THE PLATE ROUTE BY PEPPER SAUCE

Guineas Candidates Given the Track at Woodbine Park —Monday's Trials.

Fair Montague, from the stable of Charles Millar, made the smartest move of the morning at the Woodbine yesterday when he covered one mile and one-quarter in 2.12½. Tartarean, Fair Montague's stable companion, accompanied the son of Stanhope II., but finished about four lengths in the rear. They went the first quarter in .25, one-half in .51, three-quarters in 1.17, one mile in 1.44. Fair Montague's mile and one-quarter was in 2.12½, and Tartarean's in 2.13 2-5. Garish Sun and Shrove Tide put in five-eighths in 1.04 2-5. Alkedema, from the same stable, went five-eighths in 1.06 2-5.

Charlie Crew's candidate for the plate, Pepper Sauce, did not work until the afternoon. He went the full plate distance in 2.13; the first quarter in .25, one-half in .51½, three-quarters in 1.17¼, one mile in 1.44½ and the mile and one-quarter in 2.13. Cannie Jean joined him in the last mile. It was a very creditable performance.

The Seagram platers, Smithfield and Charon, breezed a mile in 1.48. Golden Jug went one-half in .53, three-quarters in 1.19 and the mile in 1.49. Vastatio and Torn Silk went one mile in 1.47 3-5.

George Cornell's guineas candidate, Gartley, worked one mile in 1.47½, the first one-quarter in .26½, one-half in .50 2-5 and the three-quarters in 1.18. Hampton Dame galloped one mile in 1.50. SPICY BITS OF SOCCER GOSSIP

Review of Some of Saturday's Games Shows a Host of Star Players.

In Taylor, British Imperial have one of the finest forwards in the city. He is very tricky and fast on the ball and never hesitates to shoot when an opportunity presents itself. The powers that be have an eye on this player.

Swansea is desirous of a game at home on Saturday next, the 15th inst. Kindly address communications to J. Harrison, secretary, Swansea P.O., or phone Adel. 913.

What is wrong with Manchester Unity? One point in six games is certainly not in keeping with a team of their undoubted capabilities. Secretary Mitchener is in hopes that the team will strike their proper stride soon; then look out!

Sid Brown of Sunderland is surely the penalty kind of the city. He is always entrusted with the penalty kicks awarded his team, and has never once failed to convert.

Gunns were home to Gerrards on Saturday and were successful in notching the two available points, winning by 4 goals to 0. The team: A. Robertson (capt.), W. McArthur, R. Morgan, A. Ingram, P. Latham, L. Cooke, H. Hegarty, C. Thomson, R. Welch, S. Chadwick, W. Cole. Will all clubs note that Gunns' colors are white and red, vertical stripes, and not plain red, as it appears in the T. & D. schedule book?

Street Railway put it all over Ulster on Saturday. They were the red bands' superiors in every department and fully deserved their victory.

The Swansea supporters are asked to give their team a little more encouragement by taking more interest in the team that represents them. There is a great falling off in the attendance, which is rather discouraging to the boys.

It is seldom George Campbell lets his team down, but that penalty he gave away on Saturday meant the loss of both points. Hard luck, Thistles!

Caledonians made a beginning in the points column when they managed to draw with the Spiders on Saturday. They fully expect to register their first win against Overseas on Saturday.

All signed players of Bell Telephone F. C. are asked to turn out for practice on Willowvale Park Tuesday, and at Riverdale Park on Thursday at 6.30.

Swansea have a great centre forward in Jimmie Hunt. He scored three of Swansea's four goals against City Dairy on Saturday. If he can retain his present form Basil Smith, who is in the trenches, will not be greatly missed.

The Canadian selectors had an opportunity on Saturday of seeing Archer of Sunderland operating at inside left and were impressed with his play. He had two of the goals and made several openings, which his colleagues took full advantage of.

Will all players and members of the British Imperial team turn out for practice tonight and Thursday at 6.30 on Bracondale Park? Please be on time, as this is important.

Andy Leys, the old Caledonian custodian, is guarding the uprights for Polsons this year and is surpassing last year's form. He saved a penalty on Saturday.

There is sure to be a large crowd at Varsity Stadium on Saturday, first to see the Overseas v. Caledonians, and Manchester Unity v. Lancashire battle in the first round of the Connaught Cup.

Cedarvale F.C. will play York Argyle a friendly game at Little York on Tuesday evening, kick-off at 7 o'clock. Team to be chosen on the grounds. Cedarvale will gladly try out any new players in this game if they are desirous of joining a good club.

Overseas would like to hear from one or two capable players, especially a good goalkeeper, as they are losing the services of McCoskery, who has to work Saturday afternoons.

Jack Mann of Manchester Unity met with a nasty accident in their game with Sunderland on Saturday. He and Thorley collided, the former receiving a bad cut on the forehead, which necessitated the attention of a doctor. It is doubtful if he will be able to play on Saturday.

Cedarvale will hold their usual weekly meeting at the grounds in the dressing room on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Besides other important business the team to play Robertsons will be chosen.

Cameron of Wychwood played a fine game on Saturday. That goal he scored was a beauty, Enfield having no chance to save it, as it was in the net before he realized where the ball had gone.

Considering that it was the first game he has played this season, Barlow, Swansea's half-back, played a sterling game, and Duckworth was not missed. He is worthy of his place on the team.

Tommy Worral turned out for his old love the Davenports on Saturday and played a fine game, but with the exception of Fidler he received little or no support from the other forwards.

Wilson made his reappearance for Wychwood on Saturday and played a very effective game.

Robertsons play the Shedden Forwarding F.C. on Bayside Park tonight at 6.30. The following players are asked to turn out: Laurie, Davidson, Taylor, Ewart, W. Clark, McMahon, Howard, Lutley, Young, Wainwright, Abernethy.

Consumers' Gas F.C. members are reminded of the monthly meeting to be held on Wednesday in 1214 Adelaide street (upstairs), at 8 p.m. All signed players are asked to turn out on Don Flats this evening at six o'clock.

White, Polson's inside left, played a fine game on Saturday against Robertsons, his passes and judgment being features of the game. He scored what proved to be the only goal of the match.

The Maple Leafs and Dominion Transport F.C. meet in a friendly match at Bayside Park, tomorrow, kick-off at 6 p.m. Maple Leafs' team will be selected from Williams, Foxton, Brudett, Johnston, Pollard, Bannister, Lingard, Paton, Hutton, Bradley, Gent and Finlay.

Dominion Transport team will be selected from Edmunds, Little, Reid, Wilson, Cummings, Parks, Kennedy, Donnelly, Thomas, Bryant, Rose, Querrie, Topham, McCoombe, Leeman.

All Thistle players are asked to turn out for training game tonight with Fraserburgh at Lappin avenue. Fraserburgh players, please note.
