SPACE PROBLEM IS ACUTE ONE FOR FAIR BOARD

The Western Is Experiencing Regular Avalanche of Applications.

SOME MUST TENT IT

Midway Attraction This Year One of the Best of Its Kind.

The Western Fair Board meets at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon to discuss business in connection with the approaching annual exhibition, especially in regard to the placing of the avalanche of exhibits for this year. The space problem is the most acute facing the board at the present time, Secretary A. M. Hunt having on hand between thirty and forty applications for space which he has not yet been able to meet.

Within the past two or three days, he has arranged for space under tents for half a dozen or so exhibitors who are willing to get in any place provided they can "show" at the popular fair.

A member of the board commented today: "It looks as if most of the ground will be covered with tents this year. I don't know where we will put the people if the weather is fine."

An unsolicited testimonial for the "Johnny Jones" shows, the Midway attraction this year, has been much appreciated. A man writing from Galt for a prize list and program of the exhibition says:

"I wish to congratulate you on securing such an attraction as the Johnny J. Jones shows. Have seen these shows in various cities, and believe you are bringing an attraction to your city that will make the people of Western Ontario justly proud of the Western Fair and its capable management."

RETURNED MAN WITH FINE RECORD NEEDS ASSISTANCE AT ONCE

Soldiers' Aid Commission Draws Attention to Worthy Case.

After having served three years in the imperial forces, a local man who recently returned to this city, where he lived prior to the war, is in dire straits, and attention is being brought to his case by the Soldiers' Aid Commission in the hope that the citizens will respond to the appeal.

This soldier, in the early days of the war, was turned down when he attempted to join the Canadian Expeditionary Force. His desire to do his bit for the empire led him to book passage for England and join the British army. When Germany was vanquished, the soldier came back to Canada to again engage in peaceful pursuits.

He was here but a short while when his wife took sick and went to the hospital. The husband is renting a home so that his wife may have a home in which to convalesce. However, the veteran has no furniture with which to furnish the house. It is for this reason that the appeal is being made. Persons having donations are asked to send them to the commission or to telephone 965.

PARLIAMENT'S WORK AT COMING SESSION LIKELY TO BE LIGHT

Government Will Provide For the Continuance of Many Orders-in-Council.

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—While the list of orders-in-council to be continued in force after the formal proclamation of peace has been made, promises to be a fairly long one, the actual legislation which it will be necessary to introduce when the House meets on September 1 may not be heavy. The majority of the bills to be introduced will simply make provision for the continuance in force of orders-in-council for a specified period. Supplementary estimates to be introduced will be light. Provision, of course, will have to be made for the cost of the session, including the indemnities of members of Parliament and the Senate. Other items will, as in ordinary years, be covered by the issuance of governor-general's warrants.

ALL VETERANS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR THE GUARD OF HONOR

Providing They Served in France and Are Tall Enough.

While Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles, president of the local command of the Great War Veterans' Association, has been authorized by Col. William Spittal of the 7th Regiment to provide an escort of 100 men for the Prince of Wales on the occasion of his official visit to this city in October next, he informed The Advertiser today that all veterans who have served in France during the war, and who are tall enough will be eligible for the guard. At present 60 members of the Great War Veterans' Association have applied for a position on the guard of honor to the future sovereign, but members of other local organizations are eligible to serve on the escort.

Applicants are requested to send their names in to Secretary Cunliffe of the Great War Veterans' Association, or to the local armories, and they will be notified in the near future to parade in a body when the smartest appearing soldiers of the lot will be selected by a representative of the military authorities. Drills will then be held and uniforms provided in preparation for the reception to the prince.

Lieut.-Col. Coles today denied that the Great War Veterans' Association would refuse to take part in the reception should other local soldier organizations be represented on the guard of honor as previously reported. He stated that no one in authority to speak for the local Great War Veterans had made such statement, and that all veterans who had served in France were eligible to serve on the escort, although the Great War Veterans' Association had been authorized by Col. Spittal to provide the guard. In his opinion the soldier organizations of this city should co-operate in providing the guard of honor, and the Great War Veterans' are quite willing to work in harmony with all local veterans in making the visit of the Prince of Wales to the Forest City a success.

CHAMPION GOLFERS TURN IN EVEN CARD ON MORNING'S PLAY

Evans and Ouimet Followed by Big Gallery At Oakmount.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—Feeling ran high today when the supporters of Charles "Chick" Evans, Jun., of Chicago, and Frances Ouimet of Boston, gathered at the Oakmount Country Club to watch these two players settle a long standing argument in a 36-hole match over the Oakmount Country Club course. It was the first time the players have met in a championship competition, although they have been recognized as America's foremost amateur golfers for a number of years.

Weather conditions for the morning round were fit for perfect golf. No wind was blowing to carry well-hit shots off the lines. The temperature was high enough so that the players were not bothered by stiffness. Evans and Ouimet were at the course early, and declared themselves ready to play a fighting game all the day. Ouimet insisted that he had recovered from his illness. Morning card:

Ouimet—Out 544, 543, 434—36.
Evans—Out 355, 532, 544—36.

Yorkshire beat Warwickshire by an inning and 21 runs. Rhodes, in Warwickshire's second inning, had eight wickets for 44 runs, and in the match ten wickets for 75 runs. Robinson took seven wickets for 67 runs.

Sussex defeated Lancashire by six wickets. Vine, for the winners, scored 110 and was not out. The Gloucestershire and Worcestershire match was drawn.

EVANS AND OUIMET PLAYING EACH OTHER

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—Ideal weather conditions greeted the sixteen players remaining in the national amateur golf championship at the Oakmount Country Club today, when they started in the second round matches. The largest crowd that ever followed a golf match in this city turned out to watch Charles (Chick) Evans, Jun., of Chicago, the present champion, in his match with Francis Ouimet of Boston. W. J. Thompson of Toronto and N. M. Whitney, Audobon meet in what was expected to be a hard-fought contest.

SCORCHING LECTURE FOR WIFE-BEATER BY THE MAGISTRATE

Escapes Jail, Thanks to Intercession of Wife.

That Love in a one-room cottage does not run smoothly was evidenced by the appearance of William J. Stewart of this city in police court today, charged with assault on his wife, Mary Stewart. He pleaded guilty, and was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon after listening to a scathing lecture delivered by the court.

Stewart's frail young wife testified that he struck her on the head leaving a mark. Yesterday she stated to Magistrate Graydon that there home was once a stable. Stewart denied this statement in court today. "It is a one-room cottage, with four windows," he informed the court. On his wife signifying her willingness to live with him, Stewart was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

"I would put you in jail," said Magistrate Graydon to Stewart, "except that this woman would suffer. A big man like you assaulting this little woman weighing 85 pounds should be taken to the market place and publicly horsewhipped. It is in no consideration to you that you are not in jail today. Next time I hear of you ill-treating your wife I will issue a warrant for your arrest and put you in jail. I will suspend sentence on you, and if you are wise you will provide for your wife in the future."

Stewart's wife seemed loath to testify against him in court today, due to the fact that she is frightened of future ill-treatment, according to Magistrate Graydon. However, as she was willing to live with him in the "one-room cottage," which she said was "not exactly a house," the magistrate did not impose a prison term on Stewart.

SENT TO BURWASH FOR FORGING OF A CHECK

Victor Medland of this city, convicted of forging the name of W. A. Walker to a check for ten dollars on the Dominion Bank here recently, was today sentenced by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon to serve not less than three months and not more than two years in the Ontario reformatory at Burwash. Medland was refused admission to the Ontario Hospital for the insane here, despite the fact that this was recommended by Dr. James Wilson, the jail physician. He is subject to epileptic fits, but according to the doctor knows right from wrong.

"I have had previous complaints regarding your behavior," said the magistrate in sentencing Medland. "Your parents cannot control you, and the length of time you spend in prison depends entirely upon yourself." Medland broke down in the prisoners' box when sentenced, and wept as he was led downstairs to a cell.

Charged with vagrancy by Thomas McDonald, William J. MacAuley was remanded for one week in police court this morning. The military authorities have preferred a charge of vagrancy against MacAuley and he will be turned over to them for trial in the near future.

Mrs. D. Weidenbaum, 244 Ottaway avenue, was severely injured at 6:40 last night, when she leaped off Ottaway car No. 130, while it was traveling on Horton street, just east of Clarence street. According to the conductor's report the hood switch blew out sparks flying from it and also from the controller. Mrs. Weidenbaum became excited and ran to the rear end of the car and leaped off before the conductor had time to stop her, as he was attending to the trolley pole at the time to prevent the car catching on fire. Mrs. Weinedbaum's head was cut. The car was in charge of Conductor R. Tuttle and Motorman W. Smith.

CLOTHING FOUND ON RIVER BANK POINTS TRAGEDY

William Hand Believed To Have Perished While Bathing.

William Hand, aged 22, 610 Princess avenue, is believed to have been drowned in the north branch of the River Thames, near the fourth concession of London Township, east of the Adelaide street bridge, late last night.

His clothes and bicycle were found on the bank of the river by City Engineer H. A. Brazier today, and the fire department has been notified to drag the river in search of the body.

The young man left his home last night, unaccompanied, to go for a swim, as he had been in the habit of doing during the summer. No uneasiness was felt when he did not return last night, as it was thought that he might have stayed at a friend's house. When he was still missing this morning his mother notified the city engineering department, where he was temporarily employed as a clerk, and City Engineer Brazier immediately investigated.

The missing man is a son of James Hand, an employee of the Canadian Government Railways, now stationed at Cochrane, Ont. He returned from overseas lately, where he served for two years with a unit from Toronto University. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Dalton and Joseph.
