PETROLIA TO STAGE HORSE RACES JULY 1

Special Event To Bring Together Best of Canadian Track.

Special to The Advertiser.

Petrolia, June 26.—One of the most outstanding features of the old boys reunion to be held here July 1 to 5 is the racing program, under the auspices of the Greenwood driving club. W. W. McRae, who is chairman of the committee in charge, announced today that a special race outside the regular program will be staged, in which Canada's fastest harness horses will meet. This race will bring Jack Canuck, Hal Abee, Lucy L, Pat Pointer and other well-known performers. The committee has prepared for three days' racing to be held on July 1, 3 and 4. Each day there will be two harness events and one running race, with a $400 purse for each.

The following is the program:

July 1—2:25 trot, 2:50 trot or pace and a five-eighth mile running race.

July 3—2:20 trot or pace, 2:15 trot or pace and a half-mile running race.

July 4—2:30 trot or pace, 2:10 trot or pace and a running race.

It is expected that the track record made by Darkey in 1906 of 2:12 will be shattered. Among the entries already received are such horses well known to Canadian tracks as Freddie C., Attico, Odeena L, Visto, McEnney and Joe Patchen.

Langford Trophy Stays in London

London Thistles captured the Langford trophy permanently, giving them two highly-prized trophies in this year's Scotch doubles. John T. Doherty and Albert Trick were the victorious Thistle pair, who defeated Dr. McGill and Michael Durkin of Mitchell in the final of the event at 2 o'clock Friday morning. The finals were played in fog and heavy dew.

The Mitchell pair had eliminated Selak and Young in the semi-finals.

Lick and Slater of Woodstock won the Nash trophy, defeating Waller and Vance of Tillsonburg in the finals. Tillsonburg thus had two pairs gunning for trophies, as A. S. Rennie and Spencer McDonald reached the semi-finals of the first event, only to be put out by Wilson and Brown, who won the trophy permanently for their club.

Marconis Dump St. Martins Nine Into C.A.A. Cellar

Freddie Miles Fans Nine and Allows Only Three Safe Hits.

STANDING.

St. Peters	5	1	.833
Marconis	3	4	.429
St. Marys	3	4	.429
St. Martins	3	5	.375

By defeating St. Martins by a 7—3 score at Sunshine Park last night the Marconi club relegated the south enders to the cellar position of the Holy Name league and came up themselves to tie St. Marys for second place. Despite the fact that they connected for seven safe hits to the losers' three, Marconis played a poor game in the field, seven errors being chalked up against them.

The best the St. Martins' hitters could do against Freddie Miles was to secure three safeties—two singles and a double. The youthful Marconi twirler pitched a real game and retired a total of nine batters—half the men who faced him in the game. Mike Sansone lived up to the tradition that says outfielders are hitters by securing two doubles out of three trips.

On Monday night Marconis will meet St. Marys at 6:30 in what should prove a real game, as the second rung of the league standing will be at stake.

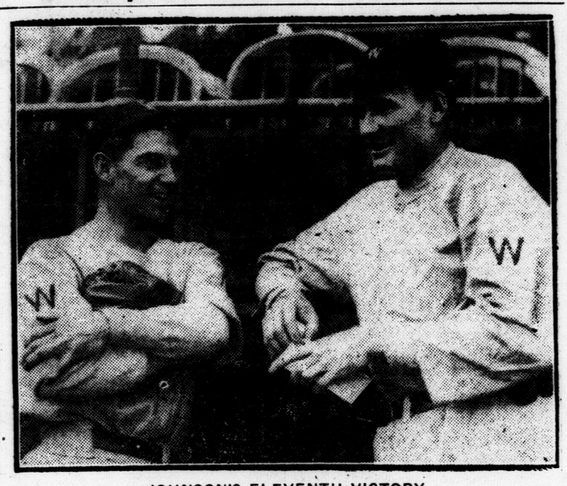
Champion Battery Wins Another



JOHNSON'S ELEVENTH VICTORY

of the 1925 season came yesterday against Connie Mack's Athletics, and Walter had his old battery mate, Ruel, behind the plate to share the victory. The hero of the 1925 world series was touched for eight hits, and they were all real clouts, but he showed his old form and kept them well scattered throughout the nine innings. Above are shown the pair, Ruel on the left and Johnson on the right.

London Seniors Play Leafs Here This Afternoon

Admission Prices Reduced For Remaining Games in London.

London seniors meet Guelph Maple Leafs here this afternoon at Tecumseh Park. It will be the first appearance of the local seniors here since June 3, which is a long absence, measured in baseball time. Reports drifted in from time to time from outlying districts that the team was still in action, though losing, but of late, better reports have been forthcoming, and it looks as if the locals have struck their belated stride.

Guelph, as the team which has furnished most of the opposition the champion Terriers have had for the last three seasons, have not been hitting a consistent stride either. They've changed pilots several times, but are now settled down and with both teams striving to recover lost ground, today's combat should provide some thrills.

Freddie Quick, who has pitched some nice ball this season, will start the game against the Guelph sluggers, and Hank Down, who showed a real come-back at Stratford last Saturday, will be in reserve. The team otherwise will be the same as usual.

Since the team has concluded its program of long jumps, the prices of admission have been shaved down somewhat. The games now will be staged in the local group and the price-cutting is circus schedule has meant much travelthus made possible. The intercounty ling and that item comes expensive these days.

Port Dog Show Seen As Best Yet

All records are apt to go by the boards at the great dog show to be held at Port Stanley on July 1 and 2, when over $500 in money and specials will be awarded.

The famous European Police Dogs, Alsatians and Doberman Pinschers have several noted winners competing, but the chief attraction should be seen in the various variety classes, when the most prominent winners will be brought together.

A special endeavor will be made to bring together the best dogs owned in Port Stanley, as two trophies have been donated for best male and best female. This will bring in many lady exhibitors, who are especially keen on personally handling their dogs in the ring.

Owing to the large number of inquiries for lists, entries will be taken up to 10 o'clock on Monday morning by Roy O'Neil, 202 Richmond street.

The show will be decidedly international as Captain Smith's latest importation, the noted British winning Springer Spaniel, Inveresk Cadet, a rare bodied blue roan that has beaten many of the best in Scotland and England, both on the bench and in the field, will meet all comers.

As a matter of fact the competition will be the best seen in many years, with many famous champions in the running.

The game at the Ontario hospital today looks like being a battle royal, as the St. George's men are confident of putting the east-enders into the lost column. A large crowd is expected to watch this game, as it is a local derby and the first time these teams have met. The grounds are open to the general public to come and watch the game. It is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Another interesting game should take place at Westminster, where the C. N. R. will try conclusions with the Medicos.

The London clubs split even last Saturday, with two wins and two losses.

The Ontario hospital team has yet to be beaten in the race for the championship of the S. W. O. C. L. Their win against Mitchell came rather as a surprise, considering the team that journeyed down. The hospital members wish to thank the Mitchell club for their kindness with regards to transportation.

The Oxford-C. N. R. tilt was an exciting affair, the latter just nosing the red and whites out by two runs. The Oxford club are in rather a slump, but with Lownsbrough back in the line-up they should very soon again break into the win column.

Westminster were again unfortunate. Had their fielding been a little better a different result might have been shown.

Stratford took the St. George's into camp and considering the pitch put up a very respectable score.

The interleague game at Hamilton on Wednesday ended disastrously for the local league, losing by 92 runs—221 for 7 to 129. The weather can largely be blamed for this defeat, as the locals batted almost in darkness.

Congratulations to Dr. Chalk and Mr. Palmer for their very useful scores.

Congratulations to Mr. Lownsbrough of Woodstock for his quick recovery from softball injuries. Here's hoping his batting eye has not suffered.

Strathroy Juvenile Hurler Blanks Petrolia Enarcos 8-0

Fiddler Holds Hard Oil Clouters To Four Safe Blows.

TWO JUNIORS GOOD

Special to The Advertiser.

Strathroy, June 26.—Fiddler Strathroy's juvenile pitcher, playing in an exhibition game here today with the intermediates, shut out Petrolia Enarcos, 8 to 0. He allowed the visitors only four scattered hits, a double by Salsbury in the ninth being the only extra-base clout.

The sixteen-year-old local hurler was given good support and pitched a heady game, while his teammates rolled up eight runs by hitting Slack often and hard. The hitting of Smith and Brady, both local juniors, featured, as did also sensational catches by McHattie, Salsbury and Wilkie. Salsbury, while pitching, speared with one hand a drive off Swale's bat that brought forth a real hand from the local fans.
