Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

LOBSTERS.—Attention of lobster packers is directed to L. D. Wurzburg's advt.

THE DREDGE "ST. LAWRENCE" is again at work on the bar and the genial Capt. Thomson will, therefore, occasionally be up to see us.

ZEZA, the famous magician, is to appear in Newcastle on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday next and in Chatham, commencing on Wednesday.

SALMON are quite plentiful on the Miramichi this season. We presume this fact accounts for the scarcity of the fish in Chatham.

TROTTING.—Don't forget the Dominion Day Trotting races at the Chatham Driving Park. The local flyers are preparing for it. Entries close to-morrow, Friday evening.

CONTRACT.—Messrs. John O'Brien of Nelson and James Robinson, of Derby, have been awarded the contract for building the S. W. Miramichi bridge at Nelson. Their tender was, we understand, $19,000.

BAZAAR AND TEA.—The Members of the Guild of St. Mary and St. Paul held a sale of useful and fancy work in the Masonic Hall on Thursday last. The sale was very successful, about $170 being realized.

A BEAR was seen on Bay du Vin Island on Monday. The animal swam from the mainland and is supposed to have adopted the Island as his summer residence for the purpose of feasting on mice, which are very plentiful there.

PICNIC AT DALHOUSIE.—The R. Catholics of Dalhousie will hold their annual Pic-nic on the Church grounds July 2nd. Connection can then be made with the Dalhousie Branch Railway.— SEC. OF COMMITTEE.

SHIPMASTERS AND PILOTS have, in some cases in the past, anchored vessels so near the south side of the harbor of Chatham as to impede the regular navigation of the river, and the Harbor Master has issued a warning on the subject, which it will be well for all interested to observe.

MILITIA.—"Northumberland" Battalion of Infantry, No. 73, No. 5 Company, Bay du Vin. To be Lieutenant: 2nd Lieutenant James Cameron, M. S., vice Thomas George McKay, left limits. To be 2nd Lieutenant, provisionally: Sergeant Alex. Cameron, vice J. Cameron, promoted.

THE ODD-FELLOWS of Chatham deserve great credit for the manner in which they managed their excursion and pic-nic on Tuesday. The rain of the morning dis couraged many who would otherwise have gone, but those who were present speak in the highest terms of the welcome they received from Mr. and Miss Cusliman and of their beautiful grounds.

LARGE HAIL STONES.—Mr. Jas. Harnett of Rogersville, who was in town on Tuesday reports a phenomenal fall of hailstones at that place on last Thursday night, Mr. John Buckley having found one so large that it had to have a portion of its corners knocked off to enable him to get it into a barrel. Two of these large hailstones were found.

WHY?—What have the Inch Arran people done to the sorehead of the World? He has suddenly conceived a contempt "board and shingle structures." What the people of that region know of the World representatives is not calculated to inspire them with either confidence in, or respect for the paper, so it is not likely that they care much what it says about their enterprises.

THE TAVERNIER COMEDY COMPANY is playing at Masonic Hall, Chatham, this week. They opened with the Colleen Bawn, which was well presented and, on Tuesday night, gave "The Mighty Dollar," which, it is needless to say, was rapturously received. This is the best Company that has ever appeared in Chatham and it ought to be very largely patronised. "Under the Gaslight" is the piece for to-night.

FIRE AT BATHURST.— On Thursday evening last a fire broke out in Messrs. K. F. Burns & Co's mill yard, Bathurst, which, at one time, threatened to result in a serious loss of property. By great exertions on the part of the employees of the firm and citizens, generally, the flames were prevented from communicating with the mill and a real calamity for the place thus averted. About 100,000 s. f. of boards and some timber were destroyed.

MIRAMICHI DISTRICT.—The first draft of the station sheet of the Methodist Conference in session at St. John gives the following for the Miramichi district,—

Chatham—D. Chapman.
Newcastle—F. W. Harrison.
Derby—S. J. Wells.
Richibucto—Wm. J. Kirby.
Tabusintac.—R. Taite.
Bathurst.—H. Sprague.
Campbellton.—C. W. Dutcher.

R. C. BAZAAR.—The Roman Catholic congregation of Chatham are to hold their grand Bazaar in the Chatham Skating Rink, commencing on Monday, 14th July. The rink is to be fitted up especially for the occasion and among the attractions will be a shooting gallery, gipsey camp, lotteries, post-office, refreshment tables, etc. Excursion rates at one fare will be given over the I. C. R. and Branch during the week to visitors coming from all points between Moncton and Campbellton.

THE "ADVOCATE" quotes the Agent's Herald against the Louisiana Lottery and rails at the ADVANCE. Those who know the Agent's Herald do not pay very much attention to it. It is quite as abusive, though much more able than the Advocate, but that is about all that can be said about it. Independent enquiry has satisfied us that this lottery, which has never offered to and would not advertise in the Advocate is not a swindle any more than the lotteries conducted at church fairs. It has its regular drawings and pays its prizes.

FOR CAMP.—Four companies of the 73rd battalion, under command of Major McCulley, left Chatham on Tuesday's 11.30 train for the Military Camp at Shediac, accompanied by the Battalion Band, under Sergt. J. H. Templeton. The companies were captained respectively by Capts. Cameron, Fenton, McNaughton and McKnight, and numbered 150 men of all ranks. Capt. Hutchison's Buctouche company were to join the Battalion en route. Dr. W. P. Bishop accompanied the corps as surgeon. Capt. L. J. Tweedie is paymaster, A. S. Templeton, adjutant, Alex. Cantley Quartermaster and N. R. MacKenzie Orderly Room Clerk.

PERSONAL.—Hon. W. M. Kelly, M. L. C. is visiting the up-river portion of the County.

Miss Annie Shirreff, of Boston, and her brother, Master LeBarron, are visiting their Chatham friends.

Patrick Parcell, Esq., was in town yesterday.

Mr. Fred Kelly and bride are visiting Chatham. The numerous friends of the groom are glad to see him looking so well and to find that he appears to be so happily mated.

THE METROPOLITAN.—The Most Rev. the Metropolitan is visiting the Miramichi and is the guest of Hon. Judge Wilkinson at Bushville. His Lordship went to Bay du Vin yesterday where a class of fourteen candidates awaited confirmation, which ceremony is to take place this forenoon at 10.30.

His Lordship is to return to Chatham this evening and will preach at St. Mary's on Sunday next, morning and evening.

On 8th July His Lordship is to visit Weldford, Kent.

On 9th he will consecrate the new church at Bass River.

On 10th he will consecrate the new church at Kingston, returning to St. John on 11th.

DERANGED IN MIND.—Mr. Duncan Shaw of St. John, who came to the city quite recently, was noticed on Saturday evening to be acting somewhat strangely, and on Sunday was found to be badly deranged in his mind, so much so as to cause his friends to have him removed to the goal previous to having him taken to the asylum at St. John. While in the goal he took the straw out of his bed and placing it in a corner of the room set fire to it. Mr. Hawthorne noticing the smoke went to the room and discovered the fire just in time to prevent serious damage to the building. The man made a second attempt to set fire to the room, but was prevented from doing any damage by the keeper. He was removed to the asylum yesterday morning. Previous to his arrest he made three attempts to set fire to a house in Wilmot's Alley. He was detected by the police while in the act of holding lighted paper in the window shutters. On observing that he was seen he ran and hid in Mr. McCarty's barn, where he was taken without difficulty.—Fredericton Gleaner.

LAME DUCK SAVED.—On the night of Monday, 9th inst., the steamer "Acuba," Capt. Sinclair, bound from New York to Miramichi in water ballast, to load deals, was caught in the fog and struck on Charles Ledge, Tangier. The pumps were got in order, but had not some twenty-three fishermen towed her into the False passage at Ship Harbor she would have gone down in deep water. The night she struck was thick and foggy. On being towed into the passage she was sunk in four fathoms of water. On Tuesday William Roche, jr., (who had been telegraphed to by the underwriters in New York to look after her), started with the tugs Relief Goliah, and Tiger to save the steamer, and returned with her in tow at 2 a. m. to-day. Beazley, the driver, and Mr. Barry, superintended the pumping and stopping of the leaks, which latter was effected by building a box inside the vessel, over the holes in her bottom, and then pumping the ship out. The first attempt was not a success, as the vessel pitched over on her beam ends owing to a leak in one of the ballast tanks. This was soon righted however. The steamer will be surveyed, and if the expenses is not too great, will be taken to the Slip for repairs.—Halifax Recorder, 17th

BODIES RECOVERED.—On 18th inst. the body of a drowned man was found in Mr. Vital Savoy's salmon net, near Hay Island, Miramichi, by Gilbert Savoy son of the owner of the net, and the fact was duly reported to Coroner Savoy, who took charge of the body. It was no doubt, that of one of the sailors drowned from the French barque Leopold et Marie at Black Brook.

The body of the other sailor was found on the opposite side of the river in the forenoon of the following day. It was in Mr. Jas. Taylor's salmon net off the inside of Bay du Vin Island.—The body being taken ashore, T. B. Williston, Esq., J. P., notified Coroner Phineas Williston, who however did not respond and he also endeavored to get another Magistrate for the purpose of holding an inquest, but failed. He then took down such particulars as were available and placing the body in a neat coffin buried it on the Island alongside of that of an unknown man washed out of the bank some eight or nine years ago. Mr. Williston read the Church of England burial service over the remains when interring them.

J. B. Snowball, Esq., Consular Agent of France here, has placed the disposition of these bodies in the hands of Rev. Father Theberge of Neguac, as the men were, we understand, Roman Catholics. They will therefore, probably, be both interred at Neguac. Much credit is due to Mr. Williston for the manner in which he performed the humane duty devolved upon him under the circumstances.

On the body found at Bay du Vin there were oil clothing, dark trousers, blue overalls, blue shirt, heavy comforter, 40 cts. and a handkerchief in pocket; dark hair and light whiskers; a sore on right wrist.

On that found at Hay Island, a woollen scarf and handkerchief around the neck; woollen linder, red and black checked; knit jersey, blue and white; blue drill jumper, dark pants, a pair of boots and a leather belt around the waist. The hair was black and curly and the beard and whiskers also black.

Who Owns It?

The World quotes a paragraph from the Moncton Times, in which it is stated that "Mr. Stewart has purchased the paper from the Company," and this is the first intimation the public have that the Company has grown disgusted with the manner in which the sheet has been managed. As the names of the Directors of the Company were occasionally published in the paper and used to induce people to patronise it, there should have been some direct and authoritative announcement of their dropping the concern, after they had lost as much money by it as they proposed to stand. If the World had treated us fairly when it was, itself, in a strong position, and when it could have afforded to be just, we would say nothing about it now, but we do not propose to allow it to make misstatements of its affairs, after it has taken the liberty of meddling with ours as it has done in the past. We may state, therefore, that Mr. Stewart has not bought the paper, and does not own it. The Company grew tired of his services and did not pay his salary and he was told that he could use the presses and other plant and make what he could out of the operation. It is a very peculiar arrangement and quite easy for the alleged proprietor, but not one calculated to appeal to the support of the community against the ADVANCE, which has been established and maintained by its proprietor at no small personal sacrifice. We have had some queer cranks running newspapers in Chatham at times, and the people ought to learn that the credit of the place is better maintained by giving their patronage to those whose investments are a gurrantee of permanency.

Boards and Shingles Not Good Enough.

The World pretends that a correspondent sent it "the Phantom ship of the Baie des Chaleurs"—mark the name of the Bay—and asks to be excused from publishing it on the ground that it is too old. The object of the World is, however, quite apparent,—viz., to have a fling at the enterprise to which it refers as "the last board and shingle structure built on the coast." To those who know as much as we do about the World, that paper's contempt for "boards and shingles" and "board and shingle structures" is amusing—a remainder of the "beggar on horseback" proverb. One would fancy that "boards and shingles" were beneath the World writer's notice and that a hotel built of anything less substantial than stone need not expect the favor of that paper. Those who are interested in the "boards and shingles," however, have the consolation of knowing that unless the World's course should be materially altered their enterprise will be a living and creditable reality, when that paper has joined its defunct predecessors. This is a "board and shingle" country and the World will not be able to convert it into anything else—for, unlike the World writer, the great American war veteran, it will not go back on its record.

The Great Striker.

Mr. R. B. Adams, who is President of the Chatham Laborers' Association, appears to be very much out of temper over our reply to the long letter in which he attacked the ADVANCE a while ago. We made no reference to Mr. Adams in these columns, but dealt with the strike in a moderate manner and with every desires to have the men act as their best interests and those of the port demanded they should. Mr. A. could have also written on the subject without being personal and unnecessarily offensive, but he did not do so and we, therefore, dealt with him as the circumstances seemed to demand. In his "card" in yesterday's World he is weak and silly enough to employ vile language and indulge in threats which are discreditable to the association of which he is the head and calculated to disgrace himself. He could, we presume, be no more vile in language than the person in whose interest he is really attacking Mr. Smith, but it is, perhaps, an evidence of his prudence that he does not go as far as he would wish to do. If ever he should feel disposed to be properly hung up on exhibition he, no doubt, knows just how to secure the attention at our hands. The wonder is that even his callous impudence is sufficient to prompt him to run the risk he does, by appearing in print at all. The sooner the workingmen purge themselves of him the safer and better off they will be as a society. He seems a most indiscreet and dangerous guide.

The new Government Building.

Plans for the new building soon to be erected here, and for the construction of which tenders have been invited, have been for some days past in the Customs Office for the benefit of contractors and others interested in the work. From these plans we judge that Newcastle is to have a handsome building. It is to be of rubble freestone, (which will very probably be obtained on our own river) with dressed trimmings. The main building will be about 54x45 feet. The height from the ground to where the Mansard roof stands, is 44 feet whole height including roof, being 64 feet. The main building will comprise basement, ground floor, first floor and upper floor or attic. The basement is intended for heating purposes, and will contain heating apparatus, water tank, and storage for fuel. The ground floor will be wholly devoted to the P. O. Department. The first floor will contain the Customs long room, a room for the collector, and two rooms for the Inland Revenue offices. The upper flat will be divided off into compartments for the caretaker. The ell attached is one story, and in style will correspond with main building. The ell will be built on an angle, on the line of the street, 50 feet along Henry Street, 27 on King Street, and 45 along the north-easterly side. The ell will contain the examining warehouse, rooms for the weights and measures. This brief description will be all that is necessary until such time as the building is completed, when a detailed account will be in order.—Advocate.

Notes Along the Baie de Chaleur.

Petit Rocher is one of the attractive settlements along the Bay after leaving Bathurst and really includes Nigadoo some two miles south, where there is a railway siding. Nigadoo has a little harbor suitable for small boats, near which is a handsome little cottage owned by J. Windsor, Esq., and at present occupied, for the summer months by the family of a Chatham gentleman, who, I understand, are delighted with the place and the facilities it affords for outdoor enjoyment combined with indoor convenience and comfort. A well-stocked trout stream, fine water for both rowing and sailing unlimited rambling-grounds, and a pleasant driving-road which skirts the Bay, are the leading but not, by any means, all the attractions of the place.

At the Nigadoo is one of Mr. Windsor's lobster-canning establishments, and also one of his freezers. His chief place of business is a mile or so further up the Bay at Petit Rocher proper. Here is a very fine store and wareroom, under the same roof with which are a counting room and private office equal to anything of the kind in the larger towns of the North Shore. On these same premises are a large freezer and a building in which tins are made and the cans finished, labeled and boxed. Mr. Windsor has eight canning establishments around the Baie de Chaleur, viz., one each at Nigadoo, Grand Ance and Gouse Lake, and Eel Brook, Miscou; Little Shippegan, Fox Dens and in Gaspe at Pabos and Newport. He expects to ship about 8,000 cases, or 384,000 lbs. lobsters this year. He also does a large business in eggs, and fresh and frozen fish—principally salmon and mackerel—his shipments of frozen mackerel last year being 30,000 lbs. Mr. Windsor is full of push and genuine enterprise, has a steady and cool head for business and is deservedly popular with the people with whom he comes in contact.

A. W. Y. DesBrisay, Esq., also does a large business at Petit Rocher in lobster canning and shipping fresh and frozen fish, eggs, etc. I regret that I had not an opportunity to learn more than I did of the extent of his business, which must be considerable, as he appears to own or control the larger proportion of the salmon nets along the coast in this vicinity. He is an affable gentlemen of excellent business reputation. His store is about a mile from the railway station and it contains the post office of Petit Rocher. He has establishments at Elm Tree, Green Point and Ferny Brook, besides the main establishment at Petit Rocher.

Mr. James Woodside keeps one of the most comfortable of north shore hotels about half a mile from the Railway station—a house which ought to be very attractive for summer tourists.

A few hundred yards from the hotel is the parish church, which is the most prominent object in the neighborhood. Approaching the place from the station this church is really imposing in appearance. Its white walls and dark roof present a pleasant contrast, relieved by its gothic windows and handsome tower and steeple. One's first impression is that the church must be too large for any place short of a large town, but when he sees, as I did, on the Feast of Corpus Christi, the many hundreds who came to worship and learned that the settlement covered so many miles of coast line and extended four miles back, he realises that it is only equal to the requirements of the people. It has a very fine chime of bells—the only one on the north shore—and is, altogether, a credit to the diocese. The cure is Rev. Mr. Robert, whose age and long services entitle him to relief from full priestly duties. He is, therefore, to be relieved by the appointment of a younger man to the charge of the parish.

At Elm Tree River, a few miles north of Petit Rocher, the Silver mine of which the public heard a good deal a year or two ago, is located. It is not in operation now, although there is some valuable machinery and plant on the ground. I was informed that the Company was obliged to suspend operations on account of necessary funds for proper development not being obtainable.

Mr. A. P. Doucet owns a rotary mill on the Elm Tree which saws lumber for local consumption.

A mile or so further north we come to Green Point, where Capt. Thos. Hall has a shingle mill.

At Belledune—eight miles from Petit Rocher and twenty from Bathurst there is a neat Roman Catholic Church.

Not far away, at Hendry's Brook there is a shingle mill owned by Mr. Jas. Hendry, and on the Little Belledune there is a grist mill owned by Mr. Pat'k Curry.

The Presbyterians of Belledune are building a Church not far from Mr. J. C. Chalmers' residence. It is 33x25 and 14 ft. post. When I drove past it the walls and roof were covered in. The committee in whose hands the management of the undertaking is placed consists of Messrs. J. C. Chalmers, J Hendry, Thos. McCurdy, Jas. Loane. Mr. Hugh Gilbraith was also a member of the committee, but he has moved from the neighborhood. Rev. Mr. Quinn of Bathurst, who has been holding occasional services in Belledune will officiate in the new church.

The Expenditure of Public Money.

[Published by request from the Globe.]

We publish the following letters, although with some doubt, after striking out from the principal one one or two expressions which seem to be unnecessarily offensive. It may be well to point out that Mr. Livingston says that certain things are "alleged," that he "has been informed," etc. We dare say that all the facts can be got at by moving in the House of Assembly for the papers. The letters are as follows:

To the Editor of the Globe:—

SIR,—I ask space in your paper for the publication of the enclosed letter to Hon. P. G. Ryan, hoping that you will open your columns that the ends of justice may be met.

Yours truly,
GORDON LIVINGSTON.

Richibucto, N. B., June 17th, 1884.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B, June 17, 1884

DEAR SIR.—Regarding the conversation we had yesterday I desire to place before you a few details:

1. That John Graham, Roderick McDonald and Laurent LeBlanc were appointed Commissioners to expend the bye road money, as appropriated by the Local Government, for the Parish of Richibucto for the year 1883.

2. That warrants or checks were issued for certain amounts in favor of these respective commissioners, or to their respective orders.

3. That it is alleged the warrant or check for John Graham's district was in his name, was never seen or endorsed by him, and the proceeds of such were dispensed by Mr. Whelan, the local M. P. P.

4. That no returns have been published in the report of the Chief Commissioner of Public Works regarding the "expenditures"—if such a thing it may be called.

5. That all efforts made by the subscriber to obtain full particulars as to the disposal of the money by the Government, of which you are a member, have proved futile.

6. That in the interest of public and political morality such information should be given.

Therefore, I request that the subject of this be placed before your colleagues in the Government.

Yours respectfully,
GORDON LIVINGSTON.

Hon. P. G. Ryan, Commissioner Board Public Works.

P. S.—As the pith of a letter is often in the postscript I may close by saying I have been informed that Mr. Whelan, M. P. P., presented at the Bank of Nova Scotia Agency here to Wm. Thomson, manager, a warrant or check, purporting to be on the endorsement of John Graham—which endorsement was a forgery; that said warrant was subsequently presented at the Merchants' Bank Agency at Kingston by Mr. Whelan, and cashed by D. Kemp, agent of the latter Bank.

G. L.

RICHIBUCTO, JUNE 24.

To the Editor of the Globe:

SIR,—A scribbler, whose only claim to respectability is that he has been allowed space in your columns, and for that reason alone is entitled to attention, has lately published two letters in which my name has been frequently mentioned. The people of Kent are acquainted with this man, his methods and his character. Many outside of the County, in whose good opinion I desire a place, has never had the ill-fortune of an introduction to this professional slanderer. Boycotted from the bar-rooms of Richibucto, he seeks admission in the press for the bile he is unable to restrain. "A hedge hog driven from his hole will show his teeth and chatter on a stump." He makes, or rather insinuates, charges against me in connection with the bye-road appropriations. The "head and front" of my offending is that I saw the money properly disbursed without a dollar of it sticking to his fingers. I knew him. The Fishery Bounty crookedness of 1883, had taken place before the Bye Road money for that year was expended. Let him drop insinuendoes and make a direct charge against me. I ask this not that he may be prosecuted for libel, for he belongs to that class known as the irresponsibles, but that an investigation of any offence I may have committed may be moved for by myself, when the Legislature next meets at Fredericton. In the meantime, Mr. Editor, I leave Gordon Livingston to his idle vaporings, feeling that people knowing the man believe "that the gravity of an accusation is sometimes lost in the meanness of the accuser."

WM. WHELEN,

Kent County Notes.

THE COUNTY COURT will meet on Wednesday 2nd proximo. The Board of Commissioners under the Liquor License Law will hold their levee on Saturday at the Court House, Richibucto.

LOBSTERS.—Two men with one boat took four thousand seven hundred lobsters from one hundred and ninety traps one day last week for Mr. R. B. Noble. Mr. Henry O'Leary has already shipped three car loads of lobsters by the Branch Line, and will ship three more car loads before the 1st of July—value in all $10,800.

THE "EXCHANGE HOTEL," Richibucto, is being thoroughly renovated and refurnished, and will shortly be opened by Mr. W. A. McKim, late of the "What Cheer House" Weldford.

MATTHEW GORMAN of St. Louis, captured a trout a few days ago—weight two and one half pounds.

THE THUNDER STORM of Friday night was the most severe known here for many years. No damage of any consequence has been reported. In some localities in the County, particularly at Molus River the rain was accompanied with hail and medium sized pieces of ice.

FISH BUSINESS.—Mr. Storer, a prominent dealer in fish in the American markets, is now in Richibucto, where he has been largely instrumental in working up a business in the fresh fish line. Through Mr. Storer's enterprise many in different parts of the County the past week found the benefit of having the Yankee gold or greenbacks distributed in their midst.
