RECENT DEATHS

Richard J. Thorne

Richard J. Thorne, a well known customs officer, died at his home in Digby, N. S., after a long illness yesterday. He was born in 1837 and was a well known business man having been associated with various interests before he received his customs appointment. He leaves his wife, also one sister, Mrs. Eugene Boyne of Somerville, Mass.

At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Crothers, Lower Millstream, the death of Milton Ward Crothers took place March 16 at the age of eight years. Besides his parents he leaves one brother and one sister.

John Thomson, a clerk in the office of the C. G. R. superintendent of car service, Moncton, died Monday evening. He was a son of the late C. D. Thomson, former cashier of the C. G. R., and was twenty-two years old. He is survived by his mother with whom he lived, and one sister, Mrs. A. M. McLellan, Moncton. Mrs. A. E. Holstead, Mrs. L. R. McLaren, and Mrs. Seymour Peters of that city are half sisters, and W. C. Thomson of Montreal is a half brother. He was a brother of the late Mrs. George McKnight of Fredericton.

The death of Mrs. Bailey T. Sutton took place at her home, Henderson, Kentucky, March 6, and also the death of her husband, Bailey T. Sutton, took place March 14. Mrs. Edmund Flewelling of this city is a sister of Mr. Sutton.

Thoughtful William

"William," snapped the dear lady, viciously, "didn't I hear the clock strike two as you came in?"

"You did, my dear. It started to strike ten, but I stopped it to keep it from waking you up."—Tit-Bits.

A Talk on Bread

Most people in buying bread want the largest loaf in the store. You make a mistake, for it does not weigh any more than the medium sized loaf.

When a loaf of bread raises so high, it is over-proof. The life of the wheat has gone.

Buy the medium sized loaf and get full strength of the wheat. One slice is worth more than a whole loaf of over-proof.

IN HANDS OF FRENCH

Paris, March 20—(French Wireless Service)—The small French naval vessel Samson has taken charge of the German submarine U-39, a telegram from Cartagena, Spain, says. Another small French vessel has taken possession of the guns and other war material of the German submarines U-48 and U-48 at Ferrol, Spain. Divers have examined the U-48 which was sunk last Saturday by a Spanish destroyer, while trying to escape from Ferrol, and believe that the boat can be salvaged if the weather remains favorable.

A Madrid despatch received in London Tuesday reported that the German submarine U-39 and a German submarine at Ferrol had been "seized by French tug boats.

ROYAL STANDARD MEETING.

A special meeting of the Royal Standard Chapter was held last evening in the chapter rooms, Germain street, with the regent, Mrs. E. A. Smith, in the chair. It was reported that the gross receipts of the St. Patrick's tea exceeded $265. The formation of a war saving society within the chapter was decided upon, and a committee was appointed to undertake matters with its organization. The next project planned for the chapter's activities is the holding of an official war picture and trophy exhibit in the Eastern Steamship building, Prince William street, throughout next week, when the 150 official photographs enlarged and colored by Canadian artists and the German guns that were captured and arrived on the steamer Grampian will be on view. Through Mrs. G. Ernest Barbour the chapter received a very interesting and precious war souvenir in the shape of a brass shield which it had given to the LeTouquet Hospital, France, where it had hung on the wall of the New Brunswick ward furnished by the chapter. This hospital was the first Canadian hospital to be opened in France and did pioneer work in the most strenuous days of the war. Its equipment was afterwards moved to Outremont and since the hospital was no longer doing duty the officer in command had returned this trophy to the chapter, thanking the members most deeply for the many and invaluable services rendered by them.

"There's some misunderstanding about Bolshevists."

"They discuss their affairs largely in the most difficult language on earth, Russian, and illiterate Russian at that. Misunderstanding is inevitable." —Washington Star.

"Mother, dear, I need a hundred dollars. Will you ask father for it?"

"No. you must ask him yourself. You'll have a husband some day ,and now is your time to practice."—Life.
