Mr. Ernest Murray, of Murray & Co., Moncton, is in town.

Mr. G. H. Harrison, M. A., principal of the Chatham Grammar and High School, Chatham, has resigned his charge, having accepted the position of principal of the Grammar School of Carleton County at Woodstock. Mr. Harrison's many friends here will be sorry to part with him.

DROWNED WHILE STREAM-DRIVING :—Allen Kelly, eldest son of John Kelly, of Stanley, York county, was drowned Saturday at Gibson's drive on the Nashwaak.

DR. MCLEARN has received the appointment of Surgeon of the Infantry School, Fredericton, and his many friends on the Miramichi are pleased to hear of his success.

A LADY WINS :—In the Fredericton University examinations a lady, Miss McIntosh, has the Douglas Gold medal for English, and Mr. Hagenman is governor-general gold medalist in physics.

BARK BETA WRECKED :—A Quebec despatch of 18th says "the Bark Beta (Nor.) Walle, from Christiania for Bathurst (or Quebec,) is ashore at Magdalen Islands and is full of water."

STOCK-RAISING :—B. D. Sewell, of the Springhill stock farm, after leasing the farm to a Kingsclear man, has gone to Ontario, it is believed to enter into stock farm work in that province.

THE NEGUAC WHARF:—Those who are complaining of Mr. Flood not making what they think is satisfactory progress with Neguac Wharf, ought to remember that he has until December next to finish it.

THE "RUSTLER" is advertised by hand bills to make a Queen's Birthday Excursion to Redbank and is represented thereon pictorially with a Yankee flag flying. Friend Russell don't surely mean to carry unrestricted reciprocity that far.

THE DEATH OF MR. CHRISTOPHER WHELAN of Boiestown by consumption is announced. It took place last Sunday night. Mr. Whelan carried on a lumber and general business and was also a hotel proprietor.

THE FIRST BATCH OF ANGLERS for the current season from Chatham went to Esau's Meadow, at the head of tide on the Bartibog on Saturday last. The run of trout from sea had not yet arrived.

OUCH! Alfred Cady lost about one half of one of his forefingers in the Richard Mill, Chatham, on Friday morning and Harvey Bernard parted with the top of a finger in the Pulp Mill on Saturday morning. Both are now putting in a holiday time that is hardly enjoyable.

BIG SHAD :—Edward Connor, of Carleton, yesterday, captured in the harbor, the largest shad, ever known to have been captured in this vicinity. The fish weighed 9¾ pounds. It was purchased by James Paterson and was exhibited in his stall in the country market, yesterday.—Telegraph of 18th.

THE "WM GORDON" :—A Halifax despatch of Friday last says :—"The bark William Gordon, which put in here en route from Barbadoes to land a sailor who attempted to kill himself, proceeded yesterday to her destination, Richibucto, N. B. Going out the harbor she narrowly escaped stranding at Sambro. It is certain she must have touched."

WE ALL KNOW HIM:—An exchange says:—"Newspaper editing is a very funny amusement. If you give a man a puff he never sees it, but let one line against him appear and he sees it before the paper is off the press; and while he would not have time to stop on the street to say thank you, he has time to run all over town to denounce the editor who seeks to print all the news."

DROWNED :—A lad of 17 called Kane, took dinner to some men in the woods near Allison Settlement, Little Southwest, about a fortnight ago, and left them to return home by way of the board ice of a tributary stream. Nothing was seen of him afterwards until his body was found in a jam of logs, a few days since. He had, evidently, broken through the rotten ice and drowned.

MARRIED AT CALAIS:—Another graduate of the ADVANCE office has shown a good example to all printers. The St. Croix Courier says: "An interesting ceremony in town Mr. A. C. V. Smythe, a member of the Courier staff, was one of the principals, took place in St. Anne's Church, Calais, last evening. Everybody in the Courier office joins in wishing long life and happiness to the newly wedded couple."

BANK OF N. S. :—The Telegraph publishes an item stating that Mr. Chas. A. Kennedy has been appointed agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Chatham, N. B. This is evidently a mistake. It is to the Campbellton agency that Mr. Kennedy was appointed and the event took place a month ago. Mr. R. H. Anderson is agent here, and if the duration of his stay is to depend on his popularity with the customers of the bank, it will be a long time before his successor is named.

NORTH'D LIBERAL ASSOCIATION:— Mr. W. C. Winslow, Secretary of Northumberland County Liberal Association, calls a meeting by advertisement, for 6th June next, for the purpose of selecting delegates from Northumberland to a convention of the Liberal party which is to take place in Ottawa next month. Leading Liberals of the County have wondered, of late, why meetings of the association had not been called for a good while, if only to maintain the organization. It seems a pity that the interests of a party, which was once so potent as a political organization, should have been allowed to fall into inocuous disuetude through the inertia of those who assumed to take control of it a few years ago, to the exclusion of its more effective members, who could, however, not see the practicability of Unrestricted Reciprocity as a permanent policy.

A SUDDEN DEATH :—Mr. Geo. R. Clarke, assistant business manager of the African Choir, which appeared recently at Chatham was found dead in bed at the Commercial Hotel, Woodstock, Ont., on Tuesday morning, 16th inst. He had retired at midnight in apparently perfect health. A post mortem examination disclosed the fact that death was due to a large fibrinous clot of blood being suddenly detached from the side of the heart, blocking one of the large arteries. The deceased was a typical Englishman, being born in Essex. He was 23 years of age.

DEATH OF CAPT. LEACH :—A Toronto despatch of Friday last announced the death of Capt. Thomas Leach, a well-known steamboat man. In 1859 and subsequently he was purser of the steamer Arabian, which plied between Quebec and Shediac, and intermediate ports on the North Shore. He was next purser of the steamer Island City, which ran between Shediac and Campbellton, including P. E. I. ports. Subsequently he was master of the steamer Rothesay Castle between Shediac and Northern New Brunswick ports. After leaving the North Shore he was captain of a steamer plying between Toronto and Niagara. Many of our older readers will remember Capt. Leach and regret to hear of his death.

Fire Alarm.

On Monday about 12 o'clock there was an alarm of fire, caused by the roof of St. John's church taking fire in several places, from sparks from an adjoining chimney no doubt. The shingles of the roof are old and unpainted making them more than usually liable to ignition. A number of men soon had the new ladders recently provided by the Street and Fire Commissioners in use and thereby reached the points of danger with buckets of water, and the trouble was ended in a few minutes.

More Improvement.

Mr. Alex. Robinson of St. John Street is constantly improving his surroundings. He has, as many of our readers know, one of the best equipped carriage and sleigh factories in the province and turns out work equal to the best imported, and superior to most of the stock brought in from outside, and also carries a very complete assortment of agricultural machinery and implements, in which he is doing an ever-increasing trade. His latest step in advance is the enlargement of his shelter-house for carriages and agricultural implements and the erection thereon of a sixty-feet high flag staff which will display the old flag in honor of the Queen's birthday to-day. We have no citizens who surpass Mr. Robinson in efforts to improve the appearance of his locality.

The Fire-hose and its Handlers.

We do not know what the merits of the matters at issue between the old hosemen and the Street and Fire commissioners are, but the latter had better take decisive steps to prevent friction between the former and the new hosemen. Firemen, like members of church choirs, are very sensitive as to their rights, and they require delicate handling. The time to settle chronic misunderstandings, however, is not when a fire alarm is being sounded. The hosemen do not own the fire extinguishing plant, neither do the commissioners. The tax-payers provide hose, etc, for the purpose of its being used in extinguishing fires, and it is not only unseemly, but almost criminal for any one to make of his personal grievances an occasion for interfering with getting hose out and to the scene of a fire in the shortest possible time. We have efficient policemen now and whenever a fire alarm is sounded they should go to the engine house and settle any disputes which the commissioners cannot provide against beforehand by having only one set of hosemen in the field.

All the Same as Chatham.

There has been good deal af growling in certain quarters in Chatham—led by the local Dominion government organ—over our proposed Dominion public building. Something of the same kind is going on in Dartmouth, N. S, where they have waited long for a new post office, which has been secured for them by Messrs. Stairs and Kenny. A local paper of the town—the Atlantic Weekly—says:—"The construction of such a building, when every town of importance has a building costing three times as much at least, is deeply resented by a majority of the citizens."

Disappeared.

The author of the coffer-dam joke is believed to have disappeared, but the same old hacking cough comes round regularly at this time of the year. Hawker's Tolu will cause it also to disappear.

Resolutions of Condolence.

BATHURST, May 8th 1893.

At a regular meeting of Sacret Heart, Branch No. 130 C. M. B. A., held in their hall on Thesday May 2nd the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas it has pleased Divine Providence to call unto Himself Andrew, the brother of our esteemed member, Bro. Thomas Salter:—

Resolved that we tender to Brother Salter and to the other members of the family of the deceased our heartfult sympathy and condolence in their affliction.

And further resolved that these resolutions be published in the Miramichi Advance, Catholic Record, and in the Courrier des Provinces Maritimes.

J. S. Murphy and "Kerry Gow."

The eminent comedian, John S. Murphy, who, it will be remembered, visited Chatham six or seven years ago, is to reappear here on Thursday, June 1st. Referring to a recent appearance of Mr. Murphy and his company in Toronto the Empire says :—

There was a change of program at the Grand last night, when "Kerry Gow" displaced "Shaun Rhue." Probably there is no artist on the stage that would dare to follow up "Shaun Rhue" as represented by John S. Murphy with any other Irish comedy except Mr. Murphy. Perhaps the greatest praise that can be given to this genuine Irish comedian is to say that in "Kerry Gow," or the Kerry blacksmith, there is no falling off from the high standard of excellence realized in "Shaun Rhue." And yet these comedies are in no sense duplicates. Perhaps in "Kerry Gow" the interest is less specially Irish and more general or Cosmopolitan. We do not mean by this that there is any falling off in rollicking Irish humor. The smartness of the repartee is perhaps even more marked in the "Kerry Gow." The peculiar excellence of "Shaun Rhue" is the song, "A Handful of Earth." There is nothing in the piece so successfully produced last night that will compare with this famous song, although there are a few songs of rare merit. But the point wherein the play of last night differs from the Shaun Rhue—we do not say excels it—is in the spectacular and realistic element. Real live horses and carrier pigeons play their part admirably. The comedy is in four acts, and the escape of Dan O'Hara from prison in the second act by means of a successfully substituted dummy is done to perfection. Perhaps the smithy scene, which is a triumph of stage realism, most won the applause of the house, which was a very good one. The accompaniment on the anvil to the song of Boy Billie—a prococious Jockey—was deservedly encored.

The Way the Money Goes.

The Telegraph quotes the following from the Newcastle Advocate, under the heading "The way the money goes" :—

The fine stone building known as the Cunard building, in Chatham, is being demolished, the site having been purchased by the government to erect thereon a post office and custom house. Regret is expressed that one of the finest buildings in town should be torn down when other sites occupied by rookeries were available. A Chatham gentlemen, to use his own expression—"a leading citizen," expressed a wish that the Newcastle fire-bug would hire his services and thus get rid of some of the rookeries which mar the appearance of the front street and elsewhere.

The meaning of the Telegraph's heading is, no doubt, that it wishes its readers to understand that the building that is being torn down is good enough for a Dominion public building. These St. John papers, in fact, seem to imagine that anything is good enough for the North Shore.

The Coming Royal Wedding.

CANADIAN WOMEN TO PRESENT A GIFT TO THE DUKE OF YORK AND HIS BRIDE.

OTTAWA, May 19th, 1893.

MY DEAR LADY TILLEY:

The engagement of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck having now been officially announced, the question has arisen whether the women of Canada, like those in other parts of Her Majesty's dominions, would not like to present a wedding gift to their Royal Highnesses.

I write to ask you if you would be kind enough to take steps to ascertain whether in the Province of New Brunswick, there would be such a desire and whether subscriptions would be given. I think any sum, however small, should be accepted and that no individual subscription should exceed $5.00, and I would further suggest that, if sufficient money for the purpose be raised, that the present should take the form of the best appointed sleigh that can be made in Canada, complete with fur robes, harness, bells, etc.

Inasmuch as the grace of a wedding present is largely enhanced by its being presented before the date of the marriage, I venture to ask you to take as quickly as possible such action as you think best in this matter, and if you agree with the proposal would you kindly send me a telegraph message?

For convenience, a small committee of ladies has been formed in Ottawa, to which the Hon. Mrs. Herbert has kindly consented to act as secretary.

Hoping soon to hear from you the results of the inquiries which you have been able to make.

Believe me, dear Lady Tilley,
Yours very sincerely,
CONSTANCE DERBY.

Lady Tilley publishes the above letter with Lady Derby's permission, and requests that the press generally will be kind enough to copy it, and also asks that the Mayor of each city and town will at once call a meeting of the ladies to form committees and solicit subscriptions. Lady Tilley will be happy to receive the amounts collected and forward them with the names to the Countess of Derby at Ottawa. All lists should be in not later than the 10th of June.

Carleton House, May 22nd, 1893.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY:—South American Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents Warranted by J. Pallen & Son.

Death of Dr D. G. McKay.

The Summerside Journal of Wednesday last, thus refers to the late Dr. D. G. McKay:—"There is a feeling of intense sorrow in Summerside to-day and many hearts are sore over the death of D. G. McKay, which occurred yesterday morning. The deceased was a son of the late John Mackay of Earltown, N. S., and was born at that place in 1841. He graduated from Bellevue Hospital Medical college, New York, in 1866, and practised at Little Glace Bay, C. B, until 1879 when he removed to Prince Edward Island, and has since been one of the leading physicians in the province. On Good Friday last he drove to lot 16, over a rough road, to visit a patient, and has ever since been confined to the house. On the 8th inst. an operation was very skilfully preformed by a number of the Charlottetown and Summerside physicians, when the trouble was located, but the doctors in attendance did not feel justified in tampering with it About three o'clock yesterday morning he took a turn for the worse and sank rapidly, and about 7.45 a. m. he passed away. In 1869 Dr. Mackay married Miss McKeen, of Baddeck, C. B., who, with four sons and two daughters survive him, and who have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their great affliction. He was a brother of Rev. Neil McKay, Chatham, and of Dr. William McKay, ex-leader of the opposition in the Nova Scotia legislature. He was a Royal Arch Mason, being a member of Prince of Wales chapter, No. 10, North Sydney, C. B., and was also a member of Court Chatauqua, No. 202, I. O. F., an elder in the Presbyterian church, and a prominent member of the Y. M. C. A. He was an ex-president of the Medical society of Prince Edward Island. He took an active interest in everything calculated to benefit the town, or to elevate its moral and social conditons, and his broad, liberal, Christian spirit has been a great influence for good in this community."

Not one person in a hundred wholly escapes from taking cold at this season. Therefore at least 99 out of every hundred should be supplied with Hawker's Tolu, the great cough cure.

The Borden Murder Case.

NEW BEDFORD, MASS., May 8.—Lizzie Borden was arraigned here to-day before Judge Hammond of Cambridge on three indictments for murder. She was the same calm, impassioned woman, to all appearances, that she has been since the public first knew her on that fatal fourth of August when she gave the alarm of the murder of her father. That day she exhibited some emotion for a few moments, but since then no excitement or nervousness has been allowed to escape that would indicate the seething volcano within her breast.

That she appreciates kindness shown her was indicated by her manner towards Mrs. Wright, the big-hearted, motherly wife of the sheriff of the jail, who has shown the ill-fated woman every attention possible.

Lizzie Borden confined her conversation to-day almost entirely to the matron, and instead of allowing Mrs. Wright to wait on her she seemed to pay little attention to the snowy haired lady.

So quiet were Miss Borden's movements that few passengers knew she was on the train, even her sister was not aware of it and appeared surprised. Emma went on to Fall River.

Mrs. Wright and Lizzie had seats together in the rear of a car on the journey down. The accused had little to say and apparently took no notice of anything, probably being absorbed in weighing matters, and she maintained a fixed gaze on the back of the seat she faced.

She did not appear at all cast down, but on the contrary her features indicated that whatever her thoughts were, singular as it may seem, they were not altogether unpleasant. It may have been because of her undaunted faith in her ability to clear herself of the terrible weight of evidence that is hanging over her head, and that this trial simply meant the beginning of the end to which she had so long looked forward.

She carried the same demeanor into the court room where she faced the gaping throng with utmost nonchalence. As she took her seat in the dock she smiled pleasantly to the companion of her journey and they conversed quite freely while the district attorney was calling for the indictment to be read.

When the clerk, Simon Borden, called upon her to arise and hold up her hand she did so as calmly and unmoved as though she might have been receiving guests in a parlor.

The first count contained two indictments, one for murdering her father, Andrew Jackson Borden, the other for murdering her stepmother, Abby L. Borden, and to each she pleaded not guilty.

The district attorney said there were two other counts, each the same as one of the counts in the first. Coun. Jennings said he would waive the reading of them, but Judge Hammond would not permit it, saying: "I should prefer the record would not stay that way."

To these she also answered "not guilty." Every time she uttered these words her eyelids closed slightly and then she looked straight ahead at the judge and lawyers.

Lawyer Jennings asked the judge if he would designate the counsel for the prisoner and said that he had ex-Governor Robinson and Melville O. Adams as associates, and these were designated by his honor.

The case was then adjourned until June.

The whole proceedings lasted but ten minutes and the celebrated prisoner was in court but a quarter of an hour all told.

It was less than four hours from the time she left the Taunton jail, where she has been confined since last September, when she was back in her cell again.

SQUIRE TAPLEY SPEAKS.

The ex-Police Magistrate of Old Portland City

Gives Evidence in an Important Matter now before the Public.

There is no more familiar figure in St. John than ex-Police Magistrate Tapley, who for so many years presided over the court of the old city of Portland. Squire Tapley, as he is familiarly styled by everybody, has been very ill, and in fact says himself that he had at one time not much hopes of regaining his health. But to-day he is well again and able to attend to the duties of his office without fatigue or exhaustion. It has been stated that this remarkable change, which has been noticed and commented on by all the friends and acquaintances of Squire Tapley, was due to the use of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills.

On Wednesday last Manager Russell of the Hawker Medicine Co. invited a Sun reporter to join him on a call on Squire Tapley and ascertain if this statement were true. They were heartily greeted by the venerable magistrate, and he spoke freely regarding his cure. It was absolutely true, he said, and the case could not be put too strongly, that Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills had restored him to health and vigor from a state so serious that it had caused both himself and his friends the greatest anxiety. Loss of appetite, weakness, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, and a general breaking down and decay of vital powers were, in brief, the symptoms; but they had all vanished under the influence of these wonderful restorative remedies. He began to take Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills about two months ago. Within a week after beginning their use, he was frequently stopped on the street and asked the secret of the marvellous change in his manner and appearance. To all such inquiries he had but one answer; Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills had wrought the miracle. That was two months ago, and to-day, after having used about eight bottles of tonic and two boxes of the pills, at a cost of only $4.50, Squire Tapley declares himself a new man. His appetite returned, his sleep is restful and refreshing and he feels thoroughly renewed and invigorated in every respect.

"You may use these statements freely," said Squire Tapley to Manager Russell. "I feel that I ought to recommend Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills; and I am doing it every day. Many of my friends are using them on my recommendation. In fact I consider these remedies the best in the world."

Fellow sufferer, here is encouragement for you. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a perfect nerve restorer and invigorator, and blood and flesh-builder, as well as a valuable stomach tonic and aid to digestion. It is a certain cure when faithfully used for all diseases arising from nerve exhaustion, weakened or impaired digestion, or an impoverished or an impure state of the blood. such as nervousness, weakness, nervous headache, sleeplessness, neuralagia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus Dance, loss of memory, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, hysteria, and the prostrating effects of la grippe or any nerve weakness of heart or brain arising from worry, overstrain of mind or body, or excess of any nature.

Hawker's tonic is especially adapted to the diseases peculiar to women, giving tone to the nerves, vigor to the mind and body, and restoring the bloom of health to the pale and delicate.

These remedies can be obtained of all druggists and dealers, or direct from the Hawker Medicine Co., St. John, N. B. Postpaid to any address on receipts of price as follows: Tonic, 50c. per bottle, or 6 bottles for $2.50; pills 25c. per box.

Admiral Gomez Y. Lono, who commanded the Spanish vessels-of-war in the recent naval review in New York harbor, is dead at Havana.

Look Here.

Do you feel blue and despondent? Do pains rack and tear away at muscle, and have you been disappointed in finding a remedy that will offer certain and speedy relief? If so, go at once to any drug store and buy a bottle of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline never fails to relieve neuralgia, cramps, headache, rheumatism, and all internal or external pains. J. B. Carman, druggist, Morrisburg, writes: "All the parties I supply speak very favorably of Nerviline, and always purchase a second lot." Polson's Nerviline is sold in bottles at 25 cents—by all druggists and country dealers everywhere.
