The Lord Mayor of London has declined to allow a procession of twenty thousand persons, connected with British shipping, through the city of London to Buckingham Palace, for the purpose of petitioning the Queen not to consent to the repeal of our Navigation Laws, but in pursuance of his lordship's recommendation, the memorialists will proceed from Shadwell to Westminster in a large steamer and barges.

Seamen's Procession.—The Navigation Laws.—A procession of seamen, bearing a petition to the Queen against any alteration in the Navigation Laws, started from Shadwell Basin to-day, shortly after one o'clock. The procession consisted of two steam-boats, towing 60 or 70 small boats, full of blue jackets. Each boat carried a great union jack, and every available place where a view could be obtained was crowded by spectators. Guns were fired at various places, and the seamen cheered and hurraed lustily as they proceeded up the river.—They were expected to arrive at the rendezvous, Trafalgar Square, at about three o'clock, and to proceed thence to the Home Office, in Downing Street.

The crews of many ships of the royal navy have subscribed a day's pay for the relief of the widows and families of the officers and men composing the crew of the steam frigate Avenger, lately wrecked on the coast of Africa.

CULTIVATION OF TEA IN INDIA.—The Government of India have resolved to allow £10,000 a-year for some years to come, to be bestowed on experiments in the cultivation of tea on the banks of the Beas, in our newly-acquired Sikh dominions, and in Simla districts. Sir J. Davis has been directed to procure a supply of seed, and to send from the first tea gardens in China some of the best cultivators that can be found.

CAPTURED SLAVERS.—In November last, more than 100 slave vessels, taken by the English cruisers, were lying at St. Helena, awaiting adjudication, or for sea after their condemnation and sale.

It is the intention of the King of Prussia to found a Roman Catholic University in his dominions, probably at Munster.

SKATES FOR PRINCE ALBERT.—Messrs. Marsden Brothers and Co., of Sheffield, have presented to Prince Albert a pair of skates of the most recherche description. Instead of the common-place turn-up point of the ordinary skate, a graceful swan rises, being beautifully chased to represent its plumage. The clogs of the skates are of polished rosewood, on the side of which, at the toe, the swan's figure is completed, and at the heel, the rose, thistle, and shamrock are carved. The straps, which are of patent leather, lined with white enamel, with silver buckles, pass through slot holes lined with gold. On the heel the golden garter, with its motto, surmounts a silver star; on the sole the royal arms are studded in gold and silver; and the toe is of gold. Of course, the value of these skates is very considerable.

The Emperor of Russia has issued an ukase forbidding artisans from foreign countries to enter the empire. Manufacturers who wish to obtain workmen from foreign countries are obliged to make a previous request to this effect to the chief of the local police.

The inhabitants of Milan have left off smoking tobacco, in order to diminish the revenue and embarrass the Government. A person appearing in the streets with a pipe or cigar is sure to be mobbed.

A CERTIFICATE from Mr. Ingerson, of Lancaster, N. H., a highly respectable citizen of that place, and jailer of the County of Coos:

I, George W. Ingerson, of Lancaster, hereby certify that I have been troubled with the Asthma for about twenty years. Last November, when I began taking WISTAR'S Balsam of Wild Cherry, I had been unable to do any thing for several months, and had not, except a very few nights, been able to rest in my bed. Almost as soon as I began to take it I felt relieved. I have taken about two bottles. My health is altogether improved. A few returns of the Asthma, which I have had in that time, were almost immediately removed by taking the Balsam. I rest well, and my health is, and has been for months, better than at any time previous for many years. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to all who are similarly afflicted.

GEO. W. INGERSON.

Lancaster, N. H., April 23, 1846.

Be careful and get the genuine and original Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, signed I. BUTTS, on the wrapper. For sale by Messrs. PETERS & TILLEY, King St., St. John, N. B.

PREPARED MEDICINAL WINE—manufactured from the combined virtues of the Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry and several other Exotic Plants, whose wonderful curative properties are altogether unknown, except to the author of HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

It is well known to good chemists, that all vegetable substances contain more or less deleterious properties, as well as medicinal virtues. Those opposite qualities which are diffused together in every root, plant, and blossom, remain inseparable in the extracts, as obtained by the usual method of boiling, &c., rendering all medicines thus prepared inert, and in many cases either injurious or altogether useless. This accounts in a great measure for the insufficiency of so many medicines in curing the diseases which they profess to cure.

It is very different with Halsey's Forest Wine. By means of a wonderful chemical apparatus, invented for the express purpose of manufacturing this article, the entire virtues of the most valuable combination of plants ever discovered is obtained, pure and free from every property but those which act in unity, and harmonize with the constitution of the human frame. This renders the Forest Wine the most excellent and truly valuable medicine in the world, both for its miraculous powers of curing as well as delightful flavor.

The Forest Wine is most distinguished for its great efficacy in renovating worn-out constitutions, and curing general ill health proceeding from nervous disorders, complaints of the stomach, liver, heart and kidneys, including costiveness, dyspepsia, indigestion, loss of appetite, and a debilitated state of the system. A free use of the Forest Wine restores invalids of this class to the most robust, strong and vigorous health. It has also proved useful in restoring invalids from a lingering state, after severe attacks of sickness.

For sale at the Proprietor's General Depot, No. 2 Courtlandt street, New York, and by his appointed Agents in the cities and towns of the United States, and at the store of the subscriber, 5, Brick Buildings, North Market Wharf, price 5s. per bottle, with liberal allowance to wholesale dealers.
