— On Monday evening as Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Annis and boy of Weymouth were driving a span of horses, along the road past Saw Mill Creek coming towards Annapolis, one of them became unmanageable and the driver jumped out to prevent trouble, when they started and ran away, dragging Mr. Annis, who was struck in the face by a stone in the road, breaking his nose so that on arriving at Annapolis it became necessary to have it surgically operated upon and a piece of bone extracted. Mrs. Annis got a wrist sprained but the boy apparently escaped unhurt. Although the horses were stopped after a short run, the carriage was pretty badly broken.—Spectator.

Local and Other Matter.

UNUSUAL.—Mr. L. O. Neily, the well known maker of Superphosphate, of Aylesford, writes us that he has an early Bough Apple tree in full bloom.

—J. N. Rice, photographer, has returned to his old quarters over the Monitor Office, where he will be pleased to fill all orders in his line of business. The public are requested to remember that his photographic apparatus is of the newest and best. 1i MARGARETVILLE.—Mrs. David Fales and sister were upset from a carriage some days ago and quite seriously injured. We are pleased to report that notwithstanding the fears first entertained for their recovery, Dr Miller, who is in attendance now gives a favorable report.

—The Crier in the County Court, which is now sitting here, one day lately astonished his hearers by concluding his peroration at the opening of the Court with the words "God save the Queen, or any other man."—Bridgewater Times.

—J. W. Beckwith offers his four year old chestnut mare for sale at a great bargain. She is a good driver and worker. 1i —Farmers are improving the splendid harvesting weather. The grain crop is reported good, but potatoes are small and few in a hill.

—We understand Rev. Henry D. DeBlois of Annapolis delivered the inaugural address at the agricultural exhibition opened at Liverpool, Queens, yesterday.

—During our vacation there have been some matters that could not be attended to as promptly as usual. This was unavoidable, but we hope now that we have returned, to have everything moving smoothly, in a few days.

— A private letter received in Halifax, from a commercial source in Glasgow, says that iron ships were being built on the Clyde at £10 2s. 6d., per ton, and on the East Coast at £9 17s. 6., being almost the price of Nova Scotia spruce. It was also stated that a Nova Scotia builder had made a contract for a 1500 ton iron ship on the Glasgow Yards.

ABOVE ALL COMPETITORS.—The New Royal. Correspondence solicited, from reliable dealers everywhere. Royal Sewing Machine Co., Hamilton, Ont. 2i

—The splendid side wheel S. S. City of Richmond will take the place of the S. S. Frances on the Mount Desert line commencing on Tuesday, 7th October. The City of Richmond is about 1000 tons, elegantly fitted with large saloons and commodious state rooms. She has the reputation of being the fastest S.S. on the coast of Maine. The increased traffic, both passenger and freight, and deserved popularity of the Mount Desert line warrants the N. E. & A. S. S. Co., placing such a steamship as the C. of R. on their line. We wish them every success.

—The Nova Scotia Government have made contracts for building a number of new Bridges in different parts of the country—four in Cape Breton; four in Antigonish; one in Hants two in Kings; three in Annapolis; three in Colchester, seven in Barrington; one in Yarmouth, and two in Lunenburg.

— J. W. Beckwith's new stock of Boots and Shoes are on the way and will arrive this week. 1i

—Sir. Charles Tupper as representative of Canada has been appointed by the Imperial Government to act in conjection with the British ambassador in the negotiations going on with Spain respecting the improved commercial relations.

—John Lockett has just opened a fine lot of Woollen Squares and Shawls, Ladies Fur Collars and Boppets, also a choice assortment of Dress Goods of the Newest Materials. 1i

LECTURE.—Mr. W. B. Isley delivered a lecture on Friday evening 3rd inst., at Lawrencetown. Subject: 'The Mind.' Although confessedly an abstruse and difficult metaphysical subject, it was well treated, and showed that the lecturer had devoted a great deal of thought on the subject. The audience was all attention, and at the close tendered a vote of thanks. The lecturer was followed by several speakers, including Dr. Hall and G. W. Richardson, who all expressed great pleasure in the treatment of the subject.

The 3rd lecture of the course will be delivered by Dr. J. B. Hall, in Whitman's Hall on the 17th inst. Subject: 'Notes on a trip to Europe.'

—The horse race between Cox's Napoleon, of Kings Co., and Foster's Bridgetown Charley, of this town, took place at the Kentville driving park, yesterday, as advertised.

The race was for a purse of $3.00, best three in five, mile heats.

The heats were gamely contested throughout, but the pony Charlie clearly showed his ability to outfoot his opponent and took 1st, 3rd and 4th heats in good style. The only break made by Charlie was in the second heat, on the home stretch, near the end of which he broke and lost, and Napoleon went to the front, winning in 2 40¾.

Following is the running time in each heat.

Charlie, 1st, 2.43; 2nd, 2.41; 4th, 2.42.

Napoleon, 2nd, 2.40¾.

A large concourse of people witnessed the race and everything passed off quietly.

— Supreme Court opened at Annapolis yesterday at 10 a. m. His Honor Judge Thompson presides. The civil docket is not important this term. Several petty criminal suits are for trial.

—A youth named Samuel Hill, a son of Mr. O B Hill of Granville, came near being drowned in the Bath Creek, at Granville yesterday. He and others were engaged in rafting some logs when he accidentally slipped off into the water. When rescued he was unconscious and was resuscitated with considerable difficulty.

HYMENIAL.—A large circle of friends assembled on the evening of the 1st inst., at the home of our highly respected and much esteemed citizens, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Balcom, of Paradise, to witness the celebration of the marriage of their eldest daughter, Annie Sophia, to Leander P. Shaffner, of Middleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Eaton.

We wish the newly married couple a great deal of happiness.

—For the benefit of our readers we give this week a sure cure for collic or belly ache in horses. To one bottle Johnson's Anodyne Liniment add same quantity of molasses and warm quantity of water, and pour down the horse's throat.

—A man recently asked in a drug store for a box of rough diamonds, but the druggist knew no such remedy. After much parley the druggist found that his customer wanted Brandreth Purgative Pills. He says, "That's the only fit name for 'em."

—The Yarmouth Times in its "Notes" of the exhibition to be held at Yarmouth, on the 9th and 10 insts., says:

Additional interest will be given the competition for horses by the presence of Percheron horses from Colchester and Annapolis counties.

The Bear River people will send a thorough bred Ayrshire bull, spring pigs, a variety of vegetables, collection and dozens of apples, and several classes of manufactured goods.

The Annapolis County people have entered a number of coops of fowls, and will also send vegetables and apples.

In connection with the above note, we may say that the Percheron horses to be taken from this county, are the recent importations by Mr. Geo. Ruffee, of this town. There is $50 offered for best horses of this breed, and we hope Mr. Ruffee may be fortunate enough to win. [Ed. Mon.

— Major Kitchener telegraphs that the whole of Col. Stewart's party who were stranded on the rocks in the cataract at Wandy Garna have been murdered.

—There will be service in the Presbyterian Church on Sabbath next, at 11 a. m. and 3½ p. m. The Rev. Mr. Hamilton, whom we are glad to welcome among us again, will officiate.

— Fur Trimmings at J. W. Beckwith's.

— Mr. F. Willett, of Tupperville, drew quite a number of prizes at the Dartmouth Exhibition. We will publish the list in our next issue.

—A blush rose belonging to Mrs. Warneford Dodge, of this town, during the month of September, produced five roses and has been a free bloomer all summer.

— Wool Squares, at J. W. Beckwit's. 1i

— Mr. S. N. Jackson, one of the judges in class 11, at the District Exhibition, requests us to publish the following:

"In looking over the Prize List, published in the Spectator, of the Exhibition held at Annapolis—I observed that it gave a first class prise to Messrs. Chute Hall & Co's. organ, of Yarmouth, and second class prize to the Acadia Organ Co. I wish to state that a first class prize was awarded to Chute & Hall for a church organ, and first class prize to the Acadia Co. for parlor organs."

—We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of James Shand, commission merchant, Halifax.

—J. W. Beckwith's for the finest lines in Dress Goods. 1i

BARBOR TENDERS.—Mr. John Piggott of this town, has been awarded by the Local Government, the contracts for building the substructure of the Barrington Bridge, Yar. Co., for $925; the substructure of the Shelburne Bridge, for $1,140; and the contract for building the Hawk Bridge, Cape Island, for $975.

—It is reported that Prince Bismarck has actually proposed a renewal of the London Conference to finally settle the Egyptian question, and he suggested that the conference meet in Berlin before the end of October. The idea is regarded favoribly in France.

Annapolis Vessel Burned.

THE CAPTAIN AND CREW ESCAPE IN THE BOATS.

The Herald on Saturday contained the following despatch from Port Hawkesbury: "Captain John Embee, schooner Gaspard Embree reports; saw yesterday morning off Picton Island at daylight, three masted schooner on fire, bore down on her; saw no person on board; sails and masts burning; could not see name; believe lumber laden; blowing heavily."

The vessel lost was the three masted schr. Xebec, of Digby, 195 tons, commanded by D. H. Slocumb, and owned by J. E. Slocumb, of Port George, Annapolis. She was laden with tanbark from Buctouche for Boston. The captain reports: Left Buctouche Wednesday night, October 1st. Thursday morning, wind blowing hard N. N. E., vessel under fore and mainhalf, and fore sail; reefed mainsail and foresail about 6 a. m. and set reefe spanker, vessel then being about four to five miles from Picton Island. About this time noticed smoke issuing from the fore part of the vessel; sent forward to ascertain the cause and found the deckload to be on fire, probably caught from the galley. Used every effort to put the fire out by pouring on water and throwing deckload overboard. Kept the vessel off in order to confine the fire to the fore part All efforts were useless, the lanyards, rigging and sails taking fire, compelled us to take the boats. Shortly after leaving the vessel the three masts fell overboard. We made for Picton Island, were we landed safely at noon, after several hours pulling, one man bailing continually. The captain reports seeing a schooner about two miles to the windward when the fire was first discovered. A signal of distress was set, but no notice was taken of it. Mr. Hogg, light keeper of Picton Island, had put off to the vessel in a boat, and passed the schooner's boat without seeing her. Finding the vessel was deserted he returned. The captain and crew passed through this morning on their way to Annapolis. The Xebec was 8 years old and well found. The captain does not know whether there was any insurance on vessel or cargo.

FISHERIES OF CANADA.—In the paper read by the British Association by Mr. Thomas White, statistics were given of the fisheries of Canada, showing the extent of our fishing waters, which in the east includes 2,500 miles of sea coast. These fisheries he claimed to be the richest and most profitable in the world. Last year the fish product of Canada reached $17,500,000, and this did not include the amount caught by settlers for their own consumption. Were these included, the product for the year would be $33,000,000. Canada's fisheries employ 50,000 fishermen, and the rate of product from them is higher per man than either in England or the United States. The paper gave details as to the value of each description of fish caught, and described the market to which the fish of Canada are sent. The number of lobsters canned in Canada annually represents 52,000,000 of lobsters. In Prince Edward Island he said there was in 1872 only one lobster establishment; ten years later the number had increased to 120. There were put up on the Island in 1871 6,711 cans; 1878, 1,649,800 cans, and in 1882 6,300,000 cans. In 1870 New Brunswick had one canning establishment putting up 20,000 cans, ten years later, 3,000,000 were exported from the Province to different markets. Nova Scotia exported 30,000 cans of lobsters in 1870, and 5,000,000 in 1882. Quebec is behind in this industry, producing last year but 800,000 cans of lobsters. There are to-day in Canada, 600 establishments engaged in canning lobsters, the produce of which is 17,500,000 cans valued at $3,000,000, almost as much as the value of the product of our herring and mackerel fisheries combined. The number of lobsters taken in England does not represent 3,000,000 each year.—Examiner.

Swindlers in Digby.

A gang of swindlers have made Digby county their head quarters for some time past and threaten to spend the winter there preying on the farmers. A St. John gentleman who has an opportunity of noticing their movements recently, gave a Sun reporter some points touching their work. They profess to be honest traders and pedlars and as such carry around large packs of shoddy goods, brass jewelry, watches, etc. Entering a country house one of the gang shows his samples and dumping down a roll of dress stuffs, a lot of shawls or cloths, offers the lot for, say $20. The farmer hesitates, pleads the want of ready money, etc., whereupon the operator throws down a set of jewelry, a watch or some other attraction, exclaiming, "Never mind the cash—I must get clear of the goods, they are the last I have of a big lot. Give me your note for six months and it will be all right." The farmer, influenced by the solicitations of his family who see in the transaction a great bargain, signs the note, which is at once handed over to a third party. The goods turn out to be trash, but when the note falls due the farmer has to meet it likes little man. Several cases have occurred where the swindlers on being followed up compromised at a fraction of the sum originally claimed; but in most cases they work their game successfully to the end. These rascals are possibly the very same who not long ago raided York county, until the press made it too hot for them. We advise all our country readers at Digby or elsewhere to be wary of strangers who offer unheard of bargains in any kind of goods whatever, and to trade only with reputable and established merchants who can give them a fair value for their money.—St. John Sun.

A FRENCHMAN'S WARNING. Paris, Oct. 2.—Jules Valles, the celebrated communard, in an article published in Le Matin Francis, bids Germans and Frenchmen to beware of rousing the dormant spirit of Englishmen. He says although England has no immense standing army, in the event of a war soldiers would spring from the ground. The whole of the militia and volunteers, in fact every man able to use a rifle, would rally round the Union Jack. He warns Germany of the presence in that country of socialism, which is ever menacing danger, and at whose bidding regiments may lay down their arms. The article concludes: "Beware lest this silent race, whose voice is raised only amid the cannon, don their red coats to celebrate fete au sang!"

APPALLING DISASTER.—London, Oct. 3.—Intelligence has just been received here of a terrible and disasterous hurricane in Iceland, on the 11th last September. The accounts thus far received, show that 19 trading vessels and 60 fishing boats were lost and 32 vessels disabled. The most appalling feature of the hurricane was the loss of life. The exact number of those who perished has not yet been ascertained, but is known to have been very great.

—Four years ago Mr. Gladstone delivered at Leeds a speech which contained 8,400 words and occupied one hour and three-quarters in delivery, so that it was spoken at the rate of 80 words a minute. One of his recent efforts in Scotland contained 11,500 words and was delivered in one hour and thirty-five minutes. This was at the rate of 118 words a minute.

Dame Experience
Does not conduct a select school, yet her changes for tuition are seldom small. The training imparted has current value everywhere, and for this reason she can demand arbitary compliance with her wishes. One of her appreciated maxims is to get the best value for your money you can. Shun the inferior or dangerous even if cheap. Therefore don't buy substitutes for that invaluable article—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the always sure, safe and painless corn remedy. Putnam's never fails, is painless, prompt and certain. Beware of substitutes. Sold by druggists and county dealers.
