MEDICAL HALL.

THE Subscriber has been appointed Agent for the Sale of "COD LIVER OIL," by Messrs. LANGTON, BROTHERS & SCOTT, London; who, for the purpose of insuring perfect quality, have established an extensive manufactory at Newfoundland. Subjoined are some remarks from two of the leading Medical Periodicals of the day:—

From the Medical Times, August 25, 1849.

"But it is not easy to obtain pure Cod Oil. That which comes from Rosen and the coast of Normandy is obtained from the boiled livers of ray-fish, R. batis and R. clavata; a variety from Norway is procured from the roes and entrails of the gadus species boiled together; and some sent from Senegal to France is obtained by roasting the entrails of a species of crab, C. varicolis. Under these circumstances, it is gratifying to know that Messrs. Langton, Brothers & Scott, of Upper Thames Street, have established a manufactory of Cod Liver Oil at Newfoundland, under the management of a well-known extractor. We have received a specimen of their Oil; it is remarkably pure, and we strongly recommend it to the consideration of our readers."

From the Lancet, October 13, 1849.

"The chief points in favor of Messrs. Langton & Scott's Oil are, first, its ascertained freedom from adulteration; secondly, its containing in due proportion all the known constituents of Cod Liver Oil in general; and, thirdly, its being beyond comparison, the most agreeable, both in taste and odour, or rather the only one that is agreeable at all.

"We hereby certify that we have examined a specimen of Cod Liver Oil, transmitted to us for this purpose by Messrs. Langton, Brothers & Scott.

"The Oil is of a pale yellow color, with a slight but not offensive fishy odour, and is free from any disagreeable taste. It is very fluid, and in consistency and general appearance resembles good Florence oil.

"We are of opinion, from its purity and the absence of any unpleasant odour or flavor, that it is preferable for medicinal use to those samples of Cod Liver Oil which have hitherto come under our notice.

"September 25, 1849."

A quantity of the above Oil is at present on hand.—500 gallons, in 30 gallon casks, and 8 cases, each containing 2 dozen large and 2 dozen small bottles, are daily expected, which will be offered to the trade at a greatly reduced price.

LUXURIANT HAIR.

BOGLE'S HYPERION FLUID.—One bottle of this truly valuable liquid is worth more than its weight in gold. There is no quackery in its composition; but healthy and efficacious ingredients, calculated to effect all that it professes. Baldness will at once depart, and a luxuriant growth of hair take its place. Grey hair will return to its pristine brilliancy—weak hair become strengthened and vigorous, and the skin take a proper and healthy action by the use of the inestimable Hyperion. As an article for giving softness to the hair, and a brilliant gloss, it cannot by any compound be equalled.

The following is from the New York Evening Mirror, May 25, 1849:

"WISTARS BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—Among all the Panaceas advertised for the cure of human ailments, there is none in which we have more confidence than Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. We regard it as one of Nature's own preparations—simple, safe, pleasant to take, and almost certain to cure all bilious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects in cases that were regarded hopeless by physicians, and we can conscientiously recommend it as one of the best medicines in the world."

The following is from a very respectable source:—

Boston, November 27, 1848.

Mr. S. W. Fowle—Dear Sir,—Although averse to having my name public in the newspapers, I make this unsolicited statement, and you are at liberty to make use of it as you may please. In the Fall of 1847, I took a violent cold, which brought a severe cough that lasted through the Winter and Spring, and caused me to raise blood and phlegm continually, day and night, which greatly reduced me in flesh and strength; I tried several kinds of medicine, with little or no effect; I had become feeble and emaciated, and began to despair of ever getting relief, when, by advice of my friends, I was induced to try Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam; and after having taken five bottles, I found myself nearly, or quite well, and to this alone I think I owe present existence. I shall be happy to give further information to any one who will call on me.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM WHEELER, Grocer,

ST. LEON AND CAXTON SPRINGS.

MONTREAL, June 3, 1850.

For the past twelve months I have frequently recommended the Waters of the St. Leon and Caxton Springs, and have formed a favorable opinion of their efficacy as aperients in various derangements and diseases. I have found both Waters well adapted to the purpose of a mild and efficacious aperient, all the valuable properties of the saline ingredients give them, the combined are a superior aperient.

THE LARGEST, BEST, AND CHEAPEST DICTIONARY

In the English language, is, confessedly,

WEBSTER'S.

THE entire Work, Unabridged, in 1 vol. Crown Quarto, 1452 pp., with portrait of the author, Revised by Professor Goodrich, of Yale College. Price $6.

"The most COMPLETE, ACCURATE, and RELIABLE Dictionary of the language," is the recent testimony given to this work by many Presidents of Colleges and other distinguished literary men throughout the country.

Containing three times the amount of matter of any other English Dictionary compiled in this country, or any abridgment of this work, yet

"Its definitions are models of condensation and purity. The most complete work of the kind that any nation can boast of."—Hon. Wm. B. Calhoun.

"We rejoice that it bids fair to become the standard Dictionary to be used by the numerous millions of people who are to inhabit the United States."—Signed by 104 Members of Congress.

WEBSTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY,

UNABRIDGED,
PRICE ONLY SIX DOLLARS,

FOR SALE by R. & A. MILLER, 8 Saint Francois Xavier Street, and 19 Great Saint James Street.

TESTIMONIALS.

"It is undoubtedly the most complete Dictionary of the English language that has ever been published, and DEES WELL BLAME before any other Dictionary of that language will be required. It is in every respect, far superior to the folio editions of Johnson's Dictionary. The Introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—Etymology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—contains an immense amount of useful information, which must have cost the author a very great degree of labor and research. The pronunciation of Scriptural, Classical, and Geographical names, forms a most valuable appendage to the Dictionary, and cannot be too highly appreciated."—Thomas Dick, (Author of the Christian Philosopher, &c.)

Broughty Ferry, near Dundee, Sept. 12, 1849.

"In regard to pronunciation, we feel perfectly satisfied that this revised edition takes that subject on a truer ground than any other work of the kind. The system of pronouncing conforms to a pure and manly taste, adapted to the character of the language, and is far removed from all affectation and mere fashion. It is now, as we fully believe, in this revision, brought down to the true circumstances of the community in all respects. And we hope it will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the study, but to the parlor, the counting-room, and to the every day purposes of life."—Hon. Wm. B. Calhoun, Dec., 1847.

"We venture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combines so many advantages, with such economy of price, beauty of execution, compactness and uniformness, as this Quarto Edition of Webster."—N. Y. Observer.

"We rejoice that the public award is strongly gratifying our long-cherished conviction that Noah Webster was decidedly the best Lexicographer who has treated of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of our language."—N. Y. Tribune.

"There is no Dictionary but this of Webster's that can be adopted as a standard."—Boston Courier.

"In its admirable definitions, its accurate philology, its copiousness, good sense, and completeness, it is fast receiving the judgment of the learned world, that it has no equal."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"With materials so abundant, advantages so unusual, and upon a basis so valuable as the result of the labors of Webster, during the thirty years which he devoted to the subject, Professor Goodrich has compiled a perfect and most authoritative Dictionary of the English language as spoken and written in A. D. 1848."—Baltimore Patriot.

"Perhaps no work ever issued from the press more faultless in every particular."—Daily Ohio State Journal.

"Its cheapness is not the least remarkable thing about it, nearly 1,500 quarto pages for $6."—St. Louis Herald of Religious Liberty.

S. R. WARREN,

MANUFACTURER OF ORGANS & PIANO-FORTES,
Corner of St. Joseph and St. Henry Streets,
MONTREAL.

WOULD respectfully call public attention to the large and complete assortment of Rosewood and Mahogany PIANO-FORTES, which he is now offering for Sale at his WAREROOMS; they consist of the Harmonic, Grand Square and Cottage Style, six, six and-a-half, and seven Octaves, with Metallic Frames.

These Instruments being of his own manufacture, he has no hesitation in saying, that in brilliancy and volume of tone, durability of workmanship, and excellence of finish, they are inferior to none imported into this Province.

From greatly increased facilities for manufacturing he has been able to make that the above Instruments will be sold at a great reduction from former prices; and that all orders for Piano, Church, Parlour Reed Organs, Melodeons, and Harmoniums, of any size and capacity, will be executed with promptness, and warranted to give entire satisfaction. He has for sale a few Second-hand Melodeons, in Rosewood and Mahogany cases, from four octaves to five Octaves—to the inspection of which he would invite the Musical Community of Montreal.

S. R. W. begs to state that when he is short of work he employs no puffing, but relies on the quality and moderate price of his Instruments for a share of public patronage.
