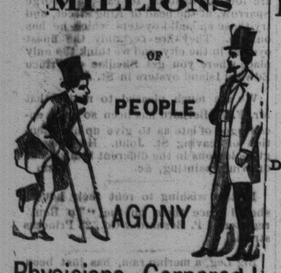
MILLIONS



OF PEOPLE AGONY

Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of a physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease,

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease; but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. Devins & Bolton,

Dear Sirs,—I, with pleasure, concede to the news, I wish that I gave my testimony to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the Rheumatism, but am now over taking two bottles, at the middle of entire free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

Yours, &c., JOHN HUBER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I tried your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anyone suffering as I was, to try this remedy, as I feel it is to them, what it has been to me.

Yours, JAMES O'BRIEN.

BARNES' HOTEL.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1873.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the past two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men of the Dominion, without any permanent benefit. I was induced to try your Diamond Rheumatic Cure, I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly, JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores general and local circulation, allays the pain, invigorates the composition, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!!

This medicine is for sale at all the drug stores through Canada. With assurance that your druggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it to

ASPIRATION.

BY EMILY PFEIFFER.

"As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings.....He made him ride on high places."—Deuteronomy xxx, 11-13.

I.

The callow eagle in its downy nest,
Betwixt the blue above and blue beneath,
Or wrapped in the swirling cloud or misty wreath,
Drops its weak wings and folds itself to rest:
But hardly is it settled ere its breast
Is pierced with anguish, which, in face of death,
Drives it to mount on the unquiet breath
Of viewless winds upon an unknown quest.
Then art a callow eagle, O my soul!
Forth driven from the home of thy content,
And made to stretch toward some distant goal
Of glory, on the upward journey sent,
By warm up of the spirit, ere the whole
Frame of thy trust from under thee be rent.

II.

Free Spirit striving in my human breast!
I see thine image when above her young
The parent eagle, hovering, has flung
Her shadow 'twixt the sunshine and her nest.
I see thee dark, but know thy gleaming crest
Burns in the daybreak, and I have no tongue
To speak a joy no heart hath fully sung.
The awful joy of thy divine unrest.
O mighty blades of shadow-spreading wings
Unfurl'd above me! Will ye bear me up
When I in mounting with yet'ward the springs
Of light, from lack of strength or faith shall drop?
Will ye not leave me till in loftier rings
Of flight t'ward God I need no earthlier prop?

—The Spectator.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

Two old ladies at Baltimore have sued the estate of Robert Tuttle, who, they allege, died owing them board for twenty-seven years, for which they trusted him on the promise that he would make it all right with them in his will.

George Bancroft's threat to write a "History of the Great Rebellion," in two thousand volumes, as a supplement to his "History of the United States," has concentrated public interest upon a paragraph stating that old paper dealers are only paying two and a half cents per pound.

Woman does a great deal to discourage lofty sentiments of patriotism. When a leaning over the back fence telling a neighbor how he would shed his last drop of blood for suffering Louisiana, it disturbs him to have his wife yell from the kitchen: "Look a here! are you coming with that bucket of water, or shall I come out and see to you?"

The repeal of the Georgia lien law has made it difficult for planters to obtain the advances to which they have been accustomed, and the Monroe Advertiser says that many are in such straits that unless relief is found they will be forced to abandon their farms. It is added by way of explanation that "collections have not been very good with this law in force and it is feared that without it losses would be much more frequent."

When we consider the prevalence of the custom to dub everybody who went to the wars with the title of Captain, Colonel, General, &c., there is a peculiar appropriateness in the following resolution, which was introduced at a meeting of Confederate soldiers at Atlanta, Ga., the other day. Resolved, that the President appoint a committee of one to inquire into the matter of whether there were any surviving privates of the late war.

In the last Harper's Weekly Nast has a picture showing John Young Brown, of Kentucky, as a furious panther, striking viciously with upraised paw at Ben Butler, who stands unterrified, while Fernando Wood and Sunset Cox are holding back the ugly beast by the tail. One cheek hides behind his chair, and of another only the heels are visible as he dives for safety under the desk. Mr. Blaine raps furiously meanwhile with his gavel, and vociferates, "Gentlemen, you must not let your wild animals loose till the next session." Another picture represents a rough looking old fellow with a whiskey bottle and a copy of the civil rights bill before him, and an agonized expression of countenance, giving vent to his despair in the words, "Now I must marry my daughter to a nigger!"

GENERAL.

A small boy says he has felt slippers, and does not like the feeling. For his mother's wear he recommends a lighter material.

Two cans of nitro glycerine were by mistake stored in the basement of the Patent Office building just under a couple of hundred clerks who were praying for promotion. Providence sometimes answers prayers in an unexpected manner.

That cooper was most unfortunate, though indefatigably industrious. He laboured on for a whole summer in the repairing of impossible casks and barrels, with a comparatively clear conscience, but when old Dobbs fetched along a hung-hole and requested him to put a puncheon to it, that cooper stepped down and out.

Major General Montague, C. B., who is about leaving Halifax, was on Monday presented with an address by the City Council, and a handsome silver cup by the citizens. The presentation was made in recognition of the many services rendered by Gen. Montague in connection with the new Point Pleasant Park. Judging from the address and the speech of Sir Wm. Young, it was a well merited compliment.

A fashionable author took a novel to the Paris Francais for publication, and was cordially received. Calling again, his manuscript was coldly returned to him. The editor told him to look at page 87, which he did, and found the following: "Here he was seized with an irresistible tendency to slumber. Was it surprising? He had perused two columns of the Francais."

A party of men animatedly engaged in discussing politics before a country store attracted the attention of an aged agriculturist. "There's somethin' the matter here," he observed to his wife; and, drawing in his team, he lightly shouted to a consumptive individual on the outskirts, "What's about?" "Twelve inches," was the sardonic reply. The aged agriculturist swore some and drove on.

The Roman correspondent of the London News says: "The Pope is in a vigorous state of health. To-day (Feb. 4) he blessed the Lenten preachers of Rome. He then revisited, for the first time in four years and a half, the Vatican Basilica, with the prelates and cardinals, and prayed there. He approved the mosaic monument commemorating the Pontifical Jubilee and other works. He reascended the long stairs unsupported.

Election Cards.

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN.—Having been nominated by a committee appointed at a public meeting held in Carleton on Tuesday evening, 23rd instant., to select a person to represent them in the Local Legislature, in the place of the late Joseph Coram, Esq., that meeting having been called in the interests of the Western section of the County, they feeling that they were entitled to one representative out of the six.

In compliance with their wish I shall be a candidate at the coming election to represent you in the General Assembly, and if elected I will discharge the duties in connection with the office to the best of my ability and in the general interests of the County.

I am in full accord with the sentiment of the Country on the School question.

J. ALFRED CLARK.

Carleton, N. B., Feb. 24, 1875. feb27 tf

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN.—By request I have consented to be put in nomination for the seat in the House of Assembly, made vacant by the death of the late Joseph Coram, Esq.

In soliciting your suffrages I am not unmindful of the important issue which has so recently been decided at the polls, and being in full accord with you on this great question of FREE SCHOOLS, I feel assured that you will not fail to recognize my willingness to continue this boon to the people of this Province.

In measures affecting the interests of the people I shall ever be a determined and persistent advocate, neglecting nothing that may be for the general good. In the interests of this County I shall seek the accomplishment of your wants.

Soliciting your support,

I am, gentlemen,

Yours respectfully,

feb22 ASAPH G. BLAKSLEE.

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN,—I am induced by an influential expression of opinion in my favor, and by the personal request of not a few of your number, to offer myself as a candidate to fill the vacancy in the General Assembly, caused by the death of your late lamented representative, Joseph Coram, Esquire.

My views on most public questions, and more particularly, on that which the last Provincial Elections turned, have so frequently been placed before you and so often approved by the action of a majority of the constituencies of this Province, that I deem it unnecessary to trouble you with them, at length.

On the subject of our School Act, I am in favor of maintaining it in its integrity, subject only to such improvements in its operation as time and experience may suggest; I am also in favor of maintaining the same with the utmost moderation and the greatest economy; and I am opposed to all interference with the Act and with our New Brunswick Constitution by the Parliament and Government of Canada, and also by outside powers and influences whatever.

While Confederation has limited the sphere of the Provincial Legislature, there yet remains important work to be done by them, and should I be chosen as your representative in the General Assembly of this Province, it will be my endeavor to promote such legislation as, in my judgment, shall best tend to advance the interests of the Province in general and this constituency in particular. I shall, in that case, deem it alike a pleasure and a duty to make every section of the County feel that its special interests are fully considered and represented by me, without reference to geographical divisions or distinctions.

Reserving a more detailed statement of my views until I shall have had an opportunity of addressing you from the hustings or otherwise and soliciting your votes and influence, so that this important constituency may give no uncertain sound on the chief issues of the late General Election.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM ELDER.
