Fatal Accident.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning, as the pic-nic train was passing through Fairville on its way to Carleton, a woman named Williams, residing at South Bay, attempted to cross the track, and was struck in the side by a corner of the rear car and thrown violently between the track and the platform. When picked up she was insensible and breathing very faintly; her head was very much bruised, caused by coming in violent contact with the platform. She was conveyed into the station and medical attendance at once procured. She died very shortly afterwards. It appears that her daughter, a grown up woman, was with her, and she having crossed the track, turning round and observing that her mother was standing waiting for the train to pass, called out for her to come on; she started to do so, and the attempt was fatal. The distress of the young woman was most heartrending, causing many of those who witnessed the scene to shed tears.

Supposed Drowning Case.

Captain William Tower, of the schooner "Surprise," from the Joggins Mines, made the following statement at the Police Office this morning. Yesterday his schooner was lying below the Ferry Landing on the Carleton side. His crew consisted of himself, George McKilligan, and James Isaac Milton, of Cape Tormentine, Westmoreland County. The Captain and Mc Killigan came ashore yesterday afternoon, leaving the boy in charge. About dusk they returned, and asked the boy (who was cook) if tea was ready. He told them it was not. The Captain told him to get tea ready, and he and the mate went into the cabin. About three minutes afterwards the mate went forward, for a drink, and the boy was missing. The captain and mate searched the vessel thoroughly but couldn't find the boy. During the search Captain Candrick, of a small schooner, lying near them, came on board and handed Captain Tower a hat, which one of his men found in the water. It belonged to the boy. Some persons in a passing boat stated they heard a splash in the water, about the same time. Captain Tower says he never saw anything in the conduct of the boy to make him believe he was insane, though when he went on board he told him supper was not ready. The boy's father is a farmer, and he left home against his father's wishes. The lad had a good education, and was smart. Sunday he complained of being unwell. He was sixteen years old. The captain will drag in the vicinity of his vessel to-day for the body.

LONDON, Aug. 20.

All business is suspended in Belfast and a repetition of the riots of 1866 is feared. The Orangemen seem, despite the troops, to maintain a foothold in the towns and rush through them firing in all directions.

Attacks on prominent Roman Catholic institutions are feared.

The hospital is filled with men and women shot while inoffensively walking the streets.

The troops, several regiments in all, have made one or two vigorous charges, but cannot thus far dislodge the rioters.

Yesterday several men were killed in both factions and many soldiers were seriously wounded.

The latest despatches indicate that the soldiery will shortly succeed in clearing the streets.

The Dublin bakers have struck and riots are feared as the employers do not yield to demands for higher wages.

A boat capsized off Erith yesterday, and five persons were drowned.

Slight disturbances have occurred at Licaster, Maidstone, Exeter and several other towns in consequence of early closing of public houses in compliance with provisions of new Licensing Act.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.

The Longshoremen are on a strike in Brooklyn and have become so riotous that grain elevators where non-society men are at work are protected by police against attacks.

A hurricane Friday afternoon caused great destruction of property and loss of life in town of Warning, N. Y.

Sailing on the Nile.
BY LAURENT LAPORTE.
Translated from the French by Miss Virginia Vaughan.....16 mo. Price $1.50.
"Why is it that French travellers so universally excel English tourists, not only in selecting the salient points of a country or a population for description, but in pith and vigor of style? The present octodecimo volume would have been swelled into a couple of octavos, if an Englishman had undertaken the task of describing a voyage 'On the Nile,' which is so full of matter as M. Laporte's. The book is as attractive as it is instructive."—The Globe.

Watchmaking in Switzerland.
[From the Swiss Times of May 30th.]
WE have already drawn attention to the annual meeting of the Society of Arts held on the 23rd current, under the presidentship of M. Th. de Saussure, and are now able to furnish some further details.
Professor Soret, in delivering a most interesting report, passed in review the operations of the Industrial section, in reference to Commerce, laying great stress upon the competition that has taken place in the manufacture of chronometers. This competition was instituted with the object of testing the workmanship and precision of chronometers turned out by Genevese manufacturers, and none but those adopted for pocket use were admitted. They were deposited in charge of the authorities at the Observatory, and underwent the most searching ordeal possible to be applied to pocket instruments of this class. The jury specially retained to decide the difficult question as to whom to award the palm of excellency unanimously decided in favor of Messrs. J. M. Badollet & Co. This firm having carried off the sole prize by exhibiting a chronometer which fulfilled in the highest degree every condition required, crowned their first success by gaining honorable mention for two other chronometers. The allusion to this triple honor was received with enthusiastic applause, and Professor Humbert, President of the Fine Arts Section, closed the meeting with a happy and humorous dissertation upon subjects connected with this department.
