LEGAL QUERIES

QUESTION.—A bachelor dies and leaves an estate of over $11,000 in notes, mortgages and money in the bank, the interest of which was to be paid to his aged housekeeper during her life. At her death the principal was to be equally divided between his two nephews. Two executors were named to carry out the provisions of the will and invest the money to the best advantage.

Does the interest start from the time of his death or when the will was probated, which was several months later?

ANS.—The interest starts from the time the money was invested.

C. P. R. BACKS DOWN ON NIGHT TRAIN ORDER

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLYTH, April 26.—The C. P. R. Co. did not stick long to the idea of closing up the stations along this division for the night train. The company directed the agents to leave the outside of the stations lit, but they have now been advised to remain on duty for the night train. This was brought about by the protests sent in by the commercial travellers. All parties are better satisfied now.

The members of the local lodge of Oddfellows met in their hall Sunday evening to the number of 40, and marched to St. Andrew's Church, where Rev. W. D. Turner preached an appropriate sermon.

The switchboard of the rural telephone went out of commission on Saturday night and the linemen had to work all night and part of Sunday before he found out what was wrong, after which he soon got it in working order.

W. T. Riddell, who had the misfortune to get thrown out of his auto last week, is reported to be seriously injured internally. The auto was taken to Goderich for repairs.

John Ellis had the misfortune on Sunday to lose his little girl by death.

The extreme hot, dry weather of the past few days is enabling the farmers to get their seeding done, which will be finished this week, but rain is needed badly.

LIEUT. C. BUTLER SENT CABLE FROM LONDON HOSPITAL

Slightly Wounded In Thigh, Is Message—Says "Doing Splendidly."

"Slightly wounded in thigh. Doing splendidly in hospital, London. Address 16 Bruton street.
(Signed) "CHESTER."

The above message was received in cable form from Lieut. Chester Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Butler, of 194 Cheapside street, who enlisted with the first Canadian expeditionary force and who was reported wounded in the desperate charge of Canadians in recapturing their guns.

Taken to England.

From another message received yesterday, it was learned that only six hours after Lieut. Butler had been shot, he was landed in England along with many others, and rushed to the hospital for treatment.

Since the receipt of the casualty lists on Sunday and press dispatches from Ottawa carrying the name of the popular London officers and telling of the awful destruction of life, in the fierce conflict around Hill No. 60, relatives and friends have anxiously awaited further news of his conditions. Mr. Butler got into touch with military authorities at Ottawa in an effort to learn the seriousness of his son's wounds. No information was available, however, and the young officer's cable message to his parents was the first news received in this city that he was not dangerously wounded, as was feared.

Condition Not Critical.

Word was received in the city last night that Lieut. J. K. Cronyn, of Toronto, a nephew of Hume Cronyn, of this city, who was reported among the wounded Canadian officers, was only slightly wounded, according to a cable message received. The telegram sent from a military hospital at Boulogne by a friend to Major Mason, of Toronto, stated that the young officer's life was not despaired of.

CONCERT TO AID JEWS.

Preparations for the concert to be given in the Armories on May 3, in aid of the stricken Jews in war-swept Europe, are practically completed, and Ald. Max Lerner, who is looking after the executive end of the entertainment, declares that the event will be one long remembered in this city. Mayor Stevenson and the city council are backing the concert, and will do all in their power to make it a success. The artists who will be heard are Leo Ornstein, Russian Hebrew futurist pianist, and Mlle. Alice Verlet, soprano, of Paris opera.

Word was received here today to this effect.

COMPLAINTS FAIL TO PREVENT LICENSES

Claims Against Holders in North Essex Not Substantiated.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, April 26.—Complaints filed against four license holders were not substantiated by the appearance of the complainants in person before the orth Essex license commissioners at Tecumseh this afternoon and full year licenses were granted to Jacob McGee, Tecumseh road, Sandwich West; Emile Menard, Dominion House, Sandwich East; John Scott, Central Hotel, Maidstone; and a shop license to Isaac Lalonde, of Belle River.

Thirteen residents of Maidstone sent in a petition against renewal of Scott's license, but twelve other ratepayers appeared personally before the commissioners to favor the granting of the application.

There are now 38 hotels in this district with licenses for a year. One hotel was given three months to sell out and another will go out of business the end of this month.

The final session of the commission before dissolution will be held Friday afternoon to deal with an application to transfer the license for the Royal Hotel, in Tilbury North, from J. Desjardin to Isaac Guerin.

CRUISER KENT IS BUSY.

CALLAO, Peru, April 26.—The British cruiser Kent arrived here today for provisions and will depart again tomorrow morning. Officers of the Kent report that the recent story that the British auxiliary cruiser Orcoma sank a German merchant steamer near Bayovar, is untrue. They say that the report probably emanated from the fact that the British warships recently were at gun practice off the coast.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

Away up in the Highlands of Ontario, 2,000 feet above the level of the sea, Algonquin Park remains today unspoiled, a perfect refuge for the creatures of the forest, and an ideal camping ground for the sportsman and businessman. Splendid accommodation is offered at the Highland Inn, and the log cabin camps, owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway System, in this Government reserve, at reasonable rates for all those who desire to forget the over-refinements of civilization and seek the solace of nature. Algonquin Park is a region where comfort of apparel and peace of mind are the watchwords. It is also the objective place for those who love nature, fresh air, high altitude, simple living and fellowship with kindred spirits.

The Inn and the camps are excellently kept in the good old-fashioned way, which puts a personal relationship between the inkeeper and guests. The Inn opens May 15, the Camps, June 15. Drop a postal card to C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont., for free, handsome illustrated publication, telling you all about this most desirable summer resort, and reserve your accommodations early. b

FIVE DOCTORS WANT CITY M. O. H. BERTH

Controllers Take No Action On Applications—Wide Range of Salaries.

G. A. RAMSAY.
GEORGE S. WEIR.
A. R. PINGEL.
L. SEALE HOLMES.
F. S. NEELY.

These are the five local doctors who have applied for the vacant medical officer of health berth in the city of London since the board of control ordered that applications be advertised for. Their formal applications were brought to the attention of the controllers at the latters' meeting yesterday afternoon.

No action was taken on the names, nor was any comment made, that being reserved until after the board of health has reported on the applications, following its meeting on Friday.

Each applicant cited his medical qualifications, but in only three of the five cases was salary mentioned. George S. Weir, present truant officer of the board of education, declared his willingness to accept the position at the present salary, $1,400. Dr. Pingel asked $2,500, and Dr Holmes, $3,000. The latter also made an offer to do the work for $2,000 if allowed two hours daily to attend his private practice.

It is notified for general information that it is the wish of His Majesty the King that on the occasion of His Majesty's birthday this year flags should be flown, but no dinners, reviews or other celebrations should take place, nor should any salutes be fired. —(H. Q. 30-13-1.)

No. 96.—Strength.

Prov.-Lieut. A. C. Barclay, 28th Perth Regiment, is detailed temporarily as assistant to the organizer and inspector of Cadet Corps, 1st Division, from the 1st instant.

No. 97.—Medical Board of Officers.

A medical board of officers, composed as below, will assemble at an hour and place to be named by the president on Wednesday next, the 28th instant, for the purpose of ascertaining the present condition of No. 20055, Pte. W. T. Oldridge, 10th Battalion, C. E. F., whose address is 94 Mount Pleasant avenue, London Ont., and will report whether, in their opinion, the disability is due to service; also to what extent his capacity to earn a full livelihood in the general labor market is lessened at present; if permanent; and probable minimum duration of disability.

President—Major A. V. Becher, A. M. C.

Member—Major G. H. Wilson, A. M. C.

Lieut.-Col. for A. A. G., 1st Division.

PAVEMENT WAR WAGES

Even More Trouble Brewing Than First Anticipated.

There is even more trouble brewing in the pavement war, as it is now known in municipal circles, than was at first anticipated. The whole question of what type of pavement was to be used in London this year was to have been settled, so far as the board of control was concerned, at its meeting yesterday afternoon. However, the absence of the mayor from the city caused the matter to stand over.

This standing over is lending zest to the deal, for through City Clerk S. Baker, Ald. J. A. Tancock declared that he wanted to submit answers to statements made by Ald. James Donnelly, late chairman of the board of works, and who, it was expected, would be present at the meeting yesterday to continue his fight against the use of anything but natural lake asphalt for the city streets.

As there is a meeting of the board of works tonight, and the controllers do not meet again until tomorrow afternoon, some further developments in the case may be looked for.

S. A. COMMISSIONER TO FAIL INGERSOLL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, April 26. — The announcement was made today that Commissioner Richards, head of the Salvation Army in Canada, would not come to Ingersoll Tuesday night, as previously stated. He was billed to speak in the Methodist Church and a large gathering was anticipated. The commissioner will visit Woodstock on Wednesday and a large number of Salvationists and others will go over to hear him.

Three Months for Drunk.

A local man, who has appeared before Magistrate Paterson three times to answer a charge of being drunk in a local option town, was today sentenced to three months in the county jail. Another citizen similarly charged contributed the usual $20 and costs.

Don't Look for Army Worm.

It has been decided by the directors of the Ingersoll, North and West Oxford Agricultural Society to hold a standing field crop competition again this year. In the past the farmers of neighboring districts have shown a keen interest in this competition, and it has been a means of helping the fair through an increased membership.

Although several farmers suffered heavily from the army worm, a year ago, it has again been decided to have oats as the crop. It is not thought that the worms will again be a plague, and as the acreage is generally large, the crop will no doubt be up to the high standard of this district. A committee also has been appointed to deal with the question of better accommodation for live stock.

An Heir Is Sought.

A letter has been received by Magistrate Paterson from the solicitor to the consul-general of France, asking information as to the whereabouts of Rowland Wills, who resided here thirty years ago. He was an Englishman and came from Somersetshire. It is necessary that information be received as to Wills or his heirs, as property is to be divided.

PETITIONS AGAINST PERMANENT ROADS

Ratepayers On Three Streets "Knock" Paving—Russ Have Grievances.

RUSS HAVE GRIEVANCES

Say They Are Not Allowed to Enlist To Fight Allies' Battles.

Petitions against permanent pavements are apparently popular. At the board of control yesterday, requests were presented from ratepayers on three streets on which the city proposed to put in asphalt pavements this year. The most important of these streets was Hamilton road, from Maitland to Egerton street and the others were Maitland street, between King and York, and Rectory street, from the G. T. R. south. In all cases the requests were referred to the board of works, which meets tonight.

A report received from City Auditor Frank G. Jewell puts another phase to the already complicated question of the new grandstand for the Western Fair grounds, to replace the one burned while the lower portion was being used as a military mess and cook house.

The auditor reported that there were no funds in the treasury for the purpose, and the city had no power or authority to borrow the $10,000 the councilpassed some time ago as a special debenture issue to assist in the reconstruction of the stand. It was proposed to secure this money immediately and have the official sanction of the Legislature given the issue through the city of London bill next year. The auditor's report, however, puts this out of the question.

Suggests $5,000 Grant.

Secretary A. M. Hunt, of the Western Fair Board, was present and when informed of this condition of affairs, suggested that the city give a $5,000 grant (from current revenue and which would be met from the general tax rate) to the fair this year. The board, he said, would be able to finance the other $5,000 by borrowing, if necessary, and could secure it from the city when the necessary authority was secured next year.

In answer to questions by the controllers, Mr. Hunt declared that the military authorities had agreed to leave the premises of the fair in such condition that nothing would be handicapping the fair this year. Many of the alterations put on by the military department to make the fair buildings habitable as temporary barracks for the overseas contingents, could remain in place during the fair without any hindrance to the latter.

Final action on the grandstand grant will have to wait over until the council meets again.

Want Road Improved.

Police Magistrate J. C. Judd appeared before the board to ask that something be done to put Ridout street, between Garfield avenue and West avenue, in proper shape. He declared that the ratepayers had, at an expense of $1,600, put in one of the best macadam streets in the city, but that this good pavement had been so cut up by the storm sewer trenches, the gas mains and so on, that something should be done at once to put the street back in the same condition it was in before the trench-digging started.

At the same time, Mr. Judd protested against the way that openings are being made in streets generally without the necessary permission being secured first.

Settle McCormick Claim.

An effort is being made to settle the claims of the city against the McCormick Manufacturing Company and the contra claims by that company. Arrangements were made for a conference between City Solicitor T. G. Meredith, Thomas McCormick and other interested parties, when the controllers meet on Wednesday.

The city is claiming rent from the company while the company, on the other hand, claims something like $10,000 damages from the city for faulty sewer construction for sewers the city claims never were built, taken over or maintained by it.

The request of Ald. Newman, of Kingston, that the city place itself on record to petition the Government for the enforcement of a daylight act in Ontario, was referred to the special legislation committee.

"More Daylight," Slogan.

The Kingston alderman explained that individual efforts along this line would be useless, and pointed out that the most advantageous way of accomplishing the end for an extra hour of daylight each day, would be to move the clock forward one hour, from May 1 to November 1. This would prevent any misunderstanding as to train schedules, etc., and would jibe with any special bylaws and ordinances governing the time certain things had to be done, etc.

A special conference with the members of the finance committee was arranged for Wednesday afternoon, when the Bell Telephone Company's franchise renewal will be gone into. Nothing has yet been done by the finance committee along this line, but Ald. Tancock, chairman of the committee, telephoned just prior to the meeting, and wanted to know if the controllers were going to take the question off its hands.

Russians Have Grievance.

London's little Russia was not present in person, but it was present in the spirit. It submitted a petition, signed by scores of persons whose names even the city clerk could not pronounce, which set forth the grievances of hundreds of the Russians in the city.

In the first instance, they complain that the city is not giving them a square deal. They claim that many of them wanted to fight for the Empire, and with that end in view, enlisted here, but were discharged, at the request of the Russian consul-general, in order that they might go home and fight. As they have no money, they cannot return home, and therefore want work. Work, however, they say, does not go to them, but to other nationalities. They alleged that none but Italians were being given city jobs at present.

City Engineer H. A. Brazier will report on the case, and the board of works will also be asked to investigate.

More "Due Consideration."

Once again "due consideration" is promised the city for its request that the Dominion Government show the color of its promised money for the Federal Square site. City Clerk Baker informed the Military Department that the old Ford buildings were vacant and available for military purposes, and delicately hinted that the city would like its money.

The answer came back yesterday and was the same old "due consideration." It hardly caused a ripple when it was presented by the clerk and then filed away.

Vital statistics for the quarter ending March 31 were reported by the city clerk, as follows: Births, 326; marriages, 135; deaths, 257.

EXETER LANDMARK A THING OF THE PAST

Old Presbyterian Church Torn Down—Timbers Well Preserved.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

EXETER, April 26.—Exeter's landmarks are fast disappearing. The old Presbyterian Church, which was built a great number of years ago, near the river, but years ago was moved to Francestown, has now been pulled down. The timber is wonderfully preserved.

Sunday evening the Oddfellows attended divine worship in the Main Street Methodist Church. A number of the Hensall lodge came down to wine in with them. The pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Munworthy, preached a special sermon, taking for his text: I Samuel xVIII:1. There was a very large turnout.

CALIFORNIA "RAISIN DAY."

This year, California "Raisin Day" is to be celebrated in the "Golden State" on April 30. The slogan on that particular day will be "eat raisins." Not only in California will the day be given prominence, but many of the eastern railroads will feature it by placing on the menus of their dining cars special California raisin dishes. The Grand Trunk will add these dishes to their special menus on all their dining cars, April 30. b

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless). It's cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.
