ELEVEN OF THEM WANT RUSIE BACK

New York, April 13.—The National Board of Arbitration of professional baseball associations met to-day and held a session that lasted until late in the evening, when they adjourned until to-morrow.

President Young said that absolutely nothing had been done, but it was learned, however, that the meeting had been exceedingly animated. President Freedman was before the Board for several hours, and explained his views at length, declaring that he would not yield an inch in the Rusie matter. The situation was that eleven clubs wanted Rusie back, and one, Freedman's club, refused to compromise. The eleven clubs offered each to bear its share of the expenses, which includes Rusie's back salary and certain legal expenses, and all they insisted on was that the New York club should pay its share, one-twelfth. Freedman not only refused to do this, but declared that even if the others paid the whole amount Rusie should not play ball.

One member of the Board put the matter in this way: "This is a matter of business. Wherever a club plays each side gets half the receipts. Now, if Rusie plays, he will draw thousands of spectators. The other clubs will profit as well as the New York club, and eleven clubs do not want to yield to one."

There was some talk to the effect that the eleven clubs might pay the entire charges. If Freedman then shall still refuse to let Rusie play, a meeting of the National Board will be called. Just what would then be done is, of course, a matter of conjecture, but there is a strong hint that there should be some very important changes made in the regulations governing professional baseball.

Mike Gorman gave Anna Lyle and Conocia hard work, and the rest of the string got exercise only. Tom Davies' plater Plantagenet was given his first work on the track yesterday morning.

Dave Boyle has shipped his horses, Ellesmere and the Diplomat, to Windsor, where his brother Charles will look after them. His youngsters, Toronto and Dumfries, will be kept for the Queen's Plate next season.

It was decided that playing certificates should be issued hereafter; that clubs should be required to pay their fees before voting, and new clubs should give notice two days before the annual meeting of their desire to join the league. After discussion, it was resolved not to form a Junior District League under the auspices of the Canadian Lacrosse Association.

PUBLIC SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Toronto Public School Lacrosse Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Board room, with Inspector J. L. Hughes in the chair. The association was reorganized, retaining the committee of last year, which are Messrs. James L. Hughes, J. R. L. Starr and J. T. Slater.

This year there is an increase in the junior series, there being eight teams entered, and in the senior there are only three. The juniors are divided into two groups and will play home and home matches. The western group will consist of Givins, Ryerson, Dufferin, Bathurst; the eastern: Wellesley, Rosedale, Jesse Ketchum and Dewson-street. The group winners are to play three games, the one winning two to have the championship.

FOR OFFICES IN THE C.L.A.

The fight for offices at the annual meeting the Canadian Lacrosse Association promises to be no less interesting than the scramble for the meet among the wheelmen. President, first vice-president and secretary-treasurer are the positions sought after. Strong candidates are out for each, and even if Jackson, Vance and Bailey should be beaten, the affairs of the association will still remain in safe hands. Here are the candidates:

President—R. E. Jackson, Seaforth; J. J. Craig, Fergus; T. H. Lennox, Aurora.

First vice-president—J. D. Bailey, Elms, Toronto; E. A. Doolittle, Orillia.

Secretary-treasurer—J. Vance, Ingersoll; W. Hartley, Tecumseh; J. Conlter, Owen Sound; F. W. Thompson, Tecumseh.

No candidates are out yet for the second vice-presidency, while the council field is also an unknown quantity.

The Special Committee's consolidation of the rules and constitution, with a few unimportant amendments, will come up for discussion, and, as Secretary Vance has everything in first-class shape, the meeting Good Friday afternoon in the Rossin House promises to be short and sweet.

The C.L.A. council will prepare their statements and report in the morning.

ATHLETICS OF ST. KITTS.

St. Catharines, April 13.—The board of directors of the Athletic Lacrosse Club met last night and elected the following officers: President, John S. Notman; vice-president, D. C. It was decided to prosecute all parties who were in the habit of making a disturbance on the grounds nearly every Sunday. The membership tickets will be ready for issue by the secretary on Wednesday. The Athletics, two organizations, senior and junior, will be represented at the C. L. A. meeting. The appointment of delegates was left in the hands of ex-President H. O'Loughlin.

RUTH CUTLER'S HIGH JUMP.

New York, April 13.—The gymnasium of the Adelphi Academy of Brooklyn was the scene of a pretty athletic contest between a score of rosy-cheeked, athletic-looking girls, who surprised the spectators with their graceful feats of strength.

The heroine of the evening was Miss Ruth Cutler, who won the championship of her class by clearing the bar in the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches. The girl skimmed over the bar like a flock of swallows until it reached the formidable height of Miss Cutler's jump. When that young woman took it easily she was vociferously applauded.

The girls wore regulation gymnasium costumes, consisting of Turkish trousers, sailor waists, black stockings and slippers. The exhibition was concluded with a dance.
