Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr. Going to Michigan.

Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr., will be married in Montreal on Thursday of this week to Miss Florence Josephine Gillespie, of Toronto. The ceremony will be performed St. Matthew's church, Westmount.

Mr. Raymond is to be assistant to Dr. Tatlock, of Ann Arbor (Mich.), and his bride will go there. Rev. Raymond, Mrs. Raymond and Miss Winifred Raymond have gone to Moncton to be present at the wedding.

Bishop Richardson visited McAdam Thursday last and held confirmation service in St. George's church, of which Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr., has been rector. There was a large number of candidates. After the service R. Lee, church warden, on behalf of the congregation, presented an address to the bishop it being his first visit since his consecration. His lordship made suitable reply. The rector on his departure for Montreal was presented an elegant traveling case.

TORBROOK

Torbrook, N. S., Sept. 20—The residence of Richard Marshall, of Hill Grove, six miles from Digby, was burned to the ground on Sunday afternoon, the fire originating, it is believed, in the attic from a defective flue. Most of the furniture was saved. There was $1,000 insurance.

A year ago the Union Reform party of Kings county destroyed $5,000 worth of liquors at the Porter House, Kentville. The proprietor, W. H. Townsend, brought suit immediately against Justices Eaton and Beckwith, the magistrates who ordered the seizure of the liquors. This has been a subject of strenuous litigation for the past twelve months. Each time the temperance party has triumphed, and when all the former decisions were finally confirmed a month ago, it was felt that the case was settled for good. Now, however, Justice Graham has granted leave to appeal to the judicial committee of the privy council from the decision of the court in banc, delivered on Aug. 2.

On Sunday night intense excitement was caused at the Aldershot drill grounds, Kentville, by a fire in the tent of Colonel Northrup, of the Kings county Hussars. The colonel lost all his effects. The cause of the fire is unknown. The twelve days' drill will end on Saturday.

At 6.30 on Wednesday evening, Sept. 11th, a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Killam, Spring street, when their eldest daughter, Myrtle C., was united in marriage to Mr. John C. Keating, of Moncton (N. B.) The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Cummings, in the presence of about eighty friends and relatives. The bride was prettily attired in white chiffon silk over taffeta, the wedding veil being decked with snowdrops, and carried a handsome bouquet of orange blossoms and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Flossie, who was becomingly gowned in blue silk. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Frank Keating. Miss Georgie Leaman, cousin of the bride, rendered the wedding march. Directly after the ceremony the bridal couple left for a trip to Niagara Falls and various Canadian cities. The bride's traveling suit was of green broadcloth with hat to match.
