THE ANTI-RENT CAMPAIGN

HEALY DEFENDS IT IN A SPEECH AT GLASGOW.

The Commission Appointed to Enquire Into the Riots at Belfast Makes a Few Suggestions—Parnell Expected to Visit Dublin.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Mr. Healy, addressing a meeting at Glasgow, said he was glad to see signs which indicated that Chamberlain was returning to the Liberal fold. He thought it was extremely unlikely that Hartington would enter the Conservative Cabinet. Regarding the "plan of campaign" which the National League is conducting in the interests of Irish tenants, Healy denied that there was anything dishonest in the movement.

Catholic Jurors Rejected.

DUBLIN, Dec. 29.—At the Sligo Assizes today another batch of Woodford prisoners were arraigned for trial. All the Catholic jurors on the panel were rejected. Counsel for the prisoners thereupon left court.

The Riot Commission.

BELFAST, Dec. 29.—The commission which has been making an investigation regarding the riots here last summer recommends that two lawyers be appointed resident magistrates in place of the local justices, and that the complete control of the police be vested in a town inspector, who shall be responsible to the Inspector General alone. The commission urges a rigorous suppression of party processions.

MUSIC IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Rival Systems Discussed by the Music Teachers' Association.

Yesterday was the second day of the convention of the Ontario Music Teachers' Association, now being held in the Normal School Theatre. President Sippi was in the chair. The proceedings commenced at 10 o'clock, with the reading of an essay on "Encouragement of Canadian Composition," by Mr. Angelo M. Read of St. Catharines. Mr. W. Fred Foot of Goderich and Mr. Davenport Kerrison of Toronto introduced the discussion which followed. The president read an able essay on "Church Music," in the discussion of which Mr. Edgar R. Doward of Toronto and Mr. J. P. P. Aldous of Hamilton took leading parts. Mr. Kerrison played a Chopin polonse and "Liebes d' Amour" by Liszt; Miss Gertrude R. Titus sang Tosti's "Bid me Good-Bye," and Mr. Harrison played a selection composed of French-Canadian airs.

The afternoon was occupied with the question of "Music in Public Schools." Mr. J. Cringan championed the "tonic-sol-fa" system, while Mr. S. H. Preston spoke for "staff notation." Both had classes of school children present to illustrate the systems. A long and interesting discussion was introduced by Mr. Clark on behalf of the tonic-sol-fa, and by Mr. E. W. Schuch on behalf of the staff notation.

The concert in the evening was attended by a large audience, and a select and varied program was gone through, opening with a piano composition for four hands by Dr. Strathy, performed by Messrs. Harrison, Kerrison, C. Martens and Strathy. In contrast with the organ recital of Tuesday evening there were a large number of piano selections, concertos, violin and 'cello solos, etc., interspersed with vocal solos and part songs. No. 2 on the program was a part song, "The Rose," composed by F. J. Hatton (Mrs. Moore). Among the numbers worthy of notice may be mentioned Dr. Strathy's "Funeral March," which was impressive and pathetic. Mr. Boucher's violin solo "Le Legende," which was encored, and the 'cello solo of Mr. Robert Brewer of Ottawa. Mr. J. Churchill Arlidge's solo "Concerto in D" was nicely rendered and received applause. Among the vocal pieces Dr. C. A. Sippi sang Thomas Martin's "Dreams" expressively. In the forte his robust voice filled the auditorium, and in response to an encore he repeated the last verse. Mrs. Chivrell, jr., sang "Zingarella" by Campana.

Sunday Cabs at Union Station.

Editor World: An interview between a reporter of the Telegram and Chief of Police Grant strikes me as being strange and improbable. I was down at Union Station on Sunday night and talked with the police constable on duty about the Sunday cab business. There is one of those left on Sunday morning, having arrived by the C.P.R. train from Montreal. The constable assured me that his orders were to prevent any cab coming to the Union Station and taking a passenger away unless he specially asked for that man, and he gave me to understand that his instructions were received from such official quarters as the Mayor, the Chief and Staff-Inspector Archabold. The constable on duty is one I have known as a careful, painstaking and courteous officer and I am persuaded that the impression he gave me would never have been given unless he was perfectly convinced of the facts. A TRAVELER.

J. W. Kennedy in St. Stephen's Ward.

Mr. J. W. Kennedy, the plasterer, is a candidate for aldermanic honors in St. Stephen's Ward, and the following communications, both dated yesterday, should destroy the effects of reports that are being circulated against him:

Editor World: It has been reported in St. Stephen's Ward that Mr. J. W. Kennedy is a non-union master plasterer, and that the Plasterers' Laborers' Union had to use him to collect their members' wages. This I, on behalf of the Plasterers' Laborers' Union, emphatically deny. Mr. Kennedy is a union master plasterer. J. MACARTHY,
President Plasterers' Union.

Editor World: Mr. Kennedy is a good member of the Master Plasterers' Association. THOMAS BEAVER.

A Pat Up Job.

A young man living in the country applied for a position in the public school, but was unable to pass the examination. A friend said: "I was sorry to hear that you failed to pass your examination." "Yes, so was I." "How did it happen?" "Oh, they just asked me a few things I didn't know. What do you suppose they asked me?" "I have no idea." "The examiner on the board asked me all about Socrates, Plato, St. Peter and a whole lot of gentlemen I never met in my life. I had never been introduced to any of them. Why didn't they ask me something about General Middleton or the Brave Boys or some other of those first-class brands of cigars manufactured at the champion cigar factory of W. E. Dobson, 139 King-street east? I could have talked by the hour of their good qualities. It was a put up job, that's what it was." 246

Bootjack Targets.

Cats don't yowl around all night just to be fun, but for amusement.

When a cat is left out all night it would pass if she were driven to the waul.

When a cat sings she doesn't do it on purpose but simply to amuse herself.

It is a mistaken idea that all maiden ladies hate cats. We have seen them refuse mince pie more than once.

A cat is like an old pincushion, which feels very smooth to the touch; but caress it too much and you are likely to receive a scratch.

Perez, the once famous tenor, has a hobby now in his old age, and is said to feed hundreds of them every day. The animals remind him of the days when he associated with so-called, especially when they get to fighting—not the sopranos.

A bootjack from a window flew and tore a tom cat clear in two. The bootjack mangled half took up the strain and sent the echo back again. The orchestra was force y set from a solo into a duet.

Wanted.

Bankers, Brokers, Butchers, Bakers, Brewers, Boilers, Blacksmiths, Carpenters, Cabinet Makers, Car-drivers, Farmers, Lawyers, Printers, Painters, Firemen, Postmen, Expressmen, Policemen, or any other men, to get their Watches and Jewelry from Goulden & Torrey 197 King-street east. x301

A Stream of Gentlemen

were noticed wending their way up Yonge-st. yesterday, and curiosity led an observer to watch their actions, when it was found they turned into Rogers' gents' furnishing store, 174 Yonge-street, to get some underwear and kindred gloves—best and cheapest in Toronto. 36

Wide-Awake!

—Business men speculate carefully, keep an attentive eye on the store and the salesmen, and use only the celebrated "New Counter Cue Book," invented and manufactured by Morton & Co., 3 and 5 Adelaide east, Toronto. 36

AMUSEMENTS.

The Attractions at the Theatres To-night—The Travelers' Conversazione.

Bartley Campbell's great play "The Galley Slave" will be presented at the Grand Opera House to-night by a strong company which embraces several who were in the original cast, including Mr. Ralph Delmare, Miss Blanche Mortimer and Miss Lillian Richardson. "The Galley Slave" is regarded by some as the best American drama ever written. It is certainly the best work Bartley Campbell ever did. On Saturday night the same company will play Dumas' "Bound by an Oath."

Haverly's Original Mastodon Minstrels will appear at the Toronto Opera House to-night and the rest of the week. The company includes some of the stars of minstrelsy, chief among which will be the $1000 challenge quintet.

The subscribers' list for the concert next Monday week, at which Madame Teresa Carreno, the pianiste, and Miss Huntington, contralto, appear, has assumed large proportions.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual conversazione of the Commercial Travelers' Association in the Pavilion Music Hall to-night, and the indications are that it will be a big success.

The Toronto Poultry Association's exhibition will be continued in the store at King and Jordan-streets to-night.

A New Horse for Ontario.

Mr. S. B. Fuller, of Woodstock, was the purchaser of Aspinwall at the late sales in Kentucky. He is a bay horse foaled in 1875, by imp. Australian (son of West Australian—winner of the Derby and St. Leger) out of Hester, by Lexington out of Heads-I-Say by imp. Glencoe, out of imp. Heads-or-Tails by Lottery. He is therefore wholly of English blood and of no doubtful or apocryphal lineage, as many of the best American horses are. He is a bay horse, with four white stockings, in that respect taking after Sultan, the sire of his ancestor Glencoe, and of the great Bay Middleton. He is compact and strongly quartered, with a shoulder that none can object to, and has plenty of bone. He is destined to take the place of Strachino at Woodstock, that horse having been sent back to his American owner before the death of the late John Forbes. Being full brother to Springbok, who in his best form swept all the best prizes on the American turf, Aspinwall should suit owners both of thoroughbred and halfbred mares. Indeed there is no reason why he should not be quite as good a stallion as Springbok. Though Stratford had done comparatively nothing on the turf he was taken back from Canada by the Americans because he was the brother of Sensation, and this year a Connemara appeared to justify the "line" theory.

A Knock Out in Illinois.

STREATOR, Ill., Dec. 29.—A fierce prize fight occurred between Chas Daly of St. Louis and Billy Myer of Streator at Woodford, a small station on the Illinois Central Railway, last night. The fight was for $500 a side and to a finish. In the fifteenth round Daly hit Myer a terrible blow between the eyes, but Myer came to the scratch in time. At this time both men were covered with blood, their eyes almost swelled shut, but they came to time and hard fighting was the rule until the thirty-second round when Myer struck Daly a powerful blow on the neck, which spun him around like a top, and he fell with outstretched arms on the floor, from which he was unable to rise at the call of time. After allowing him five seconds more, the fight was given to Myer. Daly had the advantage in weight and height, tipping the scales at 146 to Myers' 140. A forfeit has been placed for a fight between Myer and Tommy Warren.

Mara & Co., 280 Queen-street west.

—Have a large stock of Christmas tree tapers, fancy colored candles, Cadbury's cream chocolates in fancy, floral, horse shoe and photo boxes, satchels, etc. Choicest table raisins, figs, Malaga grapes, oranges, nuts, and a large assortment of Gordon and Dilworth and Crosse and Blackwell's table delicacies. 246

A Big "Burst."

—An awful "BURST" took place this week at the corner Queen-street west and Dovercourt-road. The residents of the whole city were deeply interested, and flocked in crowds to this popular corner. On inquiring it was found that Wiggins & Lewis had just received their Xmas fruits, groceries, liquors, etc., and they had bursted the prices of any competitors around. The latter are mad, but the customers feel well satisfied. 246

Ladies' Felt Hats.

—An extraordinary announcement is made for the benefit of the ladies of Toronto by McKendry, No. 278 Yonge-street. Having purchased a manufacturer's stock of fine French fur felt hats at 30 cents on the dollar, they are selling hats worth $1.25 to $2 for 50 cents each. Their window is full of them. These are great bargains, and ladies want to come quickly and secure what they require at the Waterloo House, 278 Yonge-street, corner Alice-st. 246

—Until January 1, 1887, we offer 10 and 15 per cent. discount off our already exceedingly low prices. See the goods. The People's Company, 60 Adelaide-street west. Sewing machine oil 5 cents per bottle. 246

What True Merit Will Do.

—The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of coughs, colds and the severest lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a cough and leave the disease still in the system but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cents, large bottles. 462

It Seldom Fails.

—J. D. Cameron of Westlake, Ainslie, Cape Breton, had inflammatory rheumatism which Hagyard's Yellow Oil cured after all other treatment had failed. 246

The Latest Styles.

Watch repairing is done in the most skilful manner. x

—Gentlemen, the cold, chilly days of autumn are upon us. We all want to keep warm. Gibson & Coulter are showing a large stock of fall and winter overcoatings, also a select stock of suitings. Inquire about them. They are the tailors of Yonge-street who give their customers a perfect fit. Gibson is the tailor who keeps his patrons with him every time by his courteous and obliging manner. Coulter—why every one knows Jack. If you don't know him try and know him. I am sure he wants to see you. You will find him smiling at the store, where he will treat you decent.
