FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Oct. 17.—A number of Rothesay residents enjoyed the afternoon at Netherwood on Friday last. It was Sports Day and the programme was begun at 3 o'clock. First came a straight race for the primaries and it was won by Mary Foster. Second straight race, won by Miss M. Caswell. Third, obstacle race for primary, won by Hilda Wallery. Fourth, obstacle race, won by Miss Nora Robinson. These were certainly well named, very difficult for those in the contest, and most amusing for the onlokers. Potato race, won by Doris Murray. Three legged race, won by two of the teachers, Misses Tufts and Almy. Blindfold race, won by Misses Jean Ketchum and Nora Robinson. Backward race, won by Lillie West. Apple race, when the apple was carried on the head. The prize for this was won by Miss Ursula Walley. Long skirt race, which was the last, and while all the contestants did remarkably well Miss Minnie Bailey came in first.

Two games of basket ball were played. The last item of the programme was the "call" given by the different classes, the members of each stood together and wore a ribbon of their class color tied on the left arm. A pound of candy was given for the best and was decided by three chosen from the audience. All were exceedingly clever and given with great spirit, but class 1908 carried off the candy. Special mention should be made of the primary class, who beside giving a pretty little "call" looked very sweet as they stood together. The weather was perfect, and the grounds at Netherwood looked very lovely in the bright sunshine.
