FURIOUS FIGHT IN LOWER CALIFORNIA

The Town of Tia Juana Captured by Mexican Rebels.

San Diego, Cal., May 9.—Tia Juana, Lower California, was captured by the insurrectos at 5 o'clock this morning after a short fight.

Many are dead and wounded on both sides. It is impossible to learn definitely how many have been killed, as the United States troops at the line refuse to allow anyone to cross into the Mexican town.

A small party of federals still is holding the Mexican customs house. Buildings in the town have been fired by the rebels, and dead bodies are visible through field glasses in the streets and near the Catholic Church, which has been burned.

WORK HAS BEGUN ON THE RESURFACING

Old Surface Is Being Rapidly Removed.

The Barber Asphalt Company have started work on Dundas street.

This morning a gang of men was set to work tearing the surface of the pavement off, and good progress was made. The City Gas Company will be through with their portion of the street, and then the Barber Company will have that section of Dundas street to themselves.

City Engineer Wright has given them orders to hurry the work along as rapidly as possible, as he is anxious to have it all completed at an early date.

SMITH'S FALLS INQUEST

Death From Natural Causes Verdict Over Dead Baby.

[Canadian Press.]

Smith's Falls, Ont., May 9.—At the adjourned inquest on the body of the child of Elsie Timlick, found in a shed at the Timlick home, a verdict of death from natural causes was returned. While the jury found a most distressing conditions of things there was not concealment of birth or death. The verdict read: "That the infant child of Elsie Timlick came to her death through natural causes. We would, however, call the attention of the proper authorities to the neglect of the ordinary burial customs by the family in this case."

Coroner McCallum conducted the inquest.
