THE WEATHER PROPHET.

TORONTO, March 4—11 p.m.—The disturbance which was in the vicinity of Lake Erie last night now covers the Ottawa Valley, its energy having become diminished, while a subsidiary depression which has developed during the day is situated off the New England States. Pressure has given way generally over the western portion of the continent, and the high area has become unimportant. Heavy snow has fallen along the St. Lawrence, attended by an easterly gale. Minimum temperatures: Calgary, 16° below; Battleford, 32° below; Qu'Appelle, 26° below; Winnipeg, 28° below; Toronto, 20°; Montreal, 18°; Quebec, 10°; Halifax, 8°.

Local temperatures—Highest, 20° above zero; lowest, 18°.

TO-DAY'S PROBABILITIES.

TORONTO, March 5—1 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Fine and moderately cold.

—"The French Spy" at the Grand Friday and Saturday.

—Mrs. Thomas Wright, of Kingston, is visiting friends in East London.

—Frank Smith, formerly of this city and now of Toronto, has retired from the wholesale grocery business.

—Dr. J. W. Fraser, of this city, who has been visiting in the Southern States for some little time, has returned home to be treated by Drs. Wilson.

—Thos. Laughlin, charged with vagrancy, was allowed to go by the police magistrate yesterday on promising to leave the city at once.

—James Flynn, of London township, while unloading hay near the market Wednesday, fell from his wagon and received a compound fracture of the leg.

—The man that works on the streets or on a building for $1 a day gets not a cent of benefit from the N. P., but he is robbed by it every time he goes to the store. Vote for Hyman.

—The Bishop of Huron will conduct ordination services in Christ Church on Sunday morning. Two members will be ordained deacons and one advanced to be a presbyter.

—James Osborn, a G. T. R. car examiner, was struck by a large piece of falling coal while at work in the East End yards yesterday morning, and knocked senseless. Dr. Gardiner was summoned and attended to the injured man, who suffered nothing more than a severe scalp wound.

—Tuesday night the members of the choir of King Street Presbyterian Church and a large number of their friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Jas. Johnston at his home on Grey street, and spent a very jolly time in games, music, etc. The most interesting event of the evening took place when Mr. Johnston, who has acted as leader of the choir for a number of years, but who, on account of ill-health, has been forced to resign, was presented with an easy chair by the members. W. A. MacKay read a kindly-worded address, expressive of the good feelings existing between the leader and choir, as well as the regret of the latter at his resignation. Mr. Johnston briefly replied. The presentation was made by Messrs. E. Allen and Wm. Babcock.

Walked Into the Net.

The police received a telegram from Chatham yesterday saying an overcoat had been stolen from John A. Bran, of the Idlewild Hotel, there. Two men, Wm. Henderson, alias Payne, and Joseph Donovan, asked for a night's lodging at the police station here yesterday, and Detective Rider noticed one of them wore a nobby overcoat. Further question led to their arrest on a charge of larceny, the prisoners and coat corresponding with the description in the telegram. Chief Young, of Chatham, took them back there.

An Old Resident Dead.

Mrs. Hannah Harding, aged 83, relict of the late Lieut.-Col. Wm. B. Harding, died Tuesday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. C. Sheere, 197 Bathurst street, city. Deceased came with her husband to this country in 1834, and has lived in London from its early days. The surviving sons are: William R., James Richard, Frank and Fred, and the daughters Mrs. L. Lewis, Mrs. James Gray, Mrs. C. Sheere, Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. R. Pickard. Mrs. Harding was a most estimable lady and a loving mother. Besides her own children she leaves 57 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Royal Templars.

Tuesday night a large number of South London Templars paid a visit to London Council, R. T. of T., and from appearances enjoyed themselves greatly. An excellent programme of songs, quartets, readings and recitations occupied some time, after which the company sat down to well laden tables. The remainder of the evening was devoted to games, etc., the members and visitors afterward wending their way homeward well satisfied with the entertainment. Bro. Wm. Heaman, the representative to Grand Council, announced that the membership in Ontario was now 13,127, and that during the year passed 3,213 new members were added for the Province. A most encouraging state of affairs, and one which shows that the feeling in favor of temperance is on the increase, and that the organization is being regarded with more favor each year.

Frank Daniels Coming.

The world loves to laugh, and it certainly would appear that Frank Daniels was put upon this sphere to satisfy this inclination of the human race. All theater-goers will be glad to know that this quaint and droll comedian is coming with his really bright and interesting comedy, "Little Puck." The comedy has been replenished this season with a hundred new features—new music and songs from the latest new comic operas, new dances from the new burlesques, and new and ludicrous scenes, situations and sayings conceived by Mr. Daniels himself. Mr. Daniels has again this season the valuable aid of that bright little comedy actress, Miss Bessie Sanson, who has been identified with "Little Puck" from the first, and whose well-directed efforts have always been so satisfactory. She is pleasantly remembered here as one of the Vokes family. "Little Puck" will be seen here for the first time at the Grand on Monday night.

The Late Wm. Horton.

The death is announced of the late Wm. Horton, aged 73, barrister, at his residence, St. Thomas, Tuesday. Deceased was one of the best-known men in Western Ontario, especially in this city, where he so long resided. He was called to the bar about the year 1839, and for many years, in partnership with the late Judge Wilson, carried on the largest legal practice in London. He was recorder for the city when the recording act was in force, and was also a major of the militia. A man of brilliant parts and of eminence in his profession, he was with all of a kindly, generous nature, and was held in high estimation by all for his many social qualities. He had been living retired in St. Thomas for some time previous to his death, having removed there a few years ago. His wife, who is a daughter of Judge Richardson, Regina, still survives him, as do two sons, resident in Cleveland, Ohio. The family have much sympathy among their many friends in London.

Did Not Break His Neck.

Says the Hamilton Herald: William Southam, proprietor of the Spectator, is thanking his lucky stars this morning that he is still in this vale of tears, enjoying as much of its comforts as a muchly-bruised body will permit. Last evening he had a narrow escape from most serious injury. Mr. Southam is an enthusiastic curler and a member of the Thistle Club. Last evening he stood in the rink gallery looking down at the curlers in the rink medal contest and thoroughly enjoying himself. While leaning over, watching a fine shot he lost his balance and fell from the gallery to the ice, a distance of twelve or fifteen feet. Turning over in his fall, he struck the ice on his heel, hip and shoulder in one, two, three order. Drs. Woolverton and Russell were present at the time and attended him. A cab was telephoned for and he was removed to his home, where an examination was made and no bones found broken. Dr. Woolverton said this morning that the enthusiastic culer and newspaper proprietor would be laid up for some time, but was not seriously injured. The principal trouble is with the small bone of his ankle, which is much sprained. The hip and shoulder are also badly bruised.

ELECTED.

A Handsome Majority.

Friends, voters and Canadians, lend me your ears. "The evil that men do lives after them. The little good will not soon be forgotten." To come from love of right, and home and country; come with the thousands that have already marked their ballots, and thus declared that in medicines there are no preferences, no favoritisms, and no choice, save that of merit; and the preparation by whatever names be it known, regardless flavor, odor or color, commends itself to the intelligent public only in proportion as it meets the requirements of the particular cases for which it is recommended; as for instance, a patient was suffering from pulmonary diseases of long duration and associated with general debility the most suitable preparation for his case would doubtless be an Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. The late Mr. Harkness was in possession of an excellent formula containing the nutritive properties of these popular remedies in their fullest form, very pleasing to the taste and easily digested, and is highly recommended by the medical faculty. In addition to this he was possessed of many other valuable formulas, prominently among which are his Bronchial Syrup for coughs, colds and croup; Harkness' Kamphone, a specific for Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Toothache, Lumbago, and all sprains, aches and pains, and all cases where a liniment is required Kamphone will be found to have superior merit. Then there is Harkness' Antibilious Pills, Harkness' Sarsaparilla, and very many other valuable preparations which our space will not admit of commenting upon here; but we must mention that invaluable preparation which has attained so much popularity, not less for the excellence of the formula nutritive and recuperative properties, than for the extravagant quantities contained in each bottle (24 ounces). We refer to the now famous Harkness' Beef, Iron and Wine, containing Liebig's Extract of Beef, citrate of iron and pure sherry wine. The impaired system and impoverished blood, whether caused by nervous debility or any disease whatever, needs something in the shape of a nutritive tonic to help nature to recuperate. Such a preparation is Harkness' Beef, Iron and Wine. Gently stimulating, nutritive and toning, it speedily overcomes exhaustion, fatigue, general weariness and debility. All the ingredients are simple and good, and in combination form a valuable restorative for convalescents. All the late Mr. Harkness' valuable formulas are the property of his successor, W. S. Bryers Barkwell, manufacturing chemist, under whose careful supervision they are compounded.

FOR INDEPENDENT ELECTORS.

[Port Hope Guide.]

Manufacturers who were growing up with the country and extending their business years before the blighting effects of the high tax policy were felt, decline to believe the gloomy prognostications of the newspapers that champion the cause of the combines. But independent manufacturers are disinterested. These newspapers are not. They argue for a Government that is under the thumb of the sugar, cotton, barbed wire, rubber, farm tools, milling and other combines, who are to-day conducting their campaign with funds supplied by these men. What right have such newspapers to speak for the manufacturers and artisans of Canada, and to tell to the world that the country is so poor and they so unenterprising and inefficient that they cannot make a living in a fair fight, with no favor? No doctrine is more fatal to the future welfare of Canada.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.
