Poetry.

THE BATTLE-FLAG of ENGLAND.

The battle flag of England
Is buoyant to the breeze,
And spreads its folds of victory
Above the subject seas.
And far as stormy waters roll,
Or wild tornadas sweep,
That mighty flag is seen to wave
Triumphant o'er the deep.

The signs of union, strength, and might,
Are in that flag combined;
And who shall dare to disunite
The symbols so entwined?
Is it the foreign envious foe,
With mercenary band,
Or worse, the false and vipe'rous crew
That stigmatize our land?

Together let them both unite,
They'll find their efforts vain,
Ten hundred thousand fearless hearts
Will England's rights maintain,
And hurl destruction on the foe
Who would the free enthral,
And England's battle flag shall wave
Triumphant over all.

A NEW IRISH MELODY.

(To an old Air—viz., "Brian O'Lin."

Daniel O'Connell 'd no mischief to brew,
So he started Repeal just for something to do,
And the watch-word like mad through Hibernia ran,
"Och! the rint is a mighty fine income," says Dan.

Daniel O'Connell found nothing would do
But to keep up a regular bullaboo,
Till he found himself lying like fat in a pan;
"Faith, I'm thinking, I'd like to be out on't" says Dan.

Daniel O'Connell and rather too much,
About blackguards, and tyrants, and Sassenachs, and such,
Till the Government shut up the turbulent man;
"Arrah! here's a gintle situation," says Dan.

Daniel O'Connell has friends to his back,
So he got out of prison again in a crack;
And he now is exactly just where he began,
"Arrah! What in the world will I do now?" says Dan.

Millerism.—Why Jim, what you goin' with dat white shirt on?

"Your'n impudent missur, Sam Jonsing, and no nutting 'bout de 'citement jist now; I'se a Millerite, an' dis wat I got on is decension tobe. I'm gwine to de Wisunheecon to climb up de big tree, an wate for my end."

"Jim, you'se a bigger fool dan I tuk you to be, as you'l be crawling home some ob dese mornin's wi'd de rumatiz."

"You may talk of the bonds of affection, the ties of fellowship, and all that," says Krantz, "but I know of no stronger attachment than that which a Sheriff entertains for a poor debtor who cant fork up."

Temiscouta House,

CHARLOTTE STREET, SAINT JOHN.

THE Subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he has taken the above mentioned commodious and well situated HOTEL, for the accommodation of permanent and transient company.

This HOTEL being situated in a pleasant and business part of the City—it not being five minutes walk to any of the Banks, the Post Office, or the principal places of business, that it renders it a desirable stopping place for travelling and commercial gentlemen. And having formerly carried on a similar business in a different part of the Province, and consequently understanding everything that pertains to the management of a first-rate HOTEL, he hopes a discerning public will give him a share of their patronage.

Every delicacy procurable in the market constantly on hand, and the most experienced cooks engaged.

Travelling gentlemen can also be accomodated with the best stabling the City can afford, the subscriber having lately erected stabling sufficient to accomodate thirty six horses. Steady hostlers are always in attendance.
Aug. 23. CHARLES YERXA.

Fredericton Hotel.

Corner of Regent and Brunswick Streets near the Artillery Park.

THE Subscriber begs to intimate to his friends and the public that the above Establishment is now open for the reception of Visitors, and he flatters himself that from his long experience in Business, together with the additional accommodation which can now afford; he will be able to accommodate visitors to Fredericton in a style inferior to none in the Province. The House has been built and fitted up for the purpose of an Hotel.—The out-door establishment is extensive, and when completed, will be superior to any in New Brunswick. A Coach will be in attendance to convey those who patronize the FREDERICTON HOTEL, from and to the steam-boat landing, for which no additional charge will be made. Charges at this Establishment will be found as moderate as any other in the country for the like accommodation

FOREIGN & COLONIAL AGENCY AND COMMISSION OFFICE,

18, Cornhill, London,
(Opposite the Royal Exchange.)

P. L. SIMMONDS, in returning thanks to his numerous Friends, and the Colonial Public in general, for the large share of patronage and support which he has received during the past six years, takes leave to inform them, that in consequence of the rapid influx of business from all parts of the world, and the great portion of his time which has hitherto been occupied by the editing and publication of the Colonial Magazine, he has taken into partnership Mr. Francis Clowes, a gentleman of first rate talent and respectability, and that the business will be henceforward carried on under the Firm of Simmonds & Clowes; and he respectfully solicits for the Firm that continued share of patronage and support which it will be their earnest endeavour to merit by promptitude, unwearing energy, continued zeal, and moderate charges.

Simmonds & Clowes, as General Agents and Commission Merchants, beg leave to acquaint the Colonial public, that they are now ready to receive Orders for supplies of any kind and quantity, and goods of every description, of first-rate quality, at the very lowest market prices of the day, and to transact business upon the most liberal terms, provided they are previously furnished with funds or drafts at either long or short dates, or a reference to some London or Liverpool house for payment.

Simmonds & Clowes will continue to receive consignments of Merchandize, to be sold on commission, and upon the receipt of the bills of lading, will accept drafts at three months for two-thirds of the amount. Consignments entrusted to their care will meet with every possible dispatch in their disposal, and the Sales be conducted with the greatest attention to the interests of the Consigner.

An extensive knowledge of general business, and the experience of so many years as Colonial Agents in London, coupled with promptitude, attention, and judgement, will, they trust, enable them to give satisfaction to those who may favour them with their commands.

☞ In consequence of the extensive correspondence of the Firm, they have to request that all Letters may be post-paid.

The fame and efficacy of Parr's Life Pills in America.

From the New York Sunday Mercury Jan. 10, 1844.

We call the attention of the invalid to the Testimonials of cures performed by Parr's Life Pills.—The testimony of such respectable names is a certain guarantee for the truth of the efficacy of this truly excellent medicine.

The number of testimonials of cures by Parr's Life Pills, are crowding upon the proprietor daily, and their unbiassed testimony witnessed by gentlemen of high reputation.

The following testimonial is from one of the most talented and respectable members of the theatrical profession, Mr. T. D RICE, the original Jim Crow—a gentleman whose high character for worth and integrity as a citizen, places his unsolicited and voluntary attestation of the excellence of the Medicine beyond the shadow of suspicion. This (worth thousands of similar grateful acknowledgements) can be seen at the principal depot, 304 Broadway.

From Mr. T. D. Rice, (the original Jim Crow.)

To Messrs. T. Roberts & co. 304 Broadway, N.Y.

Gentlemen—Having in the course of a long and arduous practice of my profession, contracted a tightness across the chest, with great prostration of strength, and suffering much from the effects of the labour attached to my peculiar pursuits, while in England, I had recourse to your popular Medicine, Parr's Life Pills, from which I received great benefit. Finding a branch of your house in this city, I procured a few boxes of the Medicine, and can now sincerely testify to their value & great efficacy, and also to the great character they bear in the old country. Your obedient servant,
T. D. RICE, 20 Vestry street.

The following Testimonials in favour of Parr's Life Pills, from highly respectable parties, are confidently submitted to the public. This singularly efficacious medicine is now being introduced into every family, and rests its claims for patronage on the most credible authority.

Cure of an old confirmed stomach and liver complaint.—Mr. John Howarth affirms that he has been for many years suffering from a deranged stomach and liver complaint, and although he has had recourse to various remedies, and has been under one of the most popular surgeons in Manchester, nothing afforded him the desired relief until he met with Parr's Life Pills, which have already afforded him more benefit than all the other advice and medicine he has been taking for years, and therefore can with the greatest confidence urge any one suffering from the same complaint to give them a trial.

Witness to the truth of the above, Mr. George Dean, Market street, Manchester. Feb. 7, 1843.

80, Medlock street, Holme, Manchester, January 1843.

To the proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

Gentlemen—For the benefit of the afflicted public I hand you the particulars of a case of cure from the use of your benign medicine. I had for many years been out of health, and suffered much from internal pains in various parts of my body. I tried nearly all kinds of medicines without relief, and consulted the most eminent medical practitioners in Manchester, but my complaint defied their best efforts at length I despaired of ever recovering, and life became to me burdensome; providentially my attention was directed by my nephew Mr. Higginson, of Salford, to make trial of Parr's Life Pills, which I consented to do, and found considerable relief when I had taken only one box, and I continued their use until this time, and have had about six boxes; and therefore, and have the happiness to say that I am now restored to perfect health. I have, therefore, the best of reasons for placing implicit faith in the invigorating efficacy of your Parr's Pills, which have of a truth been Life Pills to me. This testimony is at your service, hoping it will tend to cause their use to become even yet more universal, as such a medicine ought to be kept in every family.

I am your grateful servant,
[Witnessed by G. Vaughan.] W. Higginson.

Chronic Rheumatism of three years' standing.—Christopher Sanders, 43 Bengal street, Oldham road, hereby testifies that he has for three years been grievously afflicted with Rheumatism, and for the last fourteen weeks was unable to follow his employment; hearing from Mr. Wainwright, butcher, that Parr's Pills had cured him of the same complaint, he began to take them, and having done so for three weeks, I am so much better as to be able to resume my work again next Monday, and will persevere in their use a short time longer, to complete my restoration to health. Any one doubting the truth of this case, is invited to call upon me or write (post paid) and I will immediately bear testimony.

Bengal street, Oldham road, Manchester, Feb. 3.

James Hill, of No. 8, Ford-lane, Charlestown, Pendleton, near Manchester, who is upwards of 60 years of age, says he was attacked with Inflammation of the chest, which confined him to his bed for a long time in a very debilitated state, with a most distressing cough and spitting; after taking various kinds of medicine without the least relief, he at last commenced taking Parr's Life Pills, and having taken three boxes was completely restored to health, and is now much stronger than he has been for some years, and has recommended them to many persons who have taken them and received the greatest benefit from their use, and is ready at any time to attest the above. Witness, John Hatton.
