Much of to-day's news in reference to wheat has been of very decided bullish character. Cables from private parties who are known to be reliable state that very serious damage has been done to the French crop and that it is impossible to repair the injury by the replanting of spring wheat. If this news proves fully correct it is likely to advance foreign markets and ultimately our own. Corn strong on buying for both long and short account. Provisions firmer, but the strength seemed more in sympathy with the grain markets than from any movement of their own. Receipts of hogs 41,000, and if to-morrow's estimate of 35,000 is realized we will have had the enormous number of 246,000 received during the week. We feel that prices cannot be sustained under this heavy load.
