ST VALENTINE'S DAY.

FRUIT GROWING.—The full report of the Fruit Growers' Association this week draws largely on our space; it will be found good reading.

STORM.—Saturday last witnessed the worst storm of the season. It turned mild during the early part of the day and towards night blew a hurricane

A HALIFAX MAN GONE.—The death is announced in the Halifax papers of yesterday of John P. Mott, one of the wealthiest men is Halifax, who succumbed to lung trouble after a brief attack of la grippe.

THE LISTS.—Through an error in last issue we were made to say that applications to have names placed on or erased from the electoral lists could be made at any time before the 25th inst.; it should have been before the 20th.

DIRECTORY.—Messrs D. McAlpine & Son, well known in connection with the publication of directories, &c., are now engaged in getting up an extensive directory for Nova Scotia. Their agents are now in the field gathering information and adv., as well as taking orders for the book. The directory is to be published next autumn and will contain about 1500 pages. It has been eighteen years since a directory for the province has been issued and such a work is now much needed. We trust Messrs McAlpine will be encouragd in their undertaking by a liberal patronage.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—As Mr Chas. Heales and his little daughter, of Port Williams, was driving through this village on Thursday of last week, when in front of Mr Charles Fitch's he was run into by a carriage going at a dangerous rate in the opposition direction. Mr Heales was thrown from his carriage and his horse started on the run, taking with it his daughter, who still remained in the carriage and continued at a break-neck pace till it reached the Tannery hill, when the little girl succeeded in climbing out of the back of the carriage, the horse then started on a brisk trot but was stopped a short distance further on. Mr Heales received a severe shaking up, and had to lay by for a few days, but is now able to be about.

Bishopville Items.

A painful accident recently occurred to Mrs Elisha Bishop at the residence of her son Robert. She slipped and fell upon the ice and fractured her thigh bone. At last accounts she was doing as well as could be expected.

Mr Arthur Margeson has introduced steam power into his mill—and has a number of men employed. He is repairing his house within and without, and has opened a stove in the place. We wish him success in his enterprises. He is quite widely known for his musical talents. He can tune pianos, and do it well. He ought to be able to manufacture lumber. Everybody hopes he will make handsome profits from his investments. Such men are building up the croakers are pulling down.

Mr Robert Bishop has recently finished his new house at Mt. Denson and is about removing thither. His oldest son remains on the homestead.

JUST RECEIVED.—A stock of Table Silver Ware, specially selected for Christmas trade, Jottings from Ottawa.

(By Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—An important secret Conservative caucus was held the other day in the House of Commons, but none of the official organs of the Government seem to know anything about what occurred, as it was held with closed doors. Most of the Equal Rights M. P.'s were absent from it and there is no doubt that Mr McCarthy's dual language question is causing considerable trouble. Dalton McCarthy's motion is attracting great attention, particularly in Quebec and Ontario, and with the country excited as it is, over the anti-Jesuit and anti-French crusade, a great many members are embarrassed to know what to do. It is a question how the Maritime legislature will vote, but that they will be with the majority is almost certain. It is hoped that the majority will be right in this vexed question. Some say the vote will be close; others say that it will be defeated badly. It is wagered that very few of the English M. P.'s are as yet decided on the matter, while the French are solid. The motion cannot be amended as it is too conscise to interfere with. The Equal Rights Association will have new material for their consideration after the vote is taken.

The fact that the Young Men's Liberal Club have decided in favor of independence does not exactly please the old "Reform" party. Aprominent Liberal M. P. says it is not a reflex of the party's views in Ontario but rather a number of young men who are inclined to sentiment and notoriety. Be this as it may the Reformers of Ontario are heartily in accord with Mr Mulock's motion. The resolution of the young Liberals submits "that if representatives would devote themselves to securing a larger measure of self-government for Canada, with a view to independence, it would be more to the advantage of Canada.

Mr Charlton, an Equal Rights M. P., has discovered another hornet's nest in connection with the province of Quebec. He asks Parliament for a report showing the names of the six pagans returned for the parish of St Elizabeth, in the county of Joliette, Que., in the census returns of 1881, as appears from the original schedule of the enumerator for that parish. Mr Charlton believes that the pagans referred to are really Protestants and he intends to make a big thing out of this for the edification of the Equal Rightists, and the public generally.

The people around the Niagara Falls peninsula are petitioning Parliament to perpetuate the memory of the men who lost their lives in defence of their country at the battle of Lundy's Lane.

At the Dominion Rifle Association meeting held here the following were elected:—Vice-Presidents, Lt. Col. Hon. A. E. Botsford, Sackville, N. B., and Lt. General Laurie, N. S.; Executive council, Capt. Harte, Josiah Wood, M. P.,; Lt. Col. Beer, Major Weston, Lt. Col. Murray and Capt. Bishop. The new Canadian Military Rifle League was formed and the following were elected to offices: Major Garrison, Halifax; Lt. Col. Mannsell, Fredericton; Majo Hartt, St. John; Capt. Barnhill, Shubenacadie; Lt. Dimock, Windsor; Capt. Hart, St. John.

The sessional festivities are still keeping up the social life. Sir John and Lady Macdonald had a grand dinner on Saturday, at which were Hon. Mr McDougall and Mrs McDougall, Sir Adams Archibald and Miss Archibald, and others from the Maritime provinces. Hon. G. E. and Mrs Foster gave a grand event to a large number of distinguished persons. Among the guests were Hon. C. Colby, Hon. Mr McDougall and Mrs McDougall, and a number of M. P.'s from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Among the more important business before the House of Commons is an act to permit American vessels to have privileges in Canadian waters. No less than three different bills are in. Mr Charlton's is to permit reciprocity in wrecking and towing of vessels and rafts. Mr Patterson's is to admit vessels registered in the U. S. to wrecking, towing and coasting privileges in Canadian waters. Mr Kirkpatrick's is to permit foreign vessels to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in Canadian waters. Between the lot there ought to be something of benefit to our mariners.

The consideration of the motion of Mr Wilson to repeal the Electoral Franchise Act was made the occasion for a general onslaughter upon the Government. Fierce and bitter words were used to compel the House to revert to the old system of using the Provincial lists for voting purposes.

Mr Brown's act to prevent cruelty to animals and particularly to protect birds is looked upon with disfavor by all the gun clubs, hunters and pigeon shooters in the country. Parliament is being deluged with petitions for and against.

The proposed Act to prohibit the importation and migration of foreigners and aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor in Canada, is Mr Taylor's retaliatory measure to get even with the U. S.

Mr Weldon got an order from the House for a return showing amount of wharfage dues collected at the Govt. pier at Digby during 1889.

Public Missionary Meeting.

The ladies of the Wolfville Auxiliary to the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, held a public meeting in the interests of their work on Wednesday evening. The chair was taken at 7.30 o'clock by Mrs Jost, the President. After devotional exercises and the responsive reading of the 96th Psalm, the following programme was rendered:—

1. An excellent report of the work of the auxiliary given by Mrs Caldwell, Recording Secretary.
2. Class exercise by six little girls, "We Will Give Ourselves."
3. Recitation, "The Last Hymn," by Miss May Jost.
4. Reading, "The Hand of Christ," by Mrs Hemmeon, Vice President.
5. "Come Over and Help Us," by four young people.
6. The Stingy Man's Mistake," by Master B. Hemmeon.
7. Debate, "Shall our Missions be given up?" An amendment to the resolution, advocating a more earnest support of the work, upon which all present were requested to vote, was unanimously carried by a rising vote.
8. In a short but pithy address the President brought the aims and objects of the Auxiliary before the notice of those present and earnestly invited the ladies to become members. She also answered not a few objections brought against the Society. The meeting was brought to a close by the choir singing a well-rendered selection of music, entitled, "God be with you till we meet again." The exercises as a whole were very interesting and interspersed with very appropriate music by the choir, in which the voice of little Miss May Woodman blended harmoniously and stoutly with the rest. The audience was very good considering the unpleasantness of the weather.

A Valuable Secret.

About twenty years ago a Seapoy, a native of Madras, India, came to Margaretville, Nova Scotia, in the course of his wanderings. Being greatly pleased with our country he decided to remain and make his home here. He remained for more than a year, but after his recovery from the effects of a serious accident a feeling of homesickness came over him and he decided to return again to the land of his birth. During his illness he had been befriended by a Mr Seavey to whom, out of feelings of gratitude, he divulged a most valuable secret.

The secret was no other than the recipe of a wonderful remedy known to the natives of his country, and regarded by them as an infallable cure for certain diseases'

Mr Seavey, at considerable expense and trouble, procured the materials of which the medicine was composed and made a small quantity for his own family use'

Its effects seemed magical' Neighbors heard of its wonderful curative properties and came to beg and to buy. The demand soon became so great that Mr Seavey found himself unable to prepare the medicine in sufficient quantity, and so he disposed of the secret to parties who were in a position to engage in the manufacture and sale of the remedy, which is called after his name, Seavey's East India Liniment. Whereever used it has proved an unfailing remedy and become a household necessity.

BYAM'S
Improved "Common Sense"
SASH BALANCE.
LOCKS AND LIFTS.

THE only practical substitute for weights invented. The most durable, the cheapest and best device for all ordinary windows. Balances when in position are entirely out of sight. No rivets, bolts or screws are used in putting it together so that nothing can get out of order or need repairing. No cutting, boring or marring of the sash, as the Balances are let into the jamb. Especially valuable for repairing old buildings as they can be put in at a trifling expense, as easily put in old buildings as new ones. Sash can be removed from frame in a moment for cleaning or repairing broken glass. Can be used where it is impossible to use weights or other fixtures. No unsightly cord wearing paint off side of frame. No rattling of sash as pressure against sash prevents it. No rattling of weights or pulleys when Sash is raised or lowered. No sticking of weights in frame. No cords to rust off, wear out and break. No rubber rollers to become flattened by standing in one position for some time. No flimsy coil spring or delicate mechanism to break, wear out or get out of order. Its simplicity of construction and operation is the wonder of all.

Byam's Automatic Sash Locks (self fastening) and Sash Lifts or upper and lower sash are the best and cheapest in the market.
