LONDON, April 23.

Consols 93¼ a 94⅛. Weather unsettled.

Lord Northbrook, Viceroy of India, has issued a proclamation deposing Guik-war of Baroda, declaring him and his issue precluded from all the rights appertaining to the sovereignty of the country, and compelling the Guikwar's family to select a place for his retirement in British India.

The Viceroy says this measure is based, independent of the recent trial of the Guikwar, upon his notorious misconduct, gross misgovernment and incapacity. Furthermore, the restoration of the Gulkwar would be detrimental to the interests of Baroda.

The Viceroy will select a member of the Gulkwar's family to reign.

Great crowds gather around Parliament House and an extra force of police are on duty. The excitement is caused by a motion of Dr. Kenealy's coming up in the House of Commons impugning the Tichborne verdict.

LONDON, April 24.

433 NAYS TO 1 YEA.

Dr. Kenealy's long promised motion for a commission to investigate the circumstances attending the Tichborne trial was made in the Commons last night, and rejected, 433 to 1. The defender of Arthur Orton made a powerful speech, in which he impugned the motives of the Lord Chief Justice. The motion was opposed by the present and past Attorney Generals, Disraeli, and Bright, and supported by Whalley.

BANISHING NUNS.

The Police authorities of Posen have notified all the Ursuline Sisters in that district, who are not natives of Germany, that they must leave the country within two months.

No Bribery in Toronto—Col Powell's Appointment.

OTTAWA, April 24.

The Toronto West election trial has ended. Neither personal bribery nor bribery by agents has been proved against the respondent.

The Peace River party of Surveyors leave to locate the Pacific line next week.

Hon. Mr. Smith is better to day.

Col. Powell has been appointed Adjutant General being first Canadian who has ever filled that office.

No Gazette will be issued until evening.

A Serious Charge.

The schooner Cordelia, Capt. R. R. Charlton, laden with liquors, from the United States consigned to a port in Nova Scotia, was wrecked near Shelburne about a year ago, and a claim was made on the Atlantic Marine Assurance Association of Halifax for the amount of the insurance on the cargo. Enquiries were made by the Assurance Company and it was found that the liquors had been secretly landed at some place on the Nova Scotia coast, the vessel having been designedly wrecked. It was afterwards found that an attempt had been made to smuggle them back to the United States, which attempt led to the discovery of the fraud. There being every evidence of the Captain's guilt, search was made for him. It was found that he and the crew had disappeared soon after the Cordelia was wrecked. He was afterwards traced to Bermuda, when it was found he was in charge of the schr. Ella, which vessel cleared from there for Alma, A. C., and reached the latter place this week. Mr. Jas. G. Jordan, of this city, who had been watching matters for the Assurance Co., and had put himself in communication with Mr. R. G. Talbot of Alma, was notified of the arrival, and at once sought the aid of the Chief of Police. Wednesday morning the Chief sent policeman Briggs on the train to Sussex, expecting to meet Capt. Charlton on the cars. Mr. Jordan and Captain Rising accompanied him to identify the man, but they were disappointed, as Charlton had missed the train by being too late for the ferry at Hopewell. Briggs proceeded to Dorchester, and Messrs. Jordan and Rising returned to St. John. Detective Power had been sent to Dorchester from Halifax, and yesterday afternoon he and Briggs arrested Charlton and had him lodged in Jail. He will be taken from Dorchester to Halifax.

Property at Auction.

Mr. Hanington sold a mortgaged property in King's County by auction to-day, the sum realized being $598.

Wants Looking After.

A dangerous place is reported at the railway crossing near Daniel Lafferty's house at the Haymarket. The other night a woman fell through the trap made by loose planks and was considerably injured.

A sensation was caused in Cooper's Alley yesterday afternoon by the discharge of a revolver from the window of some house. An elderly legal gentleman who was passing at the time thought an attempt had been made on his life, and for some time was considerably excited at the event.

Baptisms To-morrow.

The revival in the Free Baptist Church, Waterloo street, is assuming large proportions. Meetings are being held every evening, and at such the Vestery has been so crowded this week that many were unable to obtain admission. A large number of candidates are expected for baptism to-morrow, which will probably take place at the Straight Shore, at 7 a. m.

Indignation in Portland.

There is considerable talk and much indignation by some of the residents of Portland regarding the proposed cutting of Main street. It is said that at a committee meeting last night an effort was made to have something done to prevent the work going on as proposed—that is, the street widened to 61 feet, but it was finally decided to proceed. The feeling of many of the residents is that the work should be done so as to give the regular width of 66 feet, or left alone altogether. The Sheriff has received instructions to summon a jury to assess the land damages and the work will probably proceed.
