CARBINES AND MAXIM GUNS

PURCHASED FOR RE-ARMING THE NORTHWEST MOUNTED POLICE.

The Carbines Are the Lee-Metford, Now Being Used By the British Cavalry—The Maxim Guns With a Capacity of 600 Shots Per Minute Will Be Placed At Regina and Calgary.

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—Hon. W. B. Ives, President of the Council, returned to-day from his visit to England in connection with the purchase of arms for the Northwest Mounted Police, which was first announced in this paper last July.

Mr. Ives states that he purchased two Maxim-Nordenfeldt guns and 200 Lee-Metford carbines. The latter is the carbine with which the British cavalry is being armed.

600 Shots a Minute.

The Maxim guns fire 600 bullets per minute and can be used either as field guns or on fortifications. They are light and one could be carried on the back of a horse anywhere the horse could go. Both the guns and the carbines use smokeless powder and the cartridges are the same size so that they can be used for either.

For Regina and Calgary.

One gun will probably be placed at Regina and the other at Calgary, but this is not definitely settled.

Mr. Ives also purchased a quantity of books for the library of the force, which is sustained from the fine fund reserved for that purpose.

Rumored Changes in the Cabinet.

The Associated Press learns that in political circles it is reported that an important change is to be made in the Ministry at a very early day. It is stated that the move has already been decided upon, although it may not take place for some time. The report is that Hon. J. J. Curran, Solicitor-General, is to be offered, and will likely accept a position on the bench, and that his place will be given to Hon. John F. Wood, Controller of Inland Revenue. Dr. Montague, M.P., it is said, will get the position of Controller of Inland Revenue. There are other changes contemplated, but these are the only ones decided upon as yet. It is expected that the entrance of Dr. Montague into the Government will strengthen the Government in Western Ontario.

The King of Corea has sent a special mission to Pekin with valuable presents to the Dowager Empress on the occasion of her birthday.

The stock consists of school and college text books and the standard authors in all styles and shapes of binding. There is also a large quantity of school supplies, which will be offered at remarkably low prices. Mr. Garland's intention is to clear out the stock at the earliest possible moment.

L'Orignal, Ont., Sept. 12.—The jury this evening brought in a verdict of manslaughter, after one hour's deliberation, against Joseph Lafleur for the murder of one Francis Bernard at Clarence Creek, on Saturday evening, March 10.

The two men and one Diotte were drinking in Bazinet's Hotel between 10 and 11 o'clock, when Lafleur tried to pick a quarrel with Bernard. Bazinet interfered and Lafleur left the hotel, going to his own house a short distance away. Shortly after the other two men left also and met Lafleur, when the quarrel was resumed. Diotte, who was between the prisoner and Bernard, was stabbed in the hand and Bernard in the heart.

CANADIAN-BRITISH TRADE.

Shows a Heavy Decrease During August, Principally in Wheat and Cheese.

This decline has amounted to 35 per cent., while that of the first eight months of the year is given out in the British Board of Trade returns as 31 per cent. These figures should be taken in comparison with those of 1893. Imports to Great Britain from Canada are also on the decrease. These figures show a decline of 13 per cent. for August, and of 8 per cent for the eight months.

The heaviest decreases in August were in wheat £80,000, and cheese £107,000.

Sullivan, anti-Parnellite M.P. for West Donegal, declared that the party would never consent to receive the money enabling their representatives to sit in Parliament from English politicians. The meeting adjourned without deciding to make a general declaration on the subject.

Upon arriving at Bjelowess he was carried from the railway station to his chateau." It is added that his Majesty's tall, robust frame is shrinking. He is mentally depressed. His usual serenity has left him, and he is taciturn with the members of his family.

COMTE DE PARIS' FUNERAL.

Members of Nearly Every Royal Family in Europe at the Bier of the Descendant of the French Kings.

London, Sept. 12.—Crowds of people, from daybreak this morning, commenced wending their way to Stowe House, the English residence of the late Compte de Paris.

The remains reposed in state in the handsome marble hall at the home of the exiled head of the royal house of Orleans and Bourbon, and a large number of people passed silently and uncovered before the bier fro mthe earliest morning hours until the signal was given to clear the hall and prepare for the removal of the body to the railway station.

The arrangements for the funeral were completed when, shortly after sunrise, a hearse drawn by six superb Flemish horses arrived from London and was slowly driven to the secluded portion of the grounds.

The early trains from London also brought to Datford hundreds of notable people, including official or unofficial representatives of nearly all the nations of the world, and gathered there, during the day, were princes and princesses representing nearly eaery reigning family in Europe.

FRANCE AND MADAGASCAR.

The Press Urges That the Island Be Permanently Occupied By France.

Paris, Sept. 12.—M. Paul de Cassagnac, writing to The Autorite, advocates the permanent occupation of Madagascar by France.

The Matin urges that the march of the French upon the capital of Madagascar be no longer delayed.

The Cocando says the mission of M. Le Myre de Villers to Madagascar contemplates an effectual French protectorate over that country with the establishment of French military stations wherever it shall seem necessary. It also means the installation of a French representative with power to deal exclusively with questions of foreign policy with the powers and other drastic measures.

American Objection.

London, Sept. 12.—A despatch to The Daily News from Paris says it is not the English but the Americans who oppose the subjugation of Madagascar by the French. The American trade in striped cloths in Madagascar is very extensive and the Americans hold that the patenotre treaty does not admit of a French protectorate over that country.

A NEW CANADIAN BOOK.

A Charming Novel Just Issued From a Canadian Press.

A book very much after the style of the "Pansy," "Elsie" and "Annie S. Swan" books, yet slightly more like some of the best works of fiction of the day, has just been published in a Canadian Edition.

This book is entitled "Hill Crest," and is by Mrs. Flewellyn, a native Canadian, and is now for sale by John P. McKenna, Bookseller, 80 Yonge-street. The charming descriptions, the quaint character sketches, the abundance of incident, combine to make this book one which is sure of a quick and increasing sale. Its moral tone is much above the average of the fiction of the day. For this reason it will suit the hammock and the fireside, as well as all public, private and Sunday school libraries.

FARMERS' DAY.

Agriculturist at the Fair—An Attraction For Visitors to the City.

Yesterday Toronto welcomed her agricultural friends to the Fair. They came in thousands to see the exhibits, the balloon, the fire-works and Dineens' hats and furs.

At the corner of King and Yonge-streets there is now in progress a fur and hat sale of unusual importance. It is not a bankrupt stock, but the prices at which the goods are being sold would bankrupt almost any other firm.

The capes, jackets, muffs, caps and other furs sold by W. & D. Dineen were manufactured this season, from the finest materials, and in the newest London and Paris styles. They are being sold much lower than winter prices.

No one can afford to miss the fur sale at Dineens'.

The latest English and American fall hats, silks, derbys and fedoras, in the designs of all the celebrated manufacturers, are now in Dineens' stock.

MINING ASSOCIATIONS TO FEDERATE

The Operation of Gold, Silver, Copper and Iron Mines By Government Advocated—An Interesting Discussion.

The subject of the nationalization of mines was under discussion at a meeting of the Ontario Mining Institute held last night at Parliament Buildings.

An interesting paper was read by Mr. J. Bowden of Kingston. Mr. Bowden advocated the operation of gold, silver, copper and iron mines by Government, the foundation of a department of mines and advisory board of mining engineers, each engineer being charged with the direction of a special class of mines.

The revenue from the operation of gold and silver mines, he suggested, should be applied for public purposes. The iron, copper, nickel, and lead mines he would have operated at a moderate profit, chiefly with a view to furnishing smelters with ores at such rates as would practically act as a bounty. That is to say under such a system the smelters would get their ores so cheap that manufacturing enterprises in metallurgical lines would be stimulated and encouraged.

In the discussion which followed, Prof. Coleman, Director of Mines Blue, President Conmee, Secretary Bell and others took part.

Mr. Blue pointed out that under such a scheme as advocated by the reader of the paper the Government would become the employer of several hundred thousand men, a condition of things which he thought would be opposed to the liberty of the people. He was of opinion that the only way governments could aid industries was by supplying information.

Mr. Bell was in favor of the Government leasing mines and exacting a royalty on the output.

On the motion of the secretary the paper was placed on the table for further discussion at the next meeting.

At the first quarterly meeting of the institute held in the afternoon, President Conmee, M.L.A., in the chair, the principal business was the submission of an invitation from the General Mining Association of Quebec and Nova Scotia, to unite with them in forming a federated Canadian mining institute. It was agreed to accept the invitation and a committee will be appointed at a later stage to consider the phases of the federation.

The treasurer's statement showed a balance of $40.60. A number of new members were elected.

DIED FROM A BROKEN SKULL.

A Suspicion That Patrick Cosgrove of Cornwall Was Murdered.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 12.—Patrick Cosgrove who was found in an unconscious condition on Tuesday, died at the police headquarters at 5 o'clock, without having regained consciousness.

Deceased was found Tuesday morning by a coal shoveler named James Smith in Flack's coal yard in Water-street east and removed to police headquarters, where it was found he was suffering from a fracture in the base of the skull. The doctors were unable to help him in any way.

Felled By a Blow.

Cosgrove was last seen about 12 o'clock Monday night in the eastern part of the town. He must have been induced to enter the coal shed and there felled by the blow that caused his death.

Deceased was an old quarry man, and prior to coming to Cornwall is said to have worked on the public works in Cardinal. Nothing but a clay pipe and a small key were found on his person. He had evidently recently fitted himself out, as his entire clothing was new and of good quality.

The Inquest Opened.

Coroner Hamilton summoned a jury, and the inquest was commenced in the Town Hall in the afternoon. After several witnesses were examined, the jury adjourned until Friday night in order to allow the doctors to bring in their report of the post-mortem examination.

The authorities at Toronto are being communicated with, and a provincial detective will likely be here shortly to take up the case. The local police have a slight clue, which will be worked on in the meantime.

CHEYBOYGAN MURDER MYSTERY.

The Dead Man Identified As a Resident of Goderich, Ont.

Saginaw, Sept. 12.—Col. Bowers, who keeps the intelligence office here in which Van Taylor says he met the man known as Gus, who was murdered by tramps near Cheyboygan last Saturday, states that August Gensemere, a sailor and woodsman in their seasons, is probably the unfortunate victim. He was in his place last Tuesday and wanted him to get a job for him. When told he hadn't one he replied, "I don't care; I've got some money and I guess I'll go up the North Shore," at the same time displaying his pocketbook with some cash in it. The colonel says that Gensemere has a wife and child living near Goderich, Ont., her father being a wealthy exporter of cattle, at one time in the hardware business, and had strongly opposed her marriage.

Peace in Samoa.

Auckland, Sept. 12.—Samoan advices to Sept. 6, received here to-day confirm the report that the British warship Buzzard threatened some time ago to bombard Aana, whereupon the rebel chiefs went on board the Curacao, acknowledged their submission to King Malieton and gave up 100 guns. The war is declared to be over for the present, but it is feared that there will be another outbreak in a few months.

Great Britain Must Not Grab Samoa.

London, Sept. 13.—A despatch to The Times from Berlin says that an article recently published in the Vienna Politische Correspondenz advocating a dual control by Great Britain and Germany over Samoa, has attracted great attention in Berlin. The despatch adds that the proposal is unfavorably received and it is firmly insisted that only a protectorate is possible. The Cologne Gazette says that Great Britain must learn that all attempts to tow away Samoa in her immense colonial bag will be completely hopeless.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

PRESIDENT MADILL AND THE ALLEGED C.P.A. TROUBLES.

He Denies That "Trouble is Increasing"—A Patron Candidate To Be Nominated in West York—McCarthy To Speak At Creemore—Many Patron Conventions Announced.

The Mail of yesterday contained this article:

The serious troubles and divisions which have for months been rending the C.P.A. reached an acute crisis on Thursday last, when a number of the presidents of the district or divisional councils from various parts of Ontario met in the hall on the corner of Yonge and Alice-streets, in this city, with Rev. J. C. Madill, Grand President, in the chair, for the express purpose of endeavoring to heal the divisions, overcome the difficulties the order is in, and prepare for the coming Dominion elections. The meeting was at times a most turbulent one, and some of the delegates from the rural districts, in the very strongest language, denounced as an untruth the claim of some of the officials that 27 members of the order had been elected to the Local House. No reply was given to a demand for the names of the alleged 27 members. Several of the presidents advised the dissolution o the order, or the calling of a special meeting of the Grand Council for the purpose of ending the difficulties. Others advised that the members should join the Patrons of Industry in a body, but all was clamor and talk. The authors of the election sheet called the "Eye Opener" were declared to have been traitors to the cause. From these matters the discussion drifted to finances, and veryserious charges and counter-charges were freely and forcibly made. It was alleged that the order had not been loyal to Mr. Meredith, and this caused a renewal of the acriminous debates. It was asserted by several o fthose present that the best class of members were leaving the organization in disgust and joining other Protestant societies. The question of what action should be taken during the Dominion elections gave rise to a stormy scene. A long wangle ensued, but at the finish no action had been taken, and the divisional presidents separated without having done any business. Since the meetings referred to the divisions have developed to a more alarming extent than ever, and some of the country divisional councils have been called to adopt steps for complete severance fro mthe organization and the formation of purely local independent political parties.

Grand President Madill wired the following despatch to The World last evening:

Sarnia, Ont., Sept. 12.—Article in Mail headed "Troubles Increasing," is untrue. We never had a more successful or more unanimous meeting than the one referred to. J. C. MADILL.

A Patron Candidate in West York.

The county officers and the delegates from the different lodges of the Patrons of Industry in West York met in the society's tent at the Exhibition grounds yesterday morning.

The meetin gto nominate a candidate will be held at Eagle's Hall, Weston.

CITY HALL AFFAIRS.

Sand in the Conduit—The Don High Level Bridge.

For some time past City Engineer Keating and his staff have been troubled by the appearance of sand in large quantities in the six-foot conduit, south of the Island shore, but at last the weak spot has been discovered and operations have been commenced in order to remedy the defect. About 1500 feet south of the Island shore a diver has located an open flange joint two inches wide, which bears indications that it has never been bolted. The sand has been pouring into a hole equivalent to a superficial area of over one square foot. Hundreds of tons of sand have been removed from the conduit in the course of the investigations. Contractor McNamee, under the supervision of Ex-Assistant Engineer McMinn, laid the six-foot conduit 14 years ago.

The High Level Bridge At the Don.

Ald. Allen's sub-committee of the Board of Works met yesterday morning to discuss the matter of damages in connection with the proposed high level bridge over the Don at Queen-street, but as sufficient aldermen did not put in an appearance to form a quorum no business was done. Another meeting of the committee will be called for Saturday morning. The City Engineer estimates the claims for damages at $40,000, but Ald. Lamb expressed the opinion yesterday that Mr. Keating's figures were far and away too small, seeing that the property is assessed at $100,000. Boards of arbitration, said he, had in the past not by any means let the city off easily, but on the other hand had awarded exorbitant amounts in claims for damages.

City Engineer Keating was back in his place yesterday morning, after his vacation up the St. Lawrence. The chief, who is very tanned, states that he spent a most enjoyable holiday. His report for the Board of Works Committee, which meets on Monday next, is now engaging his attention; It is expected that the report will contain several proposals for the commencement of certain public works and further deals with the tunnel under the bay.

North American Life Assurance Company

The North American Life Assurance Company has had a successful year's business and improved its position in several particulars in 1893.

There is an increase of no less than $203,000 in reserve from the business of 1892, a circumstance which has a direct bearing on the earning power of the company. The growth of the surplus by over $70,000 is a pleasingly suggestive fact for policyholders in this company.—Monetary Times. 246

MEN OF MOURNFUL VISAGE.

The Undertakers' Association Elect Officers and Transact Other Business.

The eleventh annual convention of the Undertakers' Association of Ontario was President Maillard.

The chief subject under discussion was yesterday morning called to order by the necessity of taking steps to place on a more satisfactory basis the issue of permits for the transportation of dead bodies on Canadian railways. As it is now it is an easy matter for an unscrupulous party to ship the body of a person dying from contagious disease, a proceeding that is fraught with great danger to the public. The railway companies are considering the matter and are desirous of making their rules meet with the approval of the Provincial Board of Health and of the undertakers. A committee was appointed by the association to take the matter up.

The secretary in his report denied that the Undertakers' Association was a combine and suggested the passing of a resolution calling upon Senator Reid to prove his statement when setting forth the necessity for the passage of his amendment to the anti-combine bill of the Hon. Mr. Wallace that the Undertakers' Association was one of the combines that measure was calculated to suppress.

TWO FATALITIES AT THE FAIR

A YOUNG WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY IN THE GRAND STAND.

By the Premature Explosion of a Mortar During the Fireworks Display Mrs. Jolly of Bathurst-Street is Struck With a Piece of Shell and Terribly Injured.

Miss Eva Reddick of Mono Mills, who was visiting in the city with P.C. Baird, 6 Delaney-crescent, visited the Exhibition last evening. While watching the performance from the grand stand at 8 o'clock she was suddenly taken ill and descended into the basement to get a drink of water. Becoming worse, Dr. Awde was summoned, but she died in a few minutes. Heart failure was given as the cause of death. The remains will be sent to Mono Mills for interment.

During the fireworks display, one of the mortars from which the rockets are thrown prematurely exploded and a large piece of the shell, weighing about eight pounds, struck Mrs. A. M. Jolly, 237 Bathurst-street, on both thighs, inflicting two deep gashes, besides internal injuries. The injured lady was immediately removed to the basement of the grand stand, when Drs. Awde and Hodgson dressed the wounds, being obliged to put in several stiches.

Mrs. Jolly was standing on the lawn in front of the grand stand surrounded by hundreds of people, and the wonder is that some one was not killed. Mrs. Jolly was removed to her home in the ambulance. The doctors were unable to determine the full extent of the injuries, but it is feared they will prove fatal.
