THE ANGELS SMILED.

BY WILLIAM LYLE.

I.

There was flashing fire, and the air was rent
With the cannons' loud uproar,
There was ringing steel, and groanings that went
Like waves o'er that fields of gore.

There were reeking homes, the were orphans' screams,
And charging of frighted steeds,
While the sky grew red with the lurid gleams,
And blushed at the nameless deeds,

There were angry men in their cruel pride,
And curses of fearful sound—
Then a flying host at the eventide
Covered all the trembling ground.

There were shouts of triumph that o'er the land
In frantic revelry swept,
And a King was crowned 'mid a courtly band,
But the angels saw, and wept.

II.

From a heap of rags on the wayside laid,
And a shivering form within,
Came a moaning sound, like a cry for aid,
In a voice so wierdly thin.;

Then a traveller strode so kindly near,
And lifted that fragile form;
"Why, little one, pray who hath laid thee here,
To die in the drifting storm?"

"Where, where is thy heartless father?" he said,
"And thy mother?" "All are gone;
In our fireless home they are lying dead,
And Mary is all alone."

Then his princely soul with a living speed
Gathered to his heart that child,
And he bore her home. 'Twas a little deed,
But the angels saw, and smiled.

MUTINY AT ALDERSHOT.

RIOTOUS PROCEEDINGS OF THE IRISH SOLDIERS—A WARNING TO THE GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, March 18.—A terrible riot took place at Aldershot yesterday. The 18th Royal Irish Regiment began the disturbance by a flourish of sticks, and were soon joined by other Irish soldiers, who created a noise over the whole town. The mounted police made an attack on the rioters, and several regiments were ordered to march and help them. The soldiers marched with drawn bayonets, and a fearful scene ensued in the shape of broken windows, broken heads and severe injuries. All of the public houses were closed and the rioters were taken prisoners, but a large number of them were rescued by the mob. The riot lasted three hours. The Provosts of the town were badly treated by the rioters.

In cases of Chronic diseases which doctors have failed to cure, Burdock Blood Bitters has achieved its greatest triumph. All diseases of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Rheumatism, Piles, Female Complaints and all forms of lost Vitality are promptly cured by this great renovating Tonic. Trial Bottles only cost 10 Cents. I 31-2

THE LATEST CANARD.

THE MARVELLOUS DISCERNMENT OF THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON.

LONDON, March 17.—A suspicious looking box was to-day found in an obscure spot in the rear of the Mansion House, the palace of the Lord Mayor. Being examined, the box was found to contain gunpowder sufficient in quantity to do great damage when exploded. The discovery created a sensation. The Lord Mayor's opinion is that it was placed there by Fenians as part of an incomplete arrangement to blow up the Mansion House. There is no clue to the source whence it came. It was removed and will be kept for identification.

HAGYARDS PECTORAL BALSAM is composed of the most healing balsams and gums. The Balsams, which enter into its compositions, were used by the natives when America was first discovered, and are combined with other vegetable tonics, so blended together, that it is a specific for all affections of the throat and lungs. Thousands of bottles are used annually, and it is considered one of the standard preparations of the day. I 31-2

A FRENCH SKETCH OF MR. PARNELL.

As a consequence of Mr. Parnell's visit to Paris, the French press is at present giving a very large attention to the Irish question. From an article in the Triboulet we take the following sketch of Mr. Parnell:—

The chief of the Irish cause is, in fact, one of these men born to command. Tall in stature, proudly erect of head, well proportioned in the ensemble of his body, Mr. Parnell can be ranked among that privileged class in which strength is combined with slenderness of frame. Under the voluntary slowness of his movements, and the impassable calm which he knows how to spread as a mask over his countenance, one can discern a temperament essentially organized for action. These natures, cold in appearance, should not be mistaken. Once the hour of danger arrives these men of the ice-surface are transformed into extraordinary tilters. . . . Energy is the characteristic of this figure Mr. Parnell is a wrestler—he has already proved himself to be one; but fight assumes a special form in his person. He is less a man of attack than a man of resistance. Parliamentary storms, interruptions and interpellations must pass over this head without moving one muscle of his face, without bringing the colour to the pale cheek, without taking from those eyes their fixity of expression. One cannot conceive a being better appropriated for the direction of the crisis which Ireland is traversing—a crisis in which an excited nation has, above all, a want of sang froid, of tenacity, of that quality called by our neighbours endurance—the power of holding out for a length of time.

EPPS'S COCOA—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist any tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Sold only in packets labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co. Homœopathic Chemists, London, England." Also makers of EPPS'S CHOCOLATE ESSENCE for afternoon use.

A physician at McLean, Ill., owed a woman $100, and suggested that she take pay in medical services. She remarked, at a quilting bee, that it would take a great many years of such a doctor's services to be worth $100. She is wealthy, and he has sued her for $10,000 damages for slander.

One of the oldest churches on the American continent is the Turmacaco Church near Tubac, Arizona. It was built by the Franciscans in 1854, and has consequently reached the age of 327 years. Fifty-six years ago Indians murdered seven priests within its walls, and twenty-five years ago several priests came from Rome and dug from a sepulchre on the right side of the altar $80,000 in coin and jewels.

When some of the members of a Belgian regiment were in London, some time ago, Lady Burdett-Coutts entertained them at her villa, Holly Lodge, where every man was presented with a tract and a cigar. "How kind of ze lady," remarked one of the brave Brabanters, who did not comprehend the nature of the publication given to him, "not only to geef us ze smoke, but to provide also ze papaire for to lide ze cigar vid!"

In the Queen's Bench Division in London the other day, after the jury in a case on trial had returned a verdict for the defendant, and Lord Coleridge had condemned the plaintiff to pay the costs, the latter, turning to the bench and addressing the Lord Chief Justice, cried out: "I have been swindled and you are the cause. You are not fit to sit on that bench." Lord Coleridge left the bench and ordered the man's arrest.

When Colonel Anstruther, of the 94th British Regiment was informed that the Boers would oppose his march to Middleburg, he replied, with lofty scorn, that when he saw the Boers he should order the big drums to beat and would scare them away. The Boers appeared, and the band struck up, and the drummers pounded their mightiest. The result of this excellent piece of strategy was that the entire British detachment was killed or captured in a quarter-of-an-hour.

THE ORANGE AND GREEN

A GRAND MASTER OF ORANGEMEN LECTURES IN AID OF THE LAND LEAGUE.

HALIFAX, March 16.—Rev. Dr. Clay, a Grand Master of Orangemen, and Dominion Immigration Agent, lectured in the Lyceum to-night in aid of the Irish Land League, before a fair audience. His subject was "Public Sentiment"

Under the new military law the German standing army will have, in round numbers, 18,000 commissioned officers, 1,700 surgeons, 600 veterinary surgeons, 650 gunsmiths, 800 paymasters, and 80,000 horses. Prussia furnishes 330,000 men; Bavaria, 50,000; Saxony, 27,000; Wurtemberg, 19,000.

NO PERNICIOUS INGREDIENTS!

A Scotch landlady, being told by a customer that he hoped she put no pernicious ingredients into her liquor, retorted: "There's naething pernicious put into our barrels but the exciseman's stick." Well would it be for suffering humanity if all the quack medicines and preparations sold now-a-days were as free from pernicious ingredients as the Scotch lady's liquor. One thing, however, is certain, that N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir, which has stood the test of half a century, is not in any way mixed with pernicious or injurious ingredients. Thousands testify to its being the most efficacious remedy for coughs, colds, lung diseases and consumption. 31

A DOSE OF BROWN'S VERMIFUGE Comfits or Worm Lozenges, creates great consternation among the worms, which twine and twist in the stomachs of many children, and even adults. There is nothing in these Comfits which can injure anything but the worms, and nobody cares for them. 29-4

The first marks of advancing time are crowsfeet at the corners of the eyes; the second, grey hairs. A cheerful and benevolent disposition retard the progress of the first, and Luby's Parisian Hair Renewer the second. It cannot achieve impossibilities, it cannot restore a deceased scalp, but it can restore grey hair to its original color. Sold by all chemists. 14

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—This cooling Medicine has the happiest effect when the blood is overheated and a tendency to inflammatory action is set up in the system; one Pill taken shortly before dinner does away with the indigestion, fulness, and flatulency—indications of a weak stomach, or disordered liver. A few Pills taken at bedtime act as alteratives and aperients; they not only relieve the bowels, but regulate every organ connected with them, overcome all acrid humours, and encourage a free supply of all the secretions essential to our well-being. Holloway's Pills thoroughly cleanse and perfectly regulate the circulation, and beget a feeling of comfort in hot climates and high temperatures, which is most desirable for preservation of health.

LUBY'S

A lady, an actress, who took great pride in her magnificent chevelure, found it suddenly turning grey. She was disconsolate, but fortunately found out in time the virtues of a certain remedy which made the Grey Hair disappear as if by magic, and beside served as a rich perfume. The remedy was LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RENEWER. Sold by all druggists.

FOR

Semiramis, the celebrated Assyrian Queen had hair which was the envy of her subjects: It continued beautiful, flowing and glossy to the end of her life never as much as a grey hair daring to peep through it. It is probable she was acquainted with some remedy afterwards lost; but we have LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RENEWER. Sold by all chemists.

THE

On the Montreal Exchange one broker remarked to another: "Why, look, Blank has grey hair!" Blank who is a young man and somewhat of a beau, felt annoyed at the fact of having his grey hairs discovered, but went immediately and procured a bottle of LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RENEWER for fifty cents. The result was amazing. It is sold by all chemists.

HAIR!

How common and at the same time how painful it is to see young people prematurely bald or prematurely grey. It is a source of humiliation to those deficient of hair and a source of anxiety to their friends. The question is, how can these things be remedied? We answer by using LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RENEWER. Sold by all chemists.
