HAVE had the honour to receive your Lordship's Circular Despatch, dated the 22d of August last, enclosing the copy of an Address presented to Her Majesty by the House of Commons, praying for certain information in regard to Lighthouses in the Colonies and British Possessions abroad.

There is but one Lighthouse in this colony, which is erected on the extremity of the King's Wharf, the principal landing-place in the town of Port of Spain.

I enclose a return of the particulars of this Light, as required by the Address.

I have, &c.
