THRILLING PITCHERS' BATTLE MARK SEASON'S CLOSING HERE

Beebe and Howick Engage in Duel in Morning, the Former Winning by 2 to 0, While Heck and Wilkson Fight to an Eleven-Inning 0-0 Tie in the Afternoon—Record Crowd Attends Afternoon Contest.

[BY JINX.]

London's pennant hopes and the 1913 Canadian League season passed away yesterday simultaneous like. The Canadian League season ended at Tecumseh Park, when Umpire J. Ira Davis announced to 6,000 fans in the eleventh inning of the afternoon game that the contest was called on account of darkness, neither team having scored by that time. London's pennant hopes caved in along about the second inning, when the scoreboard showed that Ottawa was beating Peterboro beyond recognition.

TWO GREAT GAMES.

Over at Tecumseh Park the season wound up in one grand blaze of glory, a blaze that could only have been exceeded had London actually captured the pennant. The afternoon crowd was the largest that ever witnessed a game in this city, beating Saturday's crowd by over a thousand, and the total attendance for both games must have been well over ten thousand. The games themselves were as good as the best that have ever been played here, London winning in the morning by 2 to 0, and the teams battling to an eleven-inning 0-0 tie in the afternoon.

Beebe Celebrates His Return.

The morning game marked the appearance of Ben Beebe after nearly two weeks' rest with a sore arm, and Beebe celebrated his return to the game by giving one of the best twirling exhibitions witnessed here this season, outside of Heinie Steiger's great performance on Saturday. Beebe had lots of stuff and speed, and he was unsolvable for those St. Thomas gents. Only two hits were made off him during the game, and he struck out fourteen men, which is pretty near a record for this season in the Canadian league.

Howick Was in Great Form Also.

Handsome Harry Howick, who has been something of a lucky guy when pitching against this London club, was opposed to Beebe, and he also pitched a magnificent game. Only three hits were pried from his assortment, and had he not uncorked a wild pitch in the first inning and had his team given him perfect support, he, too, might have had a shut-out. After the third inning, he was air-tight, and London only got one hit.

Ottawa Result Provided Excitement.

While the duel between Howick and Beebe was affording the fans all kinds of excitement, the Ottawa-Peterboro score being posted on the score board also served to keep the feeling tense. In the sixth when two runs were put up for Peterboro, the three thousand or so fans present stood up on their feet and threw their hats in the air so jubilant were they. The local game finished before the Ottawa one, but over a thousand fans waited to get the final score from Ottawa. When it came in and Peterboro had won, the greatest excitement prevailed. The news flashed all over the city, and London's pennant hopes seemed to take on a new appearance. It was not until Ottawa began to run up such a large score in the afternoon game that the ardor of local fans cooled to any extent. London was not really expecting a pennant, but everybody was hoping.

Won It in the First Inning.

London really won the morning game in the first inning. Owing to the fact that Eddie Linneborn had been called to Buffalo Sunday morning because of the illness of his wife, Rube Deneau was playing second and Cy Reidy was leading off in the batting order. Reidy was hit by a pitched ball the first time up, and Matteson sacrificed him along to second. Howick made a wild pitch and Reidy took third. The squeeze play was then pulled off between Bierbauer and Reidy, and while Looey was thrown out at first, Cy crossed the plate with the first run.

St. Thomas Threatens.

In the St. Thomas half of the second two men got on with two down, but Beebe struck out Howick and ended it. The third inning was the only one in which Beebe failed to strike out one of the Saints. In six different innings he struck out two of the three men. The Saints got two more runners on in the third, but Forgue's fly to Neale prevented any scoring.

The Last Run of the Day.

In London's half of the third, the second and last run of the day was scored. Beebe hit a grounder to Forgue, who threw the ball into the crowd, and Ben moved to second. Reidy sacrificed and Matty Matteson pulled off the celebrated squeeze play, scoring Beebe.

Crowd Cheered Strike-Outs.

After that the game was merely a matter of retiring batsmen, neither team getting far enough to have a chance to score. The crowd began counting Beebe's strikeouts, and as each section hand bit the dust by the whiff route, a roar went up that could have been heard in East London. It was a great exhibition of twirling.

Second Game Draws Record Crowd.

Long before the second game was due to start, the stands and a good bit of the standing room was occupied. The local management had to return the money on over two hundred grandstand tickets, the seating space being oversold. Benches were put into service in front of the structure, and these were occupied as quickly as they could be carried. Automobiles lined both first and third base lines, and the overflow crowd must have numbered three thousand. It was undoubtedly the biggest day of baseball this city ever knew.

There is not much to describe about the game. The fact that there were no runs scored takes much of the descriptive out of it. The hits were few and far between, and the errors did not amount to much from the fact that they did not cost any runs.

London Nearly Scores.

London's nearest approach to a run came in the fourth inning. After Reidy had grounded out, Matteson singled to centre, but was forced on Bierbauer's grounder to Barney, Forgue making a nice recovery of Barney's boot. Bierbauer stole second and "Dad" Stewart hit to Gurney. The later did not have a chance to make a play at first because nobody covered the bag, but he threw to the plate to catch Bierbauer, who was trying to score from second. Looey made a nice slide and semed to have an even chance to being safe. Davis called him out, although the play was very close.

Wilkinson a Good Kid.

Both Heck and Wilkinson were pitching great ball all through. Wilkinson has only lost one game and has won seven since he has been with the St. Thomas team, and although he is a frail-looking youngster he seems to have the goods. Heck was working in his same old I-should-worry style, and in only one inning was he threatened with a run. This was in the tenth, when with two out, Gadsby got an infield hit and Barton hit to right. Gadsby came all the way home, Matteson dropping the ball at the plate, but J. Ira Davis, the umps, sent the St. Thomas lad back to third and gave Barton a two-bagger, as the ball had gone into the crowd, and only two bases were allowed on a hit of this kind. The next batter lined to Bierbauer.

Dunlop's Great Opportunity.

George Dunlop had a great chance to break up the game in the sixth. With Reidy on second and Stewart on first, and two gone, Dunlop came up, and after fouling a couple, struck out.

Both games were featured by fast fielding, and some nice catches were made by Kopp, Reidy, Neale and Dad Stewart.

In the second game, when Manager Rube Deneau came to bat, he was presented with a purse of gold by the local management, and motion pictures were made of the presentation. J. Ira Davis, the comedian umps, did some fancy posing for the camera that amused the crowd. Motion pictures were taken of the crowd and plays in the game. The box scores are as follows:

HAMS AND GUELPH GOT AN EVEN BREAK

Lee's Men Won the Morning Game But Louis Cook's Team Took the Afternoon Affair.

Hamilton, Sept. 1. — Hamilton closed the Canadian League here today by breaking even with Guelph. They won the morning game by 5 to 0, and dropped the afternoon contest, the score being 4 to 2. Cosy Dolan took up the twirling end of it for the Tigers in the morning and pitched an excellent game, having his opponents at his mercy through the greatest part of the game, they getting him in the final frame, when they scored their lone run. He received good support from his team-mates, who worked consistently behind him.

In the second game the Tigers were outclassed in every way, although they played errorless ball. Guelph got to Garlow, who was on the mound for the Tigers, for nine hits, while the Hamiltons only garnered five off Kirley. Scores:

OTTAWA WON PENNANT BY TAKING LAST GAME

Senators Were Beaten in Morning Game by Peterboro, but in Afternoon They Went After Bob Sterling and Hit Him All Over the Lot.

Ottawa, Sept. 1. — Ottawa wins the Canadian League pennant for the season of 1913. In the two games against the Peterboro White Caps they split even today and thus cinched the championship with a game over the London Cockneys. Thus closed the most remarkable race in the minor leagues.

In the morning Ottawa faced Belting. The latter held them scoreless until the third, when he slipped and sprained his ankle. Tracey replaced him and was equally effective. Ottawa did not score a run, while Peterboro scored three. In the afternoon Ottawa sent reliable Rogers to the mound, and Peterboro decided on Sterling as their last hope. Rogers pitched great ball, while Sterling, after the second inning, when Ottawa cinched the outcome by scoring three runs, was pounded all over the lot. The final score was 14 to 2 for Ottawa.

Catcher McNeal kicked on one of Evans' decisions in the second and was ordered out of the game, whereupon he rushed at Evans and struck him. Fox ran in from the field and jostled Evans, but the police immediately interfered and prevented trouble.

Over seven thousand people were in attendance, the fans becoming hysterical when Ottawa scored run after run. In the ninth Frank Shaughnessy's admirers rushed out on the field to presented him with a floral pennant. "Shag" handed it over to Rogers, and the crowd went wild again. At the finish they broke through the barriers, and carried the Ottawa manager and his players to their dressing-room. Tonight the champions were banqueted at the Russell House and presented with gold wrist watches. The score:

Dutchmen Won Morning Game, But Brantford Developed a Battling Bee and Captured Afternoon.

Brantford, Sept. 1. — Brantford wound up a disastrous season this afternoon with a grandstand finish by shutting Berlin out, 12 to 0. With Coose in the box the Red Sox hit like Trojans, while the Germans could do little with Coose's delivery. In the morning game Berlin defeated the home team quite handily by a score of 7 to 3. LABOR DAY TOURNEY WON BY DR. WRIGHT

Defeated Skip Jas. Reid' Bowlers by Score of 13 to 7, in Finals for Glassware.

The Labor Day bowling tournament on the greens of the London Bowling Club brought together over a hundred and thirty devotees of the sport, members from all four city clubs—the London Rowing Club, Thistles Club, Elmwoods and Asylum clubs—all being represented. A drawing before the beginning of play resulted in 34 rinks being formed, and the big elimination contest was on. The day was an ideal one for the tourney, fine and cool, and the lawns were in good shape. Six-end games were decided upon, and it took from 9 o'clock in the morning until after 10 at night to decide the winners, the honors going to the rink skipped by Dr. J. A. Wright, and composing Messrs. A. E. Chapman, Fred Hunter and Ed. Shea. They won first prize, a beautiful cut glass bowl, after an exciting game with Skip James Reid's bowlers by the score of 13 to 7. Dr. "Jim's" ability at locating the kitty and separating it from a bunch of his opponents' bowls was a large factor in the victory. Barney Vining captured third place from W. J. Snelgrove by the close score of 7 to 6.

The finals and semi-finals were played in the evening on the Greens of the Thistle Bowling Club, and a large number of spectators were present. Music was supplied by the Tony Vita Orchestra.

Messrs. Alf. Cave, L. E. McGugan, A. McVicar and L. E. Tillson shared the honors of bottom place with a score of minus 34. Each was made the recipient of a thoroughly modern garbage pail.

Following are the teams which entered the semi-finals: Messrs. A. E. Chapman, Fred Hunter and Dr. J. A. Wright, skip, plus 36; George Richardson, Major Hayes, C. K. Blewett, W. J. Snelgrove, skip, 28; S. Turner, James Reid, G. Coombs, skip, plus 15; W. H. Talbot, S. McCreary, C. E. Rowed and W. R. Vining, skip, plus 15.

The rink captained by Mr. Ed. Shea also obtained a score of plus 15, but lost out on a draw. Mr. Shea later helped Dr. Wright to victory, joining the rink to fill it out to a four-man rink.

Holiday Games' Odd Features—Cobb Now Led by Jackson

One of the odd features of the Labor Day baseball was that in no city of the American League was there one of those splittings of the bill that so often feature holidays. Detroit, Cleveland, Boston and the Athletics each won both contests that it played.

Games of the holiday, taken in conjunction with those of Sunday, also made a change in the batting championship situation. Ty Cobb, who was leading Jackson on Saturday night, is now four points behind, the figures being: Jackson, .387; Cobb, .383.

In the second game at Navin Field, Bush had the unique record of making every assist that was secured by the Detroit club.
