ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

A very large congregation assisted at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in St. Bonaventures, Tracadie on Wednesday the 30th ult., and many were visably affected as they were aware that their beloved Pastor was about to take his departure for another field of labor. After Mass he was presented with a well filled purse and the following address which was read by D. E. Morris, M. D.

To Rev. A. J. McIntyre.

Rev. Dear Father,—Before allowing you to depart from our midst we cannot permit this opportunity to pass, without expressing to you our heartfelt gratitude for your constant labors in our behalf, whilst you had charge of this Parish, and our deep regret that the friendly relations, existing between us for the last four years are, about to be severed.

During your sojourn among as we have not failed to notice and fully appreciate the many improvements which you have accomplished and also your marked and ever ready zeal in attending to the spiritual welfare and advancement of those committed to your guidance; and it is ours to hope that the good instructions received at your hands, may sink deep into our hearts and produce fruit conducive to our final salvation. Bowing therefore with submission to the Will of God and our Most Holy Bishop.

We beg of you to accept the accompanying purse, as a small token of the esteem and regard in which you have been held by us with the assurance that our prayers will be ever offered up that you may long be spared to exercise the Holy Office to which you have been consecrated. And now dear father in return we ask of you to remember us in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and although apart we trust that the silken bonds of friendship which bound us in the past may still remain unshaken in the future.

We remain, on behalf of the parishioners of St. Bonaventure's your true devoted friends:

Thomas A. Dougan, D. E. Morris, Mr. Angus C. McAulay, Angus McDonald, John Burns, Augustine D. McDonald, J. R. Fitzpatrick, Jos. A. McDonald, Teacher, B. McCabe, Teacher; Francis Hughes, Allan McDonald, Jas. P Dougan, A. J. McDonald, Jas. Byrne, D. McDonald, J. D McDonald, P. C. Kelly, Jas. Fitzpatrick. R. McDougall, Thos Hughes and others.

Rev. A. J. McIntyre made a short verbal reply. He was deeply affected, and thanked the parishioners of St. Bonaventure's for the valuable testimonial which they had presented to him. He assured them that he never would forget the kindness they had shown him during the four years he was their spiritual guide. He trusted that the friendly relations which had so closely existed between them for the last four years would still remain unbroken, and that God would prosper all their works in this world, and finally crown them with everlasting happiness in the next.

The following was presented by a delegation of the parishioners of Covehead parish.

To the Rev, A. J. McIntyre:

Rev. and Dear Sir,—We have learned with deep regret of your intended departure from amongst us to take charge of the parish of East Point. We desire now to express our sorrow at the loss of so zealous and untiring a pastor as you have been during the time you have had charge of this parish. Despite the difficulties of travelling and the distance from your home to our parish, you have never once failed to attend at the appointed times, a fact which speaks well for your devotion to duty.

Praying that God may bless your labors in your new field of duty, and asking you to remember us at the altar, we beg of you to accept this purse as a small token of our gratitude and esteem.

Signed on behalf of the parishioners of St. Eugene's Church, Covehead Road:

Patrick Tracy, Thomas Power, John Whelan, Chas. Reardon, Moses Connors.

Father McIntyre replied in feeling and appropriate language.

ACHE
is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.
Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents: five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.
