DONOVAN HURLS WELL

Fisher Has Jungle Band Paralyzed—Cleveland and Washington Win Out.

Detroit, July 23.—The Highlanders left town tonight. With them went four victories, today's game going to them by a score of 7 to 4.

Wild Bill Donovan and Ray Fisher locked up for the final encounter. Bill held them to four hits up to the ninth inning, when he blew, and four runs came over on as many hits and an error. In the eighth the Tigers got two runs, which made the score 4 to 3, Detroit up, but the lead was of short duration, and after the New Yorkers had passed them again the Tigers were unable to get a man on the initial sack. Errors on both sides figured in the run-making. Score:

Cleveland, July 23.—Donovan's redlegs made the pesky Naps fight to eleven innings to win today's game, the score being 3 to 2 in favor of the Stovall tribe. That makes three out of five the Naps have taken from the Speed Boys.

Thirteen thousand fans turned out to see the scrap. Wood, Boston's best bet, occupied the mound. He had the Cleveland bunch turning handsprings up to the latter part of the game. He made a magnificent fight, but helped through with a wild throw and a wild pitch. Gregg was wild, and the Speed Boys got only three hits off him in eight innings. He was replaced by Mitchell, Lajoie batting for him. The score:

LILLIAN GRAHAM GONE; KIDNAPPED?

Leaves House at Midnight To Buy Sugar and Disappears.

New York, July 23. — The police today sent out the customary "general alarm" for a missing person when Mrs. John Singleton complained that her sister, Lillian Graham, who is under indictment charged with shooting W. E. D. Stokes, had disappeared. Ethel Conrad, who also is charged with shooting Stokes, when he appeared at their apartment to recover letters he had written Miss Graham, believes that Lillian has been kidnapped. Both girls are out on $10,000 bail pending trial set for next fall.

Miss Graham has not been heard from since she went out to buy some sugar last midnight.

SMITH AND TUXFORD SAVE THE ASYLUM

London Cricketers Defeated by the Asylum Staff On Saturday.

A GREAT GAME PLAYED

Club Men Ran Up Count of 25, and Looked For Victory—Two Men Overcame Lead.

The London Cricket Club, played the Asylum C. C. on the Asylum grounds on Saturday, the Asylum winning by a score of 181 to 95.

The London club went to bat first, and before the last man was retired had placed 95 runs to their count. Smyth and Evans went in first for the Asylum, to endeavor to lower the lead, but by a magnificent catch in the slips by Brewe, Evans was retired for three. Mr. Farish then took his place, but the first ball from Holbrooke took his wicket. Mr. Haight followed at bat with a desperate resolution, but Holbrooke's deadly bowling sent him to the pavilion, the first ball, Holbrooke thereby accomplishing the hat trick. At this stage it looked like certain defeat for the Asylum, but Smyth and Tuxford came to the rescue, Smyth batting beautifully for 124, not out, while Tuxford got 44 before the game was declared.

BALTIMORE WANTS BOSTON NATIONALS

But Without Boston, National League Loses Identity, Says Barney

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—While here looking after the purchase of Pitcher O'Toole, Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburg club, received the following telegram from James H. Preston, mayor of Baltimore:

"Will you consent, as one of the eight club owners of the National League, to the transfer of the Boston franchise to this city?"

Dreyfuss said he would not consent to the removal of the Boston franchise, as the National League owed a great deal to that city, it being the cradle of the organization. Without a Boston club, he said, the National League would lose its identity.

No Change, Says Herrmann.

Cincinnati, O., July 23.—August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati National League club, announced tonight that he agreed with Barney Dreyfuss in the latter's opposition to any change in the circuit of the National League.

NEWARK 8, MONTREAL 3

Montreal, July 23. — Although they got twelve hits, including homers by Hanford and Demmitt, to the Indians' eleven, Montreal lost to Newark today by 8 to 3. Holmes pitched the whole game for the visitors, and, aided by good fielding, let the Royals down with three runs from their dozen binples. Barberich was all to the bad again, and was hit hard. He was replaced in the fifth by Parsons, the new pitcher, who was only a slight improvement. Score:

LLOYD GEORGE NOT WARNING GERMANY

Kaiser's Officials Say the Speech Was Misrepresented.

Berlin, July 22.—The speech of David Lloyd George, the British chancellor, could not possibly have been aimed at Germany, according to the reassuring views voiced by the officials of the German foreign office, who were unwilling today to believe that the minister referred in any way to the Moroccan situation. These officials stated that the negotiations with France were proceeding normally, with a prospect of success, and that there was no reason for Great Brittain, which since the beginning of the negotiations has stood aside, to abandon a waiting attitude and strike a belligerent tone.

Some preliminary intimations through diplomatic channels were to have been expected if the speech, as the English papers assert, was intended as a warning to Germany. None such was received.

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE TO GEO. W. TORRANCE

Toronto Steamship Agent Who Passed Away Well Known in London.

Toronto World: George W. Torrance is dead. Peace to his soul. A more level-headed man, a more steadfast man, a more genuine man, has probably never lived. Had he had less of these qualities more riches might have been his, but he enjoyed more than riches, he enjoyed the confidence of his fellow-man. Perhaps no personality could be more missed among those that knew him than will that of George W. Torrance. He possessed all the qualities that win and hold respect and esteem. While he never neglected business for sport, from his boyhood days to the last, all that goes to make a perfect man, an honorable man, never had a warmer admirer, nor a more sincere friend than George W. Torrance. Therein laid the depth of his character and the warmth and truth of his attachments.

Originally a resident of Montreal away back in the late sixties and early seventies of the nineteenth century he was not only an ardent devotee of lacrosse, a member of the Montrealers in their best amateur days, but an able player. Many a time and oft he and I talked over old times, and he had promised to let me have certain photographs and medals, along with a sketch of his career. When the time for delivery came he always baulked because he had no desire for personal publicity. And now he has gone to that bourne whence no traveller returns, and the promised interview will never take place. Some 35 years ago he came to Toronto to reside to look after the interests of his father's firm, Cramp, Torrance & Co., which was prominently connected with the business life of this city. Grocers, wine merchants and shippers they were then. When they withdrew their branch from Toronto, the deceased went into the steamship business, with which his father had been prominently identified, and he continued the largest forwarding agent in Toronto to the end, esteemed and honored by everyone with whom he had dealings.

His love for the horse, and at one time a gentleman rider, a follower of the hounds, and an owner, Mr. Torrance became identified with the Ontario Jockey Club at its formation, and was persuaded by the late T. C. Patteson to allow himself to become a member of the executive. It was not long before his fellow-members discovered his worth, his ripe judgment, his ready and well-balanced grasp of every situation as it arose, and after serving for well-nigh thirty years as one of the executive of three—latterly four—outside the chairman, he succeeded the late Dr. Andrew Smith in the last mentioned capacity. In no man had the late William Hendrie greater confidence than in Geo. W. Torrance. Mr. Patterson held him in similar esteem; so, too, in fact did all his associates on the board, and everybody with whom he came in contact. His loss to the O. J. C. will be a serious one, for innumerable were the suggestions made by him that were adopted, while no man could have been more indefatigably zealous in the interests of the welfare of the club. For years he had a great deal to do with the handicapping, but as time went on he found the following of the form of horses took more time than he could spare, and he let that branch of the game pass into other hands. But he was tireless in his devotion and died in harness. He was the embodiment of integrity and honor. Again peace to his ashes and blessed eternal rest to his soul.

POP.

Mr. Torrance was a frequent visitor to London, and was well known to very many people here.

STRANGE EYE DISEASE.

South Norwalk, Conn., July 22. — A puzzling eye disease, which is widespread in Connecticut towns this summer, is said by physicians to be caused by the use of oil on the streets. The eyelids of those affected turn a yellowish color and the lashes fall out. Trolley motormen are the most frequent sufferers in this city. More than 100,000 gallons of oil have been placed upon the streets here this summer.

MONARCH PLANNING CEREMONY IN INDIA

Durbar Next Great Event to Which George and Mary Look Foreward.

London, July 24.—The next great event for which King George and Queen Mary are preparing is, of course the Indian durbar, and this week much of the equipment has been dispatched, including the travelling and reception tents, which have been made after the model of, but more extensive than, those made for the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia during their African tour.

The King has given further commissions to certain jewelry firms for articles of various descriptions, with the royal monogram, to serve as presents while in India.

Delhi-ke-Bashab is the title with which the king-emperor will be hailed at the durbar. No official programme is ready, but the work of preparation is well advanced, and it is well known what it will be like. It involves almost the reconstruction of the city, roads, railways and sanitation all being extensively improved.

King to Crown Self.

King George will be the first of the English to be crowned Delhi-ke-Bashab. He himself will perform the act of crowning, as no religious ceremony is possible in a land full of so many jarring creeds as is India.

For King George and Queen Mary special crowns are being made at the crown jewelers. They will be of a characteristic Indian type and will be assumed by them with their own hands at the durbar on Dec. 12.

The King and Queen will be in Delhi from Dec. 7 to Dec. 16. The King then leaves for a shooting expedition at Nepaul, when he will be the guest in a shooting camp of the maharajah, the Queen remaining at Agra.

Among the ceremonies fixed is a state entry into Delhi, presentation of the inevitable addresses and the reception of several thousand Indians in a pavilion on the historic ridge, where the British camp was during the mutiny days.

Chiefs to Meet George.

Two days are set apart for visits from the ruling chiefs, the King being anxious to come into personal touch with them, and for these two days he will do nothing but converse with the rulers of native India.

This is looked upon as a stroke of very wise policy, due entirely to the King's comprehension of the Indian problem, in which he is known to have taken a deep interest, and it is considered that it will make permanent the good effects of his visit to India.

The King will not return the visits, in that respect his place being taken by Lord Hardinge, who, when the King steps ashore at Bombay, ceases to be viceroy and becomes simply the governor-general.

The durbar will be witnessed by at least 50,000 persons. The scene is expected to be overwhelmingly splendid even to the Indian mind, which expects a great deal. There is to be on another day a review of 80,000 troops. Calcutta children will sing the National Anthem in that city in four languages—English, Gujerati, Marathi and Urdu.

TITLED AMERICAN SELLS HER ROSES

Lady Leigh Grows Flowers to Recuperate Losses on Market.

London, July 23.—Lady Leigh's activities have recently broken fresh ground. As the daughter of the Hon. M. Beckwith, of New York, she has for some years occupied a prominent place among the American women who have married into the English peerage.

Content for some time with being a leader among society women with a taste for shooting and hunting, she has gone in now for fruit and flower culture, not as a fanciful hobby, but as a means of replenishing her bank balance, which is said to have suffered somewhat from speculation in rubber and automobile stock.

Always an enthusiastic gardener, her rose trees have for quite a long time been a feature of her home in Warwickshire, but no one up to a week or two ago surmised that they would be turned to commercial use. After the needs of her own household are supplied, the surplus roses are now dispatched to Covent Garden market in London, where they are admired as being the most beautiful varieties of their kind.

The same applies to the surplus fruit, which used formerly to find its way to hospitals and convalescent homes, for the use of the inmates. The salesman in London who received Lady Leigh's consignments find her a keen bargainer in commerce and declare that if she cared to go in for market gardening and throw over society cares she would make a substantial fortune.
