YE MERRIE SAILOR LAD

SINGS A SONG OF

WALKER.

It was a gallant sailor lad,
Who sailed across the main,
From Mead's to Hanlan's Point he sailed,
And back to Mead's again.

And, oh! he sang a merrie song,
For glad of heart was he;
And he winked a wink as he longingly looked
Across at the Queen Citie.

For in the self-same Queen Citie
There dwelt a buxom maid,
To make her his wife that sailor lad
His little plans had laid.

"Now, by my faith," he said, "I'll live
This amphibious life no more,
For in summer, on water this young man lived;
In winter he lived on shore.

"By WALKER'S WEEKLY PAYMENT PLAN
I'll rig a taut little home,
And I'll bid farewell to this five-cent trip,
And the billows that toss and foam.

"Week in, week out (like the blacksmith bold,
Under the chestnut tree)
My little instalment I'll surely pay
At Walker's Store," said he.

Now that the Jubilee is over, business can be proceeded with as usual, and those requiring Handsome Parlor Suites, Elegant Chamber Sets, First-class Cooking Stoves and Ranges, Beautiful Dinner Sets, Lovely Pictures, New Pattern Carpets and Oilcloths, and the thousand and one articles that make home desirable, are invited to inspect the stock at

ENGLISH ENAMEL TOP DRESSING CO.

FOR  OR

LEATHER RUBBER.

We claim that our dressing is a better article than any in the market, for the following reasons: The same amount will cover more surface, is easier applied, gives a finer finish, and is more durable and dries quickly, leaving the leather soft and pliable. It has been thoroughly tested by practical carriage men, and pronounced by them the best they have ever used. We also manufacture Henry's Celebrated Harness Dressing, which has no equal for old leather. Our Imperial French Stovepipe Varnish has no equal, is easily applied, requires no rubbing, does not burn off, and has no offensive smell. Our Colors for castings are not the cheapest per gallon, but the best value for the money. Sample Rooms: 27 Toronto-street, Toronto.
